RED TAPE AND GOOD POSTAL SERVICE.

The monthly mean pressure at Santa Fe (reduced to sea-level) was 30.03 inches; the highest was 30.56 on the 27th, and the lowest was 29.37 on the 16th; absolute range 1.19 inches. At Roswell the average pressure was 30.05 inches; the highest was 30.57 on the 27th, and the lowest was 29,29 on the 17th; absolute range 1.28 inches. Durango, Colo., had an average pressure of 30.02 inches; the highest was 30.48 on the 27th, and the lowest was 29.35 on the 17th; absolute range 1.13 inches. Amarillo, Texas, had an aver. age pressure of 30,10 inches; the highest was 30.64 on the 27th and the lowest was 29.24 on the 16th; absolute range 1.40 inches; while El Paso had an average pressure of 29.99 inches: the highest was 30.36 on the 27th, and the lowest was 29.34 on the 17th; absolute range 1.02 inches.

Temperature.

The mean monthly temperature, as determined from the records of 53 stations, having a mean altitude of about 5,000 feet, was 40.9°, or 1.0° below the normal for the month, as shown by the departures of 16 stations having data for periods of ten years or more. The highest recorded was 86° at Monument, Eddy Co., on the 10th, and at Socorro on the 5th. The lowest recorded was 12° below zero at Tres Piedras on the 20th, on which date and the 21st many stations recorded temperatures below zero. The greatest daily range was 59- at Orange and Springer. The highest monthly mean temperature was 51.4° at Lordsburg, and the lowest 30.9° at Elizabethtown and Red River, stations that are on opposite sides of the same mountain range at practically the same altitude. High temperatures were common over the Territory from the 8th to the 15th, but a few stations recorded the highest temperatures of the month on the 1st, 2d, 5th and 6th. Low temperatures prevailed on the 20th and 21st, but a few northwestern stations recorded their lowest readings on the 26th and 27th.

Precipitation.

The average precipitation for the Territory, as determined from the records of 61 stations with full monthly data, was 1.38 inches, or 0.69 of an inch above the normal for the month, as shown by the departures of 18 stations having data for periods of ten years or more. The greatest amount was 4.06 inches at Roswell, and the least 0.20 at Vermejd. A considerable area along the northern border and in the middle and upper Rio Grande valley received less than an inch of precipitation, while a small area in the southeastern part of the Territory received more than three inches! Much snow occurred with the storm of the 17th to 20th, especially over the eastern counties. The average for the Territory during the month was 7.9 inches. Precipitation occurred on an average of 5 days.

Relative Humidity.

The mean relative humidity at Santa Fe was 64 per cent, at Mesilla Park the same, at Las Yegas 51 per cent, at Roswell 78 per cent, at Durango 71 per cent, at Amarillo 78 per cent and at El Paso 62 per cent. Observations are

"But the railroads are probably a good deal more to blame than they will admit. The average time for the movement of freight from shipper to consignee is perhaps ten times as long as the time required for passenger traffic over the same routes. That means that the cars are not used to their capacity; they are not used economically. If the estimate is correct the cars move say 60 miles a day as against 600 miles per day that may be freight movements were expedited, shipper and consignee would gain, the cars would be released more quickly, A GRACEFUL COMPLIMENT TO the railroads would make more monev on their investments, and the carrving of the rolling stock might be

Sunshine and Cloudiness.

There were 15 clear days, 6 partly cloudy and 9 cloudy days during the month, considering the Territory as a whole, a record of cloudiness that is rarely equalled in New Mexico. Santa Fe had 63 per cent of the total possible sunshine, 3 days without sunshine, 10 days with 90 per cent or more and 7 days with 100 per cent. Roswell had 48 per cent of the possible sunshine, 9 days without, 5 with 90 per cent or more and 4 with 100 per cent. Durango had 75 per cent of the possible sunshine, 3 days without, 13 with 90 per cent or more and a like number with 100 per cent. Amarillo had 62 per cent of the possible sunshine, 1 day without, 8 with 90 per cent or more and 7 with 100 per cent, while El Paso had 62 per cent of the possible sunshine, 6 days without, 13 with 90 per cent of more and 12 with 100 per cent.

Wind.

The total wind movement at Santa Fe was 5,807 miles, or 8.1 miles per hour. The highest velocity was 37 miles per hour from the southeast on the 23rd. Mesilla Park recorded 5,265 miles, or 7.3 miles per hour. The highest velocity was 48 miles per hour on the 16th. Roswell recorded 3.952 miles, or 5.5 miles per hour. The highest velocity was 42 miles per hour from the northwest on the 13th. Durango recorded 3,684 miles, or 5.1 miles per hour. The highest velocity was 24 miles per hour from the west on the 16th. Amarillo registered 5,345 miles, or 7.4 miles per hour. The highest velocity was 32 miles from the northwest on the 19th. El Paso recorded 8,809 miles, or 11.5 miles per hour. The highest velocity was 50 miles per hour from the west on the 17th. The prevailing direction for the Territory was from the west.

realized that a mistake had been made, but had a natural curlosity to hear more of it.

