GENERAL DIAZ AND FELLOW OFFICERS TO BE SHOT

All Those Concerned in Revolt at Vera Cruz Will Have to Pay Extreme Penalty for Opposition to Madero.

COURT MARTIAL TO BE CONVENED FORTHWITH

Soldiers of Rebellious Troops Will Be Decimated, One in Each Ten Being Executed; Choice by Lot.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Mexico City, Oct. 23.—General Felix Diaz, Colonel Jose Diaz Ordaz, and all the officers of the rebellious troops and marines in the Vera Cruz rebellion, will be haled immediately before a court martial and doubtless will suffer the death penalty. Orders have been issued for the convening of the court, which will be presided over by General Ballesteros.

General Diaz, although not now a member of the army, is amenable in such a court under the law which provides for such a trial of any civilian under like circumstances. The soldiers of the rebellious troops will be decimated—one in ten being executed. They will be chosen by lot to pay the penalty for all.

This information was reported tonight. The collapse of the Diaz movement one week after its inception with a minimum of fighting and bloodshed, has created the greatest surprise here. In administration circles, where opinion has been the keynote since the beginning, the outcome is regarded as the highest possible vindication of the confidence always expressed in the loyalty of the army.

General Felix Diaz, after General Reyes, has been regarded as the man who could wield the greatest influence with the army and the people generally. His rebellion, ending in a base only slightly less pronounced than that of Reyes last December, removed a slinger that long has loomed on the political horizon.

The news created little demonstration in the capital. There was no outward show of elation or of regret among the populace, which maintains its usual indifference. It was early reported that all the officers involved in the movement stood an excellent chance of excommunication to death within a few hours.

TEMPERANCE UNION RE-ELECTS MRS. STEVENS

Present Presiding Official is Unanimously Chosen to Continue as Head of Nation-Wide Organization.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Portland, Ore., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Elizabeth A. Stevens, of Portland, Me., has been unanimously re-elected president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union today. The officers chosen, all of whom were re-elected, were:

Vice President-at-Large—Mrs. Annie A. Gordon, Evanston, Ill. Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Frances P. Parks, Evanston, Ill. Recording Secretary—Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, Valley City, N. D.

Address on ways for combating the drink and social evils occupied most of today's session. Mrs. Adela Carman, of Chicago, addressed regarding to the waste heap "wasp pieces" and "fragile creations" of temperance meetings and substituting up-to-date poems and addresses.

PRESIDENT TAFT HAS CONFERENCE WITH KNOX

Poland Springs, Oct. 23.—President and Mrs. Taft, Helen Taft and Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin, Mrs. Taft's sister, motored today from Beverly to Poland Springs. Secretary of State Knox came with a party as far as Portsmouth, N. H., but turned back there.

The trip today was over roads slippery and uncertain from rains. Speaking at the Portsmouth navy yard today, the president criticized congress for not voting an appropriation for two battleships. He said:

"We are hopeful, however, that in the next session of congress it will be seen to have been a mistake to have only one battleship."

POLICE INSPECTOR DENIES HE FIRED ON RIOTERS

Officer Gives Important Testimony in Case of Strikers on Trial for Murder of Girl Textile Worker.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Salem, Mass., Oct. 23.—Police Inspector John J. Keilher, of Lawrence, Mass., testified today in the case of Ettore Giovannitti and Caruso, who are on trial for the murder of Anna Lopez, a victim of the textile strike riots, that he had been convinced the night of January 23d, the night the Lopez girl was killed, that the time had come for the police to draw their revolvers.

However, he did not know of any policeman who fired during the outbreak. Keilher testified that the police had tried with their clubs, to clear the streets of belligerent strikers and had been jeered and pelted with ice and other missiles. Then he told of the fusillade of shots during which the girl was wounded. Keilher said he drew a blackball then and brought it down upon the backs of excited mill workers.

Asked in counsel for the defense why he did not draw his revolver, Keilher replied: "Because I concluded that I first would take another chance with my hands."

The cross-examination of Keilher led right up to the killing of Anna Lopez, the description of the firing of from ten to thirty shots, and the finding of a wounded girl in the street.

Edward J. Griffin, another Lawrence policeman, corroborated the inspector's description of the riot. He, too, denied that he fired a shot or drew a revolver.

Pennsylvania Governor Declines to Interfere in Case of Philadelphia Bank Employee Who Stole Securities.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—Reports current here for more than a year that the Union Trust Company had been robbed of $1,000,000 in securities and $100,000 in cash, by an employee, were confirmed today when Governor Tener at Harrisburg, decided that so far as the state is concerned, Walter N. Shourds, who is accused of appropriating the money and securities, must be prosecuted, notwithstanding that restitution has been made to the trust company. The company is now known as the Merchants' Union Trust Company.

The securities, it is said, were taken from a safe deposit box rented by Mr. George Burnham, Jr., who is connected with a legitimate work in this city. Shourds, who was superintendent of the safe deposit vaults of the trust company, fled the country shortly before his crime was discovered. He was indicted by a federal grand jury in his absence. Subsequently it is reported he spent communication for the return of the securities and money through "personals" inserted in New York, Philadelphia and Paris newspapers. He was traced and made restitution.

GOVERNMENT HAS FIVE SENATORS TO BE INVESTIGATED AT NEXT SESSION OF CONGRESS

Little Hope of Proving Cotton Corner Case

CHIEF JUSTICE CALLS ON HIM TO EXPLAIN

Wants to Know What Sort of Case Prosecution Has and Particularly the Definition for Word "Corner."

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Oct. 23.—Admission of defects in the indictment of James Patton, Eugene Scates, Frank B. Haine and William P. Brown on charges of conspiracy to run a $10,000,000 corner on cotton in 1910, on the New York cotton exchange in violation of the anti-trust law, were made in the supreme court today by Solicitor General Bullitt for the government.

The occasion was the second argument on the indictment, the court not being willing to decide last spring the correctness of the decision of the New York federal court in quashing several vital counts.

The new solicitor general had barely stated to the court that the question in the case was the definition of the lower court that the Sherman anti-trust law did not prohibit the "cornering of a corner," before Chief Justice White suggested that he would be pleased to have the government at some time define just what it meant by "a corner."

Mr. Bullitt responded it was a combination among dealers in a commodity, or outside capitalists for the purpose of buying up the greater portion of the commodity and holding it back from sale until the demand so far outran the limited supply as to advance the price abnormally.

"Now, I want you to show the indictment fits that definition," added the chief justice.

"That led the solicitor general to announce that he abandoned the third count of the indictment, because the lower court found there was no charge in it that the defendants were to hold back the cotton from sale, and consequently no corner charged."

"Getting right down to brass tacks," declared Mr. Bullitt, "I frankly admit that the other count, the seventh, has one defect. There is no express statement in it that the combination was created to withhold the cotton bought."

The solicitor general said that in dealing with this defect the government advanced two arguments. One that the lower court construed the count to charge the running of a corner and the supreme court could do nothing but accept that interpretation, notwithstanding it might be the duty to examine the interpretation if there were a conviction and an appeal. The second argument, Mr. Bullitt said, was that the combination had used the word "corner" in the count and everybody in the world knew that a corner included a withholding from sale.

Mr. Bullitt admitted that if either one of these arguments was acceptable the government had no case.

ACCUSED STATEMEN ARE CONSERVATIVES

They are Penrose, DuPont and Warren, Republicans, and Chilton and Watson, Democrats.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Oct. 23.—John L. Loughlin, in a dispatch to the Chicago Record-Herald from Washington, says:

"As a result of recent developments, it has become apparent that the next session of congress will be devoted largely to investigations of the right of certain senators to occupy seats in the senate."

"Five senators, according to all accounts, will have to defend themselves against charges that their seats were procured by bribery and corruption or that they are unfit to serve as the representatives of their states."

"They are: Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania; Henry A. DuPont, of Delaware; Francis E. Warren, of Wyoming; William E. Chilton, of West Virginia; Clarence W. Watson, of West Virginia."

"Three of these senators, Penrose, DuPont and Warren are republicans, of the most conservative type, while two, Chilton and Watson, are democrats equally conservative."

"Penrose will be investigated first on the charges that he obtained his seat by bribery and corruption, which is being circulated by the Philadelphia North American, and second, that he is unfit, as the result of his association with the Standard Oil Company, to enjoy membership in the senate."

"Senator Reed, of Missouri, made an speech on the floor of the senate denouncing the methods whereby DuPont procured his election."

"Warren has been made the subject of allegations touching his moral fitness to retain his office. These allegations have not yet been filed with the senate."

"That body declined to receive last summer charges affecting the methods by which Chilton and Watson were elected, but it is stated that another effort will be made to present them with a view to action."

"It is unquestionably true that the character of the senate today is not as the liking of men of the type of DuPont and Penrose. There is altogether too great a disregard of what in the past has been known as 'senatorial courtesy.'"

"Ten years ago, yes, five years ago, no senator would have thought of rising from his seat and attacking a colleague. Now there are men in the body who are positively 'discourteous' and who do not hesitate to bare the shame of a member."

WASHINGTON HEARS NEWS WITH SURPRISE

American Consul Canada Notifies State Department of Defeat of Young Rebel Leader and His Surrender.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Mexico City, Oct. 23.—The taking of Vera Cruz by the federal forces is confirmed from all quarters. President Madero has sent the following dispatch to the governors of all the states:

"Vera Cruz is in the hands of the loyal troops. Diaz has been taken prisoner."

There is much suppressed excitement here over the federal victory, but little elation. That the movement so quickly was suppressed, has caused much surprise. The general opinion is that the government success will operate greatly to strengthen the administration.

