Dear Bro. Chalk,

Just a note to say that I enjoyed your lesson last Sunday at Sixth at IZARD St. Church of Christ; Also the TV program.

You have great ability and talent for preaching and teaching God's word. It so good to know that people like you have devoted and are devoting their time and energy toward fulfilling the 'Great Commission'.

I feel that you are an asset where ever you go and work - - and since we are in need of a replacement for Bro. Lyles here in Little Rock wish that you could and would be that replacement.

Surely we all love Bro. Lyles very much! And just as surely as we love him we would come to know, love and appreciate you more and more as the days come and go. There is a great work here at the Downtown church that I personally feel you could and would fit into so well.

My prayers are with you and for you and the CAUSE you represent where ever you may decide to locate.

In Christian love,

Wilburn T. Kincannon
