STATES RIGHTS LOOMS LARGE IRRIGATION CONGRESS

Its Advocates Disappointed at Failure of Mr. Bryan to Advocate Doctrine Before Irrigation Congress.

COLONEL TWITCHELL IS BOOMED FOR PRESIDENT

Predicted Delegates Will Recognize Long Service of New Mexico Empire Builder by Placing Him in the Chair.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Pueblo, Colo., Sept. 26.—The question of states rights versus the new nationalism looms large on the horizon at the close of the first day's session of the Eighteenth National Irrigation Congress.

Whether the question of state's rights in the matter of water distribution will be brought squarely before the convention will depend very largely upon the position of the Colorado delegation.

This delegation will meet tomorrow morning to decide upon matters of policy. Until the decision of Colorado is announced other delegations are maintaining a neutral attitude.

However, Kansas and California held meetings today and decided upon upholding the reclamation service in the development of work in the west. Texas is known to lean toward the federal program and Arizona is in line. It being generally understood that Governor Kibbey of that territory is to be chairman of the committee on resolutions, New Mexico, while favoring the reclamation work in the Elephant Butte project, takes the position that there is enough water in the Rio Grande to irrigate all available land in central and northern New Mexico and leave sufficient water to meet the needs of the San Luis valley in southern Colorado.

Other states in the west and northwest are taking a less active part in the impending discussion, are watching developments with the keenest interest. States rights advocates received their first encouragement today in the address of former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado. However, this oration was comparatively short lived. They had expected that Colonel Bryan would strongly support their cause in his address, but in this they were disappointed. Opponents of the states rights program regard Colonel Bryan's declaration as a partial endorsement of their plan when he said:

"There is no reason why the federal government should not, after necessary reservations, lease the land to the states upon conditions that will protect the national interests and allow the states to administer the trust under conditions, fixed in such a way as to give large state use."

Thousands of delegates and local people packed the Mineral Palace to listen to the address of former Governor William J. Bryan on "Irrigation and National Development" tonight.

Emphasizing the importance of irrigation, Mr. Bryan said that it is one of the oldest forms of agriculture in the world, but it is one of the newest in the United States because of the vast area available for cultivation with the national rainfall. As these lands have not become occupied, the attention of the American people has been turned to the reclamation of swamp lands and arid lands by hydroelectricity and water in the arid regions of the west and this will go on until all the surplus water which now runs to waste has been utilized in the cultivation of the soil.

"In the utilization of these flood waters a conflict has arisen between states, making it necessary for the national government to act as arbitrator. This discussion is not among the conservationists as to the spheres of the state and the nation. This discussion is a national one. It is not only beneficial but it is necessary. The national interest is not to be ignored and in the same way state interests are not to be overlooked. I believe, when the problem has been thoroughly discussed in all its phases the two factions will arrive at a plan which will give both the substance of the things contended for."

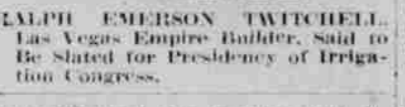

Kansas and Nebraska for instance are interested in the rivers which flow to the west. Millions of acres some day will be added to the tillable area through the waters stored in the mountains. This work is not to be entrusted entirely to the mountain states.

make use of it. But there is no reason why the federal government should not fix a maximum for periods for lease of water power and require the states, in leasing, to demand proper compensation for the public and provide for revocation of the lease if the conditions are violated."

In closing Mr. Bryan declared "There can be no real conflict when the discussions have brought out the real points of disagreement."

COLONEL TWITCHELL IS BOOMED FOR PRESIDENT

The indications tonight are that Ralph E. Twitchell, New Mexico, will be elected president of the Nineteenth National Irrigation Congress. Colonel Twitchell's long service in the congress work is giving him a great head and although he is withholding any expression on the matter, the strong support being given him by New Mexico, Texas, and in part by Colorado and the northwest, indicates that he will be elected. The New Mexico-Texas delegation arrived this morning at 7 o'clock and headed by the El Paso band, paraded the streets from the Santa Fe station to the Congress hotel and thence to the congress grounds. The two delegations have joint headquarters in the Congress hotel. The New Mexico-Texas dele-

Every man on the delegation is taking a part in boosting the new state and the joint delegation is located in the center of the Mineral Palace auditorium where the congress session are being held. "There are no real conflicts," said four delegates in the joint delegation present in Pueblo tonight. "New Mexico-El Paso bodies are on every corner in Pueblo."

ROOSEVELT STOLE HIS DOCTRINES SAYS BRYAN

"New Nationalism" Preached by Democrats for Fourteen Years Declares Commoner in Speech at Pueblo.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Pueblo, Colo., Sept. 26.—William J. Bryan, in his address before a mass meeting here today, charged Colonel Roosevelt with having adopted old time democratic principles in many of his recent addresses on his western tour.

Referring to Colonel Roosevelt's Ocasawatomie, Kan., speech on "New Nationalism," Mr. Bryan said:

"The democratic party has preached this doctrine for fourteen years and in 1900 incorporated it in its platform. In contrast with the distinguished gentleman, who appears to have just made the discovery that his doctrine is correct and progressive, and just."

In his expressions regarding railroad regulation, the income tax, land reclamation and publicity of campaign contributions, Mr. Roosevelt has merely followed a well-established democratic formula of 1900 years ago.

