The Socorro postoffice is rapidly becoming a thing of beauty and, it is to be hoped a joy forever. Vigil has just completed a fine job of papering and the paint brush is now in full swing. As soon as the new furniture is installed Postmaster Kittrell will have an office to be proud of.

THE RETORT COURTEOUS.

Jas. G. Fitch Has Something Further to Say about the Sale of City Lands.

EDITOR OF THE CHIEFTAIN:

In a recent issue of your paper Mayor Cooney attempted to make an explanation of the sale of the city lands, and saw fit to add a bitter personal attack upon myself. Let me say that so far as the sales of a few acres to W. H. Byerts and H. G. Baca are concerned, if they were for cash, as the mayor states, and at a fair valuation, and one-third of the price goes into the city school fund, I make no criticism.

It is the sale of several thousand acres of city land made by the mayor to his political boss, Abran Abeyta, for illegal and depreciated city warrants, that I inquired about in my former communication. Mayor Cooney's explanation makes this matter perfectly clear, and shows there has been a flagrant and deliberate violation of the law whereby the city school fund has been defrauded out of nearly one thousand dollars. It is true that the mayor quibbles somewhat, by dwelling on some wholly immaterial matters. He implies that it is not necessary for Caudalario Garcia, the co-trustee with the city, to join with the mayor in the execution of a deed. Even if this were so, it makes no difference, for if Mayor Cooney was authorized alone to make this deed, he was not authorized to violate the law by receiving worthless warrants, when that law requires that the proceeds should be deposited with the city treasurer, and one-third thereof should be applied to the city school fund.

Mayor Cooney also pleads authority from the city council to sell this land for warrants. Is he so ignorant as not to know that the city council could not authorize him to violate the law of the Territorial Legislature, from which law both the mayor and the council derive their authority?

Mr. Cooney does not state in this connection that a number of prominent citizens went before the council, when this illegal measure was under discussion, and earnestly protested against it and the proposed sale, and that one citizen at least offered for a part of this land twice the price in cash per acre. Nor has the mayor seen fit to state that at a subsequent meeting when the council were inclined to withdraw the illegal authority they had conferred, the mayor prevented any action by stating that it was too late, as the sale had been consummated, although the deed to Abeyta bears a later date than said meeting.

Mr. Cooney also pretends that the H. B. Hamilton indebtedness for obtaining patent to these lands, amounting to about $4000, must be paid before the school fund is entitled to a cent. This is not true either in law or in fact.

This Hamilton indebtedness is not a lien on these lands, but stands in the same situation as other valid indebtedness of the city, and is to be paid in the same way; that is, out of two-thirds of the proceeds and after the school fund has received its one-third. The insincerity of this pretense on the mayor's part is shown by his statement that he received only $200 of the Hamilton warrants on the price of this land, leaving, according to his own figures, a balance of about $3,800 of the Hamilton indebtedness still outstanding in the form of bonds or warrants; and the holders of this indebtedness, as well as all the other holders of city bonds, have not received even the interest due them, while the city's slender resources have been squandered upon a political favorite for worthless and illegal warrants and accounts.

Again the city council only attempted to authorize the mayor to receive legal warrants in payment for this land, yet his statement shows that he received $1,473.29 in warrants issued principally under Estevan Baca and C. Cortinas, which he knew to be illegal, because he said they were when he first ran for mayor; he wanted, so he said, to be mayor to prevent the issuance of any more illegal warrants.

Yet ever since he has been mayor he has been issuing so-called approved accounts in lieu of warrants, and for the same purposes, and which he must know are just as illegal as the warrants of his predecessors, and he has received $1,222.50 of these illegal accounts as a part of the price of this land. In other words, more than nine-tenths of the price named in the Abeyta deed was received in warrants or accounts which the mayor knew to be illegal.

Under his predecessors it was the custom to receive the warrants in payment of the general city tax fund, and they sold for this purpose at about 75 cents on the dollar. Since Mr. Cooney has been mayor he has refused to permit these warrants to be received on the city general fund, as he wanted the cash, presumably to beautify the plaza and for other reform measures. As a result of his action these warrants became practically worthless and Abran Abeyta was able to gather them in at a few cents on the dollar. Then our worthy mayor suddenly discovered that these warrants, which he had held to be illegal and worthless, while in the hands of our citizens, were all right when held by his political boss, and he proceeded to pay them in city land on terms which made them worth 150 cents on the dollar on the appraised value of that land.

