ALUMNI NEWS

A full life and varied career was ended July 30, by GEORGE CARSON, '91, at the age of 79 years. After graduating from the College and being admitted to the practice in Illinois, Mr. Carson moved to San Francisco. During the Alaska gold rush he went North as Deputy United States Marshal at Nome. Later, entering the employ of the Puget Sound Traction, Light & Power Company in Seattle, Washington, he advanced to the position of claim agent. After a term as head of the Pacific Claim Agents' Index Bureau he engaged in active practice in which he continued until his death.

News has been received by the College of the death of JOHN A. MCANROW, '97, who died September 30, 1929.

PHILIP J. MAGUIRE, '99, died at his home in Wilmette, Tuesday, July 28. He had been in the active practice of law.

EMMA WILLARD, '99, is with the Chicago Trust Company as special representative of the Real Estate Loan Division.

D. C. MCKEE, '00, is President of the Washington General Agency, Inc., Insurance Building, Seattle, Washington, and is General Agent for a number of insurance companies. After graduating from the College, Mr. McKee practiced in Texas for five years before going to Seattle.

GEORGE C. PRATT, '05, has changed his address from 195 Broadway, New York City, to 7046 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles, California.

L. FRANK MOUDRY, '08, is associated with the firm of Paust, Fisk & Moudry in the practice of law at Sycamore, Illinois.

GEORGE A. KROMENAKER, '11, is with the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York with offices at 208 S. La Salle Street, Chicago.

JOHN KILLIGREW, '17, died December 2, 1928. At the time of his death he was entering upon his second term as clerk of the Lake Circuit Court of Lake County, Indiana.

JOHN ALLEN SHANNON, '17, is Chief of Educational Staff at Oxford Institute, Chicago.

BURTON H. ATWOOD, '18, passed away on February 19, 1931. He had been associated with Goodrich, Vincent & Bradley in the Rookery, Chicago.

H. G. THEROUX, '18, notified us that his name was changed by court order to Henry George Baron.

ARTHUR COHEN, '19, is practicing law in South Bend, Indiana, with offices in the Odd Fellows Building.

THEOPHILUS McCLORY, '19, died of heart disease on May 27.

WALTER R. TITZEL, JR., '25, is with the firm of Lewis & Titzel with offices at 11 S. LaSalle Street, where he is in the practice of law.

An item in this column of the June issue of THE REVIEW stated that ALBERT B. FRITZSHAL, '26, "is now in the general practice of law for himself." Mr. Fritzshal has called our attention to the fact that not only is he now in the general practice of law for himself, but that he has been since obtaining his license in 1926, and that he is now well established. His office is at 32 W. Randolph Street, Chicago. We wish to acknowledge the error, and since we always enjoy hearing from our alumni, we hope that we will not have to make another mistake before we hear from Mr. Fritzshal again.

B. GRAY WARNER, '26, formerly with Henry, Warner & Pierce, withdrew from that firm early in May this year to go into practice for himself with offices in the Northern Life Tower, Seattle, Washington.

MRS. BERTHA C. CARLSON, '28, is secretary of the Illinois Committee for Women on Juries, with offices at 105 S. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

JOSEPH GILMAN, '28, announces the removal of his office to Suite 1003, Steuben Building, 188 W. Randolph Street, Chicago.

The name of ROBERT T. POPULORUM, '28, has been changed pursuant to an order of Circuit Court of Cook County to ROBERT R. REID. Mr. Reid is associated with Dickinson, Smith, Farrell & Wham, 231 S. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

JONUS WOLFBERG, '29, announces the opening of his South side offices at 4649 S. Ashland Avenue, Chicago, where he will engage in the general practice of law. His downtown offices are at 19 S. LaSalle Street.

H. WILLIAMS HANMER, '30, has left Chicago to establish a residence in Seattle, Washington. When he passes the Washington bar examination, he intends to practice there.