WASHINGTON BELIEVES IT STRENGTHENS MADERO. Washington, Oct. 23.—News of the capture of Vera Cruz by Mexican federal forces and the surrender of General Felix Diaz and his staff with practically no show of resistance was received with astonishment in official circles here. It is generally believed this event marks the complete suppression of what had been looked upon as the beginning of a general rebellion involving entirely new elements.

A local subcommittee to the state department from American Consul General confirmed the report of the capture of Vera Cruz by General Ballesteros. There was some fighting on the outskirts of the town, but only enough to justify Captain Hughes, of the other Des Moines, in offering military assistance for the wounded, which was gratefully accepted.

The sudden collapse of the defenses after such elaborate preparations had been made for a general battle, is taken as evidence that the strength of the revolutionary sentiment in the city of Vera Cruz has been very much weakened and it was confined closely to the comparatively small garrison that backed to General Diaz' standard, principally for sentimental motives.

Already officials and army officers here are speculating as to the fate of Diaz and the other officers of the Mexican regular army who were led into this uprising. From the extremely courteous language in which General Ballesteros, the government commander, roused his demand for the surrender of Vera Cruz, it is surmised that the

FAIRBANKS SPEAKS IN BEHALF OF TAFT

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 23.—Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice president, in an address here tonight to the City club, urged its members to vote for President Taft.

"I want to tell you that the temple of republicanism is held, and still is as solid as when it was founded many years ago," he said. "Some have wandered away from the temple, but all of them have come back, and those who may wander away this time, will come back again, and will be welcomed when they return."

H. B. Steward Decides He Will Vote For Mr. Fergusson

Albuquerque, Oct. 24, 1912. Editor Morning Journal: I was somewhat surprised to read in the Morning Journal where I had been elected as one of the vice-presidents of the so-called Taft-Jeffa club at its meeting on Tuesday night. I have taken no active part in the present campaign, having been confined to my home for four weeks past because of illness. Of course I shall decline to serve as an officer of the club, or become actively associated with it in any way. This because I have made up my mind that it is to the best interests of Albuquerque and New Mexico that Hon. H. B. Fergusson be re-elected to congress this year. Though I have always been a republican, voting the republican ticket this year I am going to cast my ballot for Mr. Fergusson.

Yours truly, H. B. STEWARD

TROOPS OF GENERAL DIAZ BETRAYED HIM

Vera Cruz, Oct. 23.—The revolt of General Felix Diaz, nephew of the exiled president, was short-lived. The town of Vera Cruz, which he occupied with about 2,000 adherents for several days, was captured by the federal forces today. The casualties were few.

Two federal columns, commanded by Colonel Jimenez Castro and General Joaquin Beltrán, entered Vera Cruz from the north and south. There was slight opposition to their advance. Colonel Castro, with less than fifty men, captured General Felix Diaz, whose three hundred men at police headquarters refused to fire at his command.

The revolutionists in the barracks have not yet surrendered. They say they will hold out until the last man is killed. However, the weaker spirits seem to be trying to escape. The killed and wounded number less than one hundred. No foreigner was hurt. Desultory fighting continued after the federal entered the town. Instead of a great battle, everything was in a muddle. Rebels and federal soldiers encountered each other in the streets without one knowing which side the other was affiliated with, as uniforms of all were alike.

Colonel Jimenez Castro was shot in the calf of the leg during the first firing. Colonel Ordaz, of the "Twenty-first Infantry," who joined General Diaz with his troops in the revolution, has disappeared, but an active search for him is being made. The rebel officers have been disarmed and many have been made prisoners. It is thought probable that they will be ordered shot by military court tomorrow. It is announced the soldiers will not be punished.

The United States cruiser Des Moines sent Lieutenant Burns and Assistant Surgeon Cohn ashore to attend to the wounded.

MARSHALL ADMITS HE IS TAIL TO WILSON KITE

Tells Voters of Oregon He is Willing That They Send It Up Without Him; Makes Stinging Speeches.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Medford, Ore., Oct. 23.—Governor Marshall announced his entry into Oregon from California tonight, by making an unashamed speech from a balcony track on the station platform at Ashland, where a crowd of several hundred had gathered to see him. He followed this ten-minute talk at Ashland with a thirty-minute open air speech in Medford.

"My purpose in coming to Oregon at this particular time," said Governor Marshall, "is not to ask for votes for myself. I am merely the tail to the democratic kite and if you people can send up the kite without the tail you have my permission."

"But I do want to urge as strongly as I know how the election of Dr. Harry Lane, the democratic nominee for the United States senate in your state. I also urge upon you the election of democratic congressmen, for without them Woodrow Wilson will be powerless to effect the reforms called for in the democratic platform."

GREEK ARMY IS VICTORIOUS IN BLOODY FIGHT

Occupies Town of Servia and Captures Bridge Over River Aliakmon, Cutting Off Retreat of Turks.

MUCH ARTILLERY AND MANY PRISONERS TAKEN

As Result of General Engagement All Along Frontier, Casualties are Estimated at Thousands.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Athens, Oct. 24.—(1:45 a. m.)—The Greeks have occupied the town of Servia and have also captured the bridge over the river Aliakmon (Andle Karassa), thereby cutting off the retreat of the Turks.

The government has despatched telegrams congratulating the commander and troops. The Greek victory was complete. The Greeks captured twenty-two guns, made many prisoners and scattered the Turkish army.

Crown Prince Constantine telegraphing from headquarters last night reports: "Our troops are pursuing the enemy all along the line from Cambunia to the town of Servia and on the Aliakmon Plain. The Turkish army has been scattered. We have taken twenty-two field guns with their ammunition wagons and a large quantity of ammunition and many transport wagons."

Later General Dangles sent a message saying: "The Turks have lost heavily. We have made a number of prisoners, including one lieutenant colonel."

Two battalions of Greek Evzones, under Lieutenant Colonel Constantopoulos, attacked two battalions of Turks near Vlacholichia, dispersing them.

BULGARIANS SURROUND STRATEGIC TURKISH CITY.

Sofia, Oct. 23.—The Bulgarians have surrounded Kirk-Kilisli, which the Turks regard as of equal importance almost with Adrianople. Its defense has been entrusted to Mukhtar Pasha, son of the Grand Vizier, and Pazim Pasha.

Severe fighting is reported in the Struma valley. The Bulgarians yesterday occupied important strategic points in Kresna Pass. The Turks fled, abandoning munitions and supplies.

The air publishes additional details of the massacre in the district of Kotschana. The retreating Turks massacred the male population in five villages to the southeast of Tarevoselo and set fire to the houses.

Deputations of students begged the minister of war today to enroll them with the 1912 recruits.

THOUSAND FALL IN FIGHTING AT NOVPAZAR. Novpazar, Oct. 23.—The capture of Novpazar by General Jankovitch was preceded by three days' desperate fighting, the Turks holding strongly fortified positions. General Szekevitch reports that the Serbian losses in the capture of Novpazar were extraordinarily large, but that the Turkish losses were still greater.

A Lady's Comment
On Medicine and Religion

The following letter is from a lady whose name I am not at liberty to use. If I should mention her name she would be known by almost every reader. She writes in part:

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, O.

Your article entitled "Medicine and Religion" has been read and reread by me many times. It seems to me that the article contains the substance of all that has been said about Christian Science, new thought, suggestive therapeutics and other forms of mental healing.

"I am very much pleased to observe that you are pointing out into the world such useful literature. It will do untold good, without doubt, not only for those who take medicine, but for those who try to get along without taking medicine. Your article in terms, to the point, and will be read by thousands.

"Medicine and religion have always been very closely associated. Only in very recent years have the two been regarded as separate professions. I am glad you thought this out so clearly. The tendency of today is strongly in the direction of medicine and religion coming back together again. With your immense facilities for spreading useful information, I am sure you will greatly assist the progress of the times in sending out broadcast such articles. I want you to know that your efforts are appreciated.

"As to Peruna, I have nothing to say. I very seldom make use of any medicine, but I assure you that your article has so enthused me with the good advice it contains that I have any need for medicine I shall certainly buy a bottle of Peruna. I shall not neglect to recommend it to others also."

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Trenton, N. J., Oct. 23.—In the solemn atmosphere of a church, apart from the noise of political demonstration to which he has been accustomed during the last two months, Governor Woodrow Wilson delivered a speech tonight. It was virtually a sermon on the value of church organization and was the principal address at the centennial celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the founding of the First Presbyterian church of Trenton.

"Life without the standard of the church," he said, "is something like a faltering quicksand. The church is one of the main expressions of the permanent side of life. This church, through its 200 years, has witnessed the birth and death of political parties. It has seen everything change except the search for God, and every community should realize that the search for God should take precedence over everything else."

CLARK LINING UP MANY VOTES FOR WILSON

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Denver, Oct. 23.—Clark, speaker of the house of representatives, completed the first of a two-day speaking campaign in Colorado with an address tonight before an audience that filled the multiplex auditorium. Large crowds greeted him at La Junta and Rocky Ford, where he spoke during the day. In all three speeches speaker Clark gave his undivided attention to a discussion of the tariff.

"I must admit that Woodrow Wilson was not my first choice for nomination," said the speaker here tonight. "But after his nomination as being as much my candidate as my own, in regard to Governor Wilson it will be said that it is better to be born lucky than rich. I never before saw two republican work so hard for a democrat as Taft and Roosevelt."

