AIR MAIL FLIES TO DOOR OF CAPITAL

SIX MILE FLIGHT ENDS IN WASHINGTON STREET

White, English Aviator, Pays Visit to White House in Aeroplane, Then Sails Back to Starting Point.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 14.—In a narrow street, upon a precisely selected spot, after an aerial flight of more than six miles across the city, Claude Grahame White, the English aviator today dropped his aeroplane at the side door of the White House.

On the way at a height of nearly 500 feet, he circled the dome of the capitol and passed the lofty Washington monument level with the apex.

He landed where the sidewalk diverges from his course and walked along the iron fence around the White House grounds at his right or smashed him against the granite walls at his left.

Admiral Dewey was on the spot to offer congratulations. Other officials of the army and navy, including Acting Secretary of War Oliver and Major General Wood, added their words of commendation.

An hour later, Mr. White ascended from the spot where he had landed and returned to his starting point, the Benning race track, without mishap.

Later in the day, while giving an exhibition flight to eight gentlemen which resulted in eight jumps from his aeroplane. Fortunately, however, the aviator escaped unhurt.

Mr. White started shortly after 11 o'clock in the forenoon. He rose to a height of 500 feet by climbing about the grounds and then darted away toward the objective point of the Washington monument. The air man upon reaching that point turned his machine northward and sailed directly toward the White House.

He then tilted directly toward the executive avenue and with a quick descent brought the biplane to the pavement level where he had reached the center of the block.

Starting from the asphalt lightly on its wheels the machine ran along a couple of hundred feet and stopped in front of the steps.

The flight had occupied only ten minutes. Having paid a formal call upon Brigadier General Allen, chief signal officer of the army, who has charge of all the aeronautical work of that service, White took luncheon with the officers of the army and navy.

After a four-hour stay at the army barracks in the city, White jumped into the seat of his aeroplane, the motor started at full speed, and the biplane darted forward straight away through the narrow street.

The machine rose off the pavement quickly and in a few moments it had reached the middle of the block, was twenty feet in the air. Mr. White had successfully gotten the machine out of danger from lamp posts and had left more at ease.

WIGOROUS KICK ON INJECTION OF POLITICS IS MADE

Democratic Leaders Have Heard Enough Talk About Majorities and Minorities in Convention.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)

Sanita Fe, N. M., Oct. 14.—A protest and a vigorous one against the injection of politics into the deliberations of the constitutional convention was voiced from the floor at this afternoon's session by Delegate Dougherty, who is chairman of the minority caucus. The protest is particularly significant when it is remembered that members of the so-called minority have been the most flagrant offenders in this respect.

Mr. Dougherty's protest was ably seconded by Delegate Richardson of Chavez, also a democrat in political faith, but who does not believe that politics has any place in the convention which is to form a constitution for the whole people of New Mexico, a work which will probably stand for many years regardless of whether the new state becomes republican or democrat.

Richardson expressed his disgust at the petty wrangling which has characterized several sessions of the convention and expressed the intention of the minority caucus to demand an investigating committee to look into the matter of whether or not special interests are represented on the floor of the convention.

It was after a wordy little row, participated in by Delegates Ferguson, Fall and Crist, that Mr. Dougherty arose to address the chair. He said:

"I wish to simply vote my own sentiments in this matter. Very much against my own inclinations and without my consent or approval, there seems to have been introduced into this convention an element which in my judgment does not belong here. We have been talking about a majority and about a minority. At first I assumed that this was mere jocularity but after ten days during which we have been in session, and after the last of matters of the majority and matters of the minority in this assembly that represent the business men of New Mexico.

Mr. Richardson agreed with Mr. Dougherty and he did not have much to say. The view of the latter gentleman would have great weight with the members of the convention.

"I am afraid that the gentleman from Socorro has the last of it. I came here with an honest purpose to assist honest representatives of the people of New Mexico in forming an honest constitution, the best that could possibly be formed under more than 100 years of constitutional government for all the people and for all the interests comprised in the great state of New Mexico.

I have heard not much but apologies from gentlemen connected with this convention as delegates one way or the other, either apologizing that they represent a corporation, which I do not think is a crime, provided that they leave those corporations at home and do not bring them here on the floor of the convention or to in any way influence their vote or action in forming this constitution.

Some have really apologized because they did not represent the corporations. I think we have had enough of politics and petty wrangling preparatory to the great work of this body, and if it continues Mr. President, I shall feel very much like offering a resolution calling upon the president of this convention to appoint a committee of seven, five republicans and two democrats, to investigate and see whether or not there are special interests represented here or in any way directing the movement toward the formation of a constitution for New Mexico.

These sentiments were greeted with general applause from both sides of the house. If, after listening to this sensible advice, the house may be said to have two sides.

Shortly after the convention was called to order, Mr. Crist asked to have read by the chief clerk an article appearing in the Albuquerque Morning Journal of today, having reference to the proceedings of the

LAND OFFICE ACTIVITY FINALLY GETS RESULTS

Washington, D. C., Oct. 14.—After months of secret effort and patient waiting, the officials of the general land office were able to announce today the indictment of a number of claimants to valuable lands in Alaska.

The entries involved number 104 and cover almost 2,000 acres of land, all of which lie near the Behring Straits district in which the Cunningham claims are located. They are what are known as the English or Stracey and the Christopher Simmonds group, the former containing 80 and the latter 124 claims.

The indictments were handed down in the United States district court sitting at Tacoma, and the information that they had been returned was conveyed in two telegrams received today by Commissioner Bennett from Special Agent Christensen in charge of Alaskan matters, to whose efforts the findings are especially due.

The first telegram contained the announcement for action against the Cunningham claim holders, and the information that they had been returned was conveyed in two telegrams received today by Commissioner Bennett from Special Agent Christensen in charge of Alaskan matters, to whose efforts the findings are especially due.

Both groups of claims figured to a considerable extent in connection with the Ballinger-Pinchot inquiry. Charges of fraud in connection with the entries were made two years ago, and it was asserted that the land office supposedly for sinister purposes.

Meeting this allegation with the statement that the services of the land office force were needed elsewhere and spite form the only excuse for inaction, according to federal forestry officials, the district in which the fires are burning has been settled rapidly in recent months and it is said to have stirred the anger of some of the old settlers.

Today more than sixty small fires had started, but the main fire covers an area of fifteen square miles.

New fires signalize their appearance by dense columns of smoke and the most unexpected of places. Within five hundred feet of where one force of fighters were working a fire sprung up from no apparent cause, leading the government representatives to believe that it must have been the work of some daring incendiary. They even go so far as to suggest that possibly an organized gang of disgruntled men who have enjoyed the free use of the range for years has combined to wipe out the new comers and regain possession of mountains and valleys for grazing their cattle.

Narrow escapes from death in the flames have occurred. A party of five men, who were out on a party of two hours, with the flames roaring all around them. Lack of fuel for the fire in the immediate vicinity of the men prevented the party from being incinerated.

Tonight between seventy and eighty fire fighters reached Denver bringing word that the flames on Sheep and Big Chief mountains had been extinguished. The rangers were aided in their hour battle by a heavy rain which fell this afternoon.

A force of twenty men was left to patrol that region and a search for suspected incendiaries and against an outbreak of the subdued fires.

No Agreement Reached.

New York, Oct. 14.—After the meeting of the sub-committee of the American Bankers' association on cotton bills of lading this afternoon, Joseph T. Talbert, vice-president of the National City bank, said:

"By no means has an agreement been reached in regard to forming a guaranty company as a solution of the cotton bill of lading difficulty."

Indictments Are Returned Against Claimants to Valuable Coal Deposits Near Cunningham Claims in Alaska.

