THE RECEPTION AT DEMING

Governor Otero Presented President McKinley to the Enthusiastic and Cheering Multitude.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

The Question of Statehood is Touched Upon and the President Expresses the Wish That New Mexico May Soon Be a State.

The Santa Fe contingent that went to the president's reception at Deming returned home this noon. The reception was a most enthusiastic one. There was screaming of locomotive whistles and the cheering of the multitude as the presidential train arrived at 3:25 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The train made a stop of 23 minutes. The first regimental band played patriotic airs, and flags in the hands of several hundred school children were waved. Governor Otero and Delegate Raley boarded the train immediately and extended a most cordial welcome to President McKinley and his party to the territory of New Mexico. After an interchange of courtesies which lasted about five minutes, the president walked on the platform and made an address amidst the cheering and applause of the large crowd.

Governor Otero presented the president with the following happy words:

Mr. President: In behalf of the citizens of New Mexico, I extend to you a most cordial and hearty welcome to our territory, and can assure you that there is not a state or territory in the union that has a greater admiration and love for President McKinley than this New Mexico. Our greatest regret is that your previous engagements have prevented your making a longer stay in our territory so that you might have visited some of our larger cities in the north. As your time here is so limited, I will not detain you longer, but will now take great pleasure in introducing to you our citizens here assembled.

The President responded thus:

"It gives me very great pleasure to meet the people of this territory, who have thronged hither to give greeting to the president of the United States. I rejoice at the progress you are making, the prosperity you are enjoying, the happiness and contentment I see on your faces and the evidences of progress everywhere discernible. You gave part of your territory to Colorado, which is now one of the states of the union; you gave of your territory to make the territory of Arizona, and you still have more territory twice over than the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. (Applause.)

"What you want here is more rain and more people. (Laughter.) (A voice: We want to be connected with you, so as to get more rain.) My friend says you want to be connected with us. You are connected with us. You are of us and close to us. The flag floats over you as it floats over all. I appreciate the hope for association with the United States in the relation of statehood springs uppermost in the territorial bosom (applause) (A voice: Good) and it is a just and honorable and proper aspiration for you to have. I am sure you will share with me today in the expression of sympathy which all of us feel for the great loss sustained in the city of Jacksonville, Fla., by the fire that swept over that city. Thousands have been rendered homeless and the heart of the nation goes out to the sufferers and that recalls to me, this being my first stop since leaving the great state of Texas, that it was with deep regret that I could not visit Galveston and meet her brave people.

"I trust some time in future, I cannot tell when, I do not know when, but some future time, the congress of the United States will see fit to make you one of the states (enthusiastic applause) in the constellation of states of this republic.

"I have traveled a long distance that I might meet and greet you. You are part of the population of the 75,000,000 that constitute the greatest free government on the face of the earth (applause) 75,000,000 of people loving peace and never going to war except when they have to (applause), but when they do draw their swords in a righteous cause (applause), and with the whole country united as it is today, north, south, east and west, when we go into battle anywhere we are invincible. (Great applause.)

"Having said this much and expressing very great satisfaction it has given me to greet you here, your homes, seeing how comfortable you all are and learning your devotion to a great nation over which by your suffrage I am permitted for a short time to preside. I bid you all good afternoon, and may God bless you all." (Enthusiastic applause.)

After the address the president shook hands with those nearest to him and the crowd scrambled to the car for a similar favor. With the president on the platform was Secretary Hay. Mr. McKinley came out upon the platform and leaned on the president's arm. She waved her handkerchief while the cabinet officers that surrounded the president and Mrs. McKinley, waved small flags.

The president was given a number of presents representing some of the products of the territory. These included the four beautiful turkeys from the Porterfield group of turkeys mines in Grant county; a valuable Navajo blanket; Indian dolls, etc.

Besides Governor Otero and Delegate Raley there were at Deming, Chief (Concluded on Fourth Page.)

THE PRESIDENT IN ARIZONA

Several Hours Were Spent at the Famous Congress Gold Mine and Works.

MET BY ARIZONA DELEGATES

An Exhibition of Pluck by One of the Workmen—The Members of the Cabinet Descended to the Lowest Level of the Mine.

Congress, Ariz., May 7.—The presidential party spent several hours this morning visiting the Congress mine, Justice Street and other territorial officials came here on a special train to welcome the president to the territory.