The speaker repeatedly created laughter by his ironical (jest) at opposition candidates. "There are five candidates for president—as far as I know," he said. "Wilson for the democrats, Taft for the republicans, Chase for the prohibitionists and Roosevelt for himself. Taft and Wilson agree that the tariff is the overshadowing issue in this campaign. Roosevelt has done all his own. It is constantly asserted that the democrats seek tariff reduction that would injure business. This is a most monstrous fabric story. America and Saxaphra had their ill-fated tariff transaction.

"The republican claim that a high tariff is necessary to protect infant industries, but some of their infant industries are 123 years old and of high time they were divorced from the public eye and made to walk alone."

Speaker Clark reviewed the passage of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill and declared the support given it by President Taft had turned the public opinion and caused his defeat at the polls in November.

Alleged Conspiracy Causes Sensational Developments in Trial of Union Rioters at Lake Charles, La.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Lake Charles, La., Oct. 23.—F. Dorce, of Portland, Ore., E. F. Edgemo, of San Francisco, and C. H. Edwards, of Merceville, La., are under arrest here tonight charged with attempting to bribe or induce a witness of the prosecution in the trial of the labor leaders charged with murder in the Grabow riot.

Dorce, who is said to have been in Texas raising funds for the defense of the accused members of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers, was arrested today. The others were arrested several days ago, but their arrest was kept secret, pending the capture of Dorce, who is charged with being the leader in the alleged bribery attempt.

A negro named Whitford, one of three negro witnesses for the state, is reported to have been the subject of the trial's operations.

Dorce, who came here at the beginning of the trial, is a member of the Industrial Workers of the World. Edgemo, a member of the Industrial Workers of the World, is said to have been sent here to cooperate with Dorce, Edwards, of the Timber Workers union, is a butcher of Merceville.

The strongest evidence obtained by the state today in its attempt to show the riot resulted from a conspiracy came this afternoon, when J. C. Kerr, formerly a woods foreman for the Gallop Lumber Company, testified he attended a meeting of the Timber Workers union near Grabow, after the strike was on, and before the riot, and that Confession Hall, of New Orleans, a socialist, one of the speakers, said:

"Boys, we must win this strike if we have to do it with guns."

Hall testified that he heard President Edgemo of the Timber Workers, when two armed men joined his party, as they were marching to Bon Ami, about:

"Put those guns down."

Others in the party told the newcomers to bring them along. He added that the men kept their guns.

DEFENSE SCATHINGLY ARRAYS PROSECUTION

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 23.—The fate of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, charged with the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, will rest with the jury tomorrow. Counsel for both sides completed today their summing up, and all that remains to close the case is Justice Goff's charge to the jury.

Becker heard himself characterized by John F. McIntyre, his chief counsel, as the victim of a conspiracy plotted by Jack Rose, "the heart of the assassin," and by Assistant District Attorney Moss as "the brains behind the gun men, with a tremendous motive for murder."

The defense entered its attack on the state's case almost wholly on Rose's testimony, which Mr. McIntyre denounced as "unworthy of being because Jack Rose testified to save himself from the electric chair."

He characterized the corroborating witnesses as "crooks and murderers," the state's case he summed up with a declaration that District Attorney Whitman, "actuated by ambition had fathered a prosecution framed up by crooks."

Assistant District Attorney Moss resented the implication that Mr. Whitman had any other motive than duty for seeking the conviction of Becker, and denounced "the vilification of counsel for the defense as showing the desperate straits to which he had come."

Mr. Moss accused Mr. McIntyre of misrepresenting the evidence to the jury, impugning Becker's attorney to jump to his feet and shake his fist in the face of his opponent as he uttered an indignant denial.

"If Becker did not have a motive for the murder, why did he want to get an affidavit from Rose two days after Rosenthal was dead?" Mr. Moss asked. "The truth is Becker did not know how things would go. He saw the possibility that Rose might be a witness against him and he got an affidavit from Rose to silence him. He got Rose to swear his own life away, so he could not testify against him."

Sam Scheppe, Mr. Moss conceded, was an accessory after the fact, but had come forward to testify that Becker had thrown "his pal, Rose, to the dogs."

"Why," the prosecutor asked, "if Becker had no interest in the murder, did he visit the police station where Rosenthal's body was lying? Becker was off duty. What reason did he have to go there?"

Mr. Moss said that the defense had dwelt throughout the trial upon an alleged conspiracy to murder Rosenthal, "founded on the hatred of the underworld," but had not introduced a shred of proof that such a conspiracy had existed.

Answering Mr. McIntyre's declaration that the four gun men, yet to be tried, might go free even if Becker were convicted, Mr. Moss said:

"Have no fear that you will ever meet these four men on Broadway. We have not disclosed our entire case against them yet, and you need not be afraid at meeting Rose, Webber and Vallon there after the trial is over. Their friends, the gun men of the underworld, will take care of that."

For the character of his witnesses, Mr. Moss offered no apology. He declared, however, that if the district attorney had not accepted the testimony of the four informers, Rose, Webber, Vallon and Scheppe, all ten men connected with the case would be at large.

Mr. Moss denied that Rose, Vallon and Webber had been given immunity. "Their stipulations do not protect them from prosecution if they fired a shot," he said. "To say that these men are testifying to save their lives is to bring the issue."

Frederick Hawley, the newspaper reporter put on by the defense to cross-examine his alleged accomplice, with Rose and Webber the morning of the murder, was declared by Mr. Moss to have been really a witness for the state.

"He testified that he telephoned Becker," Mr. Moss said, "and told him that when he telephoned Becker, Becker told him that he had heard of the murder from a newspaper man. Dorce's corroboration from the defense's own witness."

Mr. Moss denounced the defense for characterizing Sam Scheppe as a murderer.

"Scheppe never premeditated the killing of Rosenthal," he said, "but after it was over and he learned about the murder, he committed the crime of helping. He was an accessory after the fact, which is a separate crime from murder and not punishable in the same degree."

"Rose wrote to Scheppe, his pal, and said, 'the electric chair stares at

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 23.—The fate of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, charged with the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, will rest with the jury tomorrow. Counsel for both sides completed today their summing up, and all that remains to close the case is Justice Goff's charge to the jury.

Becker heard himself characterized by John F. McIntyre, his chief counsel, as the victim of a conspiracy plotted by Jack Rose, "the heart of the assassin," and by Assistant District Attorney Moss as "the brains behind the gun men, with a tremendous motive for murder."

The defense entered its attack on the state's case almost wholly on Rose's testimony, which Mr. McIntyre denounced as "unworthy of being because Jack Rose testified to save himself from the electric chair."

He characterized the corroborating witnesses as "crooks and murderers," the state's case he summed up with a declaration that District Attorney Whitman, "actuated by ambition had fathered a prosecution framed up by crooks."

Assistant District Attorney Moss resented the implication that Mr. Whitman had any other motive than duty for seeking the conviction of Becker, and denounced "the vilification of counsel for the defense as showing the desperate straits to which he had come."

JOHNSON TOURING PENNSYLVANIA FOR COLONEL

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Scranton, Pa., Oct. 23.—"These enemies that Colonel Roosevelt made among certain wealthy men which he stepped into the anthracite coal strike in 1902 and obtained a settlement favorable to the men, are arrayed against him in his present fight," Governor Johnson tonight told an audience in which were several hundred miners.

"Those financiers who have been guilty of inhumanity, injurious to the people could not understand or sympathize in 1902, with what they then called the 'meddling propensity' of the president, when he took a hand in the great anthracite strike in the coal fields of Pennsylvania," he said, "and the great owners who now are largely arrayed against Colonel Roosevelt, resented as well as the operative themselves refused to take such arbitrary action."

Referring to Colonel Roosevelt as a guide toward the trusts, he said:

"It was he who commenced the battle against the trusts and requires them to submit to governmental control. By this very act he incurred their enmity, and that of every 'kept' newspaper in the land."

"The same newspapers" that denounce him because of his "destructive and unchristian views" in seeking to suppress and repress the wrongful aggression of dishonest combinations of wealth, today are endeavoring to poison the public mind by saying he is friendly to the trusts."

Replying to Governor Wilson's assertion that he could do nothing with the trust problem because of the republican majority in the New Jersey senate, the governor said:

"The defense is disingenuous, for it was this very senate that carried through all the political reforms that were accomplished in New Jersey. It must be conceded that no effort of any sort was ever made by Governor Wilson to dissolve or curb any trust in his state."

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.

AMERICAN MINING PROPERTIES ARE IN REBEL HANDS

Important Plants at Velardina, State of Durango, and at Rio Tinto, in Chihuahua, Have Been Seized.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
El Paso, Tex., Oct. 23.—Rebels have taken two important American mining properties in Mexico, according to definite advice received today by representatives here of the two companies. Most important is the capture by rebels of the American Smelting and Refining Co.'s property at Velardina, state of Durango. This company's property includes one of the largest smelters in Mexico. The property is supported largely by Kansas City capital.

Utterly Wretched
Nervous Prostration Long Endured Before Remedy was Found.

Miss Minerva Henderson, Upper Bern, Pa., writes: "For several years I had nervous prostration, and was utterly wretched. I lived on bread and beef tea because my stomach would not retain anything else. I took many remedies, but obtained no relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, when I began to gain at once. Am now cured."

Pure, rich blood makes good, strong nerves, and this is why Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and enriches the blood, cures so many nervous diseases. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

In the face. The only one to get out from under was Becker. He deserted me like a dirty dog."