Mr. Bryan also asserted that the former president's conversion to the income tax doctrine had been "recent."

MAYOR GAYNOR SATISFIED WITH JOB

NOT AFTER NOMINATION AS GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK

Strong Opposition Develops Among Delegates at Democratic Convention; Fear of Hearst Hostility Is Argument.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Although Mayor Gaynor's letter to Chairman Dix declaring that he is "not a candidate for the nomination for governor," was not as definite as might have been wished for, the supporters of James S. Havens declared tonight that it eliminated Judge Gaynor from further consideration by the convention.

Since the Havens men are the only ones on the ground the views of Gaynor's friends could not be ascertained. The letter, however, brought the Havens men much encouragement.

New York, Sept. 26.—Mayor Gaynor issued tonight for the first time, a formal statement, saying he is not a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor.

Nowhere in the statement does the mayor say, however, what course he will pursue in the event the nomination is thrust upon him. He indicates that he prefers to serve his full term as mayor, but at the same time he makes clear that he feels no moral obligation to do so.

The statement in the form of a letter to John A. Dix, chairman of the democratic committee, follows: "I have further considered the matter as you requested when you called on me here with Mr. Mack last Wednesday, but can only say to you that I am not a candidate for the nomination for governor. This must have been well known all along, for I have written it to many people during the last six months."

"I am not influenced in my course by assertions made here and there that I made an agreement or compact during the majority campaign to serve out the four years if elected. These false assertions were made by persons who opposed me and voted against me, and would do so again. I have made no such agreement."

"There are some large things which a governor could do for the city of New York, by oversight and legitimate interference, which the mayor of that city cannot do without much time and difficulty at all. But nevertheless, my wish is to remain as mayor in such that I do not care to become a candidate for nomination. May I add that as a matter of fact the office of mayor of the city of New York, considering the power and the important occasion for the exercise of the highest functions of free government lodged in it, is second to no office in this country save one."

"Many tell me and write me that in taking this course, I give up my future. But I shall not take myself or my future into consideration. None of us has a future, but only the present. And if I thought I had future, I should be tempted to entrust to the people of the city of New York."

"I trust that the convention will nominate someone who is not a mere dealer in the political game, but a man of high character, intelligent, honest and decent, and to lift it up and make it an object lesson to the whole nation. If to do this he has to be more or less meddling, we will all forgive his meddlingness if kept fairly within the law."

OPPONENTS PREPARE TO FIGHT MAYOR GAYNOR

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The opponents of Mayor Gaynor decanted today and tonight to preparation for the struggle against his selection for the head of the democratic state ticket, which now seems likely to be the distinguishing feature of the two days remaining before the convention.

The opponents of Gaynor, it is said, will urge upon a party of 25,000, which has the Tammany Hall leader and others, that it will be dangerous to depend too far upon the popular sentiment in Gaynor's favor engendered by his attempted assassination, that but for his sympathy Judge Gaynor would not have his present lead for the nomination and that it is not strong enough to weather the strain of hard campaign.

accept a nomination for some minor office on the ticket and do my best to elect the head of the ticket and to bring out the independent vote."

In the same statement Mr. Hearst says he would have supported Theodore Roosevelt's fight for progressive politics.

"I would support Mr. Roosevelt," he said, "upon a properly progressive platform, but frankly, I would much prefer to support some other man in whose sincerity and stability I have more confidence."

As to the plans of the independent league, he is quoted as follows: "I can definitely tell what we will do, but not until after the convention can I definitely state what we will do. My personal preference is always for a straight independence league ticket, but I have sacrificed my preference in order to get a straight ticket would merely have divided the forces of the progressive."

BOSTON MAYOR DECLINES TO BE GOVERNOR

Boston, Sept. 26.—Mayor John Fitzgerald tonight declared he would not be a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor. His retirement leaves three active contestants in the field for the nomination.

James A. Vane, who has twice led the party; Charles S. Hoadlin, former assistant secretary of the treasury, and Congressman Eugene A. Fox. Mayor Fitzgerald said he believed he should complete the task laid out for him in administering the municipal affairs of Boston.

RUMOR HAS IT SPIESS WILL WITHDRAW

Reported Number of Delegates Are Willing to Vote for Solomon Luna If Las Vegas Attorney Gets Out.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal] Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 26.—That Charles A. Spiess, of Las Vegas, has decided to withdraw his candidacy for president of the constitutional convention is the burden of a very recent rumor which is spread in the city and elsewhere and which has no foundation of fact. As far as can be learned this rumor appears to be chiefly founded on an interview with Mr. Spiess published in the Clayton "Citizen" some days ago when the Las Vegas man was in that city on legal business, an interview in which Mr. Spiess intimated that he was not after the position. One story being circulated is to the effect that Mr. Spiess, which has been done in Santa Fe, it being alleged that several delegates to the coming convention have announced their perfect willingness to vote for Mr. Luna if Mr. Spiess declines. The rumor is that Spiess' candidacy by the Albuquerque Morning Journal it is said, has convinced many of the Black Eagle's friends that further pushing of his candidacy is out of the question and that he will not be satisfactory to the delegates on account of his unpopularity with special interests.

The committee would not permit the witness at this time to relate conversations which he said he had with Representative Joseph Clark of Vandalia relative to a third representative, Michael Link, touching the bribery payments.