The president did not descend the shaft, but all the members of the cabinet except Secretary Wilson went down in the cage to the lowest level and witnessed the drilling and the blasting process. The president, accompanied by the president of the mine, E. D. Gage, walked through the half mile tunnel lighted by candles to the stamp mills where 80 stamps were crushing ore. He inspected the evaporation works and saw cast a bar of gold worth $25,000. The president asked if he could not see the bar. "It is red hot," said Gage. "I will show it," shouted one of the millers, named Richmond, and stepping forward and with the protection of only a few bags on his hands, he seized the red hot mold and dumped the white hot bar of glowing metal upon the stone. The rags were ignited by the heat, the young man's hands were scorched but he did not wince. "That is true American pluck," cried the president, advancing toward Richmond. "I want to shake your hand." He grasped the man's hand and shook it cordially. On the way back to the train, the president had a view of the mining camp in the valley below.

TRADE WITH CHINA.

Several of the Powers and Chinese Officials Favor the Open Door.

Washington, May 7.—It developed that the movement for the extensive opening of China to foreign trade and commerce has the active approval not only of the United States and several other leading powers, but also of the Chinese officials. The attitude of Russia is the source of some solicitude, although negotiations are being so framed as to obviate any objection that Russia might raise if the opening of commerce was to apply principally to Manchuria.

FEVERISH SPECULATION.

Northern Pacific Showed Violent Fluctuations on the Exchange.

New York, May 7.—The violent advance in northern Pacific today and the failure of the general market to respond to it caused growing uneasiness. There were rumors of a sharp struggle to reacquire lost control. The stock touched 150 1/2 and fluctuated feverishly below that level, dropping back to 141.

TWO MORE VICTIMS.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Mining Man Spilled Out of His Carriage With Sixty Pounds of Powder.

Superintendent Cook, of the Aberdeen company of western Grant county, had a narrow escape Monday. He had driven home with sixty pounds of powder in his wagon. He took the bridle off his horse before taking him from the wagon. The horse bolted, throwing Mr. Cook down, and pulling the wagon over him, and then ran around the country, spilling the powder everywhere. Luckily it did not explode. Mr. Cook was quite seriously strained, but not dangerously hurt.

LIGHT ON RAILROAD DEALS.

The El Paso & Northeastern Has Not Been Absorbed by the Rock Island.

Says a dispatch from Alamogordo: President C. B. Eddy of the El Paso & Northeastern railway, who has been absent several months and recently returned, is perhaps the only man in the southwest who has positive inside knowledge on the Mexican Central deal, which culminated in Boston Tuesday, when C. D. Simpson and some others who are most largely interested in the El Paso & Northeastern and allied interests, were elected to the directorate.

Mr. Eddy says the purchase of Mexican Central stock by Mr. Simpson and others associated with him was made purely as an investment. "There will be wonderful development of the southern republic in the next decade," he said. Mr. Simpson and associates are largely interested in mining in Mexico and this latest investment is inspired by the same faith that has suggested the other financial ventures in this country—confidence in the future of the Mexican republic. The El Paso & Northeastern will naturally profit by more sympathetic relations with the Central, but the large volume of business that will be turned over to us from that source at El Paso when connection is made with the Rock Island and its to be credited to the fact that this route will be the shortest to the east by several hundred miles. This will prove an advantage so far as the Mexican freighters are concerned that will prove of decided value in the treasury of business of this road.

Mr. Eddy's attention was called to the persistence with which some newspapers insist that this Rock Island has absorbed the El Paso & Northeastern. "There is absolutely no foundation," he remarked, "for such a conclusion. As a matter of fact the El Paso & Northeastern is independent today and will continue so. Rock Island relations to this road will be limited to facilitate traffic arrangements, the El Paso & Northeastern enjoying the benefit of all freight which the Rock Island can turn over to it at the Pecos river, while on the other hand the Rock Island will be equally benefited by freights the El Paso & Northeastern will turn over to it."

MISS RING'S LECTURE.