"How did Becker get out from under? I will tell you. He got Rose to swear his life away. He got him to make an affidavit clearing him (Becker) of any motive for killing Rosenthal, and fixed it so Rose could not testify against him. Then Becker turned down message after message from Rose and Rose, saw that Becker had deserted him and that he, and not Becker, was facing the electric chair. That's why he wrote to Sam Scheppe to help him out."

FINANCIERS USED IN FORMATION OF HARVESTER TRUST

Witnesses in Federal Suit to Dissolve Alleged Combine, Tell of Being Directors for Twenty-Four Hours.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Oct. 25.—When the International Harvester Company, the so-called Harvester "trust" was formed in 1902, its organization was made up of directors, some of whom held office not more than twenty-four hours, according to several witnesses who testified today when hearings were begun here in the government suit to dissolve the combine. Their connection, however, was long enough, the testimony ran, for them to aid in the purchase of independent companies.

One of these directors was H. E. M. Griffith, who resigned after one day's directorship. He testified that his financial assistance to the trust was the purchase of the Moline Harvester Company for nearly one million dollars. This company later passing into the control of the trust.

Alfred M. Hyatt, vice president of the Lincoln Trust Company, testified he was a director for a day only while H. E. M. Griffith was in office. Griffith said he was not a director of the Harvester company, although he had never been in the business nor had connection with a harvester company prior to his election.

One of the witnesses said George W. Perkins suggested his election, but he did not recall who asked him to resign, while other witnesses said they could not remember who suggested either their election or resignation.

Mr. Miller said he was not in the office as president longer than twenty-four hours. He had never expected, he declared, to have permanent connection with the company.

Mr. Craythorn, a Wall street banker, said that when elected a director he expected to continue as a member of the board but the very next day he was asked to resign, in purchasing the Moline Harvester Company, he said he did not act independently, but at the instruction of others, and that he thought he borrowed $94,000 from the Bankers Trust Company with which to purchase the stock.

Joseph P. Cotton, Jr., a Wall street lawyer, who said he attended to matters of detail in the incorporation of the combine, testified that at a meeting of stockholders in August, 1902, he held proxies for about 99 per cent of shares and voted them under instructions from the sitting trustees who, he said, were George W. Perkins, Cyrus H. McCordick and Charles Deering.

AVIATOR IS KILLED WHILE TRYING SPIRAL GLIDE

Louis Mitchell, Birdman, Falls Two Hundred Feet to His Death at Montgomery, Alabama.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 23.—Aviator Louis Mitchell fell 200 feet here this afternoon and was killed. Mitchell had been in the air before 1,000 spectators more than an hour, and shortly before 4 o'clock he began his descent. At a height of 600 feet he lost control and at 200 feet the biplane descended to go to pieces. The aviator was killed under the motor and was dead when spectators reached him.

Eugene Beth, of Detroit, Mich., Mitchell's partner, was flying directly over Mitchell. He was carrying a passenger and had planned to follow Mitchell in a similar stunt. He said Mitchell had after Mitchell had control of his machine the plane tilted to the perpendicular, so that he could see the ground between them.

Mrs. Mitchell was among the spectators but did not see her husband fall.

A. J. BEVERIDGE GREAT BATTLE IS RETURNED LARGE CONTRIBUTIONS TO CAMPAIGN NOW RAGING FOR POSSESSION OF ADRIANOPLE

Indiana Statesman Spurned Seventy-Seven Thousand Dollars Sent Him by Perkins, McLean and Pinchot.

EVEN TURNED DOWN DRAFT FROM COUSIN

Lest Those Who Gave Money Might be Offended, He Withheld Checks Until After the Election.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Washington, Oct. 25.—That Senator Albert J. Beveridge returned campaign contributions amounting to $77,000 sent him by George W. Perkins, Edward L. McLean and Gifford Pinchot, was the testimony of three witnesses examined today by the senate campaign contribution committee.

While Mr. Perkins, when examined by the committee, declared he could remember sending only $10,000 to Senator Beveridge which was returned, today's testimony was to the effect that Senator Beveridge received and returned three checks or drafts, each for $10,000. Besides $25,000 was received from and returned to Edward L. McLean, cousin of Senator Beveridge, and other $2,500 or $3,000 was returned to Gifford Pinchot.

Larise A. Whitecomb, who had a law office with Senator Beveridge in 1904, John F. Hayes, formerly Senator Beveridge's private secretary, and Leopold G. Rothschild, who was on the republican executive committee in 1904, were today's witnesses. Each of them testified to having witnessed and signed copies of the letters with which Senator Beveridge returned the contributions. Mr. Rothschild said that Senator Beveridge showed him the drafts from Mr. Perkins, early in October, before the election and announced his intention of returning the money. Mr. Rothschild said he advised holding the money until after election lest the contributors be offended and that Senator Beveridge concluded to do this. The money was returned some ten days after the election.

After the committee had adjourned for the day, Frank J. Hogan, representing the progressive party in Washington, says on a letter which he said had been telephoned him from the New York office of Mr. Perkins and which purported to be the letter of Senator Beveridge, returning the money sent him by Perkins. The letter names no amount. It reads as follows:

"Dear old man: Herewith I return to you untouched the splendid sum you so generously sent me to help me in the battle just won. It was noble of you, George—characteristic of your noble heart, and I am grateful and appreciative beyond words to express. I could not use a cent of the magnificent amount you placed at my disposal and so return it to you intact.

"Do not feel offended at this, my cousin sent me a draft for $25,000 and I returned the draft to him just as I am sending the enclosed back to you.

"Your beautiful friendship steadily proved, as the years pass, to be very sweet and dear to me.

"Give my regards to our mutual friends, my love to the folks at home, and believe me always, with tenderest affection, as ever,

"ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE"

The letter, Mr. Hogan said, would be presented to the committee tomorrow for the record. Mr. Perkins, when he was on the stand, was asked to furnish the committee with any correspondence between himself and Senator Beveridge and he agreed to do so.

Mr. Perkins desires to pursue the Beveridge matter further, and telegrams have been sent to several witnesses asking when they can appear. Senator Beveridge has wired his can not reach Washington before Saturday.

Further articles of the committee will depend entirely on the immediate availability of the witnesses.

VALENTINE FAVORS NUMEROUS REFORMS

Molokai Lake, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The annual conference of Friends of the Indian and other dependent people, opened here today and will continue until December 24th.

A feature of the evening session was the delivery of an address by Robert G. Valentine, former commissioner of Indian affairs. Mr. Valentine said conditions in the Indian office were, he said, because of obstructive influences below and above. No man could accomplish what he had in mind to do, he said. He urged that the United States make an accounting of Indian property, that the authority of the commissioner be materially increased, that all private Indian enterprises be supervised, that an advisory council of five be created by which Indian policies and that all Indian legislation go to a special court.

Combined Forces of Bulgaria Center Attack on Turkish City Which is Offering Desperate Resistance.

TODAY MAY WITNESS A DECISIVE RESULT

Though Allied Forces Continue to Win Victories These are Purchased at Heavy Sacrifices.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) London, Oct. 25.—The news tonight from the seat of war in the Balkan tells of the continued successes of the allies. The Serbians have captured Novi-Pazar and are the virtual masters of Kosovo. The victories, however, have been purchased at heavy sacrifices.

The situation in Thrace is becoming clearer. A great battle is being fought over a wide semi-circular front before Adrianople, upon which the Bulgarians gradually are closing in, on the east they have occupied Availia, and Thracian and are continuing their advance westward.

On the west the Bulgarians, according to official Sofia accounts, have reached the Avda river, close to Adrianople, which is being bombarded vigorously. Already the two outer forts have fallen. Some positions north of Adrianople are said to have been taken after fighting of the severest character.

Of the army in the center, operating in the direction of Kile-Kilassch, there was no news today, and evidently that fortress is holding out.

It is significant that tonight's Constantinople despatches which say a decisive result is expected tomorrow, have a less confident tone than previous despatches from that capital. They admit a heavy struggle is in progress, in which both sides are showing the utmost bravery.

Information concerning the Montenegrin progress is meager, but the Turkish authorities claim that Scutari has been reinforced and is safe.

A Salonki despatch says the Malissori tribes are offended because the Montenegrin commanders are prohibiting the sovereignty of King Nicholas in the captured Albanian towns. They demand that King Nicholas give a guarantee that they will evacuate Albanian territory and secure autonomy for Albania.

So far they have received no satisfactory reply and it is reported that they are refusing to fight further for the Montenegrins whose advance has been thereby checked.

BEAUTIFUL JEWEL PRESENTED TO W. B. WALTON

Retiring Grand Master is Recipient of Handsome Gift at Installation of His Successor Last Night.

A beautiful gold Past Grand Master's jewel was presented to William B. Walton, of Silver City, last night, by the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M., of New Mexico, at the ceremony in which the new officers of this body were installed. The jewel was presented by Past Grand Master J. J. Kelly, also of Silver City, who made a most speech at the time, expressing the appreciation of his faithful service felt by the grand lodge.

The following elective officers were installed, Grand Master Walton officiating at the ceremony: Grand Master—M. R. Williams, Las Vegas.

Deputy Grand Master—Walter P. Chasmon, Roswell.

Grand Treasurer—Arthur J. Mason, Albuquerque.

Grand Secretary—Alphons A. Keen, Albuquerque.

The appointive officers were named and installed later by M. R. Williams, Las Vegas, the succeeding grand master.

Immediately after the installation the visiting members of the grand lodge were entertained in a banquet given by the local Masonic organization, Temple Lodge No. 6. At this banquet speeches were made by Past Grand Master Ralph D. Cole, of Ohio, who was a guest at the affair, and by Nathan Jaffe, representative delegate for congress and a prominent Mason.

Deputy G. Brown, past grand master of Kansas, was another guest of the banquet.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You

Stops Even Whooping Cough Quickly. A Family Supply at Small Cost.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough instantly, and usually cures the most stubborn case in 24 hours. This recipe makes a pint—enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.00.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medical value of pine in treating asthma, bronchitis and other throat troubles, sore lungs, etc. There is nothing better. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never surpassed.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

STARTLING STORY IS TOLD BY WIFE TO SAVE HUSBAND

Declares Couple Were Killed Out of Revenge for Having Committed Criminal Attack on Her.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) San Diego, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Hubert Lewis, whose husband is on trial here for the alleged murder of C. H. Toliver, and his wife, Kate Toliver, declared on the witness stand today that the killing of the Tolivers was the sequel to a criminal attack upon her, in which Toliver had been aided by his wife, Mrs. Lewis testified that when she related the circumstances to her husband, his rage deprived him temporarily of reason, and while in this condition he sought out the Tolivers and shot both to death.

That fainting and weeping continually, Mrs. Lewis broke down during her recital. She said that nearly a year ago her husband had been sent to San Francisco on business by the Tolivers, who were wealthy. After his departure she was invited to the Toliver home one night and was told by Mrs. Toliver that Lewis would never return to San Diego. Mrs. Toliver said, advised her to forget him and was accompanied with another man.

When she indignantly resented the suggestion, she declared, Toliver suddenly stepped out of a closet and she was seized and overpowered by Toliver and his wife. She fainted, and when she revived Mrs. Toliver was bathing her head.

Mrs. Lewis told the jury that Mrs. Toliver confessed to her that she had participated in the assault because she feared her husband was about to leave her.

At the conclusion of the direct examination, Lewis broke away from his attorneys and rushed to the witness stand, where for some minutes he and his wife wept in each others' arms. The court did not order the bailiffs to interfere.

Continuing her testimony at a night session of the court, Mrs. Lewis said that while she was at the Toliver home, the Tolivers summoned a trance medium, who told her that she and Toliver were soul mates and that she should abandon her husband, who was leading a life of dissipation in San Francisco.

Letters written to her by her husband after she had informed him of the alleged attack, were admitted in evidence. In one of them Lewis said the shock of her disclosures had resulted in a mental and nervous breakdown, but he had snapped out of his course and once his plans were executed they would be happy again. The letters were filled with endearing expressions.

Mrs. Lewis was still on the stand when court adjourned until tomorrow.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months the Morning Journal readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

J. L. Caryl, of Albuquerque, New Mex., says: "Some three or four years ago Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to our attention and the contents of several boxes gave relief to a member of the family who had suffered greatly from kidney complaint. She was benefited so greatly that she gladly testified as to the curative powers of Doan's Kidney Pills in a public statement. Since then I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills myself and have found them very effective in relieving backache and regulating the passages of the urinary excretions. Our experience with this preparation warrants our high opinion of it."

INSANE WOMAN BURNS HOME AND PROPERTY

Because of his mother having become suddenly insane and firing her house so that it and its contents were destroyed, a 12-year-old boy is left homeless, according to the story brought to the city yesterday by W. A. Davis, of McIntosh. Mr. Davis declared that the woman, Mrs. Mary Clapp, had forced her two daughters and the homeless son to leave all their belongings in the house after she had it fired, with a consequence that everything they had was destroyed. There have been found for the two daughters, one of whom was about to be married, but the boy has no place to go. Mrs. Clapp is now confined in an insane asylum awaiting an examination as to her sanity.

Comforting to the Eyes

EVENING is the most enjoyable time for reading. The quiet world allows you to see more clearly the scenes, and to feel more deeply the emotions, portrayed by the author's words.

It is very essential, however, to have a good light, otherwise the strained eyes tire the sunset and rob the evening reading of its keenest pleasure.

Electric light, which can be readily obtained in any intensity suitable for the eyes of either young or old, affords the best reading light, and Edison Mazda Lamps furnish an abundance of it at minimum cost.

Substitute Mazda Lamps for the old carbon lamps in your lamp sockets and note the difference in the amount and quality of the light.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM Baking Powder

Purity in food, lower cost of living—these are the demands of the day.

Pure food is health, and health is economy itself. We cannot have health without healthful food.

The most healthful foods are the quickly raised flour foods—biscuit, cake, muffins, crusts and other pastry when perfectly made from wholesome ingredients.

Dr. PRICE'S baking powder makes these foods in specially attractive, appetizing and wholesome form, and for both economic and hygienic reasons, such foods should be more largely substituted for meat in the daily diet.

But bear in mind that alum, or unwholesome baking powder, can never make pure, wholesome food.

COLE MAKES GOOD SPEECH TO ONLY SMALL CROWD

Former Ohio Congressman
Lives Up to Reputation as Interesting Story Teller;
Bands Enliven Occasion.

The republican rally last night was entitled to more than the meager audience that listened to Hon. Ralph D. Cole, former member of congress from Ohio, make one of the most entertaining speeches ever delivered in Albuquerque. Throughout the address was an appeal for support of President Taft, because the speaker alleged, he had been the victim of a conspiracy to defeat him entered into by very rich men who had prosecuted for violating the anti-trust law or whose business he had attacked for violation of the Sherman act.

Also, it was noted throughout the speech that he revealed indicating any belief in the possibility of Mr. Taft's election. Many times he repeated the statement that if President Taft is defeated it will be because of the fact that he has done his duty. He was bitter only when he was denouncing the men who formed the third party—Perkins, Munsey and Dan Hanna.

Mr. Cole paid a glowing tribute to the work done by Hon. W. H. Andrew, as delicate in congress, to secure statehood for New Mexico and for the interests of the territory generally.

Mr. Cole is a humorous speaker. The audience was in a somewhat whimsical mood and fully appreciated all of the sallies of wit and the riot stories told by the speaker. The fact was more remarkable because of the very small number of people present. It is doubtful if more than one-fourth of the seats on the lower floor of the Elks theater were filled and the balcony was vacant. Usually when the audience is small and scattered, it is difficult to start a laugh, but Mr. Cole was too happy and entertaining to fail to bring applause and cheers and laughter of the side-splitting sort.

The audience had been put in a most genial frame of mind when the bands began to perform. Chairman Elfron Bava, who got and held control of the meeting away from the Jaffa committee, was defeated by Porter Jones, field marshal for the Jaffites, who ousted the committee's band into the theater in advance of the band employed for the occasion by Mr. Bava. The Jaffa band hurried down the aisle and took the orchestra seats, while the chairman's band was still outside playing. The Jaffa band played rival airs in the theater until the Bava band came in at the rear of the hall. There the chairman had the advantage for his band had a bigger horn than the Jaffa band could afford and took charge of the music from that time on.

Mr. Cole was introduced to Chairman Bava on the stage by former Governor Stover and Mr. Bava then introduced the speaker with a speech that was somewhat more lengthy than was warranted by the fact that Mr. Cole was standing all the time, waiting to begin his remarks.

Mr. Cole, after Chairman Bava had concluded, began by telling how he went into politics a long time ago. He was the thirteenth of seventeen children and they were all republicans that needed no prefix or suffix. Twelve of them, sons, were in school at the same time and they had a party royal with the democrats in the school after it became known that Cleveland had defeated James G. Blaine. The Cokes were in a good way to be victors when the principal interfered.

When Mr. Cole was only twenty-two years old he was elected clerk of the court and after that to the legislature and when thirty-two he became a member of congress, holding his seat for six years. He said he didn't know up till the landslide in Ohio two years ago that there was but one side to politics. Then he was licked and was licked soundly and thoroughly. He believed that a licking now and then does a man good and said that he believed a lay should be passed allowing wives to lick their husbands once a week so that the lords of creation could understand what it was to be licked. He said he wouldn't take ten thousand dollars for the licking he got, but wouldn't give five cents to be licked the same way again.

Mr. Cole, during his remarks, read from a speech by Champ Clark, made a long time ago, in which he said he was a free trader, and from Oscar Underwood who said he was for a tariff for revenue only, and from Woodrow Wilson who said he was for tariff reduction so slowly that it would not injure the business of the country. He illustrated Governor Wilson's position by telling the story of a woman who wanted her bull dog's tail cut off a little piece each day so as not to hurt the animal any more than could be helped.

Mr. Cole then took up the wool tariff and attempted to make the audience believe that Mr. Ferguson would be compelled in congress to stand by the action of the democratic caucus, though he probably didn't know that the caucus rules expect a congressman to stand by the pledge he has made to his constituents and that Mr. Ferguson, under the rules of the caucus, would be expected to vote against a reduction of the wool schedules below the percentage of protection he is advocating in his speeches.

Also, Mr. Cole fully sustained the contention of the Journal that the southern democrats are becoming impregnated with the doctrine of protection for raw materials, only he said each one of the democratic congressmen wants to protect only the interests of his own district, the source of all tariff bills which invariably are the result of compromises of the interests of the different congressional districts.

Mr. Cole devoted quite an amount of time to showing how the republican party had redeemed its pledge to the people and closed with an eloquent illustration to a visit he made to Pike's peak some years ago and the grandeur of that snow-capped mountain as he watched it from the plains. He said it was the last thing he saw in the distance and as he was going in a Colorado again a few days ago it was the first thing he saw in the distance.

He said when the people of the country are prospering, the last thing they can see is protection and when they have undergone national adversity the first thing they get of returning prosperity is the high peak of protection.