WOMAN SAID TO HAVE EIGHT LIVING HUSBANDS

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Alice Goodwin, said by the Chicago police to have eight husbands, was arrested at Mcleodford, Okla., today.

The woman was taken to Chicago to face trial on a charge of bigamy made by J. E. Young, one of her husbands.

Police Sergeant Jacob Kuebler, who made an investigation of Mrs. Goodwin's career, declares that he has discovered the following four men, who he says, are married to Mrs. Goodwin: J. Eckle, Dayton, O.; J. W. Graham, Toledo; Eugene Hopkins, Conway, Kan.; and James E. Young, Chicago.

Thousands View Jurist's Body.

Denver, Oct. 14.—Colorado today paid tribute to the memory of Robert W. Steele, chief justice of the supreme court. For four hours the body of the departed jurist lay in state in the rotunda of the capitol building, while state and municipal officials, representatives of bar associations and civic leaders and thousands of citizens from all parts of the state filed past the catafalque.

Institute Man Is Found Dead.

Capt. W. R. Bledsoe Instructor in New Mexico Military Dies From Overdose of Strychnine.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Roswell, N. M., Oct. 14.—Captain W. R. Bledsoe, 26 years old, instructor in history in the New Mexico Military Institute, was found dead in his room today. Death was caused by an overdose of strychnine. An inquest will be held tomorrow. Captain Bledsoe had been ill several days. He came here September 1 from Lexington, Va.

Stick of Dynamite Under Private Car.

Starkville, Colo., Oct. 14.—It is reported that a stick of dynamite was found this morning under the private car of a passenger train on the Colorado Fuel and Iron company officials.

Real Estate Man Charged with Fraud.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 14.—C. D. Hillman, the Seattle real estate dealer, and four of his employees—E. O. Smith, S. E. Loren, E. E. Loren and Samuel S. Sutor—were arraigned today on charges of conspiracy to use the government mails to defraud and embezzle from a real estate company.

Hillman's arraignment today marked his third appearance before the court and the new charge was the seventh indictment brought by the federal grand jury against him.

Indictments have been returned against H. C. Peel and Alex Maule, also employees of Hillman, charging them with conspiracy.

Hillman has on deposit $55,000 as bail for himself and employees on the various charges.

Hillman is accused by the government of selling land of little value to investors at high prices, by representing that it lay within the limits of prospective townsites along a railroad that existed only on paper.

RAILROAD MEN THINK CASE'S WON

CONFIDENT OF SECURING RATE ADVANCE ASKED

Washington, Oct. 14.—President W. C. Browne of the New York Central lines, was on the witness stand throughout the day in the investigation by the interstate commerce commission into the proposed advance in freight rates in the eastern trunk line territory.

With the conclusion of President Browne's testimony the case of the railroads practically completed, although C. Stewart, vice president of the Erie is to be heard.

Under the law, it is incumbent upon the railroads to make a prima facie case, or reasonable basis, for any proposed general advance in rates considered by the commission.

Through the testimony of President Stewart, of the Pennsylvania, President Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio, and President Browne of the New York Central, coupled with the exhibits of statistics and statements of operating officials submitted, the railroad officials express confidence that they have established their case.

President Browne's testimony today frankly set out the industrial and financial operations of lines under his direction. He was cross-examined for an hour by the commission, and the financial operations of roads, and adhered closely to his view that they were entitled to a fair return upon the investments in the properties.

It is not only the ambition of railway officials, but the desire of the traveling and shipping public that the railroads of the United States should continue to be the best in the world.

In order to maintain this position, it is the opinion of Mr. Browne that the freight income of roads should be greater than it is now. In discussing the capitalization of the New York Central, President Browne said that the New York Central stock, every dollar of it, has been paid for at $100 a share except such as was paid for at a rate of $125 to $158 a share, and the New York Central cannot be reproduced today for 200 per cent of its total stock and bonds. I say that under oath.

Louis D. Brandeis, counsel for the shippers, took up the cross-examination and asked the information that J. Pierpont Morgan was a member of the executive board of the New York Central and that the firm of J. P. Morgan and company was among the financial advisers of the road.

"Did Mr. Morgan approve of the increase of New York Central dividend from five to six per cent in 1910?" inquired Mr. Brandeis.

"I do not know because I do not know," responded the witness.

"Did you and your directors make this increase in dividends with a full knowledge that employees were about to go on strike?"

"The demand for increased wages was pending at the time, I believe," replied President Browne.

"Is it not a fact," said Mr. Brandeis, "that some of the directors to the extent of $1,750,000 a year from meeting the increased liabilities for wages?"

"In doing this," replied Mr. Brown, "we increased the dividend for the men who held the securities of the New York Central could have gotten on first-class mortgages, a dividend about equal to a four per cent bond, because bonds are almost at a five per cent basis. The same reason that caused an increase in wages incidentally and necessarily applied to the people who held the stock of the railroad."

"Did you not receive," suggested Mr. Brandeis, "that it was your duty and the duty of your fellow directors that a surplus was necessary for the maintenance of the credit of the road, without the granting of a dividend at a time when you know that a demand for increase in wages to be made, which necessarily would impair a portion of your assets?"

"No, sir," said Mr. Brown.

"Was the question considered," suggested Mr. Brandeis, "in view of the effect of that action upon the credit of the New York Central and upon its ability to borrow money in the markets of the world?"

"I do not really know," replied Mr. Brown, "whether it was or not; but there is no question but that the increase of this dividend for the men who held the securities of the road made it possible to dispose of satisfactory terms of forty-four million dollars in securities of the company."

Mr. Brandeis, in response to questions by Chairman Knapp and other members of the commission, indicated his purpose to show that if railroads in the eastern territory were managed with the highest degree of efficiency, it would be possible far them to earn dividends and make desired improvements without increasing rates. He said that he would put men on the stand who would explain how this could be done.

When you find such men," interrupted President Browne, "kindly send me a list of the first five or ten of them. I say this in all seriousness. They are just the sort of people I am looking for and I want them in New York and on the railroad as soon as I may get them."

Rome, Oct. 14.—In the last twenty-four hours, there have been ten deaths from cholera and twenty-five new cases of the disease in the infected parts of Italy.

M'NABB TAKEN AWAY FROM VAUGHN

IN SANTA ROSA JAIL FOR SAFE KEEPING

Alleged Murderer of H. H. Hargis Remains Cool and Collected and Protests His Innocence.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal) Vaughn, N. M., Oct. 14.—E. G. McNabb, the traveling man arrested Thursday, charged with the murder of H. H. Hargis, agent for the El Paso and Southwestern railroad, who was shot and killed from ambush early Thursday morning, was taken to Santa Rosa this afternoon and placed in the jail there for safe keeping. It was feared that McNabb would escape, and it was thought that violence would occur. Great excitement still prevails over the murder, and the general opinion about town is that McNabb is guilty and that the murder was unjustified. McNabb stubbornly protests his innocence and when he was being put on the train for Santa Rosa today was as cool and collected as when first arrested immediately after the murder.

Prosecuting Attorney McElroy spent the day in Vaughn collecting evidence and more than twenty witnesses were subpoenaed to appear at Santa Rosa, where the preliminary hearing will be held either on Saturday or Monday. McNabb has retained Larraeta and McGinnis of Santa Rosa to defend him. The body of Hargis was sent today to Troy, Kansas, where internment will be made. A mother and wife survive him here.

JALOUSY UNDOUBTEDLY WAS MOTIVE FOR THE KILLING

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Vaughn, N. M., Oct. 13.—Events leading up to the murder of H. H. Hargis at East Vaughn, who was shot and killed by E. G. McNabb, the St. Louis traveling man, yesterday, make it appear fairly certain that jealousy was responsible for the tragedy and that Mrs. McNabb, the handsome wife of the traveling man, was the woman in the case.

