Dear Brother Chalk:

It was good to be able to talk to you last night. It is a thrill to us to have a tentative date, Saturday Jan 11, 1969, for an informal meeting of black and white Christians at church building of the Brethren at Spriggdale street. We look forward to having you and your family as guests in our home.

Following are suggestions as to some of our needs, as we try to become effective servants:

1. Please help us understand the ramifications of our individual unity with Christ: unconditional surrender, sanctification.

2. How can black and white brethren be most effective in releasing God's Power to save souls?

in the black community.
in multiracial impoverished areas.
in the Latin American community.

3. How much and what kind of social action should we pursue toward improvement of the underprivileged?

Such as:
Jobs Housing Health Education
other?

4. What should black and white brethren do to improve race relations?

in the church.
in the community.

We will be richly blessed in having you with us. your willingness to help us is deeply appreciated.

yours in Him,
Charles R. Watson
