BATTLES EVERY DAY.

Boers Hold British in Check All Day Sunday.

British Troops Doggedly Advancing Against Boer Defenses

Further Testimony in the Corruption of Senator Clark, of Montana.

CHICAGO DRAINAGE CANAL CASE.

Spearman's Camp, Natal, Jan. 22.—Early Sunday morning General Warren commenced a flanking movement on the extreme left of the Boer position.

The infantry advanced at five this morning, along the irregular Tatumana mountain, which ends at Spionkop.

The artillery positions were behind and on a plain. The British carefully worked along the hills until within 1,000 yards, commanding a kopje on which the Boers were concentrated and concealed behind immense boulders strewn thickly over a hill.

The artillery opened the attack and the batteries worked continuously, pouring tons of shrapnel among the Boers, who devoted their attention to musketry firing on the British infantry.

The Boers apparently have few guns and they did little damage.

Captain Bonley of the Dublin fusiliers, fell mortally wounded, while leading his men to seize a fresh point of vantage.

BRITISH MAKE LITTLE PROGRESS.

London, 2:30 p. m.—Nothing has been received thus far to-day to indicate any conclusive result reached by the British forces in the region of upper Tugela.

The British seem doggedly advancing in the face of equally stubborn resistance. At the close of yesterday's fighting the republicans had merely evacuated their first line of defense to take up another semi-circular position a short distance in the rear, recalling the old burgher ruse by which the Boers previously managed to entice the British into a fatal trap.

Dispatches from elsewhere in South Africa this morning give trivial details of minor happenings and do not illuminate the situation.

The widow of General Wainwright, in an open letter, hotly denounces the stories that the general in any way criticized Methuen.

Lord Wolseley also issued denial of the report that the war office is in possession of a letter from Wainwright, written the night before the battle of Magersfontein, saying it would be the last letter he would write, as he had been asked to perform an impossible task and had either to obey orders or surrender his sword.

Chicago Drainage Canal

Washington, Jan. 22.—In the case of the state of Missouri vs. the state of Illinois, involving petition for injunction against the Chicago drainage canal, the United States supreme court to-day decided to permit the attorney general of Missouri to file his bill, making summons to defendants returnable April 2.

CORRUPTION OF CLARK.

Close of Testimony in the Celebrated Bribery Case.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The first witness to-day in the Clark bribery investigation was A. T. Smith, president of the Montana National Bank of Helena. Evidently the purpose of calling Smith was to show the transactions of the bank involving Clark or members of the last Montana legislature. Mr. Smith could recall names of only a few members who had accounts in the bank last winter and these had been depositors for several years. He also said that neither Clark nor Wolfenbarger transacted any business in the bank during the last session of the legislature, except that Clark, just prior Major Johnson Disperses Force of Insurgents.

House Committee Hear Gen. Shaw on Invalid Pensions.

Several Men Entombed in a Los Angeles Street Tunnel.

BRITISH RELEASE GERMAN VESSEL.

Washington, Jan. 22.—General Otis informs the war department recent military operations in the Philippines in the following dispatch:

Manila, Jan. 21.—Major Johnson, commanding a battalion of the Forty-sixth Infantry, Watson's brigade, reports from Lemery on the 19th that he drove the enemy through Balaang eastward on the morning of the 18th, capturing seventeen rifles and one field piece; few hours later through Calaca and captured four prisoners and four horses and equipment, and six rifles, and killed three insurgents. Johnson drove the enemy through Lemery on the 19th and captured three men and six horses and advanced on Lemery at 5 p. m. Kemy was strongly entrenched and he sent by navy gunboat to Batangas for assistance, when three companies of Mull's battalion of the Thirty-eighth sent to Tsal, insurgent headquarters. Johnson drove the enemy through Lemery on Tsal. He attacked the southern portion of the city and 'cut the northern portion, and the enemy dispersed, retreating in many directions. Johnson's casualties, one man killed, one seriously and two slightly wounded; four field pieces and a quantity of rifles captured. This movement of Johnson's was ably conducted and important in results. The enemy is reported in large force and heavily entrenched at and near Santa Cruz, Laguna de Bay.

Entombed in a Tunnel.

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 22.—Eleven men were entombed in a third street tunnel by the caving in of earth yesterday, and eight were rescued uninjured today. John DeLoe is still entombed uninjured. Foreman Crawley is doubtless dead. Many tons of earth fell where he was. Street Car Inspector Lambie, who was injured, died to-day.

Invalid Pensions.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Gen. Albert D. Shaw, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the pension committee of that organization had a hearing to-day before the house committee on invalid pensions on the pending bill to amend and make more clear the act of June 27, 1899.

The main arguments were made by Chairman P. B. Brown, of Zanesville, O., and Gen. Daniel Sickles, the old commander of the Third army corps. The principal feature of the argument was that law should be made so clear as to be beyond the possibility of misconstruction.

Some changes were proposed in the Gallagher bill and in the main its provisions were approved as giving the veterans desired. General Sickles added a vigorous plea for adequate attention by the government to veterans in their old age and infirmities.

AN IMPORTANT ARREST.

Postoffice Inspector Doran Nabs Albert B. Watson.
HE IS JAILED AT EL PASO.

C. L. Doran, of Denver, the postoffice inspector, whose jurisdiction takes in the southwest, returned from the south this morning, where, at El Paso, last Saturday afternoon, he had arrested and jailed one Albert B. Watson, who operated under the name of "The Ohio Specialty company" and who conducted an endless chain scheme, thus using the mails to defraud the public. Watson has operated in the western section of Mexico for several months and his victims, scattered all over the country, number twenty thousand. He is from Garrettsville, Ohio, and a short time ago had his wife arrested for opening one of his letters, which proved to be from "another woman" whom he desired to marry.

The El Paso Times, in its comments on this case, gives principally Watson's side of his arrest and the causes, and the account is as follows:

Albert B. Watson was arrested yesterday by the United States officers on a charge of using the mails for fraudulent purposes. Watson is wanted at Las Cruces, New Mexico. He is now being held awaiting an order for his removal from the state. It will probably take three or four days to accomplish this and in the meantime he is confined in the county jail.

The United States officials here could furnish no particulars of the trouble except simply the nature of the complaint upon which Watson has been apprehended.

He has been several days in El Paso, and states that he came here with a view of engaging in a new enterprise, the details of which he has perfected.

Watson was seen by a reporter at the county jail. He is a nice appearing young man with gray hair, although he states he is only 26 years of age. He is evidently city bred and says he came here from Cincinnati, Ohio. The reporter found him ready and willing to talk about his troubles.

"My wife is the one who made the complaint," said Watson. "She is offended at me without cause and my arrest is the result of a little family misunderstanding we had. She charged me with using the mails for fraudulent purposes because she could find nothing against me. Why did my wife happen to think of such a charge? Simply because I had mentioned the matter to her before we came west. She is now in Las Cruces.

"I consulted a lawyer about the business I was engaged in at Las Cruces, and he advised me it was perfectly legitimate and proper, and I know I cannot be convicted on a charge of misunderstanding the mails."

Watson then went on to explain his scheme for making money, and which, according to his story, forms the basis of the complaint against him. He said he had a number of little books printed which stated on the cover the holder of the ticket enclosed, you will receive in return a book containing four tickets, which sell to your friends at twenty-five cents apiece, and when they in turn forward the said tickets with one dollar for each ticket enclosed, you will receive a $4 pair of shoes of the Monarch make.

Such, Watson stated, was as near as he could recollect what was printed on the tickets. The idea being that when he had received the $4 sent to him by the four friends of the first purchaser he would receive his pay for the shoes, which he purchased in job lots from different manufacturing firms. The persons who received the other books would in turn sell the tickets to their friends and in turn also each finally get a pair of shoes. Watson says that he has been sending out a number of these books through the Las Cruces postoffice under the name of "The Ohio Specialty company" and that is why he has been arrested. In the east, he says, he sent tickets and circulars to nearly every city south of the Mason and Dixon line, but has paid little attention to business since his arrival in New Mexico, being chiefly engaged in mining.

The above is in substance the story of the defendant. As previously stated the particulars of the complaint and evidence against Watson were not obtained. Watson takes his arrest very philosophically, and says he expects very soon to again be a free man.

Although Watson is so sanguine of his acquittal it is reported the United States has a strong case against him, for using the mails to carry on fake schemes and imposing on the public.