"But you must come. Papa is in a great stew. He meant to go down to day and deposit some bonds in safe deposit, but has sprained his ankle and is laid up and swearing at a great rate. The safe has got out of kilter and can't be unlocked and there are $30,000 worth of bonds lying around loose. You must come up for the night and take them down in the morning. It may be a week before papa can get out. You know mamma is in bed, and I can't leave her. And you will come?" "Why, yes, I guess so. Where are you?" "At home, of course."

"Well-er-you know"- stammered Mr. Bradbury, with his heart in his mouth as he thought of those bonds and realized that he didn't know where the other end of the wire was located. "If you don't come papa will have a fit. Have you" got a cold that your voice sounds so husky?" "Yes, a bad cold, but I will get up there. It may be late, and you'd better leave the front door unlocked."

"You mean the side door." "Yes; the side door. Leave it un-

"It's either lost or mislaid. You can leave the door unlocked and all go to bed. Sorry for the governor, He shouldn't try to be so spry. Goodby.' Somewhere within a few miles of Felix Bradbury was a house in which there were a sick mother, a father laid up with a sprain and a girl of eighteen or twenty the sole protector. In that house were $30,000 worth of bonds ready to be had for the taking, and it is needless to say that the man of many names felt his mouth water at the prospect. At the same time he cursed fate because he didn't know the location of the house and couldn't see how he was going to find out. Twominutes later Providence came to his assistance. Providence does assist the wicked as well as the good, at least on ! occasions.

Two young men sat down near him. and he heard one call the other Bradbury. So there were two Bradburys, and the bell boy had summoned the wrong one. A little later there was talk of the country, and within half for bonds than the library! Only now and then is a man mean enough to hide them in the oven of the cook stove before going to bed. On the way to the library Mr. Bradbury stopped to partake of a glass of wine and a cold lunch in the dining room. His appetite was good and his prospects all that could be desired. He expected to have to spend some time in search, but no sooner had he entered the library than there on the table lay the big bulging envelope.

POOR COOKING.

Responsible For Much of the Misery That Invades the Home.

Just so long as people live principally upon cooked food, just so long will cooking and the kitchen be, as they now are, exceedingly important features of every household, impossible to ignore or overlook with impunity.

Many a good cause has been lost for the time being and many a bright future has been darkened by some one's indigestion. Indigestion is at the root of almost as many of humanity's troubles as selfishness itself. But of course ignorance is at the root of them all. Whenever people know better they avoid and escape the woes that come through ignorance.

Without a good digestion health is impossible, and lack of health is mis-

best possible cooking for each meal

Shield the Little One From Excitement and Fatigue.

Too great emphasis cannot be laid on this matter of shielding the baby from excitement. Undoubtedly the temptation to show him off is very great-h+ is such a cunning little dear, and he has such pretty tricks. But decide now. Is it your desire to gratify your pride or promote your baby's welfare? It is a great mistake to handle an infant any more than necessary, not only on the score of his nerves, but on that of his bones. Baby's bones. you know, are soft; thus constant handling tends to destroy the shapeliness of his body. The greater part of his early life should be spent on the bed. When he gets tired of lying in one position gently roll him over without beard and the same cut of clothes and picking him up. When it is strictly necessary to lift him, there is only one way to do so without subjecting any part of his body to pressure or strain that may endanger a delicate organ. With your right hand grasp his clothing just below his feet and then spread out your left hand and extend it along his spine until your palm is supporting his back and your three middle fingers his neck and head. In this way baby's clothing is made to form a hammock in which he comfortably lies .- Outing Magazine.

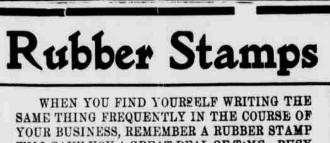

Don't, my dear girls, begin dabbing your faces with creams and lotions one moment before you need. Pure soap and rain water are all the cosmetics necessary till you are twenty-five at least. After that nightly applications of cold cream and an occasional dust of powder are permissible.

Don't, because you are married, think things do not matter; that you can wear shabby dressing jackets and present a cold cream smeared countenance to your husband's astonished gaze. He may not say anything, but he thinks all the more, and lots of little rifts begin just that way.
