BRIEF WIRINGS:

Silver and Lead.
New York, Oct. 27.—Silver is quoted at 71 1/2 to-day. Lead is advancing, being now quoted at $3.50.

Missing Boats.
Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 27.—The steamers City of Concord and Sanford with twenty-one men aboard are missing. Their cargoes are valued at $30,000.

Struck a Rock.
San Francisco, Oct. 27.—The steamer City of New York struck a rock last evening. She may be got off, though the weather continues horrible. Capt. Whitlaw will attempt to pump her clear of water.

A Mystery Explained.
Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 27.—The mystery surrounding the body of the little baby found in the railway wreck was cleared up this morning by the coroner who discovered that the supposed body was nothing but a bologna sausage.

Out of Work.
Denver, Oct. 27.—State Coal Mine Inspector Reed has returned from a visit to the mining districts. He says that the striking miners will not go back to work unless they get their back pay. He estimates that from 1,000 to 2,000 men are out of employment.

Fire in Mid-Ocean.
New York, Oct. 27.—The steamship Gellert arrived this morning from Hamburg, which point she left on the 16th. On October 22 a fire broke out in her hold and burned for two days and nights, but was finally extinguished after doing immense damage to the cargo. The steamer carried 465 passengers.

READY FOR THE FRAY.
The President of the Bi-metallic League Outlines the Plan of Silver Men.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Gen. A. J. Warner, president of the bi-metallic league, said this morning that the senate would not reach a final vote on the repeal bill in ten days. Repeal is by no means certain, as twenty amendments have to be acted on. The discussion will be long and will furnish material to obstruct the passage of the repeal bill. The bi-metallic league will call a national congress and organize for the next congressional election, and the next congress will hold the Cleveland gold clique that the people of the nation demand the continued coinage of silver.

A Liar Still Talking.
Washington, Oct. 27.—It is probable that Stone, the self-confessed butcher who killed the Wrattan family, will make a third confession implicating one Keys Williams. Stone could not tell where the weapons were hid until after a conference with Williams. Blood hounds traced Stone's foot steps in Dubois county, but the fellow is such a notorious liar that the murder of these six persons yet remains practically unsolved.

A Lynching Likely.
New Orleans, Oct. 27.—Rosecrans Julien, the murderer of Judge Estapinal, whose three brothers a mob lynched after the murder, is believed to be surrounded by a posse at Boutte, thirty miles north of here. Letters signed, "Julien, the zipper" were found this morning. The police believe the murderer intended to return and kill the men who murdered his brothers. A posse from here is going to Boutte.

Denouncing the Delay.
St. Louis Oct. 27.—The cotton exchange of this city has adopted a series of resolutions denouncing the senate of the United States as continuing to throttle and depress all branches of commerce, to "diminish the value of all the principal agricultural products," thereby "bringing the people and the government to the verge of bankruptcy," by its failure to act upon the silver question. They further criticize Senators Vest and Cookrell severely for seeking conditional legislation, and demand of them and the senate an immediate vote.

TOLD YOU SO!
There Won't Be Any Tariff Tinkering at the Next Session of Congress.

Washington, Oct. 27.—A member of the ways and means committee said to-day that he feared no tariff bill could be passed by this congress. The discredited committee has encountered make it almost impossible to frame a bill satisfactory to all parties. Every person in the country that the interests of his section be looked after. The sugar men, for instance, insist that the duty be restored on sugar. They do not like the bounty, but if they can't have the duty, they want the bounty. The bad blood engendered over the silver question will also have a tendency to prevent a new tariff bill going through.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Speech-Making and Amendments Likely to Delay Action on the Repeal Bill.

Peffer's Amendment Defeated This Afternoon—Senate and House—National Notes.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Speech-making in the senate on the financial question is likely to consume much more time than was originally intended and it now appears that a final vote on the repeal bill is yet a way off.

TO-DAY'S SENATE.
In the senate to-day the bill was passed granting to the mining states 25 per cent of the proceeds arising from the sale of mineral lands for the benefit of the state schools of mines.

Senator Teller made an earnest effort to have the amount increased to 50 per cent, but failed.

4:25 p. m.—Peffer's amendment to the silver repeal bill was rejected by a vote of 23 to 31.

THE HOUSE TO-DAY.
In the house to-day, Representative Woodcock, Democrat of Michigan, introduced a motion to enquire into the right of Representative Linton, Republican, of Michigan, to a seat on the floor. He severely arraigned a secret society which was instrumental in Linton's election.