Woman Asks Divorce

Mrs. McNabb, who is a woman of exceptional beauty, is at present employed in the Vaughn post office. Since the mysterious shooting at the McNabb home some weeks ago, she is understood to have applied for a divorce. Hargis had just been checked out as an agent in the office of the southwest. He had his pass in his pocket and was already to leave. It is said he had been warned a number of times that McNabb had threatened to kill him, and McNabb is said to have told the operators at the station a few nights ago to keep out of range as he was going to "shoot it up." The company, it is said, took the precaution to have some special agents on duty at the expected shooting but did not come off.

FIERCE STORM APPROACHING FLORIDA COAST

All Ships at Sea Warned by Wireless to Cast Anchor; Many in Danger of Destruction.

HURRICANE ACCOMPANIED BY HEAVY DOWNPOUR Key West Preparing for Disturbance; Work of Raising Sunken Maine in Havana Harbor Is Hampered.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Tampa, Fla., Oct. 14.—The first serious tropical storm of the year, after sweeping Cuba last night and today, doing minor damage to shipping in West Indian waters, is tonight approaching the Florida gulf coast line, with promise of devastation to follow in its wake. All shipping within a radius of 500 miles of Key West was warned by wireless this morning of the hurricane and tonnage most of the vessels plying these waters, have cast anchor. The center of the disturbance, which is scheduled to sweep both the northern and southern shores of the gulf, was reported about forty miles west of Havana at 6 o'clock tonight, moving northwest at the rate of sixty miles an hour, accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain and high seas.

A report from Key West that a steamer had gone aground, was denied. There was an increasing wind here tonight and the barometer fell rapidly. At 10 o'clock tonight observations made by the local weather bureau indicate that the storm is following a path that will carry it north or northwesterward of the gulf and will probably take it out of the southern portion of Florida. Exit from and entrance to the port have been closed since last night. Dredging and barges working around the sunken battleship Maine were compelled to seek refuge from the storm. All of them except a dredge got away safely.

The dredge this morning was flying signals of distress and Port Captain Aguilar, Major Pujol, commandant of Cuban fortress, succeeded in reaching the dredge in a life boat and rescuing the crew. A report received today of great damage and loss of life at Castillo de San Marcos, the fort of the province of Santa Clara has not been confirmed tonight. There is no wire communication with the interior of the island except to Matanzas. It is probable the damage to the sugar crop will not prove so serious as that wrought to the tobacco. The storm apparently affected only the three western provinces.

STORM WILL EXTEND FROM FLORIDA TO MEXICO

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Key West, Oct. 14.—At 10 o'clock tonight the wireless station here reported the West Indian hurricane centered west of Havana and moving with great intensity toward Yucatan. The storm will extend from Florida to Mexico. All wireless stations with the exception of the local government station are disabled. There is an unconfirmed rumor that a liner is ashore near Key West. Although a fifty-mile wide New steady throughout the day here, no material damage was done in Key West, but tonight there was considerable apprehension over the approach of the hurricane.

The weather bureau station at Sand Key west of the main there, reports that the wireless station was temporarily disabled and the operator secured his quarters when a heavy sea began to come in. The government wireless alone is in operation. At 5 p. m. the steamer Olive from Tampa for Key West was reported thirty miles out, all well. The steamer Brazos, from Galveston to New York, reported 200 miles west this afternoon, all well.

TWO MEN KILLED BY MOLTEN METAL

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Denver, Oct. 14.—Both houses of the Colorado legislature today passed the direct primary bill as amended in committee and the bill now goes to the governor for his signature. The bill carries a modified convention or "assembly" clause, all candidates in the "assembly" receiving ten per cent of the vote to have their names on the ticket. Preference of position in the primary ballot will be given according to the strength of the candidate shown in the "assembly" ballot. The right of nomination by petition, however, is recognized. In the senate the vote was strictly party lines, republicans voting against it. In the house three republicans and two democrats voted nay.

Two men were killed and one probably fatally injured, and a dozen others seriously injured, at the Zimmerman plant of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company this afternoon when a pot of molten metal was overturned. The accident occurred in a brown north department, while the metal was being transferred from one furnace to another. The men were working on the ground beneath repairing a seal.

WASHINGTON FARMER KILLS YOUNG WIFE

Everett, Wash., Oct. 14.—Ernest Winkley, 36 years old, tonight shot and killed his 23-year-old wife, who was probably fatally wounded. His wife's sister, Mrs. Pearl Mayfield, whose husband lives in Kalspell, Mont., and then made three attempts at suicide. He will probably recover. The shooting occurred just before the family sat down to supper at the home of Mrs. Winkley's father.

NEW YORK CAMPAIGN NOTHING BUT A PRELIMINARY

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) New York, Oct. 14.—Henry L. Stimson, republican nominee for governor of New York, in a speech here tonight, said that he was authorized by President Taft to say that "this New York campaign has nothing whatever to do with the nomination of a republican candidate for president in 1912."

WALL STREET JOINS TAMMANY, SAYS ROOSEVELT

In Opening New York Campaign Colonel Declares Corrupt Business and Corrupt Politics Have Made an Alliance. (By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Elmira, N. Y., Oct. 14.—With one breath for Tammany Hall and another for Wall Street, Theodore Roosevelt opened his campaign today for Henry L. Stimson, and the rest of the republican state ticket. The text of his speech was "Wall Street and Tammany Hall have struck hands." His slogan was, "You are wanted in room 212. Are you going?" Room 212 in a Rochester hotel was occupied by Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, during the democratic state convention. Colonel Roosevelt started things going in his first speech of the day at Dunkirk. He spoke at Fredonia, Sinclairville, Gery, Jamestown, Salamanca, Wellsville, Hornell, Corning and Elmira.

Mr. Roosevelt had only one theme for his speech. It was what he termed the alliance between Wall Street and Tammany Hall which he said was the most complete alliance between corrupt business and corrupt political bosses the state had seen since the days of Tweed. If the democrats should win the election, he said, Tammany Hall and Wall Street would dominate the state to the detriment of the people. Opposed to that, he pictured the republican party as the true representative of popular rule. He discussed no concrete issue, but clung to the statement that the issue was Tammany Hall and Wall Street against the people.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 14.—The appearance and conduct of a stranger led to his arrest here today as the murderer of Thomas S. Karriek, the school boy who was shot by a bullet at his home in Salt Lake City. The suspect gives his name as Kelly and denies knowledge of the crime.

TWO BROKERAGE HOUSES FAIL IN NEW YORK

Assignment for Benefit of Creditors Made in Each Case; Liabilities Aggregate Nearly $2,000,000.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) New York, Oct. 14.—Two New York brokerage houses failed today with liabilities aggregating nearly $2,000,000. One is the stock exchange firm of Charles Minzseheimer and company, the other the firm of Thomas G. Gaylord, who was engaged in business under the name of Latham, Alexander and company, cotton and stock brokers.

FIFTY RAILROADS SEEK ANNULLMENT OF ORDER

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) St. Paul, Oct. 14.—Arguments in the case of fifty railroad companies of the west and southwest, which are seeking to have annulled an order of the interstate commerce commission reducing rates on shipments of cattle from all over the southwest to the Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Joseph and New Orleans markets, were presented in the U. S. circuit court here today. The case is being fought by the railroads on exceptions taken by the findings of James A. Sedon, special master in chancery whose ruling upheld the order of the interstate commerce commission.

Argument Made That Cattle Traffic Not a Paying Business Contrasted With Other Classes of Freight.

