SPRING SEMESTER SCHEDULE

Dean Rudstein will hold meetings at the following times on Tuesday, October 16th to discuss the tentative schedule for the spring 1985 semester and to counsel students on their course selections for that semester:

Day Division Students	12:15 p.m., in room 642;
Evening Division Students	5:15 p.m., in room 101.

CAREER PLANNING AND PLACEMENT NEWS

A recruiter from the FBI will speak to all students interested in career opportunities with his office, on Tuesday, October 23, 1984, from 1 - 2 p.m., in room 325. All are welcome; first, second and third year.

SUMMER 1985 FELLOWSHIP

The Americans United for Life Legal Defense Fund is now accepting applications for its summer 1985 fellowships. Students committed to the ideal of guaranteeing through the law the civil right to life of all human beings should apply by January 15, 1985. Detailed information is available in the Career Planning and Placement Office. See handout item #14.

Fall Recruiting Program

Firms have begun to send in lists of students they have selected to interview this fall. These lists will be posted on the bulletin boards on the third floor, just outside the Career Planning and Placement Office, and on the second floor, just outside the cafeteria. If your name appears on one of these lists, come to the Career Planning and Placement Office immediately and sign up for an appointment time.

Any additions or changes to the fall schedule will be posted on the Fall Interview Bulletin Boards (locations described above). Check these bulletin boards every day.

LEGAL WRITING I - ALL SECTIONS

This week, there will be special classes, conducted by Professor Brill, dealing with the elements of good legal writing. The schedule for these classes is:

NATIONAL DIRECT STUDENT LOAN

ALL students whose NDSL was adjusted based on scholarship award MUST come to room 302 between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m., Tuesday October 16, and retrieve their previous promissory note and sign a new promissory note.

SCHOLARSHIPS

A limited amount of law school scholarship money remains available. Students who have established financial need under the federal guidelines by the 1st of November will be automatically considered for scholarship assistance. NO STUDENT WHO ESTABLISHES NEED AFTER THAT DATE CAN BE CONSIDERED. If you believe that you qualify for need-based assistance, you must fill out the IIT Financial Aid Application and the FAF YESTERDAY and get it to IIT Financial Aid.

LEGAL SERVICES CENTER - SPRING REGISTRATION

Applications for spring, 1985 registration for Legal Services Center, Civil Division, Criminal Division, and Advanced Externship, are available on the second floor and in room 601.

All students including continuing LSC students who wish to take LSC in the spring must submit a completed application to the receptionist, room 601, or Phyllis Powell, room 604, no later than 5 p.m., Wednesday, October 24, 1984.

The list of students given a place for spring will be posted by 5 p.m., Wednesday, October 31, in room 601 and on the second floor bulletin board. Specific information about the selection and verification process is available with the application.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

An IBM representative will be available on Wednesday, October 17 until 6 p.m. An IBM PC will be on display and the representative hopes to have the IBM-Jr. on display, also.

LEGAL SERVICES CENTER & FORENSIC SCIENCE VISIT TO MEDICAL EXAMINER'S OFFICE

The Medical Examiner's Office has approved tours of its facilities located at 2121 West Harrison Street in Chicago. The tours consist of detailed observation and explanation of the toxicology lab, as well as observation of actual autopsies.

Tours are available to Legal Services Center criminal and civil division students and students enrolled in Professor Kling's Forensic Science class. Tours are limited to a maximum of twelve people per tour. Each tour will last from approximately 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The tour schedule is as follows:
