FROM DEAN MATASAR

One of the great joys, and great sorrows, of being the Dean is the semester-ending ritual of reading teaching evaluations of one's colleagues.

On the good news front: students continue to give very positive reviews of most of their courses and teachers. It is gratifying to read that nearly every faculty member is ranked by some student as "the best teacher I've had in law school." It is equally gratifying to find our faculty with average grades of A- (or at worst, B+).

On the bad news side, some courses did not go well last semester. Whether due to material that was not presented well or due to a teacher's or student's inadequacy, a few courses failed to provide meaningful stimulation. Rest assured that your concerns about classes are not invisible. I will speak with teachers in courses that are not succeeding. I will share your concerns with faculty members. Moreover, I encourage you to go directly to faculty members to share your concerns as well.

Faculty members must be prepared for class. They ought to be open-minded and fair. They ought to treat each student with respect. They ought to grade papers and exams promptly and be willing to discuss their evaluations with students. They ought to be willing to answer questions both in and out of class. Faculty members must not engage in discriminatory conduct and they should avoid relationships with students that take advantage of students or create appearances of impropriety.

The Association of American Law Schools, in its "Statement of Good Practices by Law Professors in the Discharge of Ethical and Professional Responsibilities" reinforces these last two duties:

Discriminatory conduct based on such factors as race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, disability or handicap, age, or political beliefs is unacceptable in the law school community. Law professors should seek to make the law school a hospitable community for all students and should be sensitive to the harmful consequences of professorial or student conduct or comments in classroom discussions or elsewhere that perpetuate stereotypes or prejudices involving such factors. Law professors should not sexually harass students and should not use their role or position to induce a student to enter into a sexual relationship, or to subject a student to a hostile academic environment based on any form of sexual harassment.

Sexual relations between a professor and a student who are not married to each other or who do not have a preexisting analogous relationship are inappropriate whenever the professor has a professional responsibility for the student in such matters as teaching a course or in otherwise evaluating, supervising, or advising a student as part of a school program. Even when a professor has no professional responsibility for a student, the professor should be sensitive to the perceptions of other students that a student who has a sexual relationship with a professor may receive preferential treatment from the professor or the professor's colleagues. A professor who is closely related to a student by blood or marriage, or who has a preexisting analogous relationship with a student, normally should eschew roles involving a professional responsibility for the student.

I encourage our faculty to continue its good work and strive for even greater competence in the classroom. If anyone believes that a faculty member has not performed his or her duties at the highest level, share that assessment with the faculty member or one of the law school's deans.

EXAM REVIEWS

Professor Nance's Property Exam Review

Professor Nance will hold an exam review session for his Fall, 1992, Property class this Thursday, February 4, at 7:35 p.m., in Room C50. Your exam will be available for inspection at the review session. After the review session, you will have an opportunity to sign up for an individual conference if you so desire. You must attend this session in order to obtain an individual consultation concerning your performance on the exam.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Financial Aid Notice

Please see the notice attached to the back of The Record.

Some students have recently received 1993-94 financial aid application materials in the mail from the main campus. Please disregard the IIT Application for Financial Aid. The Student Finance Center at the main campus inadvertently sent these applications to law students. Law students applying for financial aid must complete the Chicago-Kent College of Law Financial Aid Application. Students who plan to apply for financial aid for next year should pick up the law school application packet in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid (suite 230).

Attention All Students: United States Supreme Court Practice Argument on Monday, Feb. 8, 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. in Marovitz Courtroom

The Supreme Court has granted certiorari in a section 1983 civil rights case, Buckley v. Fitzsimmons, No 91-7849, scheduled for argument in the third week of February. The attorney for the defendant, Jim Sotos, will practice his Supreme Court argument before a panel of "justices" consisting of Dean Matasar and Professors Nahmod, Steinman and Stewart.

The practice will be held on Monday, Feb. 8, from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Marovitz courtroom and will simulate the real thing. This is the second such event in recent law school history (the first was three years ago involving another civil rights case) and promises to be exciting and informative. You should arrive early because seating is limited. A copy of the briefs may be borrowed from Ken Redwood, Professor Nahmod's secretary. If you have any questions e-mail Professor Nahmod.

Sexual Assault Task Force

Are you interested in criminal law? Are you interested in state's attorney work? Are you interested in getting courtroom experience? Are you interested in helping society by prosecuting sexual assault offenders? If you answered yes to any of these questions then come to our meeting and find out more about the Sexual Assault Task Force Committee. We will be working with ICASA and the Cook County State's Attorney Office in the prosecution of sexual assault crimes. You may participate on a volunteer basis or receive credit in several ways. But, if you are at all interested you must attend this next meeting where we will be voting on the code of ethics we will abide by and on our specialized training program which has to be coordinated with Cook County State's Attorney Office. MEETING: Tuesday, February 2, 1993, 11:45 am, Room 165. (email contact: DBOWERS)

Visiting Professor Veniamin Chirkin

Professor Veniamin Chirkin will be visiting the law school beginning Wednesday, February 3, through Friday, February 5. Professor Chirkin is a member of the faculty of the Department of Comparative Constitutional Law at the Institute of State and Law in Moscow. He is one of the principal expert witnesses called by the new Russian Constitutional Court in the pending action regarding the legality of Boris Yeltsin's ban on the Communist Party. Professor Chirkin's visit has been arranged by Professor Molly Lien, who reports that he is a delightful and lively person, and will be a fascinating guest.

The International Law Society will be holding a reception for Professor Chirkin on Wednesday, February 3, at 3:00 p.m. in room 305. He also will be visiting some classes and conducting a colloquium for the faculty. If you would like to know more about the schedule for Professor Chirkin's visit, contact Harry Althaus in the Office of the Dean (E-mail HALTHAUS or call x6-5005).

CBA Sponsors Large Firm Matching Program for Minorities: Deadline for Applications is February 3rd!

For the third year, the Chicago Bar Association is sponsoring a special project to provide large firm, summer associate opportunities for first-year Illinois law students who are members of groups, such as African American, Hispanic and Asian, that have been historically underrepresented in large law firms. The goal of this program is to expose students from traditionally underrepresented groups to the large law firm environment by participation in a law firm's summer program.

Chicago-Kent College of Law has accepted the CBA's invitation to participate in the program. Chicago-Kent will provide the CBA with the names of two to three students selected from the categories of groups described above 1) who are interested in being a first-year summer associate at a large firm and 2) whom the law school believes would benefit most from the experience.

The CBA will randomly match Chicago-Kent with a participating law firm. The firm will then interview the Chicago-Kent candidates and select a single student to take part in its Summer Program. The availability of a law school-law firm match will of course be dependent upon an adequate number of participating law firms. The hope is that there will be at least nine participating law firms so that each Illinois law school can be matched to a firm.

Any student wishing to be considered should submit a letter, addressed to Assistant Dean Judith Saunders, explaining why he or she is interested in serving as a summer associate at a large firm and providing any other information that would be useful in the application process. Applicants should attach a resume.

This application packet will be reviewed along with first-semester law school grades and other indicia of past performance. Your law school professors also will be contacted. Based on the available information, the law school will select the two to three candidates who show the most potential to excel in this program and refer those students to the CBA. The dean has appointed several faculty and staff members to act as the selection committee.

Applications should be submitted to Assistant Dean Saunders' office no later than 5:00 p.m., Wednesday, February 3, 1993.

Grand Rapids (Michigan) Bar Association Minority Clerkship Program

The Grand Rapids (Michigan) Bar Association and the Floyd Skinner Bar Association are pleased to announce their Minority Clerkship Program for first-year law students. The program is open to first year minority law students at out-of-state law schools who are permanent residents of Kent County, Michigan, or who formerly attended a high school or college which has its main campus within 25 miles of Grand Rapids.

Detailed eligibility information and application information is available in the Career Services Office as Handout #62. Applications are due to Dean Judith Saunders by 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, February 3, 1993.

CAREER SERVICES NEWS

Midwest Public Interest Career Conference

Students who submitted their preference sheets to Barbara Clemmer, your interview selection sheets are in. Please pick up in room 360 immediately. DEADLINE DATE : Friday, February 5th. The MPILCC '93 is February 27th at Northwestern University.

Programs:

Sharpen Your Interview Skills!

It's a good time of year to polish your interviewing skills. We have an excellent interviewing skills video that was developed by New York University Law School. This video is designed to help you prepare for interviews with legal employers.

The "New York University Interview Tape" (as the video is affectionately known in the Career Services Office!) will be played continuously on Tuesday, February 9, Wednesday, February 10 and Thursday, February 11 in room 360F of the Career Services Office.

Another good way to prepare for interviews is to read Knock 'Em Dead With Great Answers to Tough Interview Questions by Martin Yate. This book is one of the best books available on the topic of interviewing. Several copies of a new edition of the book are available in the Career Services Office. Knock 'Em Dead can be checked out for a period of one week.

Resume Writing Workshop

If you missed the resume workshop first semester, or if you're considering revising your resume to increase its effectiveness, come to our spring resume writing workshop. The program will also include information about cover letters. Lisa Abrams will present this program on Tuesday, February 2nd at 11:45 in room C25.

Interested in Intellectual Property? Get an Inside Look at IP Practice!

The Intellectual Property Law Society and the Career Services

Office are co-sponsoring a program on careers in intellectual property. Third year student James Harris will moderate a panel of speakers working in a variety of intellectual property practice settings. The program will be presented on Tuesday, February 9 at 11:45 am in room C20.

Want to Know How to Work a Room? Attend Our Brown Bag Session and Learn How to Make Contacts

One of the skills most important to a job search (and a skill equally important to developing business as a practicing attorney) is making contacts. How do you walk into a room full of strangers and "work the room?" How can you make new contacts through professional associations? How can alumnae/i contacts be helpful?

Brian Kalata, '92 Chicago-Kent graduate and "networker extraordinaire," will lead this informal discussion on networking. This program will be held on Tuesday, February 9, from 12:50-1:45 p.m. in the Career Services Office (room 360).

Careers in Criminal Law

We're offering a program to acquaint you with career opportunities in criminal law. Several Chicago-Kent alums who are practicing criminal law in a variety of settings will speak at the program. Meet these criminal lawyers on Tuesday, February 16th at 11:45 a.m. in room C-20.

First Year Students: Career Resource Center Tours Set Sail for the Last Time this Semester!

We are offering our final series of spring tours of the Career Resource Center. Don't miss a chance to enjoy a half hour tour with our energetic tour guides, 1L Dan Walsh and 1L Kristine Schultz.

Dan and Kristine will tell you what materials the Career Services Office has available for your use and show you how Career Services organizes research materials. They will also answer all the questions you've ever wanted to ask about the Career Services Resource Center!

If you are interested in attending one of this week's tours, stop by Career Services in advance of the tour to sign-up. Tour groups are limited to 10 students.

Tours will be offered at the following times:

Tuesday, February 2	11:45 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.
Tuesday, February 2	12:20 p.m. - 12:50 p.m.

Thursday, February 4	10:30 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
Thursday, February 4	4:15 p.m. - 4:45 p.m.

Career Fairs:

Attention Students Who are Interested in the Midwest Public Interest Law Career Conference But Who are Not Interviewing at the Conference!

If you did not preregister for the conference, you can still take part in the "table talk" informational exchange with the employers participating in the conference. This is a great way to begin networking in the public interest community. The informal "table talk" sessions will be held from 9:00 a.m. to noon on Saturday, February 27th, at Northwestern Law School, 357 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago. Business attire is appropriate.

You are also invited to attend the panel discussion presented from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The panel discussion is entitled "Public Interest War Stories." It will feature public interest attorneys who recently graduated from law school. The panelists will share stories about how they found their jobs and share advice for those entering the public interest job market.

How Can You Find A Public Interest or Government Job? Hear What Ron Fox, National Specialist in Public Interest Law Careers, Has to Say About the Public Interest Job Search

As a kickoff to the Midwest Public Interest Law Career Conference, Mr. Ron Fox, Executive Director of the Public Interest Law Career Center in Cambridge, MA, is presenting a workshop on how to locate public interest law/government opportunities. Ron Fox is probably the best known national figure in public interest law career planning.

Ron's workshop, titled "Finding the Way," will be presented on Friday, February 26 from 3:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. at Northwestern Law School, 357 East Chicago Avenue. If you plan to attend, please sign up on the sign up sheet in the Career Services Office. Casual dress is appropriate for this event.

Ron will also run a second workshop on Saturday, February 27th, the focus of which will be practice areas in public interest law. The workshop will include networking techniques and make use of breakout sessions. This Saturday workshop will be held from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Northwestern Law School, 357 East Chicago Avenue.

Judicial Clerkship Opportunity:

Judge Donald O'Connell, Presiding Judge, Circuit Court of Cook County Law Division, Seeks Clerk

Judge Donald O'Connell, Presiding Judge of the Law Division of the Circuit Court of Cook County, would like to review resumes of students interested in clerking for him. He is seeking one to two students to work 20 hours a week this semester. He is interested in '93 or '94 graduates.

It is possible that this could lead to a summer job (for '94 grads) or a clerkship position after graduation (for '93 grads). Interested students should submit their resumes to the Career Services Office by noon on Friday, February 5. Please attach a note (for Career Services office use only) identifying the resume as one to be submitted to Judge O'Connell.

Handout Information:

The UCLA School of Law announces the availability of a fellowship, made possible by funds from the Ford Foundation, for training a minority or a woman scholar in the field of public international law and institutions. The fellowship covers all expenses, including a summer internship opportunity, and extends for two academic years. Upon successful completion of the program, an LL.M. degree will be awarded.

Detailed application information is available in Handout #54 in the Career Services Office. The application deadline is March 1, 1993.

FROM THE LAW LIBRARY

New Illinois Compiled Statutes Partially Implemented

As of January 1, 1993, Illinois officially has a new numbering system for statutes, known as the Illinois Compiled Statutes or ILCS. The Illinois Supreme Court has issued a rule providing, that until January 1, 1997, the Revised Statutes are allowed to be cited instead of or in addition to the Compiled Statutes. At the moment, only a few volumes of the new Smith-Hurd Illinois Compiled Statutes Annotated have been published; these are available in the library. A competing publisher's (Michie Company) set of annotated statutes is promised for the end of March 1993. Meanwhile, cross reference tables and a set of the unannotated compiled statutes are available. Students who need to supply ILCS parallel cites should seek assistance from the reference librarians.

