Dear Doug:

It was a real thrill being with you during the recent seminar in Sacramento. I was overjoyed to learn of the wonderful results God gave you and your fellow workers in that special effort.

I had the privilege of visiting at length with Russ Kilpatrick last week. Russ is a concerned young man who will probably make a great contribution to the arts in our time. He is also deeply indebted to you for the sensitive treatment you provided him on the question of glossalalia. Thank you so much for taking the time to write Russ. He profited so much from the material you gave him.

I hope the future holds many opportunities for our association.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
