Bartlett, ex-deputy United States marshal of South Dakota and an old time scout, was well attended considering the high wind that prevailed. The exhibition was given north of the Federal building and the shooting was wonderful, particularly when the high wind is considered. He shot holes through a piece of steel a quarter of an inch thick, using a 32-20 and soft nosed bullet. With a 22 rifle he broke English walnuts and loaf sugar thrown in the air and hit ordinary washers on the edge, spinning Velarde. them through the air at great distances. It is earnestly desired that as many as possible secure their scats for the High School commencement exercises this evening at Ireland's drug store so there will not be such a rush and confusion at the door. As so many small children are on the program it is necessary that the exercises begin early and the audience is requested to be on time.

Tickets are now on sale for the entertainment to be given by the orphans on the evening of May 28. The children will be assisted by friends of the institution who will give piano and vocal solos. A cantata called "Nymphs of the Element", which has lively and catchy music and unique and appropriate costumes, will be given. There will be a flag drill, a la Delsarte, and a delightful evening is promised all who attend. Tickets are on sale at Ireland's and at Salmon's & Abouselman's.