PROGRAM IS ISSUED FOR REUNION OF SCOTTISH RITE

Handsome Booklet Issued Announcing Dedication of Splendid New Cathedral at Santa Fe November 17th.

A handsome booklet has been issued by the Scottish Rite giving the program for the dedication reunion which that body will hold in Santa Fe November 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th. The pamphlet is bound in a beautifully embossed cover and is illustrated with a view of the new cathedral which will be dedicated at the reunion and with many pictures of prominent members of the rite.

A history of the rite in New Mexico is a feature and several pages are given over to descriptive matter regarding the cathedral. Another feature of the booklet which will be of great value is a roster of the members of the different degrees of the rite.

The typographical work and arrangement of this book are far above the average. The dedication will be held at 7:30 p. m. Sunday evening, November 17th, Elphinstone G. Stewart, 23rd, a prominent member of the rite in Missouri, will deliver the dedicatory address.

FRIVOLOUS MISSES RUN AWAY FROM THEIR HOMES

Police Locate Two Girls Missing for a Day in Rented Room in Third Ward in Company With Man.

After a search that lasted nearly twenty-four hours, two young girls, daughters of respectable families of this city, were located yesterday afternoon by the police in a rented room in a house in the Third ward. With them was a man who bears a none too excellent reputation.

The girls, at least one of them, are supposed to have left their homes between 4 and 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Until they were found yesterday there had been no word of them. Why they left their homes is a mystery. Both are of good families and have always behaved themselves, though it is said that both are rather inclined to frivolity.

The house was located on West Coal avenue, according to the story told last night by persons in a position to know. The man in the case has been in trouble before, according to the police, though it was of a slightly different character. He is employed at a local establishment.

All three persons concerned were taken to the police station yesterday afternoon after the girls were located and questioned closely. The girls were sent home and the man released. There will likely be no effort made to prosecute him. He claims that he was with the girls simply to urge them to return home.

FERGUSON GIVEN FINE RECEPTION IN SOCORRO

At Every Town in Which He Speaks Capacity Audiences Hear Him; Enthusiastically Received Everywhere.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
Socorro, N. M., Oct. 23.—Congressman H. B. Ferguson yesterday and today toured western Socorro county, winding up a strenuous two days' speechmaking trip with an address at the court house tonight. Mr. Ferguson was enthusiastically greeted everywhere he spoke by capacity audiences and the reception he received shows that in Socorro county at the coming election he is going to poll a big vote, the heaviest vote ever given a democratic candidate in Socorro county, leaders of this party claim.

Congressman Ferguson arrived here yesterday from the north. He was met at the train by a large delegation of democrats and business men, who escorted him to Magdalena, where the party entered automobiles, and drove to Kelle. He spoke at Kelly last night to a crowd that jammed Babcock's hall to the doors and was enthusiastically cheered numerous times during the course of his speech.

Following the speech at Kelly, he returned to Magdalena, where he spoke at 8:20 to another capacity crowd. He went into the issues of the campaign at great length and made an excellent impression on his auditors, by his forceful and clear-cut arguments.

He arrived in Socorro today at noon, being met at the train by another large delegation of citizens, democrats and republicans, who escorted him to the Windsor hotel. He spent the afternoon conferring with local democratic leaders and in resting.

Tonight at 8 o'clock he addressed an enthusiastic audience at the court house. County Chairman Meliton Torres introduced Mr. Ferguson, while John Greenwood, Sr., acted as chairman of the meeting. A. C. Torres interpreted Mr. Ferguson's speech, extending over an hour and a half.

When Mr. Ferguson had concluded, John Price, president of the Socorro bank, was called upon for a speech. Mr. Price told of his conference with Governor Woodrow Wilson at Saugitt this month during a visit in the east. He told his auditors that if Mr. Wilson were elected president he would take rank with Washington, Lincoln and Grant as America's greatest presidents.

Mr. Ferguson leaves tomorrow morning for San Marcel.

A. W. HAYDEN NAMED BY PROGRESSIVES AS HEAD OF CLUB

Local Contractor Selected as President of Roosevelt-Johnson-Baca Organization by Unanimous Vote.

At a well attended and enthusiastically meeting last night, the progressives of the city and adjoining precincts organized the Roosevelt-Johnson-Baca club, naming A. W. Hayden, president. The meeting was held in the newly opened progressive headquarters at 204 West Gold avenue and was featured by a strong address from John Baron Burg, progressive member of the state legislature from Bernillo county. Other speakers were E. Burns and Modesto C. Ortiz.

The formal organization of the club took up all the early part of the evening. The meeting was called to order by Jesse Romero, sheriff of Bernillo county and progressive county chairman, and after the election of Mr. Hayden, J. E. Haines was selected secretary, also by a unanimous vote. George Arnot was elected vice president and Modesto C. Ortiz, treasurer.

The executive committee was named by the club, each man being elected by acclamation. It was as follows:

O. Bachechi, John Baron Burg, J. E. Armitjo, Robert Loudon, Perfecto Armitjo, Toribio Archuleta, Justo Gutierrez.

Major Ruppel was the first speaker. He declared that the progressive platform was the only one that promised anything for the better of the people and spoke of making a good showing this year, even if the progressive candidates were not all elected. He urged that the progressive play for 1916 and declared that then they would surely sweep the country, regardless of the results of the present election. He went into the old fight for legislation against the trusts, and said that the men who were now in the progressive party had been the ones to stir up the fight for the betterment of the people at that time.

M. C. Ortiz spoke for the better part of an hour. His address was of the old-fashioned political type and after declaring the certainty of the election of Roosevelt, urged all progressives not to split their tickets under any consideration. He declared that the conditions which had called forth the republican party were similar to those which had called forth the progressive organization, and said that if it failed as had the republican party, he hoped the people would relegate it in the same way. Mr. Ortiz declared that the progressives would carry Bernillo county by 800 votes if the men in the city did the work they should. He said that the democrats would poll not more than seventy-five votes in Old Albuquerque and the republicans hardly twenty.

The most striking point of his address was that Jesse Romero had been unjustly accused of supporting Ferguson, the democratic candidate for congress against Marcos C. de Baca, the progressive nominee.

When he had closed, Sheriff Romero took the floor long enough to make a denial of this accusation, promising a reward to any man who would find a single man that he had argued to vote against de Baca.

The real speech of the evening was the shortest of the lot, that by John Baron Burg. Mr. Burg spoke slowly, but with evident emphasis and conviction. He pleaded with the progressives to maintain their high standards of political conduct and declared that he was greatly informed that the supporters of Nathan Jaffa, republican candidate for congress, had raised a stork fund which they proceeded to use in his behalf. He said that a year ago Mr. Jaffa had been turned down by the republicans because he was too clean for them, but that now they were trying to use him as a means of reorganizing the disrupted republican party to the end that the people might be plundered as of yore.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

MR. STEWARD'S STATEMENT.

Mr. H. B. Steward, who was named as one of the vice presidents of the Jaffa club, and who is a property owner in Albuquerque, one of the most prominent G. A. R. men of this state, and a lifelong republican gives to the people of the state, elsewhere in the Journal, the reasons why he believes it his duty to vote for Hon. H. H. Ferguson.

Mr. Steward's reasons are the same as those held by hundreds of other republicans of Bernalillo county, and of New Mexico. They know that the only hope of getting anything done for New Mexico is to send Ferguson to congress. They know that Jaffa could do nothing if he should be elected. They know that Wilson will be the next president and that the next senate will be democratic, and that the democratic majority in the next house of national representatives will be more than one hundred.

The question naturally arises in the minds of property owners, what use could Jaffa be under such circumstances? They realize that he would have about as much influence there as Senator Barth had with the republican majority in the New Mexico senate.

Mr. Jaffa, himself, excellent man that he is, is too honest even to claim that he could do more for New Mexico than draw his salary, during the next two years. New Mexico wants things done.

THE COBSCREW ELEMENT.

So far as the Elfrago Baca controversy is concerned, it is of small importance in the politics of Bernalillo county, except that it shows the utter demoralization of the Jaffa forces here. If the leading men of the party were not satisfied with Baca for chairman, he should not have been elected in the first place.

After he was chosen it was not good politics for Frank A. Hubbell to begin the movement for his retirement. We have no thought that, even for political sake, Chairman Clark will deny that Mr. Hubbell made the proposition to contribute $1,000 if Mr. Baca could be ousted. We do not believe Judge Fall will deny that Mr. Clark put the proposition up to him to see that Mr. Baca was induced quietly to retire. We do not believe that Judge Fall will deny that he sent for Mr. Baca to come to El Paso, after Mr. Clark had been there, and that he told Mr. Baca that he would be given $500 of Mr. Hubbell's money if he (Baca) would get out.

All of this is of small consequence, except that it shows the hand of Mr. Hubbell in the affairs of Bernalillo county again. Of course, the Jaffa committee says Mr. Hubbell has nothing to do with it, some of them believe it, as some of the same men believed that Mr. Hubbell would have nothing to do with the politics of Bernalillo county during the last election. Some of the same gentlemen so assured the Journal last year, but within two weeks, Mr. Hubbell was the treasurer and active manager of the Bureau fight here.

Another thing of consequence to the voters of this county is the report that the friends of Mr. Jaffa have raised a fund of $5,000 for the purpose of influencing the voters of the county. Such a sum can have only one meaning. It could not be used except with the man who is willing to sell his vote, or hire himself out to work on election day, which, the way the fund will be handled, amounts to the same thing.

Another phase of the matter is that the people of New Mexico have repudiated the old machine. Mr. Jaffa was a machine man. He was opposed to the blue ball but he made speeches for Holm G. Hirsman, he flinched at nothing that the machine put up. Even if a man was on the ticket, who was so crooked that he rewrote all day, he, with Judge Mann, found no reason for not supporting him.