Mr. Perry argued that the cattle traffic does not pay the railroads as much profit in proportion to the quantity of freight carried as most other kinds of traffic. He maintained that the rates established by the commission are unreasonable and do not give the railroads fair compensation for handling that traffic. Mr. Cohan for the commission maintained that the rates established by the commission were reasonable and compensatory.

WHO'S THE MAYOR, NEW OFFERING AT THE CRYSTAL

Extremely Laughable Comedy Sketch on the Program for Popular Gold Avenue Playhouse for Today.

Fay and Kinman, the vaudeville artists who have won their way into the hearts of the intelligent and refined theater-goers of Albuquerque during their engagement at the Crystal theater this week, offer a change of program for today. The new sketch being entitled "Who's the Mayor?" The sketch, however, has nothing to do either in fact or fancy with the mayoralty situation which existed in Albuquerque several months ago. "Who's the Mayor?" is a clean cut, clever, crisp and comic sketch put on by actors who know their business, and who are professionals at pleasing people who appreciate an intellectual treat, put on without any rude or bewickered references to things which have no place or no off the stage. The Crystal today will be the mecca of theater-goers, both at the matinee and at the show tonight. The sketch is clever, the vaudeville artists are capable of producing it cleverly, and the crystal theater is just a little bit more popular than ever this week because of the unusually fine program. There will be no raise in prices.

JOURNAL READERS NEED NOT HAVE BAD STOMACHS

Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas and All Stomach Distress Will Go Five Minutes After Taking a Little Diapiesin. Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night. This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order, stomach five minutes afterwards. If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Diapiesin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors. Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery at any drug store, waiting for you. These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure almost any chronic case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other Stomach trouble. Alice in Wonderland for the children today. Pastime.

SPORTS

AMERICANS WIN THE SECOND GAME 5 TO 4

Wiltse Weakened and Lost Control in the Ninth; Warhop Pitched Great Game, Allowing Six Hits.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] New York, Oct. 14.—Victory perched on the banners of the New York Americans today when they passed the Nationals in the last two innings of a well played contest and won the second game of the post season series, 5 to 4.

It was a pitcher's contest between Wiltse and Warhop and honors were fairly even until the last two innings, when under a storm of American hits, Wiltse weakened and lost control.

Warhop worked splendidly throughout the game and his effectiveness increased as the innings passed. After the third inning but one hit was allowed.

Wiltse pitched the first two innings and the stand went wild. Roach, batting for Warhop, sacrificed and Austin singled to right, securing Gardner and Mitchell out third.

Warhop worked splendidly throughout the game and his effectiveness increased as the innings passed. After the third inning but one hit was allowed.

ARTICLE TO PREVENT CONFESSION IN STATEHOOD

Committee on Schedule Considers Preliminary Draft of Important Constitutional Provision For New State.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 14.—The committee on schedule, which has to do with the matter of providing that there shall be no inconvenience or confusion to the change from a territorial form of government to that of a state, has completed its work.

That no inconvenience may arise by reason of the change from a territorial to a state form of government is declared and ordained.

Section 1. This constitution shall take effect and be in full force immediately upon the admission of New Mexico into the union as a state.

Section 2. Until otherwise provided by law of the state, all laws of the United States, entitled "An act relating to liability of common carriers, by railroads to their employees in certain cases," approved April 22, 1893, and all acts amendatory thereof, shall be and remain in force in this state to the same extent that they have heretofore been in force in the territory of New Mexico.

Section 3. All laws of the territory of New Mexico, in force at the time of its admission into the union as a state, which are not inconsistent with this constitution, shall be and remain in force as the laws of the state until they are repealed or amended, or are altered or replaced by the legislature; and all rights, actions, claims, contracts, liabilities and obligations shall continue and remain unaffected by the change in the form of government.

Section 4. All property, real and personal, and all monies, credits, claims and choses in action, belonging to the territory of New Mexico, shall be and become the property of the state of New Mexico; and all debts, taxes, fines, penalties, escheats and forfeitures, which have accrued, or may accrue to the territory of New Mexico, shall be and become the property of the state of New Mexico; and all debts, taxes, fines, penalties, escheats and forfeitures, which have accrued, or may accrue to the territory of New Mexico, shall inure to said state.

Section 5. All recognitions, bonds, obligations and undertakings entered into or executed before the admission of this state to the union as a state of New Mexico, or to any county, school district or municipality, or to any officer or official board therein, shall remain valid according to the terms thereof, and shall be and continue to be in full force and effect, as if the change of government had not occurred, and shall be enforced and executed under the laws of the state.

Section 6. All courts existing and all officers holding offices or appointments in the territory of New Mexico under the government of the territory, whether under authority of the United States, or of said territory, at the time of the admission of the state shall continue to hold and exercise their respective jurisdictions, functions, offices and appointments until they are removed or their offices are abolished by the courts, officers or authorities provided for under this constitution.

Section 7. The members of the legislature shall meet on the day specified in this constitution, and the organization of the legislature shall proceed to elect two senators of the United States for the state of New Mexico, in the manner prescribed by the constitution and laws of the United States; and the governor and secretary of the state of New Mexico shall certify the election of the senators and of representatives in congress in the manner required by law.

Section 8. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 9. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

Section 10. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 11. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

Section 12. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 13. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

Section 14. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

returns of said election, and canvassing and certifying the result thereof, said election shall be held and conducted as nearly as may be in the same manner as is prescribed by the laws of the territory of New Mexico regulating elections therein of the members of the legislature existing at the time of the last election of said members of the legislature; and the provisions of said laws in all respects, including the qualifications of electors and registration, are hereby made applicable to the election herein provided for.

Section 11. The ballots cast at said election shall be of the size and color required by law for general elections in New Mexico, and those cast in favor of the ratification of the constitution shall have printed thereon the words, "For the constitution," and those cast against the ratification of the constitution shall have printed thereon the words, "Against the constitution," and shall be counted and returned accordingly.

Section 12. The returns of said election shall be made by the election officers direct to the secretary of the territory of New Mexico at Santa Fe, who, with the governor and the chief justice of said territory, shall constitute a canvassing board, and they, or any two of them, shall meet at said city of Santa Fe, on the third Monday after said election, and canvass the same. Said canvassing board shall make and file with the secretary of the territory of New Mexico, a certificate signed by a majority of two of them, setting forth the number of votes cast at said election for or against the constitution, respectively.

Section 13. If a majority of the legal votes cast at said election are certified to in favor of the constitution, it shall be deemed to be duly ratified by the people of New Mexico, and the secretary of the territory of New Mexico shall forthwith cause the same to be submitted to the president of the United States and to congress for approval, a certified copy of this constitution, together with the statement of the votes cast thereat.

Section 14. If congress and the president approve this constitution, or if the president approves the same and congress fails to disapprove the same, the government of the territory of New Mexico shall continue in force until the day of the admission of the state of New Mexico, and the laws of the United States shall be and remain in force in this state to the same extent that they have heretofore been in force in the territory of New Mexico.

Section 15. All laws of the territory of New Mexico, in force at the time of its admission into the union as a state, which are not inconsistent with this constitution, shall be and remain in force as the laws of the state until they are repealed or amended, or are altered or replaced by the legislature; and all rights, actions, claims, contracts, liabilities and obligations shall continue and remain unaffected by the change in the form of government.

Section 16. All property, real and personal, and all monies, credits, claims and choses in action, belonging to the territory of New Mexico, shall be and become the property of the state of New Mexico; and all debts, taxes, fines, penalties, escheats and forfeitures, which have accrued, or may accrue to the territory of New Mexico, shall be and become the property of the state of New Mexico; and all debts, taxes, fines, penalties, escheats and forfeitures, which have accrued, or may accrue to the territory of New Mexico, shall inure to said state.

