FROM DEAN CHAPMAN

Code of Conduct Amendments

Several students have asked about the procedures for amending the Code of Conduct and the opportunity for student input. The amendments published in last week's Record appeared in an item on the first page of the November 9, 1992 Record which read as follows:

Part A. Proposed Changes to the Code of Conduct

These are proposed amendments to the Code of Conduct which have been preliminarily approved by the faculty. Section 10-5(b) of the Code of Conduct provides that proposed amendments to the Code must be distributed to the students prior to final action by the faculty. This Record notice constitutes such distribution. If you have objections to any of the proposals, communicate them to Kwame Raoul, the SBA president or your SBA representative. The faculty will consider the student comments and take final action on the proposals at the December 8, 1992 faculty meeting. If you have any questions about the proposals, you may direct them to Prof. Dale Nance, the Chair of the Faculty Curriculum Committee, or to me.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

Business Organizations and Corporations

Students may not receive credit for both Corporations and Business Organizations.

Immunization Records

State law requires the university to have a record of immunizations for each student. The university is going to cancel the registration of any student who has not submitted the appropriate records. The names of students who have not submitted the records are listed on the second floor bulletin board. If your name is on that list, please read the January 12, 1993 memo from Jim Novak to Jerry Brandes posted on the bulletin board next to the list of names.

Program Changes

You may add an open course to your schedule until Monday, February 1, 1993. Students on waiting lists who have been accepted into previously closed courses are listed on the bulletin board; you may add the course until Thursday, January 21, 1993. If you have not added the course by that date, the next student(s) on the waiting list will be given the opportunity to add the course. Students will have two days to add a course after they have been notified they are eligible to add the course. Students will be notified by email and by a notice posted on the second floor bulletin board.

You may drop a course, other than a required course or clinical course, until the final exam or paper due date. If you drop a course and reduce your credit hours for the semester, you will be charged tuition according to the following schedule:

Date of Withdrawal	Tuition Charge
during first week of the semester	no charge
second week	50% of tuition
third week	75% of tuition
after the third week	100% of tuition

To receive tuition credit, you must officially drop a course by submitting a signed Registration Change Form to the Registrar's office. Your schedule must comply with the minimum and maximum hour requirements in the academic regulations. Day students must take between 12 and 16 hours and Evening students must take between 8 and 11 hours. A petition to waive these requirements must be approved by Dean Chapman.

Student Insurance

All students registered for at least 12 credit hours are automatically enrolled in the IIT student insurance plan regardless of whether they are in the Day or Evening Division. The cost of the basic student insurance plan is $80 per semester and is included on your tuition bill.

Waiver of Student Insurance Coverage

If you are covered under another health plan and you want to waive the student insurance, a completed waiver form with the appropriate documentation must be received by the insurance company by February 15, 1993. Waiver forms are available in the Registrar's office. If your waiver is not received by the insurer by this deadline, the university is automatically billed for your coverage and will not refund the premium. At the bottom of the waiver form, the insurance company indicates it will acknowledge receipt of a valid waiver form and lists a phone number to call if you do not receive an acknowledgement within two weeks. If you submit a waiver, please make sure you obtain an acknowledgment from the insurer.

If you submitted a timely waiver form for the Fall semester, you do not have to submit another form for the Spring semester.

Spring 1993 Graduates

Please examine the Spring 1993 graduation list posted on the second floor bulletin board and make sure your name appears exactly as you want it printed on your diploma. If there are any errors or omissions, please advise the Registrar immediately. Graduating seniors must submit a diploma card by Friday, February 26, 1993.

Loan Checks

A list of loan checks which have been received by the Registrar is posted on the second floor bulletin board. This list is updated as checks are received. If your tuition account shows a balance due, you must endorse the entire check to the law school. If the loan check exceeds the tuition balance, submit a refund request and the refund check will be sent to the Registrar's office within 7-10 working days.