If Mr. Jaffa should be elected, it will be a huge call for the clans to get together for the next fight in the state in order to secure control. This county cannot afford it. This state cannot afford it. New Mexico cannot prosper until the crooked element is permanently retired.

PANAMA CANAL TRADE.

The Minneapolis Journal has the following careful editorial on the effect of the Panama canal on New Orleans:

"The geographical argument for the rapid growth of New Orleans after the Panama canal opens is a strong one. A government statistician, for example, has figured it out that the total value of the imports of foreign countries that will be brought by the canal nearer to New Orleans than to either London or New York, is no less than a billion and a half dollars every year. That is to say, New Orleans as a port will have a varying advantage in water carriage over the world's two greatest ports on this tremendous amount of trade. It becomes a question, therefore, whether the great Mississippi valley can lay down at New Orleans a considerable share of these goods desired by foreign countries at prices that will compare favorably with those of similar goods laid down at New York or London.

"New Orleans will soon be actually nearer to all the western coast of both North and South America, to the eastern coast of Asia and to all Oceania than London or New York. The most fertile and productive valley in all the world will thus find new and better outlets for its products. Instead of having to send everything it produces east and west, the Mississippi valley will through the workings of the canal find new north and south channels of trade opening up.

"The exportation of grain and meat products from the United States is steadily decreasing. We are eating these foods ourselves, instead of selling them to others. But the falling off in these exports is more than compensated by the increase in the exportation of manufactured goods. In 1890 only 21 per cent of our exportation was manufactured goods. The volume of our exports of manufactured goods has been rising rapidly, for the $180,000,000 of 1890 swelled to $475,000,000 in 1909, and to the enormous total of $800,000,000 in 1910.

"If American manufacturers take due advantage of their new opportunities, and especially if the Mississippi valley uses the Panama canal as the door to world trade it is fitted to be, another decade will see growth unprecedented in our exportation of manufactured goods.

"What is true of New Orleans on the Gulf of Mexico, is largely true of Los Angeles on the Pacific coast. It is the nearest American port, except San Diego, to the canal and from it must be shipped a large percentage of traffic going through the canal eastward, and into it must come a large proportion of freight from the eastern states and Europe to the western part of the United States.

"All Europe knows the Panama canal is about to revolutionize commerce. The United States alone appears oblivious to that fact.

LORENZO HUBBELL, PROPHECY.

Mr. Lorenzo Hubbell, republican state chairman of Arizona, says Taft will be elected president. It will be recalled that Mr. Hubbell, who knows much more about Arizona than he does about the United States as a whole, was willing to stake his last simoleon on Arizona going republican at the last election. Also he says there is a tremendous wave of Taft sentiment sweeping over that state this year and that it probably will turn down Wilson by more than one thousand majority.

Mr. Hubbell is just as accurate regarding Taft's chances in the United States as he has been, and is, regarding the politics of his good democratic state of Arizona. When an election is on, Lorenzo Hubbell and Senator Thomas B. Catron see a republican majority until the votes are counted.

SENATOR CATRON'S LOGIC.

As we have repeatedly pointed out, no one has come forward with a suggestion that Mr. Jaffa can do anything for New Mexico unless there should be a republican congress and a republican senate next year. Senator Catron says Taft will be elected, therefore Jaffa should be elected. The senator's logic, assuming his major premise is correct, is all right.

The Journal strongly suggests that all people who believe Taft will be elected vote for Mr. Jaffa. Let those who believe Mr. Wilson will be the next president vote for Mr. Ferguson. The Journal will be quite satisfied with Mr. Ferguson's majority, mainly on that kind of basis.

THE DIAZ FIASCO.

The story of the collapse of the Diaz revolt at Vera Cruz must be a severe blow to the enemies of Mexico. With insurgents on all sides spreading in all directions, all indications pointed to a speedy overthrow of the Mexican regime.

That no one can fail to see that the Mexican president is in a much stronger position as a result of the Diaz fiasco than if it never had occurred. From all indications at present, the other republicans will now collapse and the republic to the south of us will be again at possession.

Attraction Booked for Elks Theater on November 2nd a Wonderful Preachment of Faith's Mighty Power.

Organization of Co-Operative Association for Promotion of Child Welfare in Schools is Perfected.

Gaskill & MacVilly's new play, "The Rossary," which has had a successful three months' engagement in Chicago, a two months' engagement in New York and a two months' engagement at the Globe theater in Boston, comes to the Elks theater on November 2d.

The discriminating public will be given an opportunity to see pictures before them a decided answer to the growing unrest and irreligion of our times. Not that "The Rossary" is a decision merely, it is more. It is a faithful picture of the misery and unhappiness that comes upon a man who lacks faith in the supreme good and its inevitable triumph in our world. A typical American family is taken as a fair example of everyday conditions that obtain throughout the United States. The husband, a man immersed in business, the exacting business of Wall street and the Stock Exchange.

Little by little he has fallen away from the faith of his fathers, that faith that brought out republic into being. He has replaced it by an agnostic attitude all the prevalent in our day and time. The wife believes, but confidence in an all-wise, all-pervading good has not been shaken, and so when storm and stress come, the man with no anchor is swept away by the storm of agony, the woman remains steadfast, moored by her faith to outlive the tempest.

Through all the heartbreak and tears, through all the agony and anguish, clear and serene noon the wonderful figure of a modern Catholic priest whose life has been dedicated to God and the service of his fellow men. It is his clear spiritual vision that sees through the web that has been woven about the two people who love and it is his faith and God-given power that sets them free.

It is a wonderful preachment of faith's mighty power, of the saving grace of the good that lies all about us.

"CASCARETS" MAKE YOU FEEL GREAT

A 10 cent box will keep your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh for months.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, four taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system, is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing sickening headache.

Salts, cathartic pills, oil and purgative waters force a passageway for a day or two—but they don't effect the poisons out and have no effect upon the liver or stomach.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a laxative box from your druggist moans your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels clean and regular for months.—Adv.

Every Public-Spirited Citizen Will Vote for Good Roads Bond Issue on November 5

All good citizens interested in the development of our state will vote in favor of the proposed bond issue of $500,000 for good roads when they go to the polls on November 5th.

This bond issue does not increase the taxes one dollar. It is supported entirely by the present state road tax which we have been paying for over three years past. The proceeds of the bond issue go to each county in the state in proportion to the taxes it pays, the average sum being $12,000 for each county.

It is of the utmost importance that this bond issue carry, its defeat will set back the cause of good roads in our state not less than five years. The bond issue is in interest, not of antiquity, but of the farmers and the ordinary citizen, those who use the roads most, and haul their products over it.

A vote for this bond issue is a vote to spend a large sum of money in this county for the building of good roads without a dollar increase in taxes.

Voters who go to the polls on November 5th will be asked to vote for or against the proposed state bond issue of $500,000 for good roads. This bond issue does not increase the taxes one dollar as it is supported from the present state road tax.

New Mexico is very much behind in the good roads movement. The states around us are giving far more to their roads than we are. Taxable wealth considered, Colorado, with a taxable valuation of only six times

At the close of the discussion, Mrs. Elizabeth Bradford sang sweetly a dainty lullaby to guitar accompaniment by Mrs. Keith.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. P. Williams, after which the first anniversary of the Parents' and Teachers' Co-operative association closed and was declared by two hundred and fifty enthusiastic attendants to be a tremendous success.

The next meeting will be a business session to be held in the First ward school building at 4:30 o'clock Monday, November 15th. All parents and teachers in the city are eligible to membership.

Chief McMillin Sees Urgent Need For Orphanage

Albuquerque, Oct. 22, 1912. Editor Morning Journal.

To the well written and timely article by Major Whiting, published in your Sunday issue, I wish to add some facts, which I believe will prove the necessity of an orphanage in this city.

Since I have occupied my present position, I have had to deal with so many children, either deprived of their parents by death, or abandoned by their parents, that if I could give their exact number, or describe their deplorable circumstances, the public would be so surprised as to doubt my word.

We have in this state a 10,000 school and a penitentiary. But why should we not try to keep our children from either or both of these institutions by giving them a good training in time, rather than to allow them to become criminals later on as a consequence of a miserable upbringing?

If the city, county and state are, as it is said, powerless to save abandoned children, shall we close our eyes and hearts to this great work of charity?

Last month the Denver charitable institutions received the last of our children, hereafter, even these doors will be closed to us.

What shall we do with our poor orphan boys? Let us get together and establish an orphanage of our own. I can assure that there is or that there can be a greater work of charity.

Respectfully,
 THOMAS McMILLIN,
 Chief of Police.

UNABLE TO PURGE COMMITTEE OF TRAITORS

Republican State Chairman Wasson, of Pennsylvania, Powerless to Prevent Treachery to Taft.

state chairman, today sent a letter to a sub-committee representing sixty-one county chairmen in Pennsylvania, who had requested the chairman to purge the state committee of those members who were disloyal to President Taft and Vice President Sherman.

Mr. Wasson informed the sub-committee that the state committee "is the creature of the state convention" held in Harrisburg last May and that "this convention under the laws of Pennsylvania, is the supreme power of the party, and unless there is a change in legislation, will be for the next two years."

The county chairman at a meeting last week charged that many of the members of the state committee were disloyal to the republican national ticket and that the committee was controlled by former State Senator William Flinn, who is supporting Colonel Roosevelt on the party ticket in the state.