Section 17. All recognitions, bonds, obligations and undertakings entered into or executed before the admission of this state to the union as a state of New Mexico, or to any county, school district or municipality, or to any officer or official board therein, shall remain valid according to the terms thereof, and shall be and continue to be in full force and effect, as if the change of government had not occurred, and shall be enforced and executed under the laws of the state.

Section 18. All courts existing and all officers holding offices or appointments in the territory of New Mexico under the government of the territory, whether under authority of the United States, or of said territory, at the time of the admission of the state shall continue to hold and exercise their respective jurisdictions, functions, offices and appointments until they are removed or their offices are abolished by the courts, officers or authorities provided for under this constitution.

Section 19. The members of the legislature shall meet on the day specified in this constitution, and the organization of the legislature shall proceed to elect two senators of the United States for the state of New Mexico, in the manner prescribed by the constitution and laws of the United States; and the governor and secretary of the state of New Mexico shall certify the election of the senators and of representatives in congress in the manner required by law.

Section 20. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 21. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

Section 22. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 23. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

Section 24. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 25. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

Section 26. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 27. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

emerged from the hall singing revolutionary airs and shouting "Long live the commune." Mounted troops immediately charged the crowd and dispersed it.

Among the speakers in the hall were M. Jaurea and other socialists, who advised the men to fight to the bitter end, declaring that the revolution in Portugal and the success in Spain had brought about the psychological moment for the French proletariat to strike an effective blow.

The strong military precautions taken by the government, which included the surrounding of its regiments from the provinces was due to the impression that the revolutionary element was trying to transform a warning strike into open violence.

Jaurea in his turn declared that the intention of the strikers and urged moderation on their part.

Section 28. There shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the state the times and places of choosing members of the legislative assembly, a secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of consular affairs, commissioner general and one commissioner of agriculture and labor, who shall have attained the age of 25 years, shall be citizens of the United States, and shall have the qualifications of state electors. They shall severally hold their offices for the term of two years and until their successors are elected shall be duly qualified, but no person shall be elected to the office of treasurer for more than two consecutive terms.

Section 29. The powers and duties of the secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner general and one commissioner of agriculture and labor, shall be as prescribed by law.

Section 30. A treasurer, auditor of public accounts, register of the land office, commissioner of agriculture, labor and statistics, secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner general and one commissioner of agriculture and labor, shall be elected by the qualified voters of the state at the same time the governor is elected, for the term of four years, each of whom shall be at least 21 years of age at the time of his election, and shall have been a resident citizen of the state at least two years next before his election. The duties of these officers shall be such as may be prescribed by law, and the secretary of state shall keep a fair register of and attest all the official acts of the governor, and shall, when required, lay out and vouchers relative thereto before either house of the general assembly. The officers named in this section shall enter upon the discharge of their duties the first Monday after their election, and shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified.

Section 31. The legislature shall have the power to alter, amend or repeal any charter of incorporation now existing and revocable and any charter for which no charter has been created, whenever, in its opinion, it may be for the public interest so to do, provided that no injustice shall be done to the stockholders.

Section 32. The legislature shall not remit the franchise of the franchise of any corporation nor pass any law for the benefit of such corporation, except upon the condition that it shall thereafter hold its charter and franchise subject to the provisions of any provision of any provision of such law, or the taking of any benefit or advantage therefrom, shall be conclusive evidence of an agreement to surrender its charter and franchise under the provisions hereof.

Section 33. The legislature shall provide methods whereby the courts may revoke or annul any charter, or which may hereafter be created, whenever, in its opinion it may be injurious to the public welfare.

Section 34. No corporation shall engage in any business other than that expressly authorized in its charter or articles of incorporation.

Section 35. No corporation organized outside of the limits of this state shall be allowed to transact business in this state, or in any favorable conditions that are prescribed by law for similar corporations organized under the laws of the state, nor to transact any business which domestic corporations are not authorized to transact by the laws of the state.

Section 36. No corporation shall issue stocks of bonds except for money or property actually received or for labor done, all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void, and the stock or bonded indebtedness of any corporation shall not be increased except in pursuance of general laws, nor until the consent of the owners holding the majority in value of stock shall be obtained at a meeting held after notice given for a period of not less than sixty (60) days in pursuance of law.

Section 37. Foreign corporations authorized to do business in this state under such limitations and restrictions as may be prescribed by law, shall be subject to the same regulations, limitations and liabilities as corporations of this state, and shall exercise no other greater powers, privileges or franchises than may be exercised by like corporations of this state, but they shall not be treated with the power of eminent domain, or the right of eminent domain shall never be abridged or so construed as to prevent the state from taking the property and franchises of corporations and subjecting them to its use.

Section 38. The state shall not in any manner loan its credit to any company, association or corporation, nor shall it subscribe to or be interested in the stock thereof.

Section 39. The property of all corporations created or organized for pecuniary profit shall be subject to taxation the same as that of individuals.

Section 40. The state shall not assume or pay the debt or liability of any corporation, municipal or otherwise, except as herein otherwise provided, unless such debt or liability shall be incurred in the discharge of public instruction or to provide for the public welfare and defense.

Section 41. No indebtedness of any corporation to the state shall ever be released or in any manner discharged by any payment.

Section 42. The legislature shall pass no law for the benefit of any corporation, or any individual or association of individuals, or any partnership in its operation, or which imposes on the state or on any county or municipal subdivision of the state, a new liability in respect to transaction already passed.

Section 43. It shall be unlawful for any person, association or corporation to require of its employees or otherwise, any contract or agreement whereby such person, association or corporation shall be released or discharged, in whole or in part, from liability or responsibility on account of personal injuries received by the employee or which impose on the state or on any county or municipal subdivision of the state, a new liability in respect to transaction already passed.

NUMEROUS IDEAS IN CORPORATION COMMISSION

Series of Suggestions in Hands of Committee Looking to Effective Regulation and Supervision in the State.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 12.—The committee on corporations is hard at work, and while nothing has been decided upon definitely for submission to the convention, the members are rapidly getting together on the various subjects under consideration. Following is a series of suggestions for the proposed article on corporations, which was presented to the committee at its meeting today.

Section 1. The term "corporation" as used in this article includes all forms of stocks, companies, associations having powers or privileges not possessed by individuals or partnerships.

Section 2. All corporations shall have the right to sue and shall be subject to be sued in all courts in like cases as natural persons.

Section 3. No charter of incorporation shall be granted, extended, changed or amended by special law, except such corporations as are created to be and remain under the control and management of the state, but the legislature shall provide by general laws for the organization of corporations and for the alteration or amendment of charters of corporations, and may tax by general law the property of such corporations which shall be in proportion to the amount of capital stock, provided that any such general laws shall be subject to repeal or alteration by the legislature.

Section 4. All existing charters under which an organization shall not have taken place and business have been commenced in good faith within twelve months from the time of the ratification of this constitution, shall thereafter have no validity.

Section 5. The legislature shall have the power to alter, amend or repeal any charter of incorporation now existing and revocable and any charter for which no charter has been created, whenever, in its opinion, it may be for the public interest so to do, provided that no injustice shall be done to the stockholders.

Section 6. The legislature shall not remit the franchise of the franchise of any corporation nor pass any law for the benefit of such corporation, except upon the condition that it shall thereafter hold its charter and franchise subject to the provisions of any provision of any provision of such law, or the taking of any benefit or advantage therefrom, shall be conclusive evidence of an agreement to surrender its charter and franchise under the provisions hereof.

