Dear J.A.C.:

I'm going to start addressing all my letters to you "JAC" until you break the habit of putting "JAC" at the end of your letters to me. If you don't have time enough to sign "John" to your letters then maybe you ought to reconsider whether to write me the letter or not. If that doesn't dig you hard enough then we can talk about the monogrammed shirts for a while. By the way, Barb wants to know if you're interested in 50% stock of the Old Spice after shave company.

Your note regarding the editorial in 20th Century Christian was on the one proof reading error in the editorial. Unfortunately, I'm not able to read the galleys of the editorial since they are set and proof read in Nashville. You will experience the same sort of frustration, yet I must say the issues by and large are not badly done from this aspect. By the way, I just want to know if you really did give away the monogrammed shirt?

Sincerely,

Prentice A. Meador, Jr.
Minister