In the argument over the admissibility of the conventions of White, Senator Painter asked Attorney Austrian:

"Do you contend that if a number of legislators confessed that they were bribed it would justify unseating a senator?"

Attorney Austrian replied: "No, that is not our contention." Authorities on the admission of testimony relative to conversations were cited by Attorney Austrian.

"We will prove that every man who was paid to vote for Senator Lorimer also shared in the jack pot. We expect to show the corrupt dealings of those legislators. If we cannot show this other corruption, the testimony on the Lorimer money will have less weight."

Representative H. J. Beckenmeier arrived here today and was served with a summons to testify. He is expected to be the second witness before the committee. The direct examination of Representative White will be resumed tomorrow.

LORIMER CASE REOPENED IN CHICAGO

WHITE REPEATS STORY OF HIS BRIBE TAKING

Argument Over Admissibility of Alleged "Jack Pot" Fund Occupies Time of Committee; No Decision Rendered.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Chicago, Sept. 26.—Testimony from State Representatives Charles A. White was heard today by the senate committee investigating the charges of bribery in the election of William Lorimer as senator from Illinois.

After hours of argument by counsel the committee left undetermined the question of the admissibility of testimony relative to the alleged "jack pot" fund for the payment of legislators for voting for or against bills pending before the Illinois general assembly.

Attorney Alfred S. Austrian, representing the Chicago Tribune which is pushing the charges against the election of Senator Lorimer, contended that the alleged participation of legislators who voted for Senator Lorimer in the spoils of the so-called jack pot was pertinent to the investigation as showing general legislative corruption.

Attorney Kibridge Haney, counsel for Senator Lorimer, opposed the admission of testimony relative to bribes paid to legislators for their votes on matters apart from the senatorial election.

On the understanding that the action was not to be considered a precedent admitting the whole "jack pot" subject, Chairman Burrows permitted Haney to answer some questions touching the matter.

No objection was made by counsel to the testimony of White that he had been paid $1,000 by Leo O'Neill Browne, the democratic leader, and that he will not be satisfactory to the delegates on account of his unpopularity with special interests.

The committee would not permit the witness at this time to relate conversations which he said he had with Representative Joseph Clark of Vandalia relative to a third representative, Michael Link, touching the bribery payments.

In the argument over the admissibility of the conventions of White, Senator Painter asked Attorney Austrian:

"Do you contend that if a number of legislators confessed that they were bribed it would justify unseating a senator?"

Chairman of Commerce Commission Gets Request From Rio Grande Road and Its Firemen to Settle Dispute.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Washington, Sept. 26.—A proceeding unique in negotiations under the Sherman act, was brought today to the attention of Chairman Knapp of the interstate commerce commission. He was requested to name a third arbitrator, or umpire, in a dispute that has arisen between the Rio Grande and Rio Grande railroad and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen without the formality of preliminary arbitration negotiations.

beginning of the absence in Europe of Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, Chairman Knapp's confidant on the board of mediation.

Chairman Knapp expects in a few days to announce the name of the third member of the arbitration board. The controversy to be adjusted involves wages, hours and conditions of labor, and regulations concerning the rules of the employees.

YOUNG STUBBS HAS FIGHTING CHANCE TO LIVE

[Cleveland, Sept. 26.—A fighting chance for his life is all that the doctor will concede to Donald P. Stubbs, son of J. C. Stubbs of Chicago, district manager of the Harriman lines, who is lying in a hospital here dangerously wounded as the result of a supposed accident with a revolver on Saturday night.

Young Stubbs, who is general agent in Cleveland for the Union Pacific railroad, is thirty years of age and a graduate of Nevada state university. His condition is rendered more serious as he is reported to be very despondent and expresses no desire to live, claiming his life has been a failure.

HENEY TO MAKE SPEECHES INSURGENT CANDIDATES

Denver, Sept. 26.—Frank J. Henev, of San Francisco, stopped in Denver today for a few hours on his way home from Wisconsin and Minnesota where he made speeches for the progressive republican candidates.

"I have been campaigning for La Follette in Wisconsin and against Mr. Tammey in Minnesota," he said. "I find the situation in Colorado very interesting. The initiative and referendum are good but a direct primary law with a convention feature is not so good. To my mind the primary law is that of Oregon, where all candidates are nominated in direct primaries and no convention is held at all."

"Who's going to be the republican candidate for president in 1912?" Mr. Henev was asked.

"I don't know," he replied. "A great many things are going to happen between now and 1912."

JURY SECURED FOR TRIAL OF HASKELL

ATTORNEY FOR GOVERNOR ARGUES FOR DISMISSAL

Cites Case Where It Was Held Defendants Could Not Be Punished for Acts Committed After Patent Issued.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] McAlester, Okla., Sept. 26.—Quick action attended the opening of the trial of Charles N. Haskell, governor of Oklahoma and others in the Muskogee town lot cases here today. Within a few hours a jury was selected and sworn and the government announced its readiness to proceed.

S. R. Bush of Omaha, special assistant to the attorney-general and District Attorney William J. Gregg tomorrow will make the opening statement. The cases against Albert Z. English, E. J. Severy, both of Muskogee, who were indicted jointly with Haskell, were nolle prossed, the government contending they will be tried under another indictment.

