Dear Brother Chalk:

We are writing this letter seeking any information that you might be able to offer as far as encouragement and/or discouragement is concerned.

The Eldership of this congregation is presently reviewing the work and commitments of this congregation. They are considering the possibility of hiring a full time personal worker. Since none of the congregations in this area have full time personal workers, we have no one to turn to for advice.

I would appreciate any information that you might be able to lend on this matter, with direct personal experience or indirect experience.

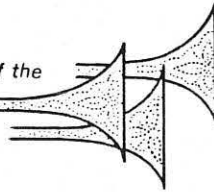

With best personal regards,

Roger D. Kepple

Dear brother Kepple:

I appreciated receiving your letter regarding information about personal workers. I have no recommendations to give but I would suggest that you write these two men:

Wyatt Sawyer
Wynnewood Hills Church of Christ
5415 South Polk Street
Dallas, Texas 75232

Bill Young
Broadway Church of Christ
1924 Broadway
Lubbock, Texas
79401

Either of these men could be of great help to you, I am certain.

Sincerely,

John Allen Chalk