Section 7. The legislature shall provide methods whereby the courts may revoke or annul any charter, or which may hereafter be created, whenever, in its opinion it may be injurious to the public welfare.

Section 8. No corporation shall engage in any business other than that expressly authorized in its charter or articles of incorporation.

Section 9. No corporation organized outside of the limits of this state shall be allowed to transact business in this state, or in any favorable conditions that are prescribed by law for similar corporations organized under the laws of the state, nor to transact any business which domestic corporations are not authorized to transact by the laws of the state.

Section 10. No corporation shall issue stocks of bonds except for money or property actually received or for labor done, all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void, and the stock or bonded indebtedness of any corporation shall not be increased except in pursuance of general laws, nor until the consent of the owners holding the majority in value of stock shall be obtained at a meeting held after notice given for a period of not less than sixty (60) days in pursuance of law.

Section 11. Foreign corporations authorized to do business in this state under such limitations and restrictions as may be prescribed by law, shall be subject to the same regulations, limitations and liabilities as corporations of this state, and shall exercise no other greater powers, privileges or franchises than may be exercised by like corporations of this state, but they shall not be treated with the power of eminent domain, or the right of eminent domain shall never be abridged or so construed as to prevent the state from taking the property and franchises of corporations and subjecting them to its use.

Section 12. The state shall not in any manner loan its credit to any company, association or corporation, nor shall it subscribe to or be interested in the stock thereof.

Section 13. The property of all corporations created or organized for pecuniary profit shall be subject to taxation the same as that of individuals.

Section 14. The state shall not assume or pay the debt or liability of any corporation, municipal or otherwise, except as herein otherwise provided, unless such debt or liability shall be incurred in the discharge of public instruction or to provide for the public welfare and defense.

Section 15. No indebtedness of any corporation to the state shall ever be released or in any manner discharged by any payment.

Section 16. The legislature shall pass no law for the benefit of any corporation, or any individual or association of individuals, or any partnership in its operation, or which imposes on the state or on any county or municipal subdivision of the state, a new liability in respect to transaction already passed.

COUNTRY WOULD BE BETTER IF THINGS WERE STABLE

E. H. Gary of U. S. Steel Corporation Laments Existing Conditions in Address Before New York Gathering.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire) New York, Oct. 14.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, delivered the principal address today at the annual meeting of the American Iron and Steel Institute, a co-operative gathering. He said: "It would be better for us and for the country, if conditions in all departments of business were more stable and less likely to be disturbed by agitation, doubt or distrust. It has sometimes been urged that an effort to maintain reasonable prices for iron and steel is contrary to the natural laws of trade, that it is opposed to the law of supply and demand. This we do not admit. We do not undertake to advocate anything that is unreasonable, unnatural or unfair.

"If prices are at any time higher than they ought to be, the consumer, whoever his purchaser is, and he should wait until the prices are reduced. If the attitude of both seller and purchaser should be suggested, it would not be long before they would get together on a proper basis, based on any agreement, expressed or implied, the laws of this country are opposed to it. But, as stated by the attorney general of the United States in his argument before the supreme court in the Standard Oil case, the law does not compel competition; it only prohibits an agreement not to compete."

Section 17. The governor-elect of the state, immediately upon his qualification as an entering upon the duties of his office, shall cause his proclamation convening the legislature at the seat of government on a day to be specified in said proclamation, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the date of said proclamation.

The members-elect of the legislature shall meet on the day specified in this constitution, and the organization of the legislature shall proceed to elect two senators of the United States for the state of New Mexico, in the manner prescribed by the constitution and laws of the United States; and the governor and secretary of the state of New Mexico shall certify the election of the senators and of representatives in congress in the manner required by law.

Section 18. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 19. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

Section 20. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this constitution.

Section 21. The terms of office of all officers elected at the election of the state shall expire at the same times as if they had been elected at an election held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year 1912.

DELEGATE STOVER FAVORS LABOR COMMISSION

Albuquerque Man Makes Compilation of Provisions, Also Including Agriculture and Horticulture as Found in Various States.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 14.—Delegate E. S. Stover of Bernalillo is working industriously among the delegates for the establishment of a commission of labor, agriculture and horticulture. The proposition is to find favor among the convention members, and it is quite probable that it will be incorporated into the constitution in some form.

Section 1. The general assembly shall pass such laws as will foster and aid the agricultural, mining and manufacturing interests of the state, and may create a bureau, to be known as the mining, manufacturing and agricultural bureau.

Section 2. There shall be a department of agriculture and immigration, which shall be permanently maintained at the capitol of the state, and which shall be under the management and control of a board of agriculture and immigration, composed of one member from each congressional district, who shall be a practical farmer, appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, and the president of the Virginia Polytechnic institute, who shall be ex-officio a member of the board; provided, that members of the board shall be appointed under this constitution from the congressional districts bearing odd numbers shall hold office for two years.

Section 3. The powers and duties of the board shall be prescribed by law, provided that it shall have power to elect and remove its officers, and establish elsewhere in the state subordinate branches of said department.

Section 4. There shall be a department of agriculture and immigration, which shall be permanently maintained at the capitol of the state, and which shall be under the management and control of a board of agriculture and immigration, composed of one member from each congressional district, who shall be a practical farmer, appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, and the president of the Virginia Polytechnic institute, who shall be ex-officio a member of the board; provided, that members of the board shall be appointed under this constitution from the congressional districts bearing odd numbers shall hold office for two years.

Section 5. The powers and duties of the board shall be prescribed by law, provided that it shall have power to elect and remove its officers, and establish elsewhere in the state subordinate branches of said department.

Section 6. There shall be a department of agriculture and immigration, which shall be permanently maintained at the capitol of the state, and which shall be under the management and control of a board of agriculture and immigration, composed of one member from each congressional district, who shall be a practical farmer, appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, and the president of the Virginia Polytechnic institute, who shall be ex-officio a member of the board; provided, that members of the board shall be appointed under this constitution from the congressional districts bearing odd numbers shall hold office for two years.

Section 7. The powers and duties of the board shall be prescribed by law, provided that it shall have power to elect and remove its officers, and establish elsewhere in the state subordinate branches of said department.

Section 8. There shall be a department of agriculture and immigration, which shall be permanently maintained at the capitol of the state, and which shall be under the management and control of a board of agriculture and immigration, composed of one member from each congressional district, who shall be a practical farmer, appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, and the president of the Virginia Polytechnic institute, who shall be ex-officio a member of the board; provided, that members of the board shall be appointed under this constitution from the congressional districts bearing odd numbers shall hold office for two years.

Section 9. The powers and duties of the board shall be prescribed by law, provided that it shall have power to elect and remove its officers, and establish elsewhere in the state subordinate branches of said department.

Section 10. There shall be a department of agriculture and immigration, which shall be permanently maintained at the capitol of the state, and which shall be under the management and control of a board of agriculture and immigration, composed of one member from each congressional district, who shall be a practical farmer, appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, and the president of the Virginia Polytechnic institute, who shall be ex-officio a member of the board; provided, that members of the board shall be appointed under this constitution from the congressional districts bearing odd numbers shall hold office for two years.

Section 11. The powers and duties of the board shall be prescribed by law, provided that it shall have power to elect and remove its officers, and establish elsewhere in the state subordinate branches of said department.

Section 12. There shall be a department of agriculture and immigration, which shall be permanently maintained at the capitol of the state, and which shall be under the management and control of a board of agriculture and immigration, composed of one member from each congressional district, who shall be a practical farmer, appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, and the president of the Virginia Polytechnic institute, who shall be ex-officio a member of the board; provided, that members of the board shall be appointed under this constitution from the congressional districts bearing odd numbers shall hold office for two years.