Under the federal indictment to be tried immediately Haskell, W. T. Hutchins, an attorney, and Clarence W. Turner, and Walter B. Eaton are charged with "conspiracy to defraud the government" in the sale in 1907 of town lots to the state of Muskogee. Under the terms of the sale persons holding "possessory" rights to the property were each entitled to purchase at one-half the appraised value one ten and one remainder. It is charged that Haskell and his associates falsely registered the names of people having no such possessory rights and by the payment of small fees for the deeds, obtained possession of the lots, thus obtaining the Creek Indians, who owned the land, out of a fair profit.

People living in many eastern and southern states whose names it is charged were registered without their knowledge, have been summoned as witnesses for the government.

Much interest is attached to the trial because of the government's position on a disputed lot of the Indian property. One of the jurors who will try the case is an Indian. He is John Carlisle, a Cherokee, and as a member of that race is known as the Five Civilized tribes juror. It is expected that the two parties to the controversy designated as arbitrators were W. S. Martin, general manager of the road, for the company and W. F. Hynes for the employees. These were unable to agree upon the third arbitrator. Mediation proceedings were waived.

SHERMAN WINS FIRST BLOOD IN SARATOGA STRUGGLE

New York State Republican State Committee Reaffirms Action in Selecting Vice-President to Act as Chairman.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Theodore Roosevelt suffered defeat again tonight at the hands of the old guard of the republican party in this state. The first skirmish on the eve of the state convention which opens tomorrow, the state committee at a special meeting by a vote of twenty-two to fifteen reaffirmed its action of August 15 last in selecting Vice President Sherman over Colonel Roosevelt as temporary chairman of the convention.

The vote of the August meeting was fifteen to twenty. After that meeting several members of the committee charged that William L. Ward, of Westchester county, a national committeeman, had told them that President Taft favored Vice President Sherman, thus influencing their vote. A few days later the president sent his now famous letter to Lloyd C. Griscom, New York county chairman, stating that he had indicated no choice for temporary chairman and that he had urged the factions to get together and select a candidate acceptable to both sides.

In order to clear up this situation, the old guard forced matters tonight and took action after Vice President Sherman had crossed a resolution with a letter asking that the committee investigate the charges that his selection was made through trickery and stating that if the charges were substantiated he would not serve.

After a heated argument lasting nearly two hours, in which the leaders of both the old and the progressives gave sharp expression of their convictions, the committee by a vote of twenty-two to fifteen resolved "that Mr. Sherman has indicated no choice for temporary chairman and that his selection was made without misrepresentation as an answer to his letter."

At times the argument waxed so bitter that it was felt that it would threaten an unfortunate situation. Representative E. J. Severy moved that the whole matter be laid on the table. But this was voted down, the old guard leaders declaring it to be an attempt to gag them and prevent their members, who voted for Vice President Sherman from explaining their votes.

The committee had scarcely gone into session when Chairman Woodruff announced that he had a letter from Vice President Sherman which he read, it follows:

"As you know, I had no ambition to preside over the state convention because I have a personal objection to both the old and the progressives give sharp expression of their convictions, the committee by a vote of twenty-two to fifteen resolved "that Mr. Sherman has indicated no choice for temporary chairman and that his selection was made without misrepresentation as an answer to his letter."

My name was presided in the state committee in accordance with custom in state and nation. I solicited no man's support. I consented to act as a service to my party, not to gratify a personal ambition in that respect. I had none.

The charge has since been made in some quarters that my selection was accepted in the state committee by means of deception and misrepresentation. I do not believe it. As a fact, I am personally acquainted with the statement to be absolutely unfounded. Even to do the party service I am unwilling to serve in the face of such a charge, if well founded. delegates. The parade then led the way to the band stand and the vice president was cheered and urged to speak. "Gentlemen," he said, "surface indications point to the fact that about 5,000 of you prefer to hear your own voices rather than to hear mine. I like the sound. There never was a time when I preferred my own voice to others. I shall not assure you that I will speak in the convention but rather I will say that I will speak in the convention tomorrow if a majority of the party, to those who have become sure by their presence to answer the trap of the opposition. Gentlemen, I am here and you are here because we are republicans, anxious to do what we can to produce party harmony and party success."

Today is Circus Day; Dode Fisk Shows to Make Happy Hearts of Old and Young

Red Balloon and Redder Lemonade Will be Order of the Day; Grand and Gorgeous Street Parade This Morning With Afternoon and Evening Performances at the Barelas Show Grounds; Whole Herd of Performing Elephants Big Feature Attraction.

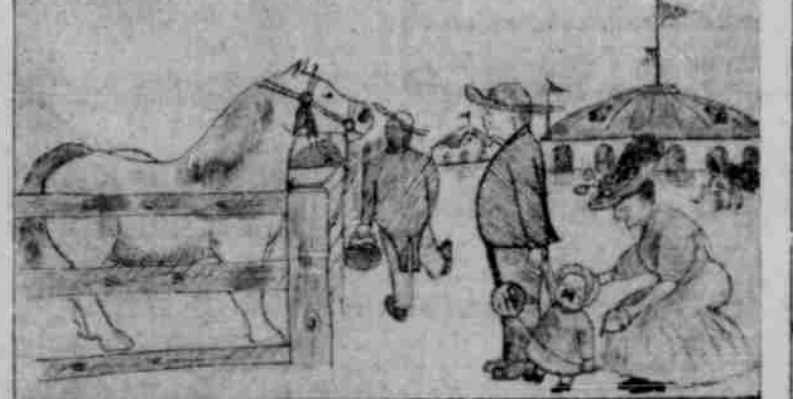

Today we see the elephant. You may talk about your territorial rights and your constitutional conventions, irrigation congresses and other trifles, but when it comes to the real goods, nothing can compete with a first class circus. And that is what we are promised today when the Dode Fisk shows, with all the big circus trimmings give a performance this afternoon and evening at the Barelas show grounds.