JULIAN SEDILLO IS ACQUITTED AFTER FIVE MINUTES

Unwritten Law Feature of Evidence Brought Out in Trial for Assault With Deadly Weapon Proves Effective.

The unwritten law feature of the evidence introduced by the defense in the case of the State vs. Julian Sedillo is believed to have been partially responsible for the verdict of not guilty which was returned in that cause late yesterday afternoon. The jury was out slightly more than five minutes.

Sedillo was charged with assault with a deadly weapon alleged to have been committed upon the person of Magdalena Candelaria, near Rancho de Atresco on the night of September 21st.

The case went to the jury shortly after 2 o'clock. It was interesting because of the fact that in the unwritten law made its first appearance in Bernalillo county courts for some time past, although the court ruled out practically all of the testimony offered in this connection.

The state endeavored to show that on the night of the alleged crime, Candelaria had been out looking for a horse and that the defendant, Sedillo, met her suddenly in the dark and simply began to stab him.

The defense, however, brought out evidence tending to show that Sedillo came home about 11 o'clock that night, unexpectedly, and rapped at the door of his house. It was not opened to him but after about fifteen minutes or slightly less time, had closed, Candelaria came out the back door. He cut Sedillo, according to their story, and Sedillo then took the knife from him and inflicted the nineteen wounds which form the basis of the action. He said he did this in defense of his life and his home, but the latter part of the statement was stricken from the record.

In rebuttal, the state placed Mrs. Sedillo on the stand and she swore that Sedillo had not been at his home on that night at all. Other witnesses testified to the findings of Sedillo's hat and belt near the back door of the house.

GOULLET TO BE TRIED TODAY IN ALL PROBABILITY. In all probability, Theodore Goulet, charged with the murder of Policeman Alex Knapp last January, will be tried today. Goulet has already been arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

When seen at the county jail yesterday he declared that he believed he would be set free, if the jury was a sound and sane one. Goulet said: "I believe the jury will certainly set me free, if it is a sound and sane body of men. I have little fear that I will come clear of the whole case. I expect to testify on the stand myself." Goulet would make no statement of what his intended defense was to be.

Judgment by agreement was rendered by Judge Herbert F. Reynolds in the case of Antonio Belanquez against the A. T. & S. F. Railway Company. Belanquez claimed that owing to a defective brake on a hand car on which he was riding near Gonzales on June 12th last, he was involved in a collision between two handcars and seriously injured. The judgment was for $450.

MUSICAL FEAST IS PAUPER PROBLEM PROMISED BY U. S. MARINE BAND TO BE DISCUSSED BY CITY COUNCIL

There is no More Perfect Military Organization Anywhere Than That Representing the American Navy.
Physicians, Hospital Authorities, County Commissioners and District Attorney Invited to Attend Session Monday.

One of those rare occasions on which the lover of music can feast to his heart's content will be presented to the people of Albuquerque when the United States Marine band, which is now on an extended tour, comes to this city on October 30th. There is no more perfect military band anywhere, either in this country or in any other. Its performance is as well rounded when it interprets classic music as when it plays its marches.
The leader of the Marine band, William H. Santelmann, stands in the first rank of band masters; besides, he is not only an accomplished leader but equally accomplished as a composer. It is quite likely that he will play some of his compositions at the impending concert. Just what may be expected of this great band may be learned from a criticism in the Hartford (Conn.) Daily Times concerning a concert in that city. The Times said:
"Friday's production fully justified the fame of the organization. The traditions were full of spirit, yet with much expression of sentiment and with little color. The tone was beautiful, always musical, round, finished, and held in artistic leash and measure. Moreover, there was a closer approach to orchestral expression and color than one is apt to hear in the performance of the best bands. The brass was not there, over-porousness could not be perceived, crash and noise appeared not. On the contrary, the large number of woodwinds often stimulated success so closely that one looked in surprise. The balance of the band is a little different from others, and the brass is held in much moderation, generally. When it is put on in forte passages it proves singularly clean and pure and without metallic reverberation. Some of the larger instruments are in tone and played with singular delicacy and even the most strident reeds only manifested their special character occasionally. The conducting is simple but incisive and without the least attempt of effect. Some readings were unusual, but all had a poetic atmosphere and artistically graduated dynamics and expression."
The pleasure of this promised concert will be heightened by the appearance of a charming young soprano from Washington, Miss Mary Sherier, who has already made herself an enviable reputation. Her voice is said to be of great brilliancy and her execution exceptionally fine.

Arrangements were completed yesterday by the democratic county central committee and the Wilson-Ferguson club for the big rally to be held tomorrow night, beginning at 8 o'clock at Elks' theater, at which the principal speaker will be Hon. A. A. Jones, democratic national committeeman of New Mexico.
Mr. Jones, who is following ex-Congressman Ralph D. Cole through the state, will answer numerous statements made by Mr. Cole, with particular regard to the tariff. The democratic national committeeman is a "creator and a locked speaker, and it is expected he will be greeted by a "rapt audience."
There will be addresses, all brief, by other democrats, but the speech of Mr. Jones will be the principal one of the evening.
Voters, irrespective of politics, are invited to attend the rally tomorrow night and hear Mr. Jones.

OLD RESIDENT GOES TO ANSWER CALL OF GRIM REAPER

Mrs. Lena Doran Dies Unexpectedly Late Yesterday Afternoon; Had Lived Here Twelve Years.
Mrs. Lena Doran, who had been a resident of Albuquerque for the past twelve years, was claimed by death late yesterday afternoon at her home, 524 West Central avenue. Mrs. Doran had been ill only a short time with inflammatory rheumatism, and her death was quite unexpected. It was a severe blow to her family and friends.
She leaves four children, Leonard, William, Frank and Edward Doran. Edward is a student at the state university and has taken a prominent part in student affairs, being manager of the U. N. M. Weekly this year.
Funeral arrangements will be announced later.
Mrs. Doran had a host of friends in Albuquerque and elsewhere in the state, all of whom will be shocked to learn the sad news of her sudden demise.

SOCIALIST PARTY CANDIDATE HERE TOMORROW

Emil Seidel, Candidate for Vice President on This Ticket, to Pass Through City on Way East.
It was announced yesterday by the local socialist organization that Emil Seidel, candidate of the socialist party for vice president, will pass through Albuquerque tomorrow.
Mr. Seidel has been in Arizona on a campaign tour for the past ten days and is now on his way east. The time of his arrival has not been definitely ascertained, but the local socialists expect him to make a speech here, even if he has to talk on the depot platform during the stay of the train on which he is a passenger.
Emil Seidel was the first socialist vice president of Milwaukee and enjoys a national reputation as a socialist lecturer and author.

Rip-p-p-p-p! Out Come Thousands of Dress Shields!

Hereafter, Madame, You Are Going to Feel More "Comfy" Under the Arms.
Girls, get a box of PERISPI-NO right away at the drug store, and get out of the surprise of your life. It means the age of dress shields is gone.
No More Ruined Gowns, No More Dress Shields, If You Use PERISPI-NO.
PERISPI-NO keeps the arm-pits just as fresh and dry as any other part of the body. You can wear any weight of clothing, be in hot stuffy rooms, in a warm theatre or dance-hall and never over-sweat in the arm-pits. The colors in a colored gown will never run. The cloth will never fade, get stiff from perspiration and then rot and tear and ruin your gown at the arm-pits. Nevermore!
No more rolling up of dress-shield fibers under the arms. PERISPI-NO is a delightful powder, absolutely safe for everybody, and never burns any fabric. It's a wonder. Try it once, and be convinced. You apply it with a pad, which is packed with every box.
Satisfaction or money back.
PERISPI-NO is for sale at your drug store, or at a box, or sent direct on receipt of price, by the Perispi-NO, 2715 Lincoln Ave., Chicago. For sale and recommended in Albuquerque by Powell's Drug Co.

NEW MEXICO ROADS BOOSTED BY MANY OUTSIDE PAPERS

Letters Relative to Passability of Raton Pass at All Seasons Being Printed All Along Ocean-to-Ocean Route.
Considerable interest is being taken by outside papers in the campaign of publicity instituted to clear away doubts as to the passability of Raton pass at all seasons. The report that Raton pass was blocked with snow a large part of the year was industriously circulated by persons who wished to have the proposed national highway go along the southern route and the campaign was initiated to offset the effect of these stories. So far, it has been very successful.
Copies of the letters of Mayor J. J. Shuler, of Raton, relative to the state of the road over the pass at all seasons were sent to twenty-nine newspapers besides those in New Mexico, and a gratifying number of good press notices were the result.
Hutchinson, Kan., paper containing the letter, were received here yesterday. The publicity given this matter will not only help keep the national highway route as projected by the Ocean-to-Ocean Highway association where it is, but is bringing valuable advertising to New Mexico.

SALVATION ARMY IS ANXIOUS FOR AID TO CARRY ON WORK

The Salvation Army of Albuquerque has issued an appeal for aid from citizens generally that it may be enabled to carry on the work for which it is intended. The appeal follows: It is generally known that at this time of the year the relief work of the Salvation Army is greatly increased. Owing to lack of funds we are finding ourselves unable to meet the demands. Two cases especially which we wish to bring before the people is that of a woman and three small children who are without a home, and we desire to make an appeal to the kind-hearted citizens of Albuquerque for food, clothing, second-hand furniture and money donations.
Thanking you for your prompt attention to these matters in the past, and depending on you to help us meet the demands of not only the present but of the coming winter, yours for the poor in distress,
CAPT. PEARL PUCKETT, LIEUT. MABEL BROWN.