Student I.D.'s Must be Updated By February 1

In order to check out library materials, students must have a current student identification card with a current semester sticker on the back of it. If you attempt to check out materials during the evening and weekend hours (when the Registrar's office is not open) and you do not have a current sticker, you will not be able to check out materials until the next business day. PLAN AHEAD!!!!

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS

AAUW Fellowships for Minority Women Law Students

The American Association of University (AAUW) Educational Foundation makes fellowship awards to minority women historically underrepresented in law, medicine and business administration. This year they are extending the application deadline for the Selected Professions Fellowship Program to encourage applications from a greater number of eligible women. The new deadline is February 15, 1993, when all material must be in the AAUW Educational Foundation Office in Washington, D.C.

Fellowships range from $5,000 - $9,500 for one academic year; they are not renewable. Academic work during the fellowship year must be full-time. Fellowship funds may be used for dependent care if essential in facilitating the candidates's pursuit of her educational study or research. Approximately 20 - 25% of the Selected Professions Fellowship applicants have been funded annually.

There is a fairly lengthy application procedure that must be followed; the new deadline is February 15, 1993. If you would like additional information and a packet of materials, you can pick them up in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230.

Dupage County Chapter of the Justinian Society of Lawyers Scholarship

The DuPage County Chapter of the Justinian Society of Lawyers is awarding a minimum of one $1,000 scholarship to a law student who meets the following criteria:

1. Must have completed at least one semester of law school
2. Must be of Italian extraction
3. Must demonstrate academic achievement

Students wishing to be considered for this scholarship should pick up the application form in the Admissions Office, Suite 230. The scholarship application process includes the scholarship application form, a brief personal statement and a letter of recommendation by a law school faculty member.

All materials should be mailed to Marsha H. Cellucci, c/o Cellucci, Yacobellis & Holman, 1155 S. Washington Street, Suite 100, Naperville, IL 60566-7004, and must be received no later than April 1, 1993.

STUDENT WRITING CONTESTS

The Catholic University of America (CUA) Communications Law Institute is holding its 5th Annual Writing Contest in memory of the late Stephen G. Thompson, who was an adjunct instructor at CUA. Sponsored in conjunction with Professor Thompson's former law firm, Wiley, Rein & Fielding -- a leading Washington, D.C. communications law firm, the competition is calling for papers covering communications law. Deadline: February 15, 1993

The American Association of Attorney-Certified Public Accountants (AAA-CPA) Foundation which promotes the professions of law and accounting recently announced an essay contest for the 1992-93 academic year. The contest is designed for students interested in the disciplines of law and accounting. The topic of the 1993 contest is "Solicitation of Clients in the Dual Practice of Law and Public Accounting." The grand prize is $2,500. Deadline: March 1, 1993

Community Associations Institute Research Foundation announces its Byron Hanke Fellowship for Graduate Study. Fellowships in the amount of $2,500 are available to law students whose studies relate to community associations generally and to the topic of the candidate's proposed community associations research project. Deadline: March 1, 1993.

"How would you explain to a lawyer struggling to make a living that he or she has a higher calling than maximizing income, and that you can do well while struggling good? The American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Professionalism seeks papers addressing this topic for its 1992 Robert McKay Professionalism Writing Competition. Aimed to foster a heightened awareness among today's law students, the purpose of the competition is to emphasize the importance of professional responsibility and to help to assure that the future leaders of the bar will maintain high principles of integrity and dedication to the legal system and the public. Named for the late Robert B. McKay in recognition of his special achievements and interest in making professionalism an integral part of legal education, two cash prizes will be awarded in the amount of $2,500 and $1,500 for first and second place essays respectively. Additionally, the winning essays will be published in The Professional Lawyer, or some other suitable Association publication. Deadline: March 1, 1993

Lex Mundi, an international network of law firms, and Armstrong, Teasdale, Schlafly & Davis, an Illinois Lex Mundi member, announce the Lex Mundi 1993 Global Student Writing Contest. Lex Mundi will award $2,000 to the author of the best essay submitted by law students from the U.S. and Canada on the topic of U.N. Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. In an effort to encourage submittals from the primary area served by Armstrong, Teasdale, the firm has established an additional $500 award for the winning essay submitted from law schools in Missouri and Illinois. Interested students must enter both contests to be eligible for the local contest. Deadline: March 31, 1993.

The Roscoe Pound Foundation offers awards of $3,000, $2,000 and $1,000 to the authors of winning essays on the environmental topic of "Global Climate Change: Treaties, Laws, and Legal Remedies." The following are to be discussed: 1) What are the options for the United States? 2) What can individual states do? 3) What is the role of the court system?