The grand street parade which is said to be the most gorgeous will be held this morning at 11:30 downtown and it is safe to say that the streets will be crowded.

The afternoon performance begins at 2 o'clock and the evening show starts at 8 o'clock. Don't forget the place, the Barelas show grounds at the end of the street car line.

Get on the car early if you want to avoid the rush. It is near the corner of Third street and Cromwell avenue, if you find the cars too crowded and have to walk. They claim to have an aggregation of unusual merit, with plenty of animals and acrobats and riders and aerial performers and all the good things that make the circus dear to the heart of the small boy and the boy of mature years. The shows will arrive on their special train and unload early this morning. Albuquerque has not had a touring good old-fashioned circus for some time and the Dode Fisk people will undoubtedly play to capacity houses afternoon and evening.

Speaking of "the Elephant," this show has a whole herd of them, and I could name "Duce," the elephant who bows, is the marvel of the bunch. Another big feature attraction is "Mercury," the "Airship Horse," and he alone is said to be worth the price of admission. The training shown by the work of these animals is something wonderful.

EXTRA TRAINS WILL BE RUN ON LAMY BRANCH

There Will Be No Waits at Historic Junction During Constitutional Convention; Quick Service Arranged.

"Waiting at Lamy Junction" for trains to Santa Fe, will be a thing of the past during the constitutional convention. During the sixty days or more that the delegates will struggle over a constitution, the Santa Fe railroad will run twelve trains a day between Santa Fe and Lamy. Each of these twelve trains will make a round trip. Connections will be made at Lamy with all Laramie trains, both east and west. There will be absolutely no excuse for a person to do any waiting at the junction. The new schedule is the most important thing to an Lamy train service between the main line and the Ancient City that was ever dreamed about. The new schedule is announced by Santa Fe Agent William Tailors to guests here with. Write it in your log for future reference.

LOST WOMAN HAS BEEN FOUND

Mrs. Rael, of Taos County, Feared to Have Perished, Turns Up Safe in Exhausted Condition.

Special Correspondence to Morning Journal. Virayvia, Taos county, N. M., Sept. 24.—Mrs. Rael, mother of four well-known ranchmen in this county, who disappeared from one of the ranches of her sons a few days ago, and of whom no trace could be found by a large searching party, has turned up at Pino, twenty-four miles north of her home, after losing herself in the mountains and wandering aimlessly, seeking food and shelter. The woman, who is suffering greatly from the exposure of two nights and two days wandering in the hills, will recover, although in an exhausted condition. She lost her way while seeking some stray cows and losing her sense of direction, wandered north instead of south. Her son, Solomon Rael, offered a reward of $200 to anyone who would find her. It was feared she had been attacked and killed by one of the bears which are unusually numerous in this section this summer.

ANNUAL CHARITY BALL SET FOR OCTOBER 4

Non-Sectarian Benevolent Society Event to be Brilliant; Committees Appointed to Arrange for Event.

Many have mourned the fact that under the new commercial regime the brilliant annual ball for that organization will be lacking this year. Its place, however, promises to be fully taken by the annual charity ball of the Non-Sectarian Benevolent Society which will be held in the Elks ball room at 8:30 p. m. on October 4 next, thus making its place as one of the brilliant social features of the fair week. Tickets are already at Macdonald's $1.50 for gentlemen and lady and 75 cents each for extra ladies tickets. Mrs. J. S. Woodsey is general chairman in charge, the committees being as follows:

QUEEN OF CARNIVAL WILL BE ELECTED BY POPULAR VOTE

Parker Shows to Promote Contest Between Ladies of Albuquerque for Royal Honors During Fair Week.

As an added feature to the carnival, held incidentally to the state fair, the management in charge of the carnival has decided to promote a contest for queen of the carnival, the winner to be inaugurated by the coming of the great C. W. Parker Show. With that end in view voting boxes will be located in several of the downtown stores and envelopes supplied to all who wish to enter in the race which will be for a handsome diamond ring and the honor of being the queen of the festivities to be held at the carnival grounds. The rules governing the entries are very simple. To enter a candidate simply writes her name on a slip and drops it in one of the several boxes and she will be entered and started with 100 votes complimentary. After that the votes will be one cent each. 100 can be had for one dollar, 1,000 for five dollars and 5,000 for ten dollars. The votes deposited in the boxes will be counted every night and the standing of the candidates will be announced in the papers each day. Any girl or woman of responsibility may enter or be entered by her friends. The contestants who are running when the contest closes Tuesday night October 4 will be guests of the management of the carnival and a box will be provided for them by the fair management. The prizes (three in number) will be placed on exhibition in one of the leading jewelry stores today.

SEEK NAMES OF OLD INDIAN FIGHTERS

National Indian War Veterans Start Campaign to Secure Pensions for Survivors of Frontier Battles.

