Dear Mrs. West,

I received your letter yesterday and was very glad to hear from you as always your letters help a lot to cheer me up. Thanks a lot for the booklets you sent and I have already gave them to Carly and I'm sure he will get a lot of good out of them.

Yes Mrs. West quite a few of my family have obeyed the Fast including myself but as it is already known I think I'll

the path of Godliness into the woods of sins but I am striving to find that path again and I know I have Gods help in doing so. As for the books I sent you
I wish that after you have finished with them
and all the young people of your church have read them, you would send them to my son whose adress you will find includid. He is a very smart child and I hope
he will grow up to be a worker for Christ
I only regret that I dont

be able to guide him
into the proper channels for I feel that with his bright mind and strong spirit he would be a
great asset to the work of God but he is so much like me that
if he isn't properly
guided he will wander
of just as I did, I
feel that with the
help of my books
when he is of age to
understand them he
will be shown the true
way of life and will follow in the way that God has set forth for

all men to go, I guess
it is because of him
that I have so much interest in the lives
of all young people
and I truly hope that I may leave behind me
something to help guide
all of them into the right paths of Godness, Yes Mrs West I look
for my trial to come up some time this month but I am not
warrid because I truly
believe that I am prepared for my life here
after and when God
is standing by any

one's side, who on
earth can harm him?
Well I will close for this time and I hope
to hear from you soon
as I look forward to your letters very much
and so until I write
again May God be with you all.

Yours Truly
Alonzo, C. Jones.