Deadline: March 31, 1993

Only essays prepared between April 1, 1992 and March 31, 1993 will be accepted. The topic may be on any legal subject related to energy, including traditional subjects in oil and gas law; federal/state regulation of natural resources; development of energy resources on state, federal or private lands; nuclear power; utilities; solar energy; international aspects of energy; or similar topics.

Deadline: March 31, 1993

-----new-----

The American Bar Association Section of Family Law announces the Schwab Essay Contest. Students may write on any topic in the area of family law. The three winning essays will receive cash awards and all the winning entries will be considered for public in the Family Law Quarterly.

Deadline: April 5, 1993

The International Association of Defense Counsel announces its 1993 Legal Writing Contest. Entries must be the original work of a single author, not previously published, on a subject of the author's choice in the fields of insurance, torts, civil procedure, evidence or other areas of the law of practical concern to lawyers engaged in the management and defense of civil litigation. Three monetary prizes will be awarded: $2,000 for first, $1,000 for second and $500 for third. Winning and honorable mention entries will be made available for publication in Defense Counsel Journal.

Deadline: April 6, 1993

The American Law Institute-American Bar Association Committee on Continuing Professional Education announces the 4th Annual ALI-ABA CLE Essay Contest. It is open to all law students. The topic is: Can (Should) Lawyers Publicize Their CLE Accomplishments, as Students or Teachers, to Attract Clients? The first place prize is $1,000 and publication in The CLE Journal and Register.

Deadline: April 15, 1993

The Food and Drug Law Institute will sponsor three writing scholarships for students attending a law school at which Food and Drug Law and/or Administrative Law courses are provided. Offered for the 1993-1994 academic year, eligibility includes completion or future enrollment in a course in Food and Drug Law and/or administrative Law for all degree candidates in good standing who will receive either a J.D. or an LL.M. during 1994. A paper of publishable quality on a subject relevant to the field of Food and Drug Law is required. Scholarships: $5,000

Deadline: April 23, 1993

The Food and Drug Law Institute announces its annual H. Thomas Austern Memorial Writing Competition for $3,000, $2,000 and $1,000 -- first, second and third prize respectively. Named for the late H. Thomas Austern, renowned food and drug law attorney for more than fifty years who was also known as the "dean of the food and drug bar," this competition encourages law students to develop papers in the areas of law that affect foods, drugs, cosmetics and devices. Winning papers will be considered for publication in the Food and Drug Law Journal. Deadline: May 15, 1993

The American Intellectual Property Law Association announces the Robert C. Watson Award for 1993, for the best student article submitted on a subject relating to the protection of intellectual property written or published between August 1, 1992 and July 31, 1993. The prize is $2,000.

For more information on these student writing contests, please contact Dean Chapman's office in Room 320d, ext. 5133.

ORGANIZATIONS

AALSA (Asian American Law Students Association)

There will be an organizational meeting Tuesday, February 3rd at 12:00, room TBA. All those interested are invited. If you are not on the AALSA e-mailing list and would like to be, please contact MTABATA.

BLSA (Black Law Student Association)

BLACK HISTORY MONTH: A Legal Perspective

Every year many people question why the month of February has been designated "Black History Month"? Educators respond that Black history month gives students an opportunity to learn of the many accomplishments that Black Americans have achieved throughout the course of this nation's history. I, however, believe a more meaningful description of its purpose would be "Black History month gives all Americans a chance to appreciate the contributions that Americans of African descent have made to our society which for one reason or another have been excluded from the mainstream of our historical education." This point should not be lost on American legal history either.

Despite the fact that American jurisprudence evolved almost exclusively from English common-law, African Americans have played a significant role in the construction and growth of our legal system as plaintiffs, legislators, and litigators. Over the next few weeks, the contributions of three such persons will be explored; Dred Scott, Hiram Revels, and the Honorable Thurgood Marshall.

Deutsch Klub

The first official Spring '93 meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 3rd at 3:00 in the cafeteria. We will be deciding our permanent meeting time.

Environmental Law Society

For those of you who didn't make it to the Environmental Law Society meeting, a quick rundown: plans are afoot for a panel discussion on Environmental Justice (a.k.a. "why do they always site incinerators, toxic dumps, etc. in economically depressed/minority neighborhoods?"), other speaker events, an environmental film festival, and a bake sale. If you would like to volunteer to help coordinate any of these events, please email NZIPPAY or LBASSI.

ELECTIONS!!! On April 13, the ELS will hold elections for next year's officers. More details to come on when and how to nominate someone (including yourself). If you would like to know more about what the various officers do, just ask us. Caveat: only dues-paying members can vote.

Good news for people who wear medium t-shirts! Our cache of cool ELS t-shirts does include smalls and mediums, at the unbelievable price of only $5.00. We also have a few Earth flags left ($10.00). If you would like to preview/buy one of these items, email LBASSI.

DID YOU KNOW that on February 1, 1967, 63 countries signed a treaty barring nuclear weapons in space?