The Morning Journal has received the following letter: Denver, Colo., Sept. 24, 1910. Dear Sir: We desire to communicate through the columns of your valuable paper, to obtain the names and addresses of those who served in the United States and Volunteer service after the Civil war until 1882, against the hostile Indians on the western frontier, in order that their names and records may be placed on the books of the association so that they may benefit by the act now pending before congress as soon as it becomes a law. The National Indian War Veterans, an organization with headquarters at 1842 Market street, Denver, Colo., at their last regular meeting, decided to send two delegates, Henry Hegwer, the national commander, and C. H. Hauser, the national secretary, to Washington, D. C., to inaugurate a vigorous campaign for the purpose of securing pensions for those noble and brave soldiers who defended the frontier in the early days and who have so far been unjustly neglected by this government, whose great western empire they so gallantly protected, making it possible for this generation to develop its unlimited resources and live in peace and prosperity. Very truly yours, HENRY HEGWER, National Commander, Indian War Veterans, 1428 Elizabeth St., Denver, Colo. C. H. HAUSER, National Secretary, 1842 Market St., Denver, Colo. Dan Crandall, the funniest comedian on earth, Albino tonight.

ONE-GALLUS LINE NORTHEAST TO SOUTHWEST

El Paso and Southwestern Line in Great Railroad Scheme of Empire Builders.

Special Correspondence to Morning Journal. El Paso, Sept. 25.—To put a "one-gallon" transcontinental line diagonally across the broad back of Uncle Sam, running northeast and southwest from the producing southwest to the marketing northeast, would seem to have been the dream of the American railroad builders from study of a railroad map of the United States. The spirit of Paek, who would "put a girdle about the earth in forty minutes" seems to be the moving spirit of American railroad builders. Emperor Harriman, Harriman was the chief of that superhuman type of builders. Not stopping with a transcontinental line, he would have skirted the western hemisphere, north to south, with a belt of steel and iron. Appearing on the horizon is a movement, not yet well defined, that may place the suspender over Uncle Sam's right shoulder at Chicago, hutton northwesterly at New York and southwesterly at San Diego. The suspender is already played over the shoulder and extends down to about the fifth div on Uncle Sam's left side, which El Paso is centered. That gradually working suspender is the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific and the El Paso and Southwestern. Southwestern engineers are at present west of Benson preparing out a right-of-way for the extension of the suspender and looking for the button. Will it be San Diego or will it be Port Lobos? As in the traditional parlor game, the people of the cities that will benefit by the extension are asking, "Button, button, who has the button?" Phelps-Dodge Move. The movement appears to be engineered by the Phelps-Dodge company, a corporation having large mining interests in the southwest, but behind the movement there is a moving spirit, one to whom the story is nothing, one who is content to see result without praise. Who is it? It is believed by many that that person is young Arthur Curtis James, who it is said, will be given a blow-up of the Rock Island board of directors displacing Dr. F. S. Pearson. Given control of the Rock Island and Southwestern and the almost certain extension of the Southwestern to the Pacific coast, either by the Sprackles road from Yuma to San Diego or by the Arizona, Mexico and Gulf from Silverbell to Port Lobos, the only section lacking in the mammoth suspender, one-gallon line would be an influential interest in the Pennsylvania road, from Chicago to New York. Jay Gould's Opinion. Jay Gould, commenting on the transfer of Rock Island stock to the Phelps-Dodge company, immediately placed the natural construction on the deal that the Phelps-Dodge company was seeking an arrangement to satisfactorily handle its ore mined in the southwest. The stock purchased by the Phelps-Dodge company is said to be worth in the neighborhood of $18,000,000. The whole amount of preferred Rock Island stock is $4,000,000. It is rumored in railroad circles that the Phelps-Dodge interests will pool their stock with the Moore interests, controlling 1,200,000 shares, and thus gain control of the Rock Island. The Phelps-Dodge company has an authorized capital of $50,000,000 of which $44,589,600 is outstanding. In the past year the company paid dividends aggregating 12 per cent on its capital. The acquisition of the Chicago-New York link in the Phelps-Dodge "girdle" may be too distant for consideration, but the last lap of the suspender southwesterly and the location of the button are the liveliest questions

MAN Y ATTEND THE HOLZMAN FUNERAL

Body of Pioneer Citizen and Merchant, Laid to Rest With Impressive Services in Fairview Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Philip Holzman, whose death occurred Saturday evening, was held from the residence of Mrs. Samuel Neustadt, a daughter, at 618 West Copper avenue, at 2:30 yesterday. The services were largely attended by relatives and friends many of whom came from out of town. Deeply impressive services were conducted by Dr. Silber, of Temple Albert. Interment was in the Jewish plot in Fairview cemetery. The pall-bearers were all close friends of Mr. Holzman, being Messrs. Max Nordheim, of Las Vegas, Alfred Grandfield, Louis Hood, Simon Stern, J. A. Weinman, Detroit, Mich.

James Campbell of Pinos Altos, who is in the employ of the Chino Copper company at the scene of its operations near Apache Wells, last week discovered in the excavation a quantity of teeth and bones which are supposed to have belonged to some prehistoric animal of unusual size. One of the teeth, which is in the possession of Frank Vesely of Silver City, is nearly four inches long by an inch and a quarter in diameter, and it is a remarkably preserved specimen.