Springer offered a resolution calling upon the treasury department for information on the subject of state banks, and on roll call a quorum could not be produced. The house then took a recess till Monday next.

WANTS TO GO HOME.
"Just as soon as the silver bill is out of the way," said Representative Pithian, "and adjournment of congress until the first Monday in December will be in order. At least that is the program under consideration now on the house side and this plan has the approval of the president. New York congressmen want to go home and put their affairs in shape and others are anxious to participate in the state campaigns now in progress. This is particularly true in Ohio, Virginia, Massachusetts and New York, where a lively fall contest is in progress."

NOMINATIONS.
The president has sent the following nominations to the senate:
War—First Lieut. Robert D. Evans, 12th infantry, to be captain; 2d Lieut. William G. Elliott, 9th infantry, to be first lieutenant.

Postmasters—Charles A. Hull, Hampton, N. Y.
Navy—Lieut. Commander H. W. Lyon to be commander; Lieut. Frank G. Drake to be lieutenant commander; Lieut. junior grade, Thomas S. Rogers to be a lieutenant; Ensign Hugh Rodman to be a lieutenant, junior grade.

NATIONAL NOTES.
The adjournment of congress seems certain to come next week. A recess seems to be the order of the day.

It is not likely that the Chinese bill will be reported to the senate until the regular session. There is a disposition on the part of the members to investigate all facts and give the people of the coast a proper hearing.

The income tax scheme is being considered in congress. It is reported that it contains a provision to tax mortgages. Opponents are strongly objecting to it and claim that it means simply an increase in interest.

The Populists profess to be pleased with the situation. Peffer says a compromise would probably postpone the settlement of the question another four years. Now he is confident that the necessity of further legislation will be evident and the Populists will sweep the country at the next election.

GARLAND'S DAUGHTER.
The Ex-Attorney General's Daughter Suicides in Washington this Afternoon.

Washington, Oct. 27.—The daughter of Hon. A. J. Garland, U. S. attorney general under Cleveland's former administration, committed suicide this afternoon. She shot herself through the heart with her father's revolver. Religious melancholy was the cause.

A GREAT FIRE.
The City of Pittsburg Threatened—A Terrific Conflagration Beyond All Control.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 27.—At 1:30 this afternoon fire broke out in the Pittsburg Artificial Ice company's immense building, destroying all its contents, valued at $300,000.

Every fire engine in this city and those from Allegheny City also are in use to prevent the fire from spreading. Three persons were fatally burned and many have been injured by the falling walls.

2:10 p. m.—At this time the fire is beyond all control and the whole city is in danger.

2:50 p. m.—The walls of the storage building have fallen, carrying one fireman into the burning pit below. The fire is still spreading and the firemen seem unable to make any headway toward saving the city from destruction.

3:10 p. m.—The damage now reaches nearly $1,000,000. The contents of most of the buildings are insured.

4:40 p. m.—The fire is now believed to be under control.

AWAY DOWN.

The Cincinnati & St. Louis Passenger association has agreed to make the following rates from Cincinnati for selling and basing purposes: Kansas City, Leavenworth, Atchison and St. Louis, $12; Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, $19.50. These rates will be in effect from October 27 to November 15.

TERRITORIAL TIPS.

ALBUQUERQUE ATOMS.
John L. Kroger came here about one week ago from Chicago, suffering from consumption, and died Wednesday at the residence of Mrs. Fetters, on Second street.

The militia company has ordered $50 worth of material as a nucleus for a gymnasium. They have ordered boxing gloves, fencing masks and foils, Indian clubs, dumb bell, etc.

Charles Stewart and J. Deveraux, the two men who it is alleged sought to rob the city postoffice last Thursday evening, were tried in the district court and Stewart was found guilty; Deveraux being discharged.

The Times understands that Messrs. Pinckney & Walton will soon enter into the manufacture and curing of the root osha, an herb that grows in abundance in certain soil in central New Mexico, and which cures almost all the ills human flesh is heir to.

The U. S. grand jury has found an indictment against Jose Baldonado for perjury, and two against J. B. Block, postmaster at Archuleta, one for stealing letters and the other for embezzling contents. In the latter case bond was fixed at $500 in each charge, and H. C. Leeds and J. C. Baldrige qualified as bondsmen.

