TROOPS DRIVE
REBELS INTO HIGH HILLSRevolutionists Make Fierce
Resistance in Caucasus.ARTILLERY FIRE SUBDUES
SOUTH RUSSIAN VILLAGERSFather Gapon Returning to Russia to Stir the Caldron of Revolt.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—Railroad communication with the Caucasus generally has been restored. The revolutionists of Ourla and Mingrel are retreating into the mountains, obstinately resisting the advance of the troops. The revolutionists who were driven from Kevirka yesterday, and fought a regular battle, advancing on the troops. Other severe encounters are reported. Several towns beside Kevirka are in flames.

The troops are said to be astonished at the firmness of the revolutionists, who have cavalry as well as infantry. Two companies of troops remained at Kevirka have been disarmed. The captain in command had been killed.

A revolution has broken out in northern Caucasus. The mountaineers around Ekaterinodar have arisen and are making frequent encounters.

Advices from Ekaterinodar, South Russia, say that the inhabitants of several villages in that vicinity have been rioting and engaging in various excesses, making it necessary to employ artillery to subdue them. The troops completed a barricaded school in which the leading revolutionists had sought refuge.

The government has been relaxing its repressive measures since January 22. Many of the persons arrested have been released and the right of assembly will be restored.

Father Gapon, who had been warned not to appear in St. Petersburg until January 22, is returning to Russia. Leningrad also will be shown in the case of the sentence imposed upon Prof. Hodsaki and M. Katsenel'son, editors of the Nasha Slisa for publishing the manifesto of the workmen's council. They will be let off with fines of $250 instead of a term of imprisonment to which Alexis Alexievitch Souvorin, editor of the Russ was sentenced.

RENEWAL OF DANGEROUS
MUTINY AT VLADIVOSTOK

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—That there has been a renewal of the mutiny at Vladivostok was confirmed by a dispatch from that city filed Thursday and received here late tonight.

This dispatch indicates that the mutiny, which began last Monday, had not been subdued and that the situation was far more serious than during the outbreak in November, as the mutineers include both sailors and artillerymen, who are in possession of the Holtz battery and are well armed with rifles and machine guns as well as having heavy fortresses guns. General Mischenko, who has been sent to deal with the mutineers, the dispatch adds, has no easy task as the Cossacks given him are ill suited for capturing a fortified position.

It declares that the promises of immediate transportation home for the men with which the government ended the former revolt are now scarcely effective.

THE DOCTRINE MAIMED BY IS SAFE
DYNAMITE

Washington, Jan. 26.—At a late hour tonight the French embassy had received no advice regarding the decision of the Paris government as to Venezuela. This government has given France assurances that neither a boycott on Venezuelan products nor a naval demonstration will in any way modify the confidence of the United States in the sincerity of the assurances of France regarding compliance with the Monroe doctrine.

The Joke Is on Lisovski.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—Col. Prosorovski, chief gendarme at Pensa, east Russia, has been informed by the local revolutionary organization that the recent murder of Col. Lisovski, commanding the Seventy-eighth Infantry division, by members of the organization was a blunder. He had been mistaken for Col. Prosorovski and the organization notified him the error would shortly be rectified.

Football at Annapolis.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 26.—Princeton will play the midshipmen at football next fall. Negotiations are also pending with the University of Pennsylvania which has lost the last three games at Annapolis. Swarthmore, Dickinson and Pennsylvania State. A number of the smaller colleges usually played will be dropped out next season.

PRESIDENT WATCHES THE
BILL CLOSELYDeeply Interested in the
Statehood Fight.THINKS AMERICAN NAVY
COULD LICK JAPANESEExecutive Does Not Allow Political Differences to Affect His Courtesy.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The president's decided interest in the statehood fight is shown in some conferences he has had in the last few days. Tuesday night he left a dinner at the home of Senator Lodge much earlier than he desired and returned to the White House for a long conference with Representative James Watson, republican "whip" of the house, as to the prospects for the passage of the statehood measure. Next morning he spent some time with Speaker Cannon, with whom he reviewed the situation. The president also talked with several of the insurgents, a notable instance being when he conferred with Representative Humphreys of Washington. Mr. Humphreys has been especially emphatic in his attitude on the statehood question, and yet his relations with the president have been of the most pleasant character. Mr. Humphreys has informed his friends that he is under many obligations to the president, having been granted nearly every favor he asked at the White House, and nothing would please him more than to vote on the statehood question as the president feels. At the same time he was unalterably opposed to turning Arizona and New Mexico into a state. He did not believe this ought to be done, and he proposed, he said, to vote as he felt.

Thinks We Could Whip Japan.

President Roosevelt talked about Japan today with Dr. James Scherer, president of Newberry, S. C. The president asked many questions about the Japanese, and especially about their navy. He wanted to know all about their fighting abilities. He questioned as to fast as the shots of a Gatling gun, according to his visitor, Dr. Scherer, who lived among the Japanese as a tutor for five years, was of the impression that the Japanese navy, man for man, was the best in the world, but the president maintained that the American navy, man for man, was the best, and expressed the belief that if this country should ever have a war with Japan our navy would defeat the Japanese. If the president expressed admiration for the Japanese and their fighting abilities, as well as the ships they have.

NEW TREATY WITH BRITAIN.

Great Britain Agrees to Make Bribery and Bankruptcy Extraditable.

London, Jan. 26.—An agreement between Great Britain and the United States to include bribery and bankruptcy in extraditable offenses will be ratified in London shortly.

Murderer's Sentence Commuted.

Manila, P. I., Jan. 26.—The sentence of Lieutenant Pondleton, who was condemned to life imprisonment for murder, has been reconsidered and changed to imprisonment for twenty years.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 26.—The steamship Topeka brought no survivors of the Valencia, save those already reported. The total saved, according to the figures of the officials of the Pacific coast, is forty, including three men found on Turret Island and one man believed to be alive on the island, but who it is expected, has been located by Indians. This also includes three reported on the beach near Kianewak. The tug Pioneer, returning from the island last night, reported nothing left of the hull of the Valencia.

Hope to Smooth Away Difficulties.

Washington, Jan. 26.—With reference to the difficulties which have arisen between the canal commission and the Pacific Mail, the Pacific Mail company has arranged for the coming of Mr. Scherwin, the general manager of that company, to Washington for a conference with the canal authorities, and it is thought that all difficulties will be adjusted and smoothed out by a personal conference between Mr. Shonts, Mr. Stevens and Mr. Scherwin. It is stated at the war department that recent advices from the isthmus show that the congestion which was said to have been due to the failure of the Pacific Mail to furnish tonnage enough at La Boca has now, by reason of the coming of several steamers of the Pacific Mail, largely disappeared.

Senate Committee Will Report Favorably on Joint Statehood BillBeveridge Will Present It Monday and Force Upper House to Quick Show-Down.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The senate committee on territories today authorized a favorable report on the joint statehood bill passed by the house and Senator Beveridge, chairman of the committee, said later he would present the report in the senate next Monday. None of the democratic members of the committee was present when the agreement to take a vote was reached. Senators Patterson and Frazier were in attendance earlier in the day, but they concluded not to make any attempt to delay the report or to force a division on any of the disputed points. They, however, reserved the right to present a minority report. The bill was amended in several places, but the amendments related largely to the governmental machinery provided by the measure, such as the judiciary, the method of voting, etc. It is the purpose to press the bill upon the attention of the senate as soon as possible.

It Apply Only to Organized Territories.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 26.—More than one hundred are now searching the coast of Vancouver island within a radius of twenty miles on either side of the wreck of the Valencia with the hope of finding some survivors from the vessel. In order to assist in the search the Pacific Coast Steamship company tonight dispatched a tug in command of Port Captain Patterson to the scene of the disaster.

Parties of men and dogs have been sent out from Victoria and are now on the scene. The Indians have been employed to beat the bush in case any survivors have wandered inland.