Patriotic. Tony had been away from school about a week, and when he showed up one morning the teacher asked him where he had been. "I ran away," said Tony. "Run away? What did you do that for?" asked the teacher. "My father was going to lick me, so I thought I'd run away," was the reply. The teacher by further questioning brought out the fact that Tony had been threatened with a beating and had stayed away from home the best part of the week. "But your father has the right to whip you," said the teacher. "Yes, he may," added Tony, "but I don't want any forefathers to lick me."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO. TELL US ABOUT IT.

You devote a good deal of space to the agricultural development of other sections; why don't you tell more about what we are doing around Albuquerque?

The French government is going to revolutionize the wilderness with aeroplanes. Perhaps the time will arrive when it is possible to escape from Lamy at any time by airship.

It is these farmers to whom he refers who have demonstrated the tremendous possibilities of this valley. Experts have declared that the soil is superior to that in the Pecos valley.

The Morning Journal would like to be a public clearing house of the results accomplished in the valley. Let us know about it.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY. The synd of New Mexico has accepted the offer of President E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fe railway.

Members of all denominations in New Mexico should co-operate enthusiastically with the Presbyterians in the work of making good on this splendid offer.

The new state may take pride, and everyone should help.

It is an awful thought that those ten cars of perfectly good whisky burned up near Peoria.

Chicago is disappointed at the census returns. Towns, like individuals, occasionally fail to measure up to their own estimates.

Three hundred thousand railroad employes have decided on "concerted action" in political matters.

It may be necessary for the chroniclers occasionally to omit the finest of smiles which for awhile adorned each corner of an interview with Colonel Roosevelt.

While these water-users from the south end of the valley are ready to fight, you can tell to look at them that they are going to have a lot of fun out of the proposition between seats.

The Making of a CONSTITUTION

By F. W. Clancy, Attorney General of New Mexico.

The second of a series of addresses to students on "The Making of a Constitution," was delivered in Rodey hall of the University of New Mexico yesterday morning by Attorney General Frank W. Clancy.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I have been asked about these few minutes of forty minutes which must be observed by those who address you upon the more urgent and important matters to be embodied, or avoided, in a state constitution.

Chicago is disappointed at the census returns. Towns, like individuals, occasionally fail to measure up to their own estimates.

It is here to be noted as respects the subject, which is now more widely discussed than any other in New Mexico, that in each of the state governments which Chief Justice Waite says furnish "unmistakable evidence of what was republican in form," all governmental powers and functions, including the power of legislation, were delegated by the constitution to officers chosen directly or indirectly by the people.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street. New York, Sept. 26.—The stock market today gave more signs of life and took on a semblance of breadth and strength. The increased congestion of the dealings in Reading as the day progressed, however, lessened the appearance of breadth and restored that of narrow professionalism, which has been the fault of the market for some time.

London joined liberally in the buying and there was a substantial demand also from uncovered shorts. The hardening tendency of money rates was ignored in the conviction that the causes for it were temporary and lay in the preparation for the October settlements. In Berlin especially the necessities of these payments loom large. The advance in the official rate of the Imperial Bank of Germany, while predicted, was made a day earlier than expected.

companied by his bride, having been married to a Delphi, Ind., girl some two weeks ago. The marriage occurred in Delphi, Mr. McCain's former home, and was quite a surprise to his friends in Albuquerque, who will be happy, nevertheless, to offer hearty congratulations to himself and bride.
Thursday morning at the Church of San Felipe de Neri in Old Albuquerque, will occur the marriage of Mr. Alfredo A. Fournelle, of Delphi, Ind., and Miss Benjamin Gutierrez, daughter of Mrs. Veneranda Gutierrez. Following the marriage ceremony, a wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the bride, in San Gabriel street. The groom-to-be is a well known and efficient deputy sheriff of Bernalillo county.

ALVARADO HOTEL TO BE A BLAZE OF LIGHT

Santa Fe is Spending More Than $5,000 on Decorations; 7,000 Additional Incandescent Lamps Being Fitted.
The Alvarado hotel and Santa Fe station will be a blaze of beauty during fair week; the work of decoration, which has been under way for the past two weeks, having been almost completed. The electrical display will be tested on Saturday night to see if all the incandescents are working over. Approximately $5,000 is being spent by the Santa Fe company in the illumination, which does not include the "juice," which will be consumed during the week, and which will be furnished by the Santa Fe power house. More than seven thousand additional incandescent lamps will be placed in position within the next two or three days, the sockets being already in readiness. The big white and blue Santa Fe monogram will be placed on the east roof of the Alvarado and will be lighted by hundreds of lamps.

