Dear Folks:

Sue and I were thrilled to be with a few week-ends ago in our retreat. We both talked at length on the way home about how much the week-end had meant to us and how refreshing it had been to both of us. Usually, efforts like that extract a great deal of strength, and one is tired by the time it is all over. This was not the case, in any sense, for Sue and I on this trip. It was truly a spiritual recreation for us.

The opportunity for Sue to get to visit with her mother and sister was also an added highlight. Since we had not been home for Christmas, they were especially pleased that we could add this to the main reason for our coming.

I know that my prayer is for God to continue to guide both of you, and provide the direction and the strength to live out, in all of the situations of your life, the Lordship of Jesus over your lives. We are thrilled by the kind of Christian witness you provide every day to those who come into contact with your God-possessed lives.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

DEAREST JOHN ALLEN & SUE:

P 1-19-69

The LORD has blessed me so much lately
that I get afraid that it's just all a dream and that I'm going to wake up one of these days. Among those blessings is getting to know and appreciate you more. The trip to Dallas was highlight of my "spiritual" life — and then to follow that up with our Paris landing was just the sweetest.

John Allen, you're a great spirit — and I'm proud to claim you as my "soul brother".
Please continue to pray for us. I'm trying so hard to put my life in the hands of the LORD and I solicit your prayers in that effort.

Johnny Oldham sent his regards. Al Jaynes went Bowling Green with me for a real "Barn-burner".
Western won 86-85 in overtime.

We continue to pray for you both and appreciate what you're doing in the LORD's service. We're looking forward to seeing more of you when you get to Atlanta.

Many thanks again for giving so much of yourself
and your time for the Paris Landing retreat.
God Bless You —
Bob Marx