Wm. Frazer brought in from Chilli seventy-five sacks of wool, 30,000 pounds, this week for storage. Manuel Chaves, of Pinos Wells, has disposed of this year's wool clip at 6 cents a pound. Last year he pocketed 17 1/2 cents. Who said the necessity about the tariff was not hurting the country.—Citizen.

Buela, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Barnett, was stricken with paralysis yesterday in the lower part of her body. A physician was summoned who after an examination, expressed his opinion that owing to the young girl's child that he could care her, but it would require a long time. Mr. and Mrs. Barnett have the deep sympathy of the entire community. Two children have died this year of scarlet fever and the little daughter stricken yesterday has just recovered from a severe attack of the disease.—Times.

LAS VEGAS LOCALS.
The merry-go-round will not leave many nickels in town, judging from the way it is gathering in the loose ones floating around.

Traffic between the city and northern points is being diverted to Watrous, because the bridge at Green's lake is impassable.

The grand musical concert, by the Catholic ladies, will be under the immediate direction of Miss Hattie Knickerbocker, assisted by Mrs. H. W. Greene.

A countryman who got $385 for his small wool clip last year, only realized $125 for it, this season. Charge it up on the books to the Democratic tariff thinkers.

Atanacio Garcia, a saw mill owner out at San Geronimo, is dead and buried. He was a good citizen and will be greatly missed in the circles in which he was wont to move.

Gen. A. Ames, who is here from Lowell, Mass., in the interest of the Butler estate, he being a son-in-law of the dead general, was governor of Mississippi in times when it tried men's souls to fill the position.

Midnight marauders broke into the store of Antonio Sanchez & Son, at Salsoso, goods being stolen to the amount of about $200. The suspected parties have been very nearly traced down and arrests will follow in a short time.

Don Lorenzo Lopez has stumbled upon a new device for locating gold mines, and he planned a trip into the mountains to-day to search for the precious, hidden, scarce, yellow metal that is just now crowding silver to the wall a little.

A returned Las Vegas from the World's fair says that a few pieces of white stone, of inferior quality, from Bocorro, constituted the only exhibit of building stones from this territory. Arizona's red sandstones were exhibited, but the vastly superior quality of red and white building stone from San Miguel county, N. M., had no exhibition whatever.

The Optic saw a letter from a prominent Denver merchant, in which he says: "It is a good time to write up on the Denver & El Paso Independent railroad. I know of nothing that would be of such vast benefit to the people of the Rocky mountain region, as to start this enterprise right off. We truly want something to give life to our people. I think the day not far distant when our people will take hold of this grand enterprise. They all know the value of it."

DEMING DOTS.
The cast for the coming production of "Queen Esther" by local talent is unusually strong.

The advance agent of Sell's circus was in the city just long enough to arrange a date for the 6th of November.

S. Valencia, an old Mexican employed as a sweeper in the Southern Pacific yards was struck by a switch engine Tuesday and so badly injured that he died.

The famous Liberty bell will come through Deming in December en route for San Francisco and the midwinter fair. The bell will be brought direct from Philadelphia.

The members of the Uniformed Rank Knights of Pythias are drilling every evening in anticipation of the drill at the coming encampment. The boys are determined to make a good showing.

The executive committee of the convention have just completed arrangements with Prof. LeRoy, the well known parachute jumper, for a tight rope performance and parachute jump from his big balloon on the 7th of November.

Two more carloads of pipe arrived in Deming during the week from Los Angeles for use in the mains of the Deming Land & Water company. Both shipments were made over the southern Pacific railroad.

Deming is probably the first city in New Mexico to enroll a Chinese student in the public schools. Little Loui Qui, a bright lad of eleven summers, entered the primary schools last Monday morning and is progressing nicely with his studies. He speaks English fairly well and is possessed of an earnest desire to master an English education.

CHAMA CHAT.
There are several cattle buyers in town from Nebraska and Iowa.

Jewell & Beck have 100 cars of sheep to ship when they can secure transportation.

There is a corner on bran here. While wheat has gone down bran has gone up 20 per cent.

Railroad business is rustling at this point and shippers are unable to secure freight cars.

Col. Broad has his thrasher on the Little Chama working on a three-hundred acre rye field.

The Amargo ditch company have a force of men and teams at work on the Navajo river near Chromo.

Carpenner & Beamis will ship thirty cars of sheep to Malcom, Iowa, just as soon as they can secure cars.

Occasionally had a very good letter about this section of the country in a late number of the Santa Fe New Mexican.

There will be little or no shearing done in Rio Arriba county this fall. Wool at 7 cents is scarcely an inducement.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent by Post Office in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27.

Too much juggling with justice in New Mexico.

In the bout Mr. Cleveland has had with the senate does not reduce his fat, nothing will.

It is no longer proper to allude to a fortunate fellow as born with a silver spoon in his mouth.

What everybody says is generally true and everybody says New Mexico has felt the hard times less than any other portion of the country.

Gov. Hughes, of Arizona, succeeds admirably in getting himself and his country talked about in the eastern press. Arizona always did believe in blowing her own bazaar.

SILVER holds its place well in the market considering the ferocious onslaught made upon it during the past year in this country and abroad. It is bound to come out victorious.

It is quite probable that a well selected exhibit at the Pacific coast mid-winter fair would help New Mexico, but where are the friends to come from for gathering such an exhibit? There's the rub.

THE same minority influence that has handled the silver problem in the senate will come pretty near making the Cleveland administration very sick when it comes to dealing with the tariff question.

It is a very clever scheme to run Texas cattle in to eat the grass off New Mexico ranges, after the county assessor has closed his books, but there ought to be some way of reaching this class of cattle for taxation purposes.

THERE is a shortage of money in the U. S. treasury and an abundance of silver bullion on hand to meet it in case it was coined. Under these conditions the west is unalterably opposed to the issue of any government bonds.

TALKING will be pretty safe for Mr. Corbett after Mr. Mitchell leaves the country, but then he should remember that Peter Jackson and Bob Fitzsimmons both want a go with him, and should get up a cheap excursion to Australia.

New Mexico every day shows up a better and better aspect of affairs. The reports concerning her banks, her mineral resources, her agriculture and every department of the affairs of life show that she is about the best place in the Union during these parlous times.

If the proposition to submit to a vote of the people the question of the free coinage of silver came from anybody save the Populists side of the house, it would be gladly accepted. But the Populist support would handicap it from the start.

THE Colorado miner and prospector continues to pour into New Mexico. He is in search of a climate where there are no snow slides in winter and where the climate is such that operations of the miner are not disturbed from one year's end to the other. There is a vast unprospected field in New Mexico. Let them come and be welcome.

THE Inter-Ocean says it is quite mortifying that Prince Kraptokin and his fellow anarchists should have held their congress in Chicago without being known till it was all over. It should be remembered however, that these people are not children, and did not invite either reporters or detectives to assist their deliberations.

PUR Ohio down as safe for the Republicans by at least 40,000 majority. Hon. A. L. Morrison has been over the state and he writes: "Prosperity has vanished, idleness has usurped the place of honest toil, penury has thrust its gaunt visage into the late cosy homes of plenty and happiness, and 175,000 unemployed men in this state alone look forward with gloomy forebodings to the cold, dark days of the coming winter."

As soon as this little silver business is settled, the 53d congress proposes to adjourn till the commencement of the regular session; for this relief, much thanks.

THE season of stepping upon political corns has not yet arrived, but when it does, and it may come along sooner than expected, look out for squealing and howling.

It is beginning to look as if the state saloons in the sovereign and aristocratic state of South Carolina will prove a failure; even the long suffering poor white people of South Carolina will not stand being deprived of their whiskey.

It can not be said that harmony and a very genuine entente cordiale exist among our Democratic friends in New Mexico; still the administration seems to be on top, and if its forces shall be rightly handled will remain on top in its party; if not "pop goes the weasel."

TEXAS have been no jury lists prepared for the coming term of court in San Miguel county and it is more than probable that no term will be held; however, no one sues by this except tax payers and the lawyers, and they will have to stand it.

JUDGE LEX's removal does not please the people of the 2d judicial district and indeed is distasteful to the people of the territory at large; another good argument for statehood; the people of New Mexico are entitled by everything that is fair and just to elect the judges of their own courts.

WHOLLY AT SEA.

Mr. Cleveland will not send any message to congress at the opening of the regular session in December. This is the report that comes straight from the White House, and it is significant. It means that the administration is now wholly at sea as to what course to pursue. That Mr. Cleveland confidently expects the fall elections to repudiate his course is plain, and rather than go on record again and assume the responsibility of any further suggestion, he will allow congress to shift about like a rudderless ship at sea, adopting any sort of make shift legislation that it may see fit and bearing the brunt thereof alone.

THINK OF IT!

