Pulaski, Tennessee

Dear brother Rost:

Your name brought to my mind several poignant and beautiful memories of a former meeting I held for the East Hill congregation. Thank you so much for replying to my letter of request. I thank you also for kindly releasing me from my commitment to you. I hope that this does not place the East Hill church under any undue burden but that you will be able to get some one to hold your meeting and that it will be the best ever to be conducted there.

I can understand the problems that arise of this nature. It may be that our letter got lost in the mail, but I want you to know how much I appreciate the decision of the elders there and how much I appreciate the kind spirit that motivated your letter.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Brother Chalk:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 14th in which you called attention to your letter of a few months earlier requesting release from your preaching in our meeting of August 3-9 this year.

We of course release you. We have no record of receiving your first letter which accounts for our not having answered your letter.

We wish you well in your new work. It being a most responsible work with a new generation and so important in its effect on the future church in keeping it the Lords not influenced by overly much learning, sophistry, writers of philosophy and theology, but keeping it in the new Testament simplicity, very relevant today and tomorrow and the one source telling man where and how to go.

Sorry we were not able to answer your first letter but now you understand what may have seemed to be a lack of courtesy.