Up to the present time thirty-seven men have been saved from the wreck. This leaves 117 still unaccounted for, some hope is still held out for the last boat to leave the ship. It has not been reported and it is possible that it has made the shore somewhere in the vicinity of the wreck.

Terrible Privations.

Victoria, Jan. 26.—Word was received last night at Bamfield from Captain Fennell, who left with a party from the steamer Salvo in bringing in the nine survivors of the Valencia who were at Darling river, about fifteen miles from Bamfield. The party was twelve hours on the trail and the survivors suffered great privations. Some had to walk in their bare feet and others were insufficiently clothed. The news has also reached here that four more survivors have been rescued from Turret Island where they landed from a raft. This brings the number of survivors as far as known, up to 37 persons.

Norman Hapgood Acquitted--Sensational
Sidelights on Town Topics.

New York, Jan. 26.—An unusually sensational trial came to an end today, when a jury in the criminal branch of the supreme court reported that Norman Hapgood, editor of Collier's Weekly, was not guilty of criminal libel. The case had been on trial several weeks. The verdict was rendered ten minutes after the case had been given to the jury. The charge against Mr. Hapgood was brought at the instigation of Justice Joseph M. Deuel of the court of special sessions, and was based upon an editorial in which the editor criticized Justice Deuel for his connection with Town Topics.

The real interest in the case was due to the fact that the names of scores of persons of the highest social and financial standing became involved through the efforts of the defense to prove that the statements contained in the alleged libel were correct and therefore justified. To attain this end some of the inner workings of Town Topics, a weekly publication which circulated extensively in social circles, were laid bare. It was in this connection and also through testimony concerning a limited edition book which bore the title, "Fads and Fancies" that the names of prominent persons became involved. "Fads and Fancies" was sold to subscribers at $1,500 or more per copy.

Democracy Club Tonight.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The Democratic club tonight, Welch was lying on the mat, practically out, when the gong sounded for the close of the second round. His seconds carried him to his corner and revived him sufficiently to enable him to respond for the third round. Welch was groggy as he wobbled slowly toward Smith and the latter let fly a series of blows to the body and suddenly whipped left and right to jaw sending Welch heavily to the mat.

His seconds threw up the sponge, but Welch was unable to rise and had to be carried to his corner.

Nothing to Hide in Connection With the Correspondence.

Washington, Jan. 26.—By authority of President Roosevelt correspondence was made public at the White House tonight relating to methods alleged to have been employed by the attorneys for the beef packers who are under indictment at Chicago, to influence public opinion in behalf of the packers.

The documents consist of a communication made to Attorney General Moody by United States District Attorney Morrison, of Chicago, setting out certain alleged facts regarding the payment of a sum of money to a Chicago newspaper reporter by one of the attorneys for the beef packers; a letter from the attorney general to the president transmitting Mr. Morrison's report, expressing the opinion that no way existed under the law by which the alleged offense could be punished; and a letter from the president to the attorney general directing the publication of the correspondence in order that the public might be informed of one situation, at least which the government has to meet in prosecuting the case against the packers.

Mutiny at Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—According to advices received here, mutiny has broken out again at Vladivostok. No details are available, the censorship being operative over the press and private telegrams, but the report that General Selivanoff, commander of the army corps, has been wounded, is confirmed. The war department officials are unable to give particulars of the seriousness of the mutiny which is due to the reserve men. These troops are thoroughly undisciplined, and are clamoring for their immediate transportation home, though the government has given them precedence over the Trans-Siberian railroad in addition to chartering all available steamers.

To Find Water With a Rod.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—A curious interest attaches to the announcement that Emperor William has commissioned Herr Von Usnar, the chief government official of Apenrade, province of Schleswig-Holstein, to proceed to German Southwest Africa and find subterranean springs by means of a diving rod. Von Usnar has a wide reputation as a water finder, but the scientists refuse to admit he has discovered water by means of a diving rod. The emperor heard of his ability to locate water and decided to utilize his power for the purpose of alleviating the chronic water famine in German Southwest Africa, where the German troops are seriously handicapped by lack of water.

Taft Says It's Absurd.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The following cablegram has been received by the secretary of war from General Ide at Manila: "The natives are much disturbed by a cable stating Ambassador Wright has been authorized to negotiate the sale of the islands to Japan. An authentic denial from you will be useful." Taft replied to the cablegram as follows: "The statement referred to in your cablegram has not the slightest vestige of truth. It is not only untrue, but absurdly so."

FULL HONORS FOR WHEELER

"FIGHTING JOE" WILL BE LAID TO REST IN ARLINGTON

Marvelous Record in Three Wars
Stamps Him a Military Genius.

Washington, Jan. 26.—General Joseph Wheeler, who died yesterday, will be buried in Arlington cemetery with full military honors. A tentative program provides that the funeral shall be held at St. John's Episcopal church here Monday afternoon and an escort consisting of troops from all branches of the service will accompany the body to the cemetery.

Wheeler's Remarkable Record.

Joseph Wheeler was born in Augusta, Ga., on September 10, 1835. His ancestors were English, his parents one of the first families of Georgia. His education included courses at Seabury college, in Connecticut, and other schools in New England and New York. In 1854 he secured the appointment as cadet to the military academy at West Point. Mr. Wheeler was graduated with a good record. He received the rank of lieutenant of cavalry and soon thereafter was ordered to New Mexico and then to Kansas. In both places he did much hard work and saw blood spilled in various Indian fighting engagements.

Then came the civil war and from the isolated barracks on the western plain Lieutenant Wheeler dispatched in Washington the resignation of his commission in the regular army and hurried back to Georgia. Born and bred in the south, every fiber in him tingled at the wrong which he believed was being done his people. Wheeler did not dream of hesitating. He acted with promptness and, being welcomed with enthusiasm, was soon riding post haste for Pensacola, Fla., a first lieutenant's commission in the confederate army in his pocket.

But Pensacola was soon outside the range of activity, and as Young Wheeler had not completed the way from Kansas to hunt adventures in the great swamp, he cast about him for means to get into the thick of it. Georgia was busy taking care of other sons, but he was offered a colonel's commission in an Alabama infantry regiment, and promptly accepted it.

One of his earliest fights came very near being his last. He and his regiment were at Shiloh and the losses were heavy, but, according to official report, "Colonel Wheeler bravely charged at the head of the remnant of his regiment and that of the Mississippians, bearing the regimental colors aloft." In this charge he had two horses shot under him. Before he got through with the battle of the sixth day of his charges had been killed while he was riding them.

In October, 1862, he was made brigadier general, and in January, 1863, he was made a major general. He was in the battles of Shiloh and Vicksburg, Mississippi. He fought at Corinth, Perryville, Murfreesboro, Chickasaw, the siege of Knoxville, Ringgold, Rocky Face, Dalton, Resaca, Cassville, New Hope, battles around Kennesaw mountain, battle of Peach Tree Creek, Decatur, battles around Atlanta, siege of Savannah, battles of Averborough and Bentonville. Besides being in over 500 skirmishes, General Wheeler commanded in more than 200 battles, many of which, considering the numbers engaged were among the most severe and successful recorded in the history of cavalry.

General Wheeler led the cavalry troops in Bragg's invasion of Kentucky, commanded the rear of the army when it retreated into Tennessee, and in controlling Rosecrans' advance, attacking his flanks, riding in the rear and destroying trains, proved one of the most formidable opponents to the federal forces. He led the cavalry in Lee's attack on Knoxville, and during the siege and covered Bragg's retreat from Missionary Ridge and Lookout Mountain. In the face of Sherman's march to the sea he opposed every movement and fought almost daily, with his men often dismounted. He failed in a heroic attempt under Hood's orders to break Sherman's communications, and though successful in destroying many railroad supplies, bridges and railroads, was finally driven back. On the death of Stuart he became senior cavalry general of the confederate army.