It has been the proud boast of America that no willing and industrious man need starve or see his children want bread. Every child is so taught as an axiom. The sad stories that come to us from the east refute this. The cry of the famished is heard in the land.

Yesterday from New Bedford, Mass., came in the cold, bald outline of the news dispatches a terrible tale of suffering and horror. Two children were starved, the father dying, the mother and one other child almost hopelessly hungry. This is one incident in the "object lesson," which the country is being forced to learn. It is hard—very hard—to write of such things dispassionately or without using harsh terms. If the cry of the widow and orphan, the plaint of the homeless, and the echo of weary feet tramping for work and the anguish of men returning to famishing wife and babes, strikes the ear of a heedful Providence, there is a terrible reckoning for the men who have deliberately brought the people to this plight.

The country is exporting millions of bushels of wheat, yet its own artisans starve to death because they are prevented from earning their daily bread.

Press Comments on Territorial Affairs.

Won't Four Years Be Enough of This? The first year of Democratic rule shows a deficit of only $50,000,000 in the treasury. This is doing surprisingly well, and it is clearly evident that those who predicted a deficit of a hundred millions are wrong.—Albuquerque Citizen.

A Few Went Down But New Mexico is All Right.

The condition of New Mexico national banks, as shown by the comptroller's report in our telegraph columns this morning, is very creditable. New Mexico is not the worst place in the world to live in, nor is she going to the demeriton bow wows, even if a few croakers predict disaster.—Albuquerque Times.

The True Inwardness of It.

The attack of the Democrats on District Attorney Wm. H. Whiteman is a small piece of political business. Major Whiteman is faithfully discharging the duties of his position, and his only offense which prevented his confirmation by the last legislative senate was that he voted and worked for the Republican ticket in this county last fall. That he is making a good district attorney is unquestioned.—Albuquerque Citizen.

And How about Cleveland's Course With the Senate?

No government can long claim the right to exist which has a debauched judiciary. The United States government has, during all its history, kept the integrity of its judges in the highest regard. The intelligence of the people has always recognized that free institutions owed their very existence to the freedom and impartiality of those who were called upon to construe the laws, and enforce rights. It has always been the boast of the Democratic party that these three co-ordinate branches of the government were always to be kept distinct.—Albuquerque Democrat.

Call for Irrigation Convention. TERRITORY OF NEW MEXICO. EXECUTIVE OFFICE. SANTA FE, N. M., August 3, 1893. To the People of New Mexico, Arizona, Western Texas, and of the State of Chihuahua, in the Republic of Mexico.

A Too Frequent Complaint. The county school superintendent of Bernalillo, H. R. Whiting, complains of nepotism in some of the school districts of that county. He mentions one district where three brothers were directors. One of these received rent for the school house, his ward was paid as janitor. Another brother was paid for the fuel used, and a brother-in-law taught the school and received over $50 a month for doing so.

Isn't the Proud Name of New Mexico Good Enough?

The suggestion is made that the name of Lincoln be adopted for that of the new state when New Mexico is admitted to the Union. The reasons given for changing the present title are cogent enough, and it is apparent that some alteration should be made; but the name Lincoln is far more objectionable, if on no other ground than that it is of English derivation and designates an important part of the British isle. If the name New Mexico be dropped, it should give place to one entirely and distinctively American. A bill was at one time introduced into congress favoring the admission of this territory, under the style of the state of Montezuma. That move would have the support of propriety and of euphony, and it seems should be pleasing alike to all classes. Let our state be the grand Montezuma, and its capital, historic Santa Fe.—Eddy Independent.

JONES' YARN.

"Speaking," said Jackson Peters, "of the ingenuity of man—I just spoke of it myself," he explained justly as he eyed Jones. "Speaking of?"

"Father's or mother's side, Jackson?" "You are in uncommonly high spirits, Jones," replied Jackson Peters. "Perhaps we are to be favored tonight with the exact facts in regard to your encounter with the blue racer, having taken a month since you promised it to construct them. My reference to the ingenuity of man was legitimate and was prompted by the subtlety of the water in whisking away an imaginary fly with his napkin in the hope of angling his tip. From that I was about to tell of a Texas horse thief I had just read of, who 10 years ago had the operation of tracheotomy performed on himself and a silver tube inserted through which he could breathe. He has been lynched 23 times since that, but as the rope always comes above the tube!"