Miss Ring will lecture on Thursday evening at the court house, her subject being the "Social Influence of the Novel." The lecture is given under the auspices and for the benefit of the Woman's board of trade. The Denver Times says of the lecture:

"Club day" at the Woman's club yesterday was a great success, owing to the efforts of the social science department, which had charge of the program. Unity church was crowded with club members and their guests. The afternoon was devoted to a lecture by Miss Margaret Ring on "The Modern Novel as a Social Agent." The subject was fascinating and could not have been better chosen. Again and again the room rang with applause, and at the end of the program Miss Ring was surrounded by ladies who wished to express their appreciation. Miss Ring began by an analysis of the novel's relation to society. She spoke of it in its industrial aspect and dwelt upon love as depicted by the novel. Character study as delineated by the novelists was considered carefully and the speaker cited examples from George Eliot's "Romola" to show their treatment of duty.

THE COCHITI DISTRICT.

W. C. Wynkoop of Bland, where he is operating a group of mines and a cyanide plant for a Denver company, was at Denver last week. The room is off in the Cochiti mining district, said Mr. Wynkoop to a Denver reporter, "but the camp is much better than ever before in its history. It is producing about $2,000 per day in gold bullion and at a fair profit to miners and mill men." There are two treatment plants in Cochiti, with a total capacity of 300 tons of raw ores per day. The mills are fully supplied and the mines are more than returning in fresh ore bodies the cost of development.

New York, May 7.—In order to remove the objection raised by the Isthmian canal commission, the Panama Canal company, with the approval of the Colombian government, says the Washington correspondent of the Herald, announced the terms upon which it will sell the Panama canal to the United States. The letter containing its proposition was submitted to Rear Admiral Walker, chairman of the commission, by Dr. Martinez Silva, the Colombian minister. No price is set by the company. It suggested the appointment of appraisers, one by the United States and one by the company, those two to select a third, the estimate of the board of appraisers thus formed to be final.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

TUESDAY, MAY 7.

For Governor of New Mexico from June 7, 1901, to June 7, 1905, or until statehood is attained, Miguel A. Otero.

New Mexico Demands Statehood of the 57th Congress.

Of Right and in Justice New Mexico Should Be a State.

Work of broadening the gauge of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad from Alamosa to Santa Fe has commenced. This means business.

A strong pull and a united pull for statehood will get an enabling act from the 57th congress; pull together all you who have the business interest of the territory at heart.

London only gained 208,111 in population since 1891 or less than 1 per cent. At that rate it will not be many years before New York will overtake it and be the largest city in the world.

Reports from all over the territory to the New Mexican show that lambing and shearing of sheep is progressing very satisfactorily and favorably. This is good news for all concerned.

Within the next two years New Mexico will receive about 800 miles of new railroads and about 25,000 more in population; within another six months time will be humming in the territory.

The territory as a whole was never more prosperous in its entire history than it is today. This is a fact, and is substantiated by the conditions of business, the few failures in New Mexico and the general satisfaction which prevails.

The funniest thing in New Mexico politics is that men who pay no tax at all or very small amounts are the greatest boosters at tax levies. There are several shining lights of this kind right here in Santa Fe, to the detriment of the community and of the territory.

This is the kind of weather they had in Colorado last Sunday according to a dispatch from Victor. "The morning opened bright and cheerful, but soon it rained. Then came a heavy snowstorm accompanied by vivid lightning and thunder and tonight it is foggy with sleet." Compare that with the ideal weather which prevailed in Santa Fe on that day.

George J. Gould will not allow the gross to grow under his feet in order to carry out his plan for the broad gauge railway connection between Santa Fe and El Paso. The Denver & Rio Grande railway between Alamosa and Santa Fe will within the next six months be a standard gauge and then the dirt will fly on the grade to El Paso. Speed this day.

The new board of education of Santa Fe commenced work by paying to the tax payers the sum of $300 annually for clerk hire. No doubt similar savings will be made along other lines, including the janitorships. Then for the building of a modern school house and the present board of education will have set a record that will make it remembered for many decades to come.

The rumor that all the railroads of the United States will be consolidated under one management is still a pipe dream. When the day comes that one trust will own and manage all railroads it will be followed soon by a complete control of the trust or rather the trust's property by the government. That seems to be the logical outcome of the present tendency of trust activity.

Mighty little profit the farmers receive out of the rise of May corn to 58 cents a bushel and as for the consumer, he must pay part of the profit that flows into the pocket of the speculators on the corn exchange. But there is this satisfaction that the speculators too are hit at times and 8 cents a bushel more or less for May corn does offer all make very little difference to the average man or woman.