Tuition Payments

If you elected the tuition installment plan, the second installment of $300 was due January 4, 1993 and the third $300 installment will be due February 1, 1993. On March 1, 1993, 50% of the balance is due and the remaining balance will be due April 1, 1993. You must make these payments to maintain your registration. If your financial aid covers part of your tuition, refer to page 2 of the Registration Bulletin to determine the installment amount due. Copies of the Registration Bulletin are available in the Registrar's office. You may make tuition payments in the Registrar's office by personal check, Visa or MasterCard. You may also mail your payment to the IIT Bursar's office at 3300 S. Federal, Chicago, IL 60616.

Fall Grades

Fall semester grades that have been submitted by the faculty are available on Kentnet. You may access the grade program through any terminal in the law school. Grades are due within six weeks after the final exam date or by February 3, 1993, if there was no final exam in the course.

Pass-Fail Election

You must submit two copies of the pass/fail election form or revocation of election by Monday, February 1, 1993. Please refer to the pass/fail rules and regulations posted on the bulletin board. Trial Advocacy courses may not be taken on a pass/fail basis.

FROM SBA PRESIDENT KWAME RAOUL

Hello again. Well, our president has been inaugurated. Most of us have finally decided what classes to drop and add after having been scared out of the classes that we originally scheduled. We have signed over our life's earnings to the bookstore. We have signed over our future life earnings to the Registrar. We are done with all the preliminaries and it is time to get rolling with spring semester.

I am proud to say that the spring budget has been approved unanimously by the SBA Board of Governors. Student Organizations will be getting a copy of the approved budget this week. I am certain that the majority of you will be unpleasantly surprised, but keep in mind dollars are not elastic. There was a limited amount of money to distribute. I would like to commend Rachel Cowen for the fine job she did with the budget.

So you may ask "How are we to contribute to student life with the pennies we have been approved to spend?" Well, I won't give you my father's lecture on the value of a penny, but I will ask you to be creative. That means look to cosponsor events with other student organizations. It means look to creative ways of fundraising to supplement the money you have been awarded from the student activities funds. It means think creatively of events that you can sponsor at no cost or nominal cost. I am confident student organizations can do it, and the SBA will also practice what we preach. We will be looking to launch several fundraising efforts to offset the cost of our major events this semester. The annual Law Week and Barrister's Bash in April are our most costly events, we are hopeful that we can, with your help, raise money to help subsidize these events, so that we can leave next year's SBA administration with a surplus rather than a deficit such as the one with which we were left. I know this would break a long standing tradition, but as William Jefferson Clinton says "It's time for change."

Since it is time for change, I must change the time of my meeting with our student organization presidents. The meeting will be Thursday, January 28 at 5:15 instead of Wednesday. Sorry for the short notice, but this is the effect of drop and add week. I will post the room number on the SBA bulletin board on the concourse level. I hope every organization can send a representative.

CBA Sponsors Large Firm Matching Program for Minorities

For the third year, the Chicago Bar Association is sponsoring a special project to provide large firm, summer associate opportunities for first-year Illinois law students who are members of groups, such as African American, Hispanic and Asian, that have been historically underrepresented in large law firms. The goal of this program is to expose students from traditionally underrepresented groups to the large law firm environment by participation in a law firm's summer program.

Chicago-Kent College of Law has accepted the CBA's invitation to participate in the program. Chicago-Kent will provide the CBA with the names of two to three students selected from the categories of groups described above 1) who are interested in being a first-year summer associate at a large firm and 2) whom the law school believes would benefit most from the experience.

The CBA will randomly match Chicago-Kent with a participating law firm. The firm will then interview the Chicago-Kent candidates and select a single student to take part in its Summer Program. The availability of a law school-law firm match will of course be dependent upon an adequate number of participating law firms. The hope is that there will be at least nine participating law firms so that each Illinois law school can be matched to a firm.

Any student wishing to be considered should submit a letter, addressed to Assistant Dean Judith Saunders, explaining why he or she is interested in serving as a summer associate at a large firm and providing any other information that would be useful in the application process. Applicants should attach a resume.