"The young man was interrupted by a cheery laugh from Jones. 'Really,' broke in this individual, 'that was an ingenious idea. Do you know, Jackson, I believe you come of a clever family!'" "Thank you, Jones."

"Extraordinarily clever family. I knew as soon as I gathered that the fellow was another uncle of yours that he'd do some thing bright, but I was hardly prepared for this. Friends have in the past been so kind as to say that I am myself ingenious in getting out of difficulty, but I never rose to anything like that. I remember a little brush I had with wolves in northern Wisconsin before I came to New Mexico. The wolves were of the large timber variety, and it being a hard winter they were constantly hungry."

"But, Jones," interposed Robinson, "somebody mentioned the blue racer story." "Not tonight, Robinson, not to-night. I have got to look up certain facts and figures which I noted in my diary at the time before I can trust myself with that. I would not deceive you about that blue racer for anything in the world. There are always temptations in a blue racer story which I must guard against. Those wolves, I repeat, seemed always to have a gnawing sensation in the stomach. They were fierce and dangerous and would readily attack a man even when there were no more than two or three of them together. One day in January I was going from Ojibway City to Pomme de Terre river on foot, accompanied only by my dog, which was named Bones, for his fondness for this article of diet. He was a good dog, but he had read somewhere that discretion is the better part of valor."

"Bones was not a dog that would ever go about the country asking folks in his poor, dumb way where he could probably find a large pack of wolves. If a wolf ever succeeded in meeting Bones, he had to bring good letters of introduction from mutual friends. When about 15 miles from Pomme de Terre, I noticed that Bones was becoming uneasy. Five minutes later I observed that he was wearing the hair on his back pommador. I suspected wolves, and I was right. They soon came up, not 50 yards behind. There was at least 100 of them—large, gaunt, hungry, savage wolves. Their fierce howls reverberated through the startled forests like the diabolical shrieks of frenzied demons in torment. I saw that a hand to hand contest with them was out of the question. Flight was my only hope. Picking up Bones by the nape of the neck, I tucked him under my arm and started."

"For 40 minutes, gentlemen, I ran like a cat in a dog show. I suppose I covered 10 miles, notwithstanding that the snow was deep in some places and in others the underbrush interfered. The wolves kept close behind. When I turned my head, I could feel their hot, venomous breath on my cheek. They leaped up and nipped at the tail of poor Bones, which was waving and tossing both ways in the terrific wind which my flight engendered like the plume of a knight of old going into battle. Their howl, weird and hideous as the sinking wail of 10,000 lost souls, shook the pine needles from the trees and tore the nerves of the unfortunate Bones in a way which was painful to see."

"At the end of 10 miles I began to tire. A large spruce tree stood in my path, and I climbed it. Perching myself on a lower limb some 50 feet from the ground and tying Bones in place on another with a bit of string, I looked down on the angry, surging sea of wolves below. I felt safe and lit my pipe and gave my dog a ham bone which I had in my pocket. But soon, to my surprise, the wolves began most extraordinary tactics—nothing less, gentlemen, than gnawing down the tree. One hundred sets of ravenous fangs tore and bit the trunk. I saw that the tree could not stand half an hour. I knocked the ashes out of my pipe and began to look at the situation seriously. I noticed on the branches about me chunks of raw spruce gum about the size of my fist. Taking my pocketknife, I pried one off and dropped it to a wolf below. He snapped his jaws upon it with famished greed. He never opened them again, the resinous mass holding them firm as a vise."

"At the end of 30 minutes I had the jaws of every wolf welded together past all hope of opening. I then descended with Bones, who now barked savagely and attacked the wolves with great spirit. With his assistance I drove the baffled, helpless creatures to Pomme de Terre like a flock of sheep. There was at that time $10 bounty on wolves. We rounded them up in the courthouse yard, and I drew $1,000 from the county treasurer, after which I repaired to the Le Grand Monarque hotel and ordered supper, not forgetting to bespeak the largest soup bone in town for my trusty dog. I returned to Ojibway City the next day, but saw no wolves. That is all, gentlemen. Pardon the tameness of my narrative. I do not doubt our time might have been better employed."

"Jones," said Jackson Peters, "you refused to tell us the blue racer story because you had not yet looked up the exact facts, did you not?" "Yes, Jackson. What of it?" "Nothing,"—Harper's Weekly.

A MYSTERIOUS SURVEY.

Some Further News About That New Railroad from Taos—Headed for Santa Fe.