Tom L. Johnson has captured from John R. McLean, the Democratic machinery of the state of Ohio. The Democrats already speak of him as governor of the Buckeye state, and even as senator of the United States. Fowler, and have visions of a Democratic president named Johnson. These calculations are all right only they leave out of the question the comfortable Republican majority that Ohio is in the habit of giving whenever election day comes around.

With the broad gauge line into Santa Fe via the Rio Grande railway, the passenger business between Denver and Santa Fe will be greatly increased, the time will be reduced and everything necessary for the comfort and speedy transportation of passengers will be done. There is no good reason why the trip from Denver to Santa Fe over the broad gauge and Rio Grande railway should not be made in 16 to 17 hours. If this should be done the great bulk of travel would be turned this way; that this will be done is on the program.

A branch of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad from Tree Placitas to Taos will be the next thing on the program. It cannot be any too soon.

A more rumor than President McKinley had been assassinated in Texas sent stocks on the New York exchange tumbling from seven to eight points in as many minutes, and one speculator fell dead on account of the excitement caused by the slump. Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe went down 94 points; St. Paul 7 1/2, and other stock in a corresponding measure. Thus it will be seen that speculating is a hazardous game in which the chances of winning are in pure dependent upon events utterly beyond the control of those who speculate.

It is a pity that the institute for the blind was not located in Rio Arriba county by the last legislative assembly. Had the councilmen and members of the house from Santa Fe, Taos, Rio Arriba and San Juan counties acted in this matter harmoniously they would have secured the institution for Rio Arriba county. It was a question of location more than anything else, Councilman T. D. Burns desiring the institution in the northern part of the county and the representatives from there desiring it in the southern part. It is to be hoped that in the next assembly more unity and harmony and common sense will prevail and that the institution will be secured for Chama, a most suitable and proper location.

It seems that the greatest obstacle in the way of successful sugar beet culture is the lack of labor. This problem would be a comparatively easy one in the counties of Santa Fe, Rio Arriba and Taos on account of the many small holdings of the native people who could be persuaded to raise sugar beets in place of beans and chilis. There being only a few months school in winter, the children would also be available for the lighter labor in the beet fields and there would not be the difficulty in raising a large and good crop of sugar beets that exists in Colorado with its Anglo-Saxon population which is not satisfied with the small returns from a five or ten acre field nor possesses the patience to do the careful watching and cultivation that the sugar beets require.

A joke and sublimeness on part of a train crew cost the lives of seven persons at Chicago this week. A frame locomotive house was on fire and when the fire engines reached a crossing near the burning building they found it blocked with a freight train. Requests to break or move the train in order to allow the fire engines to pass were met with jokes and a stubborn refusal. In the meanwhile the women and children were burning to death in the locomotive which might have been saved by the prompt arrival of the firemen. The trainmen were arrested, but it will be difficult to find an adequate punishment for them so as to deter other train crews from blockading crossings for long intervals as they often do in the large cities, causing much inconvenience and as in the case of Sunday's fire even the loss of lives. The remedy is that which is enforced in Germany and in Great Britain and that is to compel railroad companies to abolish all grade crossings, at least in the cities.

Somebody or other is stirring up a great tempest over the appointment by Secretary Hitchcock of W. H. Pope as special attorney of the United States for the Pueblo Indians. This in the eastern papers. Out here there was very little commotion over the matter. Mr. Pope has been appointed and indeed he is a very good man for the position. He is a good Democrat. That of course is not as good as if he were a Republican, but it is a good deal better than being a Bryan-free-silver-bug. The statement made that the territory would become Democratic on account of Mr. Pope's appointment is all twaddle and rich. The territory went Republican in November 1898 by 2,000 majority, and in November 1900 by 3,700 majority, and will give a still greater Republican majority in 1902, especially should Governor Otero be reappointed; of this latter the New Mexican, from advice from Washington, has no doubt. The territory is fairly Republican, and Mr. Pope's appointment will not cut any political ice and will lose the Republicans no votes; quite the reverse, it may gain the Republican candidates in 1902 some good Democratic votes.

A Wife's Tribute.