DEAR FRIEND OF T. R. PASSES THROUGH THE CITY
Seth Bullock, Who Made Acquaintance of the Colonel in South Dakota in Early Days, Goes to California.
Seth Bullock, United States marshal for South Dakota, a warm personal friend of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, passed through the city at noon yesterday en route to Los Angeles. Mr. Bullock is a typical westerner and looks as if he could get to his gun before the ax-woman could bat his left eye wide. Bullock met Roosevelt in the wilds of South Dakota many years ago when the strenuous one was ranching it in that state. They became fast friends and when Teddy became prominent in national politics Bullock was appointed United States marshal for South Dakota, which position he has continued to hold and will continue to hold as long as the nation has anything to do with the political game. When Roosevelt returned from his hunting trip to Africa, he was met in London by Bullock.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETS TONIGHT FOR BUSINESS
Plattling the County, First of "Our Policies" to be Taken Up Vigorously This Evening.
The surviving and plating of the county of Bernalillo and especially the county lands in the Grand canyon; the fit in the new list of "Our Policies" of the Commercial Club will be the all important topic at a meeting of the club to be held this evening and which every member is urged to be present.
District Attorney G. S. Klock will address the club on the legal aspects of the underlying and the difficulties of this kind to be overcome. J. B. Farwell, the well known civil engineer, will talk on the technical side of the proposition and give the club some accurate ideas of the size of the job which confronts it. Both gentlemen will have something of great interest to tell the club members and their information supplemented by that of members and officials of the club will form a basis for action. A special committee will accordingly be appointed to draft a working plan, after which everybody will get busy.
It is especially desired that the new members, or those who have applied for membership in the club, attend the meeting tonight. The officers of the club wish to make it plain that every member and prospective member is urgently requested to be present and will be more than cordially welcomed.

Some provision by which the legislature must provide a method of assessment of property for purposes of taxation which will be fair and just, by which no class of men or property can escape bearing its proper share of the burden of public expense, and which shall be derived from inheritance, or from the sale of public lands, or from any other source, and which shall be approved by a majority of the people.
Much has of late been said in favor of a clause in the constitution providing for direct primary elections at which the various political parties must select their candidates for office to be voted for by the people. This, if desirable at all, which is as yet debatable, should be regarded as a mere matter of legislation and not proper to be included in the constitution. It is clearly within the scope of general legislative power.
As to the merits of such elections, much which I have not time to say, might be said on both sides. The objection which is urged is that the system would be a worthy one. Our present system of nomination by conventions of delegates, for whose election is found in ward, town, or precinct primaries, is more or less arbitrary with our general system of delegated representative government; but, practically packed, disorderly and dishonest primaries, unregulated by any law, in which the masses of all parties are allowed to participate with impunity, under the corrupting influence of political bosses, distort or stifle the real sentiments of the party, and reject the attendance of the better class of citizens. This condition should be remedied, but it is, to say the least, doubtful whether the proposed direct primaries will afford an adequate remedy.
There appears to be two principal objections to the direct primaries. One is that the members of one political party may participate in the primary election of the candidates of another party, just as heretofore has been done in the unregulated primaries for the election of delegates to conventions. There seems to be no practical way of avoiding this, and it might be the case that where there is a serious division in one party as to who the candidate shall be, and little or no division in the other, the members of that other party could vote in the primary elections of their adversaries, so as to obtain some undue advantage. It is asserted in the public press that just this thing happened in the recent primary elections in the state of Wisconsin. The other objection is that a candidate for office is compelled to make very expensive campaigns, one to obtain the nomination, and the other to secure his election. Putting aside the question of improper expense of such campaigns, there still remains a large burden of perfectly proper and legitimate expenditures, for distribution of printed matter, for the holding of meetings, the services of speakers, and other like matters. It is not long since a United States senator from a state where such elections are held for the nomination of senators, declined to be a candidate for reelection upon the ground that he could not afford the expense of many thousands of dollars to maintain a statewide organization to secure the nomination, and still less could he afford to have other people bear that expense, as those other people would, in case of his election, think that they had a claim upon him in his official capacity which it would be difficult, at least to refuse to recognize, and which might be asserted for improper purposes. Moreover, to become a candidate at the primary election, necessarily requires a considerable amount of self-serving exertions on the part of would-be candidates, and those men who are the most eager for office are frequently the least desirable, while by the convention method of making nominations, if properly conducted, it might be the case that men would be nominated

FEW INDICTMENTS BY GRAND JURY

True Bills Found Against Half Dozen Men Who Are Held in Custody.
Six true bills were reported by the territorial grand jury yesterday, most of them being against prisoners who are held in the county jail awaiting trial. The indictments in most cases are for minor offenses and are as follows: Frank Fugita and Walter Harding, robbery; Francisco Gallegos and Refugio Cervantes and Eugenio Hernandez, discharging firearms in a settlement; Enrique Savera and Gabino Garcia, larceny in a shop and warehouse. The court was occupied in chambers yesterday hearing arguments in civil cases.

There are numerous other details of what ought or ought not to go into our constitution which fall naturally within the scope of the subject assigned to me, but the narrow limits of time make it impossible for me to present them. I believe I have, however, touched upon, although briefly, those matters which are of the greatest importance.
I compliment you upon your patience and powers of endurance, and thank you for your attention.

SILKS THAT ARE TO BE WORN
Fashion's decree is that Persian Silks and Silk Poplins will be the reigning favorites for this season. Being assured of this popularity some months ago, we are now prepared with very extensive lines in these silks. Prices range from 75c to $1.25 the yard.
Plain Silks are very much in vogue for this season and we offer a line of superb colorings, and combinations. Some in Persian effects, all suitable for separate waists and trimming purposes.
Autumn Gloves for Men and Women
This section we expect to feature this fall by displaying to our customers the best, well selected products that reliable glove manufacturers can produce. One point will be self-evident, and that is the highest quality of merchandise at the lowest possible retail price. Our stock represents the best makes, and that is a guarantee in itself to insure fit, style and quality and the shades that are in demand. We direct your special attention to the fact that we carry a full line of "DENTS" gloves, for both men and women.
