Dear Folks:

I was thrilled to get the news of your next Columbia for Christ meeting. I regret that I will just have moved to Atlanta, Georgia and will not be able to attend the meeting. It sounds like you have some great things going for you. God certainly blessing your efforts.

Be assured of my own personal interest and prayers, not only for this meeting in August but for your arrival at your final destination and for an effective work in making Christ real to Columbians.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
