Danger, Keep Away!

So far there had been much to see but hardly any real circus "thrills." Then the thrill came, as a yellow cage hove in sight. "Danger, Keep Away" was marked on this cage, though the doors were closed. It reminded one of the French novel entitled "The Mys tery of the Yellow Room.

The women who turned out to see the circus preparations were amused at another wagon or car which bore a large mirror. When the sun struck the glass one thought of a searchlight coming up the bay.

Hurry-Hurry!

If there was one feature of the preparation for the circus which was impressed on everyone it was the speed with which every one worked. And well they might for did not the great show open its convas doors at 2:15 p. m. And did not the show givers have to do all their work, eat meal, and ride in a parade before that hour?

It was a great job-but as one of the circus employes said: "We can put up a show in a hurry and take it down in a hurry for practice makes perfect!"

ATTACKS METHODS OF MODERN EDUCATION

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, act ing directly upon the blood and mu cous surfaces of the system, therety destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. efter the last of June." Our idea of treading the primrose paths hand in hand with smiling Dame Fortune is expressed neatly and personably in the case of J. Lavan, Esq. This young man came out of the clas sic halls of old Michigan and agreed to professionalize his baseball talents for a fixed stipend, payable by the Browns. Levan could field like a marvel and was as fast as a whippet But when it came to stick work he was bat-blind. He couldn't hit anything but a pose at the plate. Col. Hedges decided to divorce Lavan from his salary list and the usual waivers were aked. Then in stepped C. Mack and purchased Lavan at the waiver price, owing to the illness of the Barry and Orr. Now this kid who was a trifle too frayed to last in St. Louis bids fair to get a chance and Owens. to slice his share of the world's series melon, which will be a rotund melon this season. To creep from the Browns at the bottom to leaders in the first season in the big show is rather a splendid matter-for the postponed; rain, youthful Lavan.

NEWPORT'S LEADER AND THE GRAND DUKE SHE "LANDED."

CZAR'S COUSIN AND MRS. JOHN ASTOR.

The Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, brother-in-law and cousin to the Czar of Russia, and Mrs. John Astor, his American hostess, become the most interesting figures at the Newport horse show, where the elite of the country gathered in the crowning fete of a most successful season. There was quite a struggle among Newporters for the honor of entertaining the grand duke, and it is considered a big feather in Mrs. Astor's cap to have landed such a distinguished guest.

Thus the machine is human in what it does and superhuman in the way it does it.

THE MEANING OF IT.

The special election just held in Maine to fill the vacancy caused by the death of a member of congress had some surprises in it and showed a situation that will open the way for a good bit of political analysis.

The striking feature is the falling off of the Progressive vote from that of a year ago and the corresponding increase of the regular Republican

It will take another election to determine just what the significance of the Maine vote really is.

It is hardly believable that the members of the Progressive party have deserted their principles and have gone back to the old organization from sources, its possibilities and even its which they withdrew on account of methods which had grown detestible exact location and which were degrading to the spirit of American manhood. WANTING TO KNOW.

When Matthew Arnold, the English poet and essayist, had completed a tour of the United States, a friend asked what trait of the American people this very neat and inviting bit of staimpressed him above others. Arnold replied: Their eagerness for education."

After Long Suffering

Women Are Constantly Being Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Worth mountains of gold," says one woman. Another says, "I would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all the other medicines for women in the world." Still another writes, "I should like to have the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound thrown on the sky with a searchlight so that all suffering women could read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their ills."

We could fill a newspaper ten times the size of this with such quotations taken from the letters we have received from grateful women whose health has been restored and suffering banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished such a universal success? Why has it lived and thrived and kept on doing its glorious work among the sick women of the world for more Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has ever approached its success is plainly and simply because there is no other medicine so good for women's ills.

"DANGER! 5,000 BURGLARS AT LARGE! How long since you leaned your revolver? How old are the cartridges? It is sheer foolhardiness to be without a revolver, but better have none at all than one you cannot depend upon. Remember, the thief is armed and desperate. You owe it to yourself and your family to provide for a revolver in the house or take one along in the dark. The RELIABLE HARDWARE STORE has a complete and up-to-date stock of dependable firearms and ammunition. Don't merely say: 'I'm going to buy a revolver.' Do it NOW—or put this ad. in your pocket and ask them to 'show you' the first time you pass their store. While you are at it. buy a good lock, it's the cheapest Burglar insurance in the world.
