THE MAY DAY FESTIVAL.
The May day festivities which took place at the kindergarten on Wednesday afternoon last carried out the tradition for childish beauty and grace by which this yearly celebration of May Day is characterized in Santa Fe. The choice this year for Queen of May, which is always decided by the vote of the children themselves, fell on Carlbel Fischer, the attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fischer. The maid of honor, with only two votes less than the successful candidate for queen, was Catherine Chavez, the bright and engaging daughter of Honorable and Mrs. Amado Chavez. The page, great with all the dignity of his office, was Robbie Willison, son of Col. and Mrs. R. B. Willison, and the two wee flower girls were Ernestina Delgado, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Delgado, and Louise McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McClure. The exercises consisted of the crowning of the Queen of May by the maid of honor with a crown of daisies, the kindergarten flower, which was presented by the page amid the applause of the children and assembled guests. The traditional dance around the May-pole, the salute of the Uly subjects to the Queen, the singing of May-day and Spring-time songs, followed, and the entertainment closed with the presentation by the Queen to each child of a box of bon-bons and a return gift of a beautiful carnation or pansy from each to their Queen.
The beauty of the flowers, the lovely Spring day and the air of happiness that hung about each child in the circle reminded one of Longfellow's words about children:
"They are better than all the ballads
That ever were sung or said;
For they are living poems
And all the rest are dead."

The mayor has instructed the city attorney and city marshal to take prompt and immediate steps to stop such nuisance, to prosecute all offenders and all such cases will be brought before the police justice. The mayor is right in endeavoring to have such abominable practices stopped.