Yet Mr. Cooney objects to my calling this transaction "shady!" I beg his pardon, and withdraw the term. There is nothing shady about it. It is, in all its features, simply the most open and scandalous violation of law and decency that has ever sullied the annals of Socorro.

Mr. Cooney, after the manner of unscrupulous politicians, has attempted to divert attention from his own illegal acts, by attacking my private character, simply because as a citizen I made a respectful inquiry about this transaction. To his personal abuse of myself I will not condescend to reply. But when it comes to the payment of taxes, his statements can readily be shown to be false by the tax rolls and tax receipts. He states that I refused to pay the (city) school tax for 1901, and advised others to refuse.

I never gave such advice, and I promptly paid in cash that year the full five mills on the dollar, which is the highest rate allowed to city schools, on every dollar's worth of property in the city on which I pay taxes. The amount paid by me that year to the city school fund was $18.19, while Mr. Cooney contributed the same year to the same fund the munificent sum of $2.50. After this specimen of his mendacity, it scarcely seems worth while to notice his lurid declaration about my delinquent tax trail. But if the public have any interest in that matter I can say that I have promptly paid all legal taxes assessed against me each and every year since I have been a resident of this county, and have the tax receipts to show for it.

As a lawyer I have always advised those seeking my opinion to pay all legal taxes, and to refuse to pay illegal taxes because in excess of the rate fixed by law. I do not know what other advice a lawyer could give, and I propose to continue giving it, whether Mr. Cooney and other tax eaters like it or not. If some of my clients have not paid their taxes promptly, that is not my fault; but I can show that the taxes paid through me or upon my advice in a single year exceed all the taxes paid by Mayor Cooney during the twenty odd years he has been a resident of this county.

Mr. Editor: When Mr. Cooney was first a candidate for mayor, he was loud in his promises of reform, and thereby deluded some of us, who ought to have known better, into voting for him. How those promises have been kept we all know. Now that he has been nominated for county assessor, he is equally loud in his promises of reforming the tax rolls, and of increasing the valuation, particularly on the sheep men. But he is a sheep man himself, and a goat man also. This year he does not return any sheep or goats in his own name; but a firm of which he is a member returns 1,400 sheep valued at $1,700, although that firm has at least 3,000 or 4,000 improved sheep, the valuation of which, as fixed by the Territorial Board of Equalization, should be $2 per head.

Another firm of which he is a member returns 1,100 goats valued at $620, or about 56 cents per head, while all of these goats are improved, or graded, Angora goats, upon which the Territorial Board has fixed a valuation of $2 per head.

Now if Mr. Cooney wants to reform the tax roll he can make a beginning before he becomes assessor, by correcting his own tax returns and making them conform to the truth. If Mr. Cooney is unwilling to do this, it would have been more discreet on his part to have carefully avoided the entire subject of taxation until after election.

JAMES G. FITCH.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

If report is true certain candidates are making a silly attempt to raise the race issue in the campaign. The authors of such a despicable attempt will be most hurt by it as it is sure to prove a boomerang.

MR. RODEY is not going to lose a single vote in Socorro county because of the split in the Republican party. On the contrary each faction endorsed him in convention and placed his name on its ticket. Moreover, Mr. Rodey will receive the votes of many statehood Democrats. His majority in the county will therefore be considerably increased over that of two years ago. B. S. Rodey will without doubt represent New Mexico in the 58th Congress and New Mexico is to be congratulated.

THE CHIEFTAIN has not received patronage to the amount of ten dollars from any straight Republican source whatever during the present campaign and it is tolerably certain that if the Republican candidates for county offices are elected the paper will fare no better in that respect for the next two years. Yet the Chieftain stands unalterably for Republican principles and earnestly advises every Socorro county voter who has the public welfare at heart to vote for Rodey.

THE editors of some of our more or less esteemed contemporaries have assumed to advise the Chieftain how it should conduct itself during the present campaign in Socorro county. The only comment that exactly fits the case is that the Chieftain is presumptuous enough to think that it can look after its own interests under all circumstances better than anybody else can, that nobody's advice has been asked as to what course the paper should pursue during the campaign, and that therefore the contemporaries aforesaid are making impertinent asses of themselves.