GREEN TIP OF THE WEEK: Before throwing six-pack holders in the trash, snip each circle with scissors. Plastic six-pack holders are a hazard to birds and other marine life. They are either left on the beach or dumped near or into waterways along with tons of other garbage. Eventually, they make their way into larger bodies of water like Lake Michigan. Underwater, they become virtually invisible, so marine critters can't avoid them. Gulls and terns sometimes catch one loop around their necks while fishing, then snag another loop on a stationary object. Result: they either drown or strangle themselves. (Nice thought to start the day with). SO SNIP THOSE SIX-PACK RINGS (or make trendy earrings out of them).

Evening Law Student Society

The Evening Law Student Society will have a general membership meeting February 9, 5:15 p.m. in Room 305. All evening students are encouraged to attend.

Federalist Society

The Federalist Society would like to thank all the students, faculty and members of the administration who attended the debate on "The Qualifications of Supreme Court Nominees." The high level of interest contributed significantly to the success of the event.

We would also like to thank the members of the faculty, administration, and staff who helped with the planning and logistics ensuring a smooth presentation.

We would especially like to thank Professors Harris and Barnett from Chicago-Kent, Professors Presser and Merrill from Northwestern and Professor Becker from the University of Chicago for their participation in the debate.

GAYLAW

The first meeting of GAYLAW for the new semester will be held Wednesday, February 3, 1993 at 4:00 p.m. in Room 165. We will discuss important things like the march on Washington, and the Impact Fundraiser. We will plan our activities for the semester, so, of course you will want to be there. Everyone is welcome. Feel free to join us.

In addition, GAYLAW has planned its first ever Fund Your Own Drinking Habit Happi-Hour. This event will take place Friday, February 5, 1993 beginning at 7:00 p.m. at Big Chicks--The Uptown Bar. Big Chicks is located on Sheridan Road just north of Argyle (5000N). You must buy your own drinks, but beer prices are reasonable at Big Chicks. As always, please feel free to bring anyone you like, including significant or insignificant others, friends, co-workers, classmates, your parents, or even your pet. Everyone is welcome. Feel free to join us. And as always, stay lovely.

Intellectual Property Law Society

IPLS and Career Services are happy to announce "Careers in Intellectual Property Law." As part of this event, professionals in the area of intellectual property law will visit Chicago-Kent and speak on the many intriguing experiences of IP professionals. Visiting Chicago-Kent will be Dolores Hanna, an expert in trademark litigation from the firm of Hill, Steadman and Simpson; Karl Vick, an expert in patent prosecution, from the firm of William, Brinks, Olds, Hofer, Gilson & Lione; Frances Jaglu, trademark attorney from Abbott Laboratories, and Jeff Smith, a patent litigator from the firms of Marshall, O'Toole, Gerstein, Murray & Bicknell. There's also a chance Christine Dudzik will be in the audience. Christine has won one of the largest bio-tech cases in history. So come and join the excitement. Date: Tuesday, February 9, 1993; Time: 11:45 a.m.; Place: Rm. C20. Refreshments will be served.

Do you want to learn more about patent litigation? On Tuesday, February 16 at 11:45 (room TBA), Dan Coughlin, a patent attorney at Arnold, White, & Durkee and a Chicago-Kent alum, will be speaking about patent law and the tactics and strategy involved in patent litigation. He is currently involved in a patent infringement lawsuit which will be going to trial in the near future. He will discuss this trial and for those interested in observing this trial -- watch this space. Further information about the when and where of the trial will be announced in The Record or posted in the Kent front entrance.

They're Here!!! Order your IPLS T-shirt Tuesday, February 2 from 4:00 p.m. to 5:50 p.m., Wednesday February 3 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and Thursday, February 4 from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. The cost is $9.00 per short-sleeve shirt and $14 per long-sleeve shirt. Payment must be made when ordering, or contact MDICIG by Tuesday, February 9.

International Law Society

International Law Career Day

The International Law Society Career Day is only a few weeks away on Friday, February 5. The day will begin with coffee and doughnuts in the lobby. After the introductions, there will be panel discussions on various topics of international law. The speakers are well-known international lawyers and professors from Chicago. The lunch will be at the Palmer House with Neil Hartigan as the Keynote Speaker. In the afternoon students will have the opportunity to visit Chicago International Law Firms and Corporations with International legal Departments. There will be a reception for all participants back at Chicago_kent from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Students may register now by picking up a pamphlet from the bulletin board in the concourse level, filling it out and returning it to the envelope on the door of the International Law Society Office door (C76). Students may also register by signing up during the hours of 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. in the cafeteria, Monday, February 1.

Faculty and other attorneys are cordially invited to both the lunch and the reception ($35 for students, $30 for attorneys and professors for the lunch and reception). Please RSVP for the luncheon to Leah Collister (LCOLLIST) or Tim Payne (TPAYNE) by January 29.