As heretofore announced in these columns, Mr. W. D. Cameron, of New York, has a surveying party in the field running lines for a new railroad from Maxwell City across the mountains to Amizett and Taos.

From the latter point comes the news to-day to the effect that this mysterious survey is to be run both west and south from Taos valley, one arm to go toward Durango, Colo., and the other to come south to Santa Fe. This much has been learned despite the secretive methods of the surveyors.

Members of the party were in Taos on Tuesday last to purchase camp supplies and said they had found several very feasible routes across the Taos mountains, and that a road of easy gradients had been located via Elizabethtown as far west as Taos pass.

OFFICIAL BUDGET.

Hon. Demetrio Perez is at his desk in the auditor's office again after several days absence at San Antonio, where his wife's illness called him.

The injunction suit brought by the Cerrillos town trustees against the Cerrillos Water Company, to have come before Judge Seeda yesterday afternoon, was again postponed owing to the illness of Mr. Langhin, one of the attorneys.

Desiderio Ortega and Jose Dominguez of Bernalillo, convicted of perjury and sentenced to four years each, were released from the penitentiary yesterday under a reprieve of the governor.

Atanacio Martinez, of Lincoln, convicted for one year on account of burglary, was released to-day under a like order.

The friends of Prof. McCrea in southern New Mexico are making vigorous efforts to secure his appointment to the presidency of the New Mexico Agricultural College. The chances are, however, that no change will be made soon.

Col. Fay, inspector of U. S. surveys, is in the field near Wagon Mound inquiring into some alleged irregularities on the Nolan grant. It is possible that some of the filings will either be thrown open to settlement or revert to the original grantees, in case the pending suit in court is won by the Pinkerton heirs.

There is no little interest in official circles to know whether Judge W. D. Lee, late of Las Vegas, but now of Albuquerque, has been removed on charges to make way for Judge Collier, the new appointee, or whether the president has declined to exercise his prerogative, and removes at any time. If the latter is the case, there may be some conclusions at law; if the former, the future course has not been determined.

It was learned at the district clerk's office this morning, that the November term of Territorial court would not be held in San Miguel county, for the reason that there is not enough money in the county's court fund to oil the machine.

There is only about $1,000 available and it has been estimated that this amount would run the judicial mill only four days, two of which would be required to complete the panel of the jurors. However, the United States court will be held.

At a special meeting of the board of commissioners held last week, under a written decision of the solicitor general and concurred in by the district attorney, the order was made providing that the county assessor be paid pro-rata from the various funds assessed, and not, as has been the custom heretofore, paying the whole commission of the assessor from the current expense fund. It is understood that the majority of the counties of the territory are paying upon this basis and it will be of considerable relief to the expense fund of this county.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

The re-opening of the Palace hotel is a mighty good omen for Santa Fe. Narrow gauge train late last evening three hours. Cause: heavy freight business.

Everybody is gratified to know that Col. V. S. Shelby has assumed the management of the Palace hotel.

Hon. A. L. Kendall, chairman of the county board, has called a meeting of that body for Wednesday next, November 1.

The portals must go. Let other citizens on Frisco street follow the example of Mr. Delgado and tear the unsightly obstructions down.

The Santa Fe road has made a one and one-third rate from all points to the Irrigation convention at Deming, which is to take place November 7.

The harder the times, the more does the shrewd business man advertise; an advertisement in this journal will help him, help the town and help the paper that is continually and constantly at work for the best interests of this city.

The Santa Fe Sage Brush Prize Ring association has been advised that the prize fight at Las Vegas last night was a tame affair. Harry Slater and Reddy Welsh were the participants. When stripped for battle, it looked as if Welsh was in a fit condition to fight for his life, but he weakened and Slater easily knocked him out in one round.

Last night's train in over the narrow gauge failed to arrive until 11 o'clock. Ten full freight cars were brought down as far as Espanola, but five only could be brought over the mountain to Santa Fe. Supt. Helm ran an extra to-day to bring in the other five cars.

The condition of the local wool market is a little better than it has been heretofore. Prices are somewhat better, and the movement of wool has been somewhat increased. The wool is now bringing in some money, though only about one-third of what it brought last year.

Max. Knott and bride were serenaded twice last night, first by a brass band and later—very much later—by Cornelius Callahan and a crowd who sang several love songs to a hand organ accompaniment.