During the war no fewer than thirty-two of his staff officers were killed or wounded while riding beside him in battle. He himself did not always come off scot free. He was wounded three times slightly and once painfully, as he put it, and his middle equipment and clothes were frequently struck by missiles. The painful wound was received in an engagement near Nashville, Tenn., after Bragg's retreat from Kentucky, in 1862. On this occasion General Wheeler's horse was torn to pieces by an exploding shell, his aide was killed beside him and himself wounded, but he mounted another horse, secured another aide and continued the fight.

The confederate congress gave General Wheeler a vote of thanks for successful military operations and for his defense of the city at Alben. The state of South Carolina conferred a like honor.

His Cuban Campaign.
When there was no longer any doubt that there would be a fight with Spain the veteran was like the old war horse which scents the battle afar off. No young blood eager to earn his spurs was more anxious than he, and his application to wear the blue was one of the first to be filed in Washington.

He was commissioned major general of volunteers on May 4 and with the appointment President McKinley placed in his charge the cavalry division of the army then forming for Cuba. So anxious was General Wheeler to get into the thick of it that on the same day he was on his way south and his troops first saw him still lacking uniform and sword, but filled with the energy and spirit and dash that made him the pride of the confederate cavalry.

The stories told of him as the result of the Cuban campaign would fill a book. He was seemingly everywhere, and he carried his sixty-two years in a way that provoked the admiration of veteran campaigners.

General Joe Wheeler had only 900 men under his command when, on June 24, he fought Lieutenant General Linhares at Las Guasimas, while the enemy consisted of more than 2,000 regular Spanish troops, but the victory was decisive. At the battle of San Juan, July 1 and 2, he was the senior officer in immediate command on the field, and was senior member of the commission which negotiated the surrender of Santiago and 20,000 Spanish soldiers.

When the army came back from Cuba General Wheeler was assigned to the command of the camps at Morant Point, and it was here that he experienced one of the great sorrows of his life, for his youngest son, Thomas, who was a cadet on the cruiser Columbia, was drowned on the beach. The loss of his boy aged the father ten years in appearance, and he returned to Washington when Camp Wyckoff was broken up and eagerly sought service in the Philippines. Later he was given command of the First brigade, second division, Eighth army corps in the Philippines.

Services in our new possessions won him fresh laurels, for he revelled in the guerrilla style of warfare. Shortly after his return from the Philippines he was retired from the army for age.

PERSIA TO HAVE CONSTITUTION.

Merchants and Priests Leave Capital as Protest Against Shah's government.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—A constitutional government for Persia, according to advice from Tehran received here, is to be the outcome of the sudden exodus of a thousand merchants and Mullah priests from the Persian capital as a protest against the Shah's government. The insurgents proceeded to the village of Shah-Abul-Azim, where a representative assembly elected by the Mullahs, merchants and land owners will be held under the presidency of the Shah.

The assembly will be called the house of justice and exercise administrative and legislative powers. The equality of all before the law will be proclaimed. It is expected that the assembly will demand the dismissal of M. J. Nasse, the Belgian minister of customs and posts, and the Belgian employees of the customs.

Farmer His Own Surgeon.

Franklin, Pa., Jan. 26.—B. F. Melet, a farmer, gave a remarkable exhibition of courage today. While working on his farm many miles from a doctor's office, he was bitten on the hand by a mad dog. Ignorant of how to treat the injury and fearing the consequences if it were not treated, Mr. Melet drew his jack knife from his pocket and cut the wound from his hand. "Then he came to Franklin and had the member amputated."

Engine Goes Through Ten Cars.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 26.—The Missouri Pacific express westbound, dished into a freight train standing on the main track today and nearly 200 passengers were bruised, but none seriously hurt. The freight caught fire and ten cars burned. The express was running at full speed, rounded the curve and ploughed through ten freight cars. Only one truck of a car of the passenger train left the rails, and only the engine was damaged.

Excitement Kills Candidate.

London, Jan. 24.—Thomas Higgins, Irish nationalist, who yesterday successfully contested North Galway against Col. John Philip Nolan, Irish nationalist, was found dead in bed at his hotel at Dublin today. The tragic occurrence is attributed to the excitement of yesterday's polling and week heart.

Melvin Hazed Five.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 26.—The trial of Midshipman George Melvin, of Genesee, Ill., member of the third class, began today. He is charged with having five different midshipmen, all of the fourth class.

Grover Says It's Not So.

Princeton, Jan. 26.—Former President Cleveland, asked about the truth of the report he was thinking of giving up his post as arbiter of rebates for insurance companies, replied: "There is not a particle of truth in the report nor any excuse for its circulation."

Bribery Charges Dismissed.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 26.—The proceedings against Fred T. Sherman, charged with paying a bribe of $5,000 to Mayor Wright in connection with jacking contracts were dismissed today by Justice Link, on the ground that there was no evidence to sustain the charges.

Hochdifferer Collects Cacti.

(Thomas Hochdifferer, of Flagstaff, George Hochdifferer, of Flagstaff, who is a student of the Normal, Mr. Hochdifferer makes Flagstaff his home the greater part of the time but the nature of his work frequently takes him all over the territory and into Mexico. He is a collector of cacti and orchids for government and commercial purposes. Several months ago with his family he came down from the northern part of the territory and has been camped since then near Camelback, where he has been collecting all the different varieties of cacti he can find in that vicinity. In a few days he intends to leave for Mexico, for he has contracted with a party in Europe for a large consignment of cacti of many different kinds and many of the varieties he will have to have can only be found in remote places in Mexico. It is more than probable that before he secures just what he wants he will have been obliged to visit every state in Mexico. The collection of different species of cacti and orchids is something of a fact in European circles and some prominent botanists in that part of the world have rare collections. The party for whom Mr. Hochdifferer is now engaged in collecting a shipment, is considered to have the finest collection in Europe.

FRANK BELL HAS CONFESSED TO CHAVES MURDER

According to Telegram From Arizona Sheriff.

FRED FORNOFF LEAVES TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION

Deputy United States Marshal Fred Fornoff, of this city, left yesterday for Prescott, Arizona, to take charge of a man named Frank Bell, who is alleged to have confessed to the murder of Colonel J. Francisco Chaves, territorial superintendent of public instruction of New Mexico at Pinos Wells, November 26, 1904.

One Domingo Valles is already in jail in Santa Fe awaiting trial on the charge of murdering Colonel Chaves.

Mr. Fornoff goes to Prescott as the personal agent of Governor Hagerman. The governor sent the deputy marshal to Arizona on receipt of the following telegram from Sheriff James R. Lowry, of Yavapai county:

Governor Herbert J. Hagerman, Santa Fe, N. M.:
Frank Bell in jail in Prescott has confessed that he shot Col. Chaves through the window, killing him.

JAMES R. LOWRY.
Governor Hagerman immediately wired back to Lowry to hold the alleged confessed murderer until an officer could be sent. Fornoff was immediately dispatched to make an investigation.

The outcome of his trip will be awaited with eager interest. The captors of Domingo Valles believe they have a clear case against him at least of complicity in the murder. It may be that Frank Bell was the man who fired the shot or a member of the gang which encompassed the death of Col. Chaves.

The story of the wanted assassination of Col. Chaves, is still fresh in the minds of the readers of the Morning Journal.

Colonel Chaves had gone to Pinos Wells on the afternoon of Saturday, November 26, in company with Louis Trauer, a sheep and wool dealer of Albuquerque. He transacted business and then went to the home of Juan Diaz de Salas for supper. The house was in the rear of the postoffice.

After the evening meal, Mr. Trauer remained in the store owned by Salas, talking with ranchman Mr. Salas. Colonel Chaves and Donaciano Chaves, a mail carrier, remained in the house talking. The Colonel was seated a few feet from and along side of the window when the first shot was fired. There was the quick report of a heavy caliber gun and Colonel Chaves sprang from his chair, took two steps toward the window and fell dead with a bullet under the right arm and embedded itself several inches in the wall.

The assassin had plenty of time in which to escape for the other persons in the room were too dazed to act for several minutes. Upon investigation, however, tracks were found leading from the window, through which the deadly shot was fired.

Concert by Elks' Orchestra.