The majority of people know and think of President McKinley only as the chief executive of this great nation. But there is another side than the statesman, the soldier and the politician to the beloved president of this nation, and Mrs. McKinley in an interview she gave at New Orleans, touched upon it when she said: "Do you know Major McKinley?" "Ah, no one can know him, because to appreciate him one must know him as I do, and I am not speaking now of Major McKinley as the president. I am speaking of him as my husband. If any one could know what it is to have a wife sick, complaining, always an invalid for 25 years, seldom a day well, and yet never a word of unkindness has ever passed his lips; he is just the same tender, thoughtful, kind gentleman I knew when first he came and sought my hand. I know him because I am his wife, and it is my proudest pleasure to say this, not because he is the president, but because he is my husband. I wish that I could have seen him yesterday. I love to see him among the people whom he seeks to serve so faithfully. But I read his speeches. I only wish that I could help him as I should. But he is so kind, so good, so patient. He gives me all the time he can. He never forgets me, no matter how busy he is. But I will be glad when he is out of public life. I did not want him to run a second time. I thought he had done enough for the country, and now I know that he has done enough, and when this term expires he will come home and we will settle down quietly and he will belong to me."

Would that every wife could truthfully thus speak of her husband.

A Mother's Plain Words

"I suppose you will be astonished when I tell you that six years ago I was in a most dangerous condition with bronchitis and lung trouble, because you can see how well and strong I am now. The attack at that time caused terrible pain in my chest and lungs. I could hardly move, and a stoop caused intense suffering. Someone advised Ackers' English Remedy, and I thought I would try it, although I had little faith in it. The first bottle gave great relief, and the second bottle made me the healthy woman I am today. My husband's lungs are weak, and he cured himself with the same grand old remedy. Our boy and girl have both been saved by it from death by croup. I know this is so, for when they were attacked in the night I had a bottle in the closet, and by acting quickly that fatal malady was easily overcome. We always give it to the children when they have a cough or cold, and we would not be without it for anything. My sister will tell you also, if you ask her, that it is a medicine that can always be depended upon for all the troubles of breathing organs. I tell all our neighbors about Ackers' English Remedy whenever I get a chance, and there are plenty of people around Mechanicsville, N. Y., where I live, who would not more think of going to bed at night without a bottle of it in the house than they would of leaving their doors wide open. As I look at it, I think it is a medicine that can always be depended upon for all the troubles of breathing organs. ## THE RECEPTION AT DEMING

Justice W. J. Mills, Judge J. R. McFie, Judge J. W. Crumpacker, Territorial Secretary James W. Reynolds, District Attorney E. C. Abbott, Land Commissioner A. A. Keen, Adjutant General W. H. Whitman, Mayor O. N. Marmon, Hon. Thomas Hughes, Col. E. W. Dobson, Samuel Elkins, Sheriff Thomas S. Hubbell, E. V. Chaves, Michael Mandell, Harry Lee, T. Y. Maynard, E. H. Andrews, George F. Albright and many others besides the people of Deming and surrounding country.

The Albuquerque Pullman which stood on the siding at Deming was gaily decorated. Red, white and blue bunting in graceful folds was festooned along the top and bottom of the car. All the side space was utilized by mottoes, handsomely painted in large letters. On either side of the car was a placard twenty feet long, containing the words, "Albuquerque Delighting in the President." Smaller banners bore such inscriptions as the following: "Give us statehood or give us death." "Fifty-three years of tutelage." "New Mexico demands statehood." "We came 250 miles to see our president and the first lady in the land." "We are as old as a territory as the President is in years." "Welcome, Mr. President, to the oldest territory." "New Mexico, though only a territory, remembered the Maine." "New Mexico was at San Juan Hill, El Caney and Las Guasimas." "Remember New Mexico in your next message, Mr. President." "God bless the president of the United States and speed the state of New Mexico."

FOUR-FOOTED ARTISTS.

Gentry's Dog and Pony Show Will Be Here Tomorrow.

Professor Gentry and his famous company of talented dogs will exhibit in this city under canvass Wednesday, May 8, afternoon and evening, one day only. It would be almost impossible to devise a more pleasing and more instructive exhibition than the one Professor Gentry has perfected after an unlimited amount of work. It is said that Professor Gentry's show, as it is at present, represents years of constant labor, and this seems very probable, when the number of animals is taken into consideration. There are over 250 dogs, ponies and monkeys in the company, all of whom have been trained to perfection and take some active part in the performance. This show is a very popular one, both in merit and prices.
