HERALD OF TRUTH

Radio and Television Programs

January 16, 1969

Dr. D. Elton Trueblood
Yokefellow Associates
230 College Avenue
Richmond, Indiana

Dear Dr. Trueblood:

Your kind letter arrived on the same day that Bili Goodwin called me from Whippany, New Jersey. Bill had just talked with you and he still glowed from the spiritual stimulation of the conversation.

Thank you for your generous remarks about the Herald of Truth radio sermons. We presently have a series on home and family life that is breaking all response records. Your prayers on behalf of these lessons will be appreciated.

Count on Bill Goodwin and myself for your March 21 and 22 Seminar. We will be in Richmond for the Yokefellow Program that week-end.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Friend:

Your letter and its valuable enclosure are here. I do thank you. Your radio addresses are really fresh and incisive. At this minute one of our Earlham College students is reading them avidly.

The trouble with the Joe Fletcher boys is not that they are intellectuals, but the contrary. They are really fuzzy and you show them to be such. Since you clearly have a good mind, you are right to go on with study. Why don't you elect to study here? Jerry Mapp, of your fellowship, is here with great profit to him and to us. Keith Miller is our first graduate.

We enclose a package of Yokefellow materials. Watch for A Place to Stand, published soon by Harper and Row.

Faithfully,

D. Elton Trueblood