The concert last night at the Elks' opera house by the newly organized Elks' orchestra was one of the very best musical events that has occurred in Albuquerque for years. The program was a very classical and elaborate one and the crowd was quite large. R. W. Hadden does magnificent work as director and every member of the orchestra is an artist.

NEW RAILROAD IS PUMPING GATE CITY A BIG BOOST

General Sales Agent Thomas in Albuquerque.

OPENS UP RICH TERRITORY IN NORTH NEW MEXICO

Frank J. Thomas, general sales agent for the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coal and Coke company, is in the city in the interest of his company, and will remain here for several days. Mr. Thomas makes his headquarters at Raton, New Mexico, and his company is building the new railroad, to be known as the "Rocky Mountain Route," which will run from the Taos valley to Des Moines, N. M., where it will connect with the Colorado and Southern, thence to Raton, where it will connect with the Santa Fe. The terminus for the time being will be at Kechler, N. M., where it will connect with the El Paso-Northeastern. A portion of the line is now in operation and motive power and rolling stock for the new line is arriving. On the company's trade mark, the words "Rocky Mountain Route" are in a circle with a swastika, the Navajo emblem of good luck, in the center.

The building of the road has given Raton and northern New Mexico a big boost. Real estate is advancing quite rapidly and the town is filling up with newcomers. The future is also going to be a city, largely from the fact that it is a junction point for the two roads.

SANTA FE RECEIVES A COLLECTION OF FREAK CONSCIENCE LETTERS

The Santa Fe has some peculiar contributions to its conscience fund but it had two new ones this week that rather staggered it. These went to the passenger department which refuses the publication of names.

One letter received by Mr. Connel, general passenger agent, in Topeka, was from a man at Bradstock, Pennsylvania. This man, the letter indicates, had a postoffice money order for $20 explained, had in last April, bought at El Paso, a ticket to Kansas City of a scrapper. After nearly a year he found his conscience still so sore on the point of having perhaps evaded a part of the fare that he sent what is practically the full fare to the city passenger agent at El Paso, J. S. Morrison. The full fare is $21.55, but the passenger department has decided to waive any claim it might have to the $1.55 and has written the conscience-stricken Pennsylvania a very polite letter of thanks.

The department receives many freak letters. Here is one that came Tuesday of this week accompanied by a check for $6.05, the exact fare in the case, but the man was in doubt as to whether he ought to include the interest on the account or not. He said: "Dear Sir:—About a year ago I wrote to you in regard to a ride from Pawnee, Rock, Kansas, to Topeka. Please find the regular rate, $5.00, enclosed, and as to the interest let me ask you a few questions and give you some Bible. If you was out away from home without money and friends that was able to help you and some of my men should come along in a lumber wagon, and you want to get in and ride with him and afterwards you would want to pay me for it, you say how much? I say, well, sir, those that I take that distance in a buggy I charge so and so, but if you want to ease your conscience you must send me just a little more than double the amount. Would you think me doing as I wish to be done by? Turn to Matthew 7:12. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do you even so to them, for this is the law and the prophets."

The writer then quotes about a dozen more passages and concludes: "Now, if after reading the above named scriptures you think you should ask interest, you shall have it as soon as I can get that much ahead. Yours for eternity."

Roy Johnson of the passenger department answered this letter and in closing, said: "We will be very glad to waive claim of interest and to release you from any feeling of obligation to pay the same."

(Small Holding Claim No. 329.)
Notice for Publication, United States Land Office, Santa Fe, N. M., January 2, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that the following named claimant has filed with the office of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim under sections 16 and 17 of the act of March 3, 1891 (24 Stat., 354), as amended by the act of February 21, 1893 (27 Stat., 476), and that said proof will be made before U. S. Court Commissioner at San Rafael, N. M., on Feb. 5, 1906, viz: San Juan Romero, for the lot 1, sec. 20, lot 2, sec. 16 and 17, lot 3, sec. 8, 9, 16 and 17, T. 16 N., R. 7 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his actual continuous adverse possession of said tract for twenty years next preceding the survey of the township, viz: Gonzalo Figueroa, of Cubero, N. M.; Pablo Lucero, of Cubero, N. M.; Bautista Baca, of Cubero, N. M.; Juan D. Martinez, of Cubero, N. M.

Any person who desires to protest against the allowance of said proof, or who knows of any substantial reason under the laws and regulations of the Interior Department why such proof should not be allowed, will be given an opportunity at the above mentioned time and place to cross examine the witnesses of said claimant, and to offer evidence in rebuttal of that submitted by claimant.

PUMPING PLANT ON THE SALT RIVER FOR THE INDIANS

W. H. Code, chief engineer of Indian irrigation, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Washington, D. C., accompanied by Mrs. Code and John J. Granville. Yesterday they spent in Phoenix and left last evening for Mesa City, says the Phoenix Republican.

Mr. Granville is an engineer of large experience, and under the general direction of Mr. Code will conduct surveys to determine the practicability and cost of a hydro-electric power plant on Salt river, the power thus obtained to be transmitted to the Pima Indian reservation and utilized for pumping purposes. Just when the work of making the survey will begin could not be ascertained at present, but it is understood that Mr. Code and Mr. Granville will at once pay a visit to the upper Salt river between the head of the Arizona canal and the storage dam.

It will be remembered that in the Indian bill enacted by the last congress there was an appropriation ordered for $50,000 to cover the expenses of this work, the total cost of the plant, when complete, not to exceed $540,000. It is the desire of the department that a full report on the project may be made before the adjournment of the present congress in order that intelligent action may be taken with reference to needed additional appropriations providing the investigations prove the project to be a feasible one.

School War On in Watrous.

Watrous has a war on at present between school factions. The trouble started sometime back when Alex. Williams was elected school director. A contest was brought by those opposed to Mr. Williams but he won the fight. Last week the principal of the school administered a much needed whipping to a young boy by the name of Martinez which, as usual, brought forth the wrath of the parents. They complained to the school board which sustained the principal. Then the case was taken into court, a jury was called and they convicted the principal of assault. Judge Tipton was of course obliged to pay a fine. However, the end is not yet as the best person of Watrous are outspoken in favor of the teachers. When the case comes to be heard on its merits there is no doubt that the teachers will win a victory.—Raton Range.

WOMAN'S CLUB PREPARING TO ESTABLISH DAY NURSERY

At the meeting of the Woman's club of Albuquerque yesterday the department of philanthropy submitted a report to the club on the matter of establishing a day nursery in this city for the care of children whose mothers have to work. The committee has secured the services of a matron and is now engaged in selecting a suitable room for the nursery. The innovation will fill a long felt want in charity work in Albuquerque. The children of healthseekers who are unable to properly care for their families will be also looked after in the establishment. The plan has been tried in all the large cities and found to be a success.

At yesterday's meeting of the club Mrs. Christina Kent had an interesting paper on "George Inness and his Landscape." Mrs. Laura Clark read a paper on the Lewis and Clark expedition, which was followed by an exceptionally clever effort by Mrs. Carns on "Woman in Sculpture and Architecture."

The Value of the Trade-Mark.

A trade-mark is usually some one particular mark on goods to show their origin, but, as a matter of fact, any new, original quality, feature or characteristic of an article of manufacture, if widely made known through advertising, becomes valuable as a trade-mark, and is protected by the courts, so that one article may have many "trade-marks" that belong to it alone. Thus for example, in the case of Cascarets, Candy Cathartics, the name "Cascarets," the expression "Candy Cathartics," the peculiar shape and color of box, the octagonal tablet, and the letters "C. C. C." on each tablet, all are expressive trade "marks" of that popular medicine, because they indicate their genuineness, distinguish them from imitations and have become universally known to the people.

The Greatest Pre-Inventory Sale Ever Known: We take inventory next Saturday, the twenty-seventh day of January, and before doing so we must reduce our stock: A short week of tremendous opportunities: This announcement, the absolute clearance of all garments for women and children, comes but once annually: Positively the most desirable goods at prices lower than ever quoted before.