Section 13. The powers and duties of the board shall be prescribed by law, provided that it shall have power to elect and remove its officers, and establish elsewhere in the state subordinate branches of said department.

GOVERNMENT TAKES STRONG STAND IN THE STRIKE

Traffic Conditions Improved; Ten Thousand Troops Prevent Disturbances in Streets of Paris.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire) Paris, Oct. 14.—As a result of the strong measures put in force by the government the railway strike situation continues to improve. With the exception of the western rail, where the stoppage still in force, today's traffic conditions were greatly improved.

The government's fears that rioting would follow a meeting of the strikers tonight led to the sending of 10,000 troops in the narrow streets joining the hall where it was held. There were no disturbances other than a few harmless placard shakers.

After the meeting 5,000 strikers such contract shall be null and void. Sec. 19. The right to authorize, issue and regulate charters to be levied and collected by any public service corporation, shall not be relinquished or abandoned by the state, but shall always be under legislative control and dependent upon legislative authority; and the legislature shall by law establish reasonable, maximum rates to be charged for all public service corporations and for preventing discrimination and extortion by such corporations, and shall enforce such laws by adequate penalties.

The Albuquerque Morning Journal (Official Newspaper of New Mexico) PUBLISHED BY THE JOURNAL PUBLISHING CO.

D. A. MACFERRON, President; JAMES S. BLACK, Managing Editor; E. BANA JOHNSON, Editor; W. A. KELSER, City Editor; H. E. BOWEN, Advertising Manager.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Albuquerque, N. M., under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

The Morning Journal is the leading newspaper of New Mexico, supporting the principles of the Republican Party all the time.

Terms of Subscription: Daily, by mail, one month, $1.00; Daily, by carrier, one month, $1.00.

The Morning Journal has a higher circulation rate than is accorded to any other paper in New Mexico.

Elevating the lid evidently is not a safe pastime in that dear Roswell, N. M.

Magdalena now has a board of trade. They are all joining the procession.

The evening paper is respectfully informed that laboring the empty air is not only useless, but it is a serious drain on the reserve power.

A heavy cyclone is raging in Cuba, which, however, is a trifle to some of the storms through which this strenuous island has passed.

The colonel has vouchsafed the information that Beveridge is right on the tariff. Here is one definite statement from Mr. Roosevelt which we shall have framed.

The democrats, those ardent worshippers of T. R., will undoubtedly endorse his latest declaration that the party made famous by the late Jefferson is the one of "Bourbonism and reaction"—treason, stratagems and spolia, etc., etc.—or words to that effect.

The evening paper has 'em by fits and starts. After a violent convulsion in which it presented Mr. Ferguson's side of the lamentable democratic break of last Tuesday, this interesting but somewhat vagarious organ had as violent a reaction, culminating in Thursday's and Friday's issues, when there wasn't even a Santa Fe date line. It needs a regulator.

Mr. Richardson of Chaves county has a good suggestion. He would incorporate in the bill of rights a provision that no one should hold office under the constitution who has not previously held office in the territory.

There is no more striking proof of the vast possibilities of the Mogollon mining district than the remarkable development of its properties in the past few years, despite the remoteness of the camp from civilization and transportation facilities.

Practical problems facing conservationists Mr. Pinchot enumerated as water power, forestry and erosion of soils.

That Road Tax. There appears to be a widespread opposition to the collection of the county road tax in the city.

Practically all the biggedly piggedly work heretofore done to 'improve' the county roads has been worse than useless and the money has been worse than wasted.

A Needed Commission. There is a strong movement in the constitutional convention in favor of the establishment of a commission, or commissions, with supervision of labor, agriculture, horticulture, livestock, mining and other industrial interests in the new state.

The public may know something about the agricultural resources of Colorado and New Mexico in the commission of an attractive publication.

The farmer, in social advantages, in enjoyment and in all that makes life worth living, must be able to compete with the city in order to keep the movement from city to farm.

and should be established. Delegate Stover of Bernalillo county is at work on this proposition, as are other delegates, including Mr. Richardson, who has submitted file No. 3, referred to the committee on incorporation, in the shape of the following resolution: "Be it resolved, That there shall be a provision incorporated in the constitution of the proposed commonwealth of New Mexico, establishing a department of government known as the department of agriculture, labor and industry, and that the head of said department shall be known as the commissioner of agriculture and labor; and said department shall have charge of all agriculture, horticulture, livestock, mining and other industrial interests in the proposed commonwealth of New Mexico."

THE ARMY POST. Things look more favorable than ever before for the securing of a cavalry post for this city. We have it from the highest army authority that the chance is the best on record.

FIX THE STREETS. The city council is to be commended for its action in notifying the sewer contractors to live up to their agreement to leave the city streets as they find them.

THE HEPBURN ACT. The suggestion that the provisions of the Hepburn act, as far as applicable, be incorporated in the constitution of New Mexico isn't a bad one.

THE APPALACHIAN FOREST. Former Forester Gifford Pinchot at his recent speech in Atlanta, paid particular attention to the proposed southern Appalachian and White Mountain national forest, which, as outlined, would include portions of Virginia, Tennessee, Georgia and North Carolina.

SCRIPTURE. Matthew 21:1-11. Sec. 14. Treason against the state shall only consist in levying and making war against the same, or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort.

Sec. 15. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, nor law impairing the obligation of contracts, or making any irrevocable grant of special privileges, franchises or immunities shall be passed by the legislative assembly.

Sec. 16. Every citizen may freely speak, write and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press.

Sec. 17. No distinction shall ever be made by law, between resident aliens and citizens, in regard to the ownership or descent of property.

Sec. 18. The provisions of this constitution are mandatory and prohibitory, unless by express words they are declared to be otherwise.

Sec. 19. The enumeration in this constitution of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny, impair or discharge others retained by the people.

Sec. 20. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor shall any person be denied the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 21. The military shall always be in strict subordination to the civil power; no soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, except in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 22. The people shall be secure in their persons, papers, homes and effects, from unreasonable searches and seizures, and no warrant to search any place or seize any person or thing, shall issue without describing the place to be searched, or the person or thing to be seized, nor without probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, reduced to writing.

Sec. 23. Private property shall not be taken or damaged for public use without just compensation.

Sec. 24. The impounding and appropriating of all waters for beneficial use, and the necessary right of way over the lands of others, for conducting and distributing the same, shall be held to be a public use.

Sec. 25. In pursuance of this plan we submit for the consideration of the entire committee the following provisions: Section 1. All political power is vested in and derived from the people; all government of right originates with the people; is founded upon their will only and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

Sec. 2. The people of the state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign and independent state, and to alter and amend their constitution and forms of government, whenever they may deem it necessary to their safety and happiness, provided such change be not repugnant to the constitution of the United States.

Sec. 3. All persons are born equally free, and have certain natural, essential and inalienable rights, among which may be reckoned the right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties, of acquiring, possessing and protecting property, and of seeking and obtaining their safety and happiness in all lawful ways.

Sec. 4. The people shall have the right peaceably to assemble for the purpose of presenting to those invested with the powers of government for redress of grievances by petition or remonstrance.

Wall Street. New York, Oct. 14.—Increased activity in stock market dealings today showed its effect on the money market, but in no such degree as to restrain the activity. Loans on call made today carry over until Monday...

The immediate news from the steel trade shows no explanation of the apparent heavy accumulation of this stock. There was heard the contention, however, that events of the last few days have shaped themselves in favor of demand of the railroads...