Private advices from Albuquerque say that a very sensational domestic affair, implicating several well known merchants and officials, has developed there and is the "talk of the town." The newspaper reporters, however, seem to be as dumb as oysters about it. They will probably never learn the facts because they are not built that way.

Report has it that Fred Harvey, proprietor of the twenty railway eating houses on the A., T. & S. F. system, has secured a lease of the dining cars on the system for a period of ten years from May next, when diners are to be put on the road and the dining stations abolished.

City Marshal Antonio Alarid has done a good thing with the peaky Water street sewer. He has cleaned it out and opened the old irrigation ditch at the head of the street, turning the water down through the sewer, and thus he hopes to keep it running constantly. Mr. Beatty and other citizens interested are delighted over this and compliment the city marshal for his ready solution of what has heretofore been an ugly problem.

Roman L. Baca returned from the south this morning. He has been to his San Mateo ranch from which he started a bunch of fat cattle for his Santa Fe meat market. He has the penitentiary and other contracts here. He reports that the ranch men in southern and western Valencia county are doing well with their flocks and herds and that times are improving all along the line.

In San Mateo the sheriff of Bernalillo county arrested another notorious horse thief by the name of Casimiro Garcia, the same man who has heretofore accompanied Manuel Baca in his recent raids. Both of them are at present in jail at Albuquerque.

CERRILLOS BUDGET.

A Fort Marcy Deserter Caught—Serapio Baca Accidentally Killed.

The New Mexican's Cerrillos correspondent telegraphs this morning that Frank R. Fagan, a drummer in the 10th U. S. Infantry band, who deserted from Fort Marcy yesterday, was captured there last night by City Marshal Thos. O'Donnell. Fagan will be brought back to Santa Fe and Marshal O'Donnell will receive a reward of $50 for his capture.

AN ALLEGED ACCIDENT. The correspondent also telegraphs that while parties were fooling with a revolver in a Cerrillos saloon at 12:30 this morning, the weapon went off and the bullet struck one Serapio Baca, inflicting a wound which resulted in the young man's death at 8 o'clock this morning. All parties to the affair are under arrest.

If out of order use Beecham's Pills.

ARMY NOTES.

The cavalry of Fort Bayard will start for Fort Grant to-day, to be absent about one month. Recreation and regimental drill will be the chief features of their sojourn.

Major George F. Robinson, paymaster of the department of Colorado, who was left at Los Angeles when the headquarters of the Arizona department were removed to Denver, has just arrived in the latter city, where he will hereafter be stationed.

The troops now in the field on the San Juan river, at the north end of the Navajo reservation, have been ordered to break camp and return to Fort Wingate November 1.

A late army order says: With the approval of the major general commanding the army, headquarters, band and companies A, C, D and H, 18th infantry, under command of Capt. W. H. McLaughlin, 18th infantry, will proceed by rail from Fort Clark to Fort Bliss, Texas, and there take station.

Hood's and Only Hood's. Hood's Sarsaparilla is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Hippisewa, Jupiter berries and other well known remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla curative powers not possessed by other medicines. It effects remarkable cures when other preparations fail.

Hood's Pills cure biliousness.

Notice. Having arranged my financial affairs I shall on Monday open my store and be ready for business at the old stand, and hope to receive a liberal share of patronage from my old friends and the public in general.

COMING IN HORDES.

Northern Prospectors Pouring in to Spend the Winter in New Mexico's Sunny Climate.

George M. Bascom, of Pitkin, Colo., Edward Kronner, of Breckenridge, Colo., and a dozen or more miners and prospectors have been in the city for several days getting data on New Mexico mining camps. They came by private conveyance from Colorado and state that the roads between Colorado and this territory are kept hot just now with prospectors in search of gold mines and a better climate.

These prospectors have tired of spending their winters in Colorado, Montana, Utah and other northern states, where heavy snows make it next to impossible to prosecute their labors, and having heard of the salubrity of New Mexico's climate the year around, and the vast expanse of unprospected country in this territory they are here to try their luck.

Mr. Bascom states that thousands of prospectors and miners are now headed for New Mexico and will scour the territory in search of gold fields chiefly, though silver and copper will be by no means slighted. "If there is any camp that shows signs of a boom this winter," said Mr. Bascom, "you can wager that it will catch the northern fellows. They are coming here to find gold and stay with it, and as most of them are pretty well fixed and are sober, earnest men, New Mexico may consider herself in luck to get them."

The company grows its own broom corn and can therefore guarantee the excellence of its output.