Remnants of Dress Goods

Consisting of new fall goods, some light-weight goods for spring wear, mostly heavy weights, some enough for full dresses, other in skirt lengths; they are plain and fancy dress goods, in all colors and kinds; also blacks; some of these goods sold as high as $3.50 a yard. Choice of any in the lot, at per yard 65¢

Women's Short Coats

About fifteen Women's Short Coats, colors tan, mode, black and mixtures. These sold in the regular way up to $15.00. Your choice now only $5.00

Millinery Clearing

Ready-to-Wear and Ready-to-Trim Hats, including a large variety of the season's smartest shapes—values as high as

$1.50—to close 50¢
$3.50 to $5.00 Hats at $1.45
$5.00 to $8.00 Hats at $3.50
$8.00 to $12.00 Hats at $5.00
$16.00 to $20.00 Hats at $8.50
Imported Models, choice for $12.00

The Ready-to-Wear Department

Prices Especially Low in the Children's Section

Children's Coats in broken sizes, mostly one to a size, at price like $7.50 and $6.75 Coats for $3.00 and $3.75 Coats for $2.00—and so on, regardless of former prices.
Children's Woolen Dresses—Prices are reduced about one-third in this section. Some wash garments are soiled and shop-worn and as a result they go at about two-thirds off of regular prices. All others reduced to clean up the stock.

Women's Tailored Suits

To enumerate the reduced prices would be the use of too much space—but for $10.00 we've gotten together over 50 Suits that sold before up to $22.50. Like reductions made on higher priced suits.

Women's Coats at $10.00 and $12.00

A collection comprising the best of our former $20.00 and $25.00 Tailored Coats. The sizes are odd, but your chance of a good-fitting coat at such a nominal sum is worth trying for.

Silk Coats of every description, in short, medium, three-quarter length and full length styles. Reduced to about one-half former prices.

Raincoats at $10.00 and $12.50

London Cravenettes in large, long, stylish effects—representing the tailor's best art. Prices are reduced about one-third on all Raincoats. All plainly marked; grays and tans.

Costumes

Too many for this time of the year—some that are shop-worn can be purchased for a great deal less than half price. The balance will average about half their original price, which means they can be bought for less than eastern wholesale prices.

Waists

In our efforts to rid ourselves of fall and winter Waists we've taken extreme measures in regard to prices. The season's best waists can be had for unusually low prices, as follows:

Waists worth up to $2.50, now 75¢
Waists worth up to $3.50, now $2.00
Crepe de Chine Silk Waists, were $5, now $2.50
Plaid Silk Waists, were $7.50, now $4.50
Panne Velvet and Lace Waists, worth up to $10.00, reduced to $7.50 and $6.50

Special in Walking Skirts

Over five hundred Walking Skirts placed in this sale and your unlimited choice of as fine a lot of skirts as you've ever seen. The newest mixtures and most stunning styles; they are divided into lots, to close.

Lot 1—choice at $1.98
Lot 2—choice at $2.95
Lot 3—choice at $3.95
Lot 4—choice at $5.95
Lot 5—choice at $7.

He Should Be Consistent

SENATOR FORAKER, to be consistent, should broaden his amendment so as to require the statehood matter to be submitted to the people of each county separately. The people of Santa Fe county are much opposed to it, and the senator should not be unmindful of the fact that it would give our free institutions a terrible wrench to compel that ancient and honorable community to submit to a government not founded upon the consent of the governed. And, besides, it would be a case of such flagrant discrimination. Santa Fe has been an organized community for more than three hundred and fifty years, and was an important point on the earth's surface for a century or two before the great grandfathers of the present generation were born, while the people of Arizona constitute a community not fifty years old, and not so very much larger than Santa Fe. Then what an inexcusable violation it would be of all the proprieties for the Ohio senator to fight to the last ditch for the purpose of securing a privilege for a community yet in its swaddling clothes, which, at the same time, he denies to a community as venerable as Father Time himself. Be consistent, Mr. Foraker.

Water in the Stock

SOME of our Arizona friends who oppose joint statehood have fallen into the habit of watering the stock of their arguments too profusely; they overdo the thing, and give themselves away. Take for instance the following paragraph which we clip from a leading editorial in the Tucson Citizen, which is not by any means the most reckless paper in Arizona, but is, on the other hand, rather more conservative than the average. The Citizen says:

"We are not disposed to quarrel with the advocates of jointure in New Mexico. They are looking out for themselves. They cannot well be accused of a lack of patriotism. They have everything to gain and nothing to lose by absorbing Arizona. They would have about four to one in the proposed combination and could fry the fat out of Arizona, and that is what they are after. More than 90 per cent of the people are opposed to the proposed jointure arrangement. The entire scheme is odious to them."

Now, let us call our neighbor of the Citizen down to earth for a little while and see how much solid foundation he has left to stand upon. Let us squeeze the water out of his statehood stock and see how much is left of it. In the proposed combination, he says, New Mexico would have about four to one. But in the bill which has just passed the lower house of congress and will probably pass the senate, provision is made for a constitutional convention, to set up the machinery of the new state, and the delegates to compose that convention are apportioned, sixty to New Mexico, and forty-five to Arizona. That shows that the four-to-one declaration of our Arizona neighbor was just two-thirds exaggeration—in other words, it was sixty-six and two-thirds per cent water, and, of course, that must be squeezed out.

Then in the next place he tells us that "more than 90 per cent" of the people of Arizona are opposed to the jointure proposition. Now, if this statement is also two-thirds exaggeration—and since the fact has been established officially in the one case it is only fair to assume that it exists in the other—then we must squeeze 66 per cent of water out of this also before we get down to the solid fact, and the result of that would show that not quite one-half of the people of Arizona are opposed to joint statehood, and that is probably nearer the real truth of the matter than the 90 per cent story.

Next he tells us that the New Mexicans would "fry the fat out of Arizona." And that statement is just an even 100 per cent water. There is not truth enough in it to make it even worth considering. The non-resident mining nabobs have been frying the fat out of Arizona in a very liberal manner for a long time past, and the New Mexicans will probably help the people of Arizona to put an end to that performance. But there will be no other fat frying done if New Mexico can prevent it.

THE people very well know that the fiercest feeling in the capital against President Roosevelt was born neither of his supposed aspiration to the power of a dictator nor to a conviction of the wisdom of his policies. The antagonism is due almost wholly to the fact that he is the ardent friend, advocate and promoter of reforms which menace powerful corrupt interests with injury.—Philadelphia North American.

A PREDECESSOR of President Roosevelt growled that he "had congress on his hands." President Roosevelt has congress on his hands, on his back, and in his hair.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Boston Up Against It

WE GATHER from the Springfield Republican a few interesting facts regarding a municipal ownership deal which it has been proposed to put through in Boston, and from this statement of the condition of affairs it may be seen that the people of the Hub find themselves facing a "condition" which is very far removed from "theory," and which is not entirely devoid of resemblance to the situation in which our own city council finds itself in the water works matter. The Republican says:

"The Boston city council, by the required two-thirds majority, voted last year in favor of submitting to popular vote the question of establishing a municipal lighting plant. It now faces the same question again, and under the law similar action will operate to submit the matter to the people and, if they approve, then the city must go ahead and buy out the existing light monopolies—for apparently the proposed step contemplates the establishment of a municipal electric light as well as gas plant.

"Now comes the corporation counsel with the following statement of facts: That the companies in the field will demand $27,500,000 for their properties; that the city must pay them damages of some $5,500,000 for portions of their plants lying outside of the city limits and cut off by municipal action; and that the amount it will probably have to pay exceeds by some $20,000,000 the indebtedness of 2½ per cent of the assessed valuation which the city under the law may contract for such a purpose. This is rather stunning, and has caused the city council to postpone the subject for a week or two.