This application packet will be reviewed along with first-semester law school grades and other indicia of past performance. Your law school professors also will be contacted. Based on the available information, the law school will select the two to three candidates who show the most potential to excel in this program and refer those students to the CBA. The dean has appointed several faculty and staff members to act as the selection committee.

Applications should be submitted to Assistant Dean Saunders' office no later than 5:00 p.m., Wednesday, February 3, 1993.

Did You Participate in Fall 1992 On-Campus Interviewing? If so, Did You Turn in Your Follow-up Survey Printout?

If you participated in Fall 1992 On-Campus Interviewing, you should have received a letter from Lisa Abrams asking you to complete a computer generated follow-up survey.

If you haven't returned your follow-up survey, please stop by Career Services to pick up and complete a duplicate survey. It will only take you a few seconds to complete the survey--and it will provide Career Services with the information we need to evaluate the effectiveness of the interview program.

Even if you received no second interviews, you need to complete the survey. Please stop by to complete your survey form by Friday, January 29th!!

Missing Career Resource Books

The Career Services Office is continually striving to update present resource materials and add new books, directories, and periodicals. We just completed our yearly inventory of materials and learned that $1800 worth of resource materials have been lost (checked out but not returned) or stolen during the last year.

That means that this year, over 50% of our budget for new resource materials will go to replacing missing books and directories. We're concerned about this problem--and we're disappointed that we are unable to add the new materials we planned to purchase this year.

Please be considerate of other students and make sure to return the books you checked out to Career Services on time and take time to properly check the books back in! If you need to extend the due date of a book you've checked out, please call us. We appreciate your help!

Career Fairs:

FROM THE LAW LIBRARY

The library staff plans to offer a new service for students this semester. The professional librarians are busily preparing research tutorials mini-workshops on topics which may or may not have been covered in your first year and advanced legal research classes. Some of the topics being prepared currently include research of ethics issues, United Nations and treaty research, subject specialty Shepards, and researching information about judges. These tutorials will be approximately a half hour in length and will take place at various times during day and evening hours. Suggestions for future topics will be gladly entertained. Watch The Record for further details regarding the scheduling of these sessions. We hope you find these optional sessions helpful for your law school projects and law clerking jobs.

The library staff wants to take this opportunity to reiterate the no food or drink policy existing in the library. There are very few libraries anywhere that permit drinking or eating in the library. Usually those that do permit something in the library are those in which there is little or no common space in the law school (cafeteria, concourse, etc.) in which students might study, converse, etc. The environment in these places frequently reflects the basic belief that "anything goes." If you have ever been in the cafeteria after a rush of people and see the amount of trash left behind by adult students, you know of which I speak. The library staff works hard to maintain a pleasant library appearance for everyone as well as one you can be proud of, but we are not set up to provide the amount of table "busing" service that would be needed if eating and drinking were allowed.

This is a universal rule throughout the library. Library staff and law school faculty and employees are not permitted to have food or beverages in the library either. Enforcement is not arbitrary -- it's the policy of the entire library and all who enter with food or drink in hand are asked to remove it. The library staff has been met with a barrage of excuses (I don't know how you feel, but it strikes me as odd when someone stares you right in the eyes and tells you they always walk around with an open can of soda in their briefcase!!), insults, and out-and-out hostility from a very small number of students. However, it is still disconcerting when we are merely trying to enforce what is an established rule in a law school with prospective lawyers who will be rule-bound with codes of ethics upon admission to the bar.

The library staff is here to help you with your information needs. Please feel free to ask us if you are not sure how to use a legal resource or if you don't know where to look for the book or journal you need. Always ask us if the materials you want are not on the shelf. Often there is another copy in a different location or another source can do the same job. Although we are prohibited from telling you who might have the material if it's been checked out, we will certainly attempt to retrieve it as soon as possible. If you need help with online searching, legislative history compilation, or the microfiche readers, let us know. Just talk with us.

Good luck this semester!!