Russian Prof. Veniamin Chirkin

On Wednesday, February 3 at 3:00 p.m. the ILS is sponsoring a reception for Prof. Veniamin Chirkin who is currently at the Institute for State and Law in Moscow. This will be an opportunity for students to come and meet with the professor. The exact location TBA. Watch The Record for details next week.

Juan Pierre Ruiz

On Thursday, January 28, from 12 noon to 1:00 p.m., Juan Pierre Ruiz will speak about the European Economic Community at John Marshall. He is well known and an interesting speaker. For more information call Aaron Weiss of the John Marshall International Law Society at 708-676-0049.

Chicago Bar Association-Young Lawyers International Law Committee

This committee meets every month on the 4th Friday at noon. Usually they feature a speaker on International Law. They buy or bring lunch and usually start around 12:15 and go until 1:15. They love to have students come. Watch for more information about what their topic and who their speakers will be this semester. The first meeting unfortunately conflicts with Career Day on February 5.

If you are not on the ILS email list, please let either TPAYNE or LCOLLIST know and we will add you, or, if you haven't paid your dues yet there is still time.

Kent Association of Trial Lawyers of America (KATLA)

We will be holding our first meeting of the semester Tuesday, February 2 at 11:45 a.m. Room TBA. All current members are expected to attend. Students interested in becoming new members are encouraged to attend--especially students interested in litigation. Our first meeting will cover the following:

- * New Members: An annual membership is $25, which includes a subscription to TRIAL magazine, the ATLA newsletter, and various other trial-related periodicals.
- * Spring Trial Competition: We will briefly discuss the competition--the problem, forming a team, and how to get involved.
- * General: Set a schedule for regular meetings; setting up competition with other area schools; possible fund-raisers; scheduling trial-related forums, guest speakers, etc.; and of course, a HAPPY HOUR!

Once again, this is an excellent opportunity for students interested in litigation to get exposure to the trial process and get involved in a trial competition.

If you have an questions or comments, please E-mail DBUBA or PLEE2.

Scholarship. The Association of Trial Lawyers of America is offering a $2,500 law student scholarship. It will be awarded to a student who demonstrates a commitment to ATLA and its mission through extensive involvement in ALTA student chapter activities; exhibits a strong desire to help those who deserve redress for injury or victims of abuse; displays a genuine interest in trial advocacy; reflects a strong academic performance and expresses a financial need for the scholarship. Contact Anne Howard, (800) 427-2725, ext. 372, for an application and more information.

Kent Commentator

The first spring term issue of the Kent Commentator is just around the corner! Don't forget to get your articles and thoughts-on-paper to the Commentator office by 5:00 p.m. Friday, February 12th. This gives you approximately two weeks to wax eloquent on the subject of your choice, including the state of legal education, our law school and the nation. Email the editors for assistance or discussion. We look forward to receiving all your contributions. The paper is yours to make -- if you have something to say, consider the Commentator and get us your "copy" soon! (JEVENDO or JMARSH).

Kent Justice Foundation

Are you broke? Are you hungry? 'Looking for an easy way to make some fast cash? Well, here's all your chance... The Kent Justice Foundation is sponsoring an M & M Lottery! Guess the number of M & Ms in the KJF jar and win $25.00 fast cash plus the entire jar of M & Ms! Look for us in the cafeteria this week. Guesses are 50 cents. Proceeds go to fund summer fellowships for Kent students in Public Interest Law.

Law Students' Action for Justice

Update on Nicarico: On December 4, 1992, the Illinois Supreme Court handed down its decision in the appeal of Rolando Cruz. By a vote of 4-3, Rolando's conviction was upheld. The three dissenting votes all agreed that there was not overwhelming evidence to convict and voted for reversal of the conviction and remand back for a new trial. Included among the dissenters was Chief Justice Miller.

So, the beat goes on, the ordeal is not yet finished and an innocent man is still vegetating on Death Row. However, the composition of the Illinois Supreme Court changed right after the Dec. 4 decision and things are still brewing. It is not by any means over. Will keep you posted o the new developments.

In the meantime . . . we all know that the show Final Appeal was canceled last fall. However, since Mr. Cruz's case is so compelling, the producers insisted on airing what they had prepared for Final Appeal. On February 9, 1993, Unsolved Mysteries will have a special show during which Mr. Cruz will be featured. Be sure to watch.

National Lawyers' Guild

We will be having our first meeting of the semester Tomorrow, Tuesday February 2, 1993. All are welcome to help plan our semester's work. Room TBA. Time: 11:45 a.m.

Phi Alpha Delta

Informational Meeting

Tuesday, Feb. 2, Informational meeting, 12:15 p.m. in room C20, for all interested students. This is your opportunity to come and find out what PAD is all about and to get all of your questions answered. Refreshments will be served.

Other news

THANKS AND KUDOS to all the volunteers who went to the Just Us For Youth and helped hang posters! Hopefully all of you have recovered nicely from the party which followed!