"It is worth observing meantime that the corporation counsel assumes, on the strength of court decisions, that the city would have to buy the existing plants at their 'fair market value,' or 'value as a going plant,' which is taken to mean the same thing. Accordingly it is calculated that the city would have to pay the price of about $27,000,000 which is asked for the plant of the Consolidated Gas company—a concern recently organized on a capitalization of little more than $15,000,000, which after a long contest before the gas commission, was judged to cover the structural value of the consolidated plant of value irrespective of franchise."

NO ONE TO BLAME FOR THE RAISE BUT CONSUMER

Operator Completes Chain of Evidence.

LIKE RAILWAY AND DEALER
HE IS TRUE PHILANTHROPIST

Prominent Representative of Producers Says Cost of Mining
Is Just the Same.

General Sales Agent Thomas, of the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coal and Coke company, who is in the city from his headquarters in Boston had some interesting remarks to make to the Morning Journal last night on the subject of the coal famine and the raise of fifty cents a ton with the advent of the cold weather. Mr. Thomas says positively that the coal operators of New Mexico generally have not raised the price on the dealers.

This completes the chain of evidence gathered by the Morning Journal. There is plenty of coal and plenty of miners and plenty of cars. Coal is cheap at the mines. The freight rate is low. The dealers have sacrificed part of their profit and the consumer is paying fifty cents extra a ton for the worst coal that has come to Albuquerque in many a day. The only conclusion to be drawn is that the consumer is an easy mark.

It is a peculiar state of affairs. The Santa Fe protests that they have cut down the rate and furnished extra cars for the express purpose of giving the people a chance to get fuel. The dealer says he had to make the raise in price to make any profit at all, and even at that he is doing himself a gross injustice.

The operator swears he hasn't raised the price on the dealer. They are all three, the philanthropist, triumvirate, making a conscientious effort to give the people plenty of coal cheap. And here is the consumer, fairly raising Ned to get enough coal to keep him warm and paying six dollars a ton for soft coal and eight and a half for anthracite. It is a Chinese puzzle—a dark enigma.

Operators Not to Blame.
"The statement printed in the Journal of this morning," said Mr. Thomas last evening at the Alvarado, "laying the blame to the coal operators for the raise in the price of coal in Albuquerque, was an injustice to the operators of the territory. I feel interested to the extent that I wish to place them in the right light before the people. The operator will protect his trade no matter how small a quantity is used by the local dealer. Of course, the coal mine operator is not very favorable to the 'snow bird' dealer—by that I mean the dealer who will buy a large amount in winter and a small amount in summer. The coal operator is exactly the same as any other business man in this regard, and he will protect his trade at any cost."

"I know nothing about the status of your local trouble, but I do know that the operators are not to be blamed in the matter. They are fair and will protect the local coal dealer who is in the business the year round at any time and in any way possible. Of course, the railroad, smelters, etc., use the most of the coal that is mined and this trade must be protected."

"The cost of production of coal has not advanced within the past year and I am sure that there has been no raise in the price."

Supreme Court.
In the supreme court at Santa Fe yesterday the disbarment proceedings brought against J. M. Palmer, practicing attorney of Farmington, were certified to the court, and by the court referred to the grievance committee of the Territorial Bar association for investigation. Attorney Palmer is charged with unprofessional conduct. After the committee makes its report, the supreme court will act upon the matter.

Case No. 1092, entitled William F. Cunningham et al., plaintiffs in error, vs. Eugene A. Flske, defendant in error; decision of lower court affirmed. Renehan attorney for plaintiffs, and Flske attorney for defendants.

Case Nos. 957 to 961, entitled Atlas Assurance company et al., plaintiffs in error vs. Santa Fe Mercantile company, defendant in error; motion to recall execution, argued and submitted. Childers, Laughlin, and Ortiz, attorneys for plaintiffs, and Spies, attorneys for defendant.

Case No. 1139, entitled Benjamin H. Daniel, appellant, vs. City of Roswell, appellee; appeal dismissed.

Case No. 1121, entitled J. J. Hagerman, Roswell Land and Water company and Pecos Valley company, appellants, vs. Atha Meeks, et al., appellees; argued and submitted. Richardson, Reid and Hervey, attorneys for appellants, and Evans attorney for appellee. Court then adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

MULE'S KICK ENDS LIFE OF STABLE BOSS HAYGOOD

George Haygood, colored, stable boss for the Lantry-Sharpe Construction company, who was kicked by a mule at the Santa Fe stock yards, died Thursday night at St. Joseph's hospital in this city.

The mule which kicked Haygood was sharp shod and the calf of the shoe entered Haygood's left temple. He was operated on by physicians and that he lived a little over a week without regaining complete consciousness shows the remarkable vitality of the man.

Mrs. Haygood arrived in the city last night and took the body of her husband to Topeka, where the interment will occur. Haygood was well along in years and had been in the employ of the Lantry Bros. and Barney Lantry for over twenty years. He was well thought of by his employers and was a popular workman.

FREIGHT TRAIN HITS A BULL FIGHT ON THE TRACK

A freight train on the Rio Grande division below Rincon yesterday ran plump into a full fledged Spanish bull fight square in the middle of the right of way. The freight did not make a shining success in the role of matador, however, the engine being entangled and derailed and several of the freight cars badly piled up. The bulls were reduced to hash.

The wreck delayed No. 16 from the south which did not arrive here in consequence until 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The train is due here at 6 in the morning. Passengers who were delayed at the scene of the wreck say that according to the engine crew the bovines were engaged in a fierce fight on the track and were utterly oblivious of railroad trains until the freight hit them with a dull thud. No one was injured.

Jameson-Muggley.
Last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Strumquist, Miss May Muggley was united in marriage to James Jameson by the Rev. E. E. Crawford. Only a few friends witnessed the ceremony. The young couple will leave in a few days for Michigan, where they will make their home. Miss Heald and Mr. Wilson acted as bridesmaid and best man at the ceremony. Delicious refreshments were served after the wedding.

Mr. Jameson is a well known young business man of Michigan and Miss Muggley, who has many friends in Albuquerque, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Muggley.

(Small Holding Claim No. 305.)
Notice for Publication.
Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Santa Fe, N. M., January 3, 1906.
Notice is hereby given that the following named claimant has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim under sections 16 and 17 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat., 854), as amended by the act of February 21, 1895 (27 Stat., 470), and that said proof will be made before U. S. Court Commissioner at San Rafael, N. M., on Feb. 3, 1906, viz: Mrs. Francisca Sarracino, widow of Francisco Sarracino, deceased, for the lots 1 and 2, sec. 20, lot 3, sec. 17, lots 4 and 5, sec. 16 and 17, T. 10 N., R. 7 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove her actual continuous adverse possession of said tract for twenty years next preceding the survey of the town of San Rafael, viz: Gonzalo Figueroa, of Cubero, N. M.; Pablo Lucero, of Cubero, N. M.; Jose Anastasio Candelaria, of Cubero, N. M.; Juan E. Martinez, of Cubero, N. M.

Any person who desires to protest against the allowance of said proof, or who knows of any substantial reason under the laws and regulations of the Interior Department why such proof should not be allowed will be given an opportunity at the above mentioned time and place to cross examine the witnesses of said claimant, and to offer evidence in rebuttal of that submitted by claimant.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Corn Walker of Porterville, California. "There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by all druggists."

McSpadden, the exchange man, 300 South Broadway.

AN INTERNATIONAL INCIDENT AT THE ALVARADO

K. Ota, a Japanese employe of the Alvarado, would have killed a fellow employe named Leandro Leyva, a native, could he have gotten to him with his knife yesterday. The row started in the employe's dining room and from what can be learned of the affair the cause of the fight was the annoyance to which Ota has been subjected by the natives who are employed at the hotel. Leyva hit Ota with a chair when the fight started and then ran out into the laundry. Ota pulled a knife and Leyva screamed for help. The Jap was taken to the police court where he was fined $30 which was paid. The natives at the hotel will give the Jap a wide berth in the future.

An agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect is produced by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

THE BERNALILLO COUNTY JAIL IS EXTREMELY UNSANITARY

A petition it is understood is being prepared for presentation to the county commissioners asking that certain very necessary repairs be made on the Bernalillo county jail in Old Albuquerque to get it into sanitary condition. The entire drainage system of the building is in a very poor shape and is clogged and unsanitary and something should be done about it without delay. This is the unanimous verdict of the prisoners and the sheriff and the jailer. There are no sewage connections from the upper floor of the building. A force of plumbers went to work yesterday on some minor repairs, but the sewage system of the building will have to have a thorough overhauling before things are as they should be.

Henry Hopes to Land Hermann.
Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 26.—Attorney Francis J. Henry, who, since he left Arizona a few years ago, has become a national character through his strenuous prosecution of land grafters at Portland, is now in the city. He arrived from San Francisco to assist E. S. Ives in the case of Steinfeld vs. Zeckendorf.

Henry states that he will soon be through with his prosecution of the land fraud cases and will then resume his practice in San Francisco.

Henry states that he has hopes of convicting Blinger Hermann as a land grafter next March. Hermann is now a United States senator from Oregon, having recently been sworn into office.

LIVING ON THE PRIARS' LANDS.
Squatters Ignoring the Title of the Government.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Governor General Luke E. Wright, of the Philippine Islands has given some interesting information concerning the occupancy of the friar lands in the islands. In a hearing on the bill reorganizing the Philippine governmental departments, before the house committee on insular affairs. Nearly every prominent Filipino in Cavite has squatters on the friar lands, who are paying him rental, ignoring the title held by the United States, said Governor Wright. He said the lands were occupied in this manner when they were purchased from the friars. "So we have brought a lot of law suits," suggested Representative Rucker of Missouri.

"Oh, no, I don't think so," said Governor Wright. "When it comes to the 'show down' I think it will be shown that the titles claimed by these landholders are fictitious. While many men of the Aguinaldo type declare the friars' title was given by a despotic government by despoiling the holdings of the people, the courts have upheld these titles in many instances. I think all of the landholders will recognize the government's claim when it comes, as I said before, to a show down."

No picking over filthy animal hair for blinding, sneezing hours, no hiring a "renovator" to do what should never have to be done to the thing you sleep on. Dirt and germs are impossible in an Ostermoor, and a mere sun-bath alone is necessary to keep it everlastingly fresh and clean. Built (not stuffed), of springy Ostermoor sheets, it can not get dirty or harbor vermin. Besides its purity, the Ostermoor has no equal for comfort, cannot sag or get lumpy, and is practically un-wear-out-able. Other dealers—jealous—are trying to sell mattresses "just-as-good." There is none "just-as-good." We're in the business, and we know it.

Correspondence Morning Journal.

Farmington, N. M., Jan. 26.—By far the most important deal of the week is the recent sale of the Porter Fuel company's coal lands in La Plata county, Colo., to the Southern Pacific Railroad company. This sale is an accomplished fact, in the positive statement of those who assume to know. It is also said that other coal properties have been acquired, comprising in all some thousands of acres, extending from above Durango down the La Plata river to Fruitland. This being the case there can be no question but that the Southern Pacific will build its proposed line from Durango south, thus securing to San Juan county the best future imaginable. In connection with this railroad news, it may be said that information was given out here several days ago that the Denver and Rio Grande road had ordered six hundred carloads of this shipping to this point to be used in constructing the Farmington branch south into Arizona and California. All this is very welcome news to the people of Farmington, the Queen city of the San Juan.

Big Irrigation Canal.
W. G. Black, of Canon City, Colo., W. S. Walker, Jr., of St. Louis, W. T. Allen, of Cripple Creek, and V. A. Gillespie and T. E. Maddox, of Arapahoe, visited this section of the country last week. They are promoters and have in mind the construction of a large irrigation canal on the upper San Juan. This is an immense undertaking and one requiring a large amount of capital, but these gentlemen have good financial backing and the chances are good that the project will be pushed. This would mean the reclaiming of several thousand acres of fine land and the fact of more water trod upon, and would add another fertile region to the already immense productive territory of the Sunny San Juan.

Farmington Quiet Again.
Nothing exciting has occurred this week and the town has recovered its usual calm. Appearances of the "Hayes Amos affair," as it is known, is rumored, and even more sensationally announced that suit will be brought by Hayes charging Amos with criminal libel. Amos, however, still pursues the even tenor of his way and reports business better than ever before. The more liberal ones—those who like to see justice done are offering themselves pertinent questions in regard to the case which are unanswered. It is said that Amos has been told by the county clerk that the latter will file some sensational counter charges. Also that Amos is contemplating libel proceedings against two of the county papers, but neither report can be verified. It is thought that the bitter factional fight of a year ago will re-open as one result of this disagreeable affair.

The Ivis Suicide.
The attempted and finally successful suicide of Clyde Ivis, was the main topic of conversation for a few days. The young man, who was well known in the county, on Thursday night last week told a few of his friends that he had too many troubles and made them all good by. Shortly after he was picked up on the street with a deep gash in his neck, inflicted with a pocket knife. After cutting his throat he had closed up the knife and returned to his hotel. He was carried to the nearby office of Dr. Guthrie, who with the aid of Dr. McKee, attempted to sew up the wound, but was hindered by the struggles of the would-be suicide, who did not want to live. The woman whom he blamed for all his troubles is Mrs. Walling, wife of one of Farmington's best citizens. He died Sunday morning at 7 o'clock from loss of blood. It is said that Mrs. Walling called to view his body, but was denied admittance by his relatives. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

Much Building Going On.
In the building line, Farmington is progressing more rapidly than ever before in its history. The first building to be erected of the new commercial building material, styled "granite blocks" has been completed on Main street and presents an elegant appearance. This company has a number of contracts for residences and business blocks, which will be built as fast as the material can be made. No brick can be had at the present time and a fortune awaits the man who will burn several hundred thousand in the spring. It is rumored that Elliott Brothers, proprietors of the Anson hotel, are about to let a contract for a fine hotel structure of several stories in the place of their present cramped quarters. This would be a valuable addition to the town.

The Bridge Question.
The taxpayers of the county are agitating the bridge question pretty strongly at present. They are after several bridges over the San Juan and La Plata rivers and seem determined to get them. They intend to go at the commissioners hot and heavy, for since Farmington is the terminal of the Denver and Rio Grande the traffic between Farmington and Fruitland is such that bridges are badly needed.

The Fruitland Tribune.
The push and energy of the people of the lower San Juan is shown by the issuance of the first number of the Fruitland Tribune, a four page illustrated newspaper of four columns, appearing twice a month. It will undoubtedly do that section much good.

Must Face Murder Charge.
O. E. Finstad and Louis G. Coughner, the two Los Angeles men who have been held at Santa Rosalia, Mexico, for a preliminary hearing in connection with the killing of Robert (Mother) and C. W. McMurray, the latter the brother-in-law of Finstad, must stand a formal trial on the charge of murder, says the El Paso Herald.

Their preliminary trial has been concluded and they have been bound over to the higher court on the charge of murder according to advices received here, and will therefore be held for trial. The government holds that there is sufficient evidence to warrant this action, and the men must go through a formal trial before they get their release. Their friends are confident that they will then be cleared. What the evidence is, has not been given out; in fact, none of the evidence on which the Mexican officials are holding the men has ever been made public, but the authorities consider it sufficient to warrant holding the prisoners, while friends of the two men insist that it is insufficient to convict, and that they will be released if they get a fair trial.

Dupe Deceives B.
Barry A. Day, who has just moved here from Albuquerque, denies the interview purporting to have come from him, as published in the Albuquerque Citizen and republished in the Herald Wednesday. He says that he did not say his landlady was grasping, or that the landlady attempted to sell him the furniture of his office, or commission, and says there were no grounds for the interview. He says his landlady is honorable, courteous and obliging in every way, so far as he is concerned. —El Paso Herald.