EVERYONE HANDLED BOXES WITH CARE
Baggage men Rather Conservative in Looking After Shipment of Rattlesnakes; No Ropes Broken.
If all the trunks shipped over the railroad were handled with the same care and thoughtfulness with which two boxes of rattlesnakes were handled in transit between Santa Fe and Albuquerque yesterday, there would be no broken ropes, smashed trunks or subsequent claims for damages.
The rattlesnakes were packed in two boxes and were checked on train departure. A banner was written across the top of each box and small air holes furnished fresh air for the reptiles.

Fresh Fall Styles
Chilly autumn weather will soon compel you to prepare for fall and winter.
You will find none but fresh fall styles on display in our shop. We do not copy. When you wish to know the style is right, come to us. Our new fall dress goods and silks are beautiful in shades and splendid in quality. We've bought trimmings to match them properly. Our hosiery is tasty, our knit underwear is as good as money can buy. In buying hosiery and underwear we also look out for the wearing qualities. Our aim is to show a good quality of merchandise, in every section, at a reasonable price. Let us show you that our prices—when you compare quality with quality—are not high prices. We respectfully invite you to come in and compare both quality and price. You will find our salespeople are always glad to courteously show anything our patrons wish to see.

day talking of other days and seeing Albuquerque. Mr. Mackay left on the east-bound limited last night expressing himself as much pleased with Albuquerque and confident of the city's growth and progress in the wake of its neighbors.

George Arnold, of Gross, Kelly and company, left last night for Montreal, Canada, where he will meet his wife and children who have returned from an extended visit in Scotland. After a visit in Canada, the Arnolds will return to their home in Albuquerque.

It was erroneously stated that Rev. G. M. Henderson, pastor of the Grace M. E. church at Youngstown, Ohio, had come to Albuquerque to reside. Mr. Henderson is spending two weeks here to establish his wife and two sons who will winter in Albuquerque and will return in the course of a few days to his parsonage.

O. C. Goetz, of 1619 South Walter street, is confined to his home with a fractured ankle, sustained Thursday night as the result of a fall from a horse. The saddle was not cinched tightly and when it turned Mr. Goetz was precipitated to the ground, injuring his ankle seriously.

Miss C. W. Kutz returned last night from Chicago, where she attended the wedding of her daughter, Miss Harriett, who was married some two weeks ago to Mr. Guy L. Rogers of Albuquerque. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are now in the east and are expected to return to this city within the next two or three weeks.

Suits have been filed in the district court by the Johnston and Larimer Dry Goods Company versus the Estancia Mercantile company, for $180.85, by the Albuquerque Lumber company versus E. Luero for $15; and by R. W. D. Bryan, on behalf of the Gus V. Brecht Butcher Supply company of Denver versus W. E. Irvine of Gallup, asking judgment in the sum of $124. All the suits are on account.

DR. McCORMACK WILL DELIVER LECTURE IN THIS CITY
New Mexico Medical Society Secures Man High in the Profession for Series of Addresses.

Dr. J. N. McCormack, official representative and spokesman of the American Medical association, who has been for a number of years addressing the public in all parts of the United States with the end in view of enlightening the public on the possibilities of the prevention of disease through a better understanding and closer co-operation with the medical profession, will deliver an address in Albuquerque on November 5.

The news that Dr. McCormack is to appear on the lecture platform in Albuquerque will be gratifying both to the members of the profession and to the laity. The distinguished lecturer will appear in Albuquerque under the auspices of the New Mexico Medical society which is allied with the American Medical association, of which Dr. McCormack is chairman of the committee on organization. Although it has not yet been definitely settled, it is understood that Dr. McCormack will deliver his address here at the Elks' opera house. The general public is cordially invited to the lecture. There will be no charge of any kind. Dr. McCormack and previous lecturers are to be appreciated by every one. It will not be a dry, technical lecture on questions connected with the theory or practice of medicine. Neither is the lecture "for physicians only."

His special desire and the earnest wish of the New Mexico Medical society and of the American Medical association is that he may come into personal contact with just as many prominent members of the laity in each town as possible. "Peace and Good Will" is the keynote of Dr. McCormack's lecture.

Dr. McCormack's personality and previous training peculiarly fit him for the lecture work, having been for over twenty-five years a practicing physician before he went on the platform. That Dr. McCormack has been secured to deliver a series of addresses in New Mexico, is an indication of the energy and thoughtfulness of the officers of the New Mexico Medical society, and they are to be congratulated upon taking the initiative in such an important matter. In addition to the Albuquerque lectures, which will be delivered on November 5, Dr. McCormack will speak in Roswell on November 2; in Clovis on November 3; in Las Cruces on November 7; in Deming on November 8; in Silver City on November 9; in Santa Fe on November 11, and in Las Vegas on November 12, leaving on November 13 for Arizona, where he will deliver several lectures.

The committee of the New Mexico Medical society which has the work of getting Dr. McCormack to Albuquerque in good shape is composed of Dr. H. H. Kaufman, Dr. J. W. Elder of Albuquerque, and Dr. W. T. Joyner of Roswell. A sub-committee will also be appointed in each town the lecturer is scheduled to speak.

TRAFFIC HEAVIER TO WEST THAN EVER BEFORE
Thousands of People Going to California and the Northwest on Cheap Colonist Rates.

According to unofficial figures given by Santa Fe passenger officials, traffic to California and the northwest during the past three weeks has been heavier than ever before in the history of the road. Thousands of people are taking advantage of the low rates to the coast and are making the trip to the Pacific. The fare from Chicago to Los Angeles or San Francisco is $22, with correspondingly low rates to Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and other points in Oregon and Washington.

Traffic was unusually heavy yesterday, every train passing through Albuquerque en route to the coast being crowded to the gunwales. There were two sections of No. 1 last night, there being fifteen Pullman cars and six chair cars and smokers to both trains. In addition to baggage and express cars.

Although the majority of the people traveling on the colonist tickets are apparently well to do, there are many who are riding the entire distance from Chicago to California in chair cars and who will have but little money when they reach their destination.

FAIRYLAND PICTURE AT PASTIME THIS AFTERNOON
Special Film, "Alice in Wonderland," to Be Shown for the Children at the Matinee Today.

If every boy and girl in town isn't at the Pastime theater for the matinee at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, there will be something wrong some place or somewhere. "Alice in Wonderland" is the title of a really wonderful picture which will be shown today, especially for the juveniles. Uncle Joe Scott, manager of the Pastime, and originator of the Pastime Saturday Afternoon Matinee, went to a great deal of trouble and expense in order to get "Alice in Wonderland." A trial run of the film has already demonstrated that the picture is true to the story as told in the fairy book. The different scenes, viewed by Alice after she has been transformed into a midge, are beautiful and will prove intensely interesting to the children. Although the fairy picture is to be the principal attraction this afternoon, there will be others, most of them with bits of fun in them, as Uncle Joe realizes that the little ones like to laugh. Laughing will be king at the Pastime matinee today and the boys and girls will be permitted to laugh and enjoy themselves to their hearts' content. There will be no raise in prices for the matinee. Ten cents will be the price of a ticket and each child will be presented with a pretty souvenir upon entering.

DOING THEIR DUTY
Scores of Albuquerque Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.
To filter the blood is the kidney's duty.
When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.
Backache and many kidney ailments follow.
Urinary troubles, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.
Albuquerque people endorse our claim.
J. L. Card, of Albuquerque, N. Mex., says: "Some three or four years ago Doan's Kidney Pills were first brought to my attention and the contents of several boxes gave relief to a member of the family who had suffered greatly from kidney complaint. This person was benefited to such a great extent that he publicly testified as to the curative powers of Doan's Kidney Pills. Since then I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and have found them very effective in relieving backache and regulating the passages of the kidney secretions. Our experience with this preparation warrants our high opinion of it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