And a week of rest to follow up the rigorous schedule of last week!

Volleyball

Volleyball has started again. New players are always welcome. We shall be playing at the IIT Main Campus gym. You must have your student ID stickers. For more information, email Isabel at IEUSTAQU.

Student Bar Association

Happy Hour

On Wednesday, February 3, SBA will hold its first Happy Hour of the semester at Red Kerr's from 6:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. The cover for beer consumption will be $3.00 per person.

Women in Law

Thanks to everyone who came to hear Professor Anita Bernstein speak about sexual harassment in the European Community. We had a huge turnout. Thanks especially to Kirsten Olson for arranging the program and to Julie Keywell.

Chimera Self-Defense is a group that is dedicated to training women in self-defense techniques. If you would like more information and did not receive an email with the details, please contact ANOTATIO or JWELCH.

On February 26, there will be a special presentation of two plays about women. If you are interested, watch for future notices or contact a WIL officer or the alumnae/i office.

Keep an eye out for the WIL Welcome Back get-together. Place and time TBA but it will be soon. Check your email and the broadcast messages for more information.

Subscriptions to the New York Times are still available at discounted rate. Please contact SCHEN for more information.

The University of Chicago is sponsoring a conference on feminism and pornography, "Speech, Equality and Harm: Feminist Legal Perspectives on Pornography and Hate Propaganda," March 5-7. More about this conference as WIL gets more information.

Sexual Assault Task Force

Are you interested in criminal law? Are you interested in state's attorney work? Are you interested in getting courtroom experience? Are you interested in helping society by prosecuting sexual assault offenders? If you answered yes to any of these questions then come to our meeting and find out more about the Sexual Assault Task Force Committee. We will be working with ICASA and the Cook County State's Attorney Office in the prosecution of sexual assault crimes. You may participate on a volunteer basis or receive credit in several ways. But, if you are at all interested you must attend this next meeting where we will be voting on the code of ethics we will abide by and on our specialized training program which has to be coordinated with Cook County State's Attorney Office. MEETING: Tuesday, February 2, 1993, 11:45 am, Room 165. (email contact: DBOWERS)

RE: CRITICAL INFORMATION REGARDING:
FINANCIAL AID AND NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

The 1993-94 financial aid application forms are now available in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230.

Once again, that time has arrived for you to begin the process of applying for financial aid for next year. Please take note of the calendar of important dates below; I suggest that you save this memo for later reference. Your financial aid, whether a loan and/or a need-based scholarship, depends on it.

We have prepared folders containing the applications, as well as information to assist you with the application process. Please be sure to read through the entire packet. There recently have been several changes to the financial aid application process, so those of you who have borrowed in the past will find some new forms and procedures this year. The application packets can be obtained in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid (suite 230).

Please note that the April 1st deadline occurs during spring break (the dates of spring break are March 28 - April 4). If you plan to leave town, please be sure that you arrange to have your application materials in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid by April 1st.

To be eligible for all forms of financial aid you must meet the deadlines listed below.

Calendar of Important Dates:

By April 1

1. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA - this is a new form), as well as the FAF, if you are filing that as well, should be received by the College Scholarship Service (CSS) no later than April 1. A pre-addressed envelope is enclosed with the FAFSA and FAF instruction booklets. Plan to mail it in sufficient time to meet the deadline.

2. Your Chicago-Kent College of Law Financial Aid Application should be received by the Chicago-Kent College of Law Office of Admissions and Financial Aid no later than April 1. The Office is located in Suite 230.
3. Financial Aid Transcripts must be sent to all previously attended colleges or universities by April 1, if this is the first time you are applying for financial aid at Chicago-Kent.

By May 15

1. After you file your FAFSA, you will be sent a Student Aid Report (SAR) by the College Scholarship Service (CSS). All pages of your Student Aid Report should be in your financial aid file at Chicago-Kent College of Law by May 15, even though it will say that you are not eligible to receive a Pell Grant (Pell Grants are for undergraduates only). If you need to make corrections to your SAR, be sure to send a photocopy of the SAR, with all corrections indicated, to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid at Chicago-Kent. Send the original to the address indicated on the back of the SAR. A revised SAR will be mailed to you approximately 2 weeks after the corrections are received at the processor. Make sure that you sign the report where indicated.
2. If you are selected for Verification, you will be asked to submit copies of your tax forms and a Verification Worksheet. These materials and your SAR must be returned before a financial aid award will be determined for you.

By July 1

1. You are expected to turn in student loan applications from the lender of your choice by July 1. If you are unsure of a lender, contact the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid at (312) 906-5180. Loan applications for the Law Access program will be available in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230. You can also obtain a Law Access loan application by calling Law Access directly at (800) 282-1550.
2. You should sign and return your financial aid award letter to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid by June 1, or within three weeks if received after June 1.

We are ready to help if you need assistance -- just call the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid at (312) 906-5180.

Thank you for your cooperation.