Monster Gusher at Artesia.
Word was received in Roswell Wednesday of a monster gusher that was just discovered near Artesia. On the kind of J. H. Hale, a mile southeast of Artesia, a well with an eight-inch casing sends a stream of water twelve feet into the air. The well has been drilled about two hours, but experts have just been put in and for some time known reason, the strength of the flow has suddenly become enormous. This is now the largest well in the valley. The new flow sends out 550 gallons of water per minute, which means ten cubic feet of water per second, which is sufficient to cover 20 acres to a depth of two feet in 24 hours. Two feet of water is all that is required in a whole year to irrigate alfalfa. The total flow of North spring river, South Spring river and the Rio Grande is 125 cubic feet per second and this well has a flow equal to one-twelfth of the combined flow of these three natural streams. —Roswell Register.

A DOUBTING THOMAS.

Had the Falling Hair Stopped, and Dandruff Cured. Without Faith.
H. R. Fletcher, Route, Mont., Oct. 26, 1899, says: "Like many other people, I have been troubled for years with dandruff, and within the last few months my hair came out so badly that I was compelled to have what I had left clipped very close. A friend recommended Newber's Hairdressing Cream, and I bought a tin. I used it for a few days and my hair began to grow again. I have now a full head of hair and my scalp is clear. OFFICER COULDN'T FIND A JAILER IN BERNALILLO

And So He Brought Jemez
Indians Here.

THEY REALLY HAVE NO RIGHT TO STAY IN LOCAL COOP

Governor Jose Guadalupe de Jemez pueblo, and his three braves, Pablo Toya, Francisco Maque and Victoriano Lipe, who are confined in the Bernalillo county jail, are by rights the charges of Sandoval county and steps will at once be taken to send them where they belong. They were sentenced to ninety days for killing two deer out of season, which is a violation of the territorial game law. They were tried before Justice Samuel Young of Bland and sent to the Sandoval county jail at Bernalillo, in charge of Constable Frank Blake.

Blake took them to Bernalillo but found the jail deserted and could find no jailer so he brought them on to this county. The commitment reads "Sandoval county," so there is some question as to whether the Indians can be rightfully held here, and yet Sheriff Armijo does not desire to turn them loose. There is a great question as to whether the bill for feeding them will be allowed by Sandoval county, as the county has not been in the habit of paying out any money for such purposes.

The sheriff will try to communicate with Chief Deputy Sheriff Hovey, of Sandoval county, and will request that he come and get his prisoners.

YEGGMEN TERRORIZE GOOD PEOPLE OF TUCSON

The holdup men are operating again in Tucson. The last time the scene of their operations was within a stone's throw of the depot.

Engineer Harry Penfield, who was the victim. He was relieved of his watch and a sum of money. It could not be learned how large the sum was, but it is reported to have been about $50.

The holdup occurred shortly after midnight. Engineer Penfield, who is one of the veterans of the road, was scheduled to take out the second section of No. 9 from Tucson to Yuma. He secured his engine and ran down the yards. A short distance from the depot he stopped the engine and climbed down from the cab intending to go up stairs to the depot building to register before taking out the train and to compare his watch with the clock in the dispatcher's office as is required.

He had gone but a short distance when two men leaped out in front of him and at the point of a gun commanded him to throw up his hands. He was not slow in complying, and the robbers then secured Mr. Penfield's watch and all the money he had with him.

The holdup men made their escape. The robbery was reported to the police. No arrests have been made.

The Tucson Citizen says: The operations of the thugs and crooks who are here have been unusually bold and the robbery of Engineer Penfield was in line with the others of the previous nights.

For four successive nights there has been some serious crime and the citizens are beginning to take notice of the state of affairs and some radical means are being suggested to rid the city of the holdups and thieves.

The series of crimes which have made it almost unsafe to venture out at night without a gun are: Burglary of Will Kitt's residence Saturday night; four fires Sunday night; attempted holdup of Joaquin Legarra Monday night and the holdup of Engineer Penfield last night.

"I think immediate action of some kind should be taken," said a Congress street merchant today. "We should have more policemen or something. If these burglaries and holdups continue they may result in some citizen being killed. It would be far better to take steps in time and drive the robber pest out of the city."

Rangers Scatter Thugs.
Ranger Lieutenant Harry Wheeler and Ranger Roundtree have arrived in Tucson from Benson on a scouting tour.

The ranger lieutenant had charge of the riding of Douglas of the criminal gang which practically ran that town two weeks ago. It became so bad there at last that it was extremely dangerous to venture out at night. Lieutenant Wheeler brought in six rangers and for ten nights the rangers rode the streets of Douglas all night long. The presence of the rangers put the thieves and thugs to flight, for while no arrests were made, Douglas has not been bothered since with yeggmens.

Six Burned to Death.
Lowell, Mass., Jan. 26.—At least six persons lost their lives in a fire which partly destroyed the Richardson hotel, one of the leading public houses in this city early this morning. A large number of guests were in the hotel and those who were in the upper part of the building had little chance to escape by the stairways.

THERE are people reading our For Rent column today who would make desirable tenants for that vacant house of yours. There will be tomorrow, too; and there is time enough for you to get your ad in this column tomorrow. It should have been in today.

SCHWEIZER WILL TAKE ELEVEN HOPI TO GRAND CANYON

Manager Herman Schweizer, of the local Harvey curl rooms, left last night for the Moqui reservation where he will take eleven untutored savages from Oraibi and guide them to the Hopi house at the Grand Canyon to be gazed at with wonder and admiration by the wise men of the east who gather at the canyon to peer into the big hole and watch the Indians. Mr. Schweizer will select the best eleven he can find who are willing to go to the canyon and expects to get a splendid and thoroughly representative bunch of these most picturesque Indians. The Hopi house at the Grand Canyon has proved one of the best attractions along the Santa Fe and the company is sparing no effort or expense to add to its attractiveness.

BOLZE SAYS MADAME CALVE MAY APPEAR IN THIS CITY

It is quite possible Madame Calve may appear in the Albuquerque theater some time this season or next. Gustave Bolze, representing the Smith and Nixon piano company of Cincinnati, left this morning for the east on the limited after a stay of several days here during which he appointed Leonard and Lindemann, of this city, sole agents for the Smith and Nixon piano in the territories of New Mexico and Arizona. This instrument is the one used by Mme. Calve, who is now on a tour of the United States. Mr. Bolze is personally acquainted with the famous star and her manager and believes he can induce the latter to make arrangements for a southwestern tour to include Albuquerque. Mr. Bolze promised to wire immediately from New Orleans, where he will meet Mme. Calve, as to whether he can make the necessary arrangements.

AGED BUNCO WOMAN DOES NICE BUSINESS AND WON'T GO

Mrs. P. H. King, the cripple who arrived in the city from Fostoria, O., spent yesterday and the previous night at the Santa Fe depot in this city. She has been worrying ever since she arrived in the city for fear that she would be put in some county institution, but apparently that should not bother the old lady. The city will have nothing to do with her, the ministers who have visited and talked with her, brand her as an impostor and the Santa Fe company would be pleased to be rid of her. And still she remains.

Last night she went to a hotel after the trains were all in, and hired a room. She had decided to go to Gallup last evening, but as her baggage did not arrive, she decided she would wait in this city until it came.

After arriving in the city she ate three suppers before turning in for the night and gathered in some $19. Yesterday she dined some six times during the day and has taken in quite a nice sum of money. No doubt she will remain in the Santa Fe depot as long as the officers will allow her, and as long as she can continue to get the money.

It is probable that if her baggage arrives in the city this evening she will proceed to Gallup, but an effort will be made to get her to go to El Paso, where she can take her choice of routes west.

More Records Smashed.
Ormonde-Daytona, Fla., Jan. 26.—All the world's records for the kilometer and for the mile were broken in the automobile tournament here today. The new figures place the mile for cars of all powers at 28 1-5 seconds. Both new records were made by Fred Marriott, driving the cigar-shaped steamer.

Louis Chevrolet lowered the mile figures for gasoline cars only to 29 3-5 seconds.