THE Albuquerque Journal-Democrat of recent date contained what purported to be a dispatch from Socorro in which occur the words "the Chieftain's opposition to the Republican ticket." The person responsible for those words either knew them to be false or he did not know them to be true. If he knew them to be false there is only one word in the English language that exactly characterizes them. If he did not know them to be true he is so reckless in regard to the truth or falsity of his statement as to make it unsafe to believe them under any circumstances.

THE CHIEFTAIN is an unequivocal advocate of Republican principles as expressed in the memorable administrations of McKinley and Roosevelt, in the zealous and efficient public services of Hon. Bernard S. Rodey, New Mexico's present distinguished representative in Congress, and in the public acts of Hon. Miguel A. Otero, who, as Governor of New Mexico, has given the territory the best administration it has ever had. In the light of this statement of principles is the Chieftain loyal to the Republican party? It is at least more loyal to that party than is a county convention that made an impotent effort to discredit a territorial administration by declining to endorse it when it had already been freely and fully endorsed by William McKinley, the beloved martyr president, and by Theodore Roosevelt, his worthy and admired successor in office.

LA BANDERA AMERICANA, a Spanish publication of Albuquerque, contains in its issue of October 31 a communication from which the following words referring to Hon. H. O. Bursum are quoted, viz: "His paper the Chieftain is now waging bloody warfare upon the Republican ticket by his order." The words quoted are absolutely false in every particular. The readers of the Chieftain know that the statement that the paper is waging "bloody warfare" against the Republican ticket is a rank absurdity. On the contrary the paper has made a mighty strenuous effort not to oppose that ticket, and has given much more space to its support than any other paper in New Mexico would have given under the same circumstances. Mr. Bursum is one of the stockholders of the Chieftain, but the only suggestion he has ever made as to the policy of the paper was that it support the national, the territorial and the county Republican administrations. Any statement to the contrary is either an unqualified lie or an inexcusable mistake.

Messrs. Kelly and Cozine were in from Water Cañon Tuesday.

VOTE for Hon. B. S. Rodey and statehood.

THERE is an abundance of reasons why Hon. B. S. Rodey should be re-elected and there is no valid reason why he should not be re-elected.

CHALLENGE a Democrat to produce one substantial reason why Hon. B. S. Rodey should not be re-elected and you have him on the hip. There is no such reason.

THE CHIEFTAIN does not wish to be understood as taking any part whatever in the discussion now in progress between Messrs. Fitch and Cooney. If Mayor Cooney's official acts have been what they should have been he will doubtless have no difficulty in demonstrating that fact to the satisfaction of his readers. If on the other hand the Mayor's official conduct has been at all questionable Mr. Fitch may safely be relied upon to demonstrate that fact also. These columns are simply open at all times to an intelligent and reasonable discussion of questions of public interest or concern.

THE Republican county ticket is composed of the names of gentlemen whose official and private conduct is so well known that for the most part it needs no explanation. It is true that grave suspicions are entertained in certain quarters in regard to the past official conduct of some of those gentlemen and it is also true that a public official's conduct should be above suspicion, but it should be remembered that the accused is always to be considered innocent until proved guilty. No official misconduct has yet been proved against any of the candidates whose names appear on this ticket.

It is a noted fact that the resolutions adopted by the Republican county convention do not contain an endorsement of the territorial administration. If this is a mere oversight it shows slight appreciation of the many favors extended by the administration in time of need to the very gentlemen who framed those resolutions. If the slap at the territorial administration was deliberate it was an act of disloyalty that robs the straight Republican organization of the county of its strongest weapon of argument against the Independents and merits a wholesome rebuke at the hands of the friends of the administration in Socorro county.

HON. H. B. FERGUSSON is a very respectable sort of a man for a Democrat, but even the best of men sometimes go wrong. Mr. Fergusson went far wrong when he accused the territorial board of public lands of official crookedness. The board consists of Miguel A. Otero, Edward L. Bartlett, and Alpheus A. Keen. To a vast majority of the citizens of New Mexico the very names of these gentlemen are a sufficient guarantee of the rectitude of their official conduct. Even Mr. Fergusson is likely soon to be persuaded, for the gentlemen of the board have publicly challenged an investigation of the records of their official acts by a committee of three among the most prominent Democrats of the territory.

Now comes a howl from out the darkness to the effect that the Chieftain is not so staunchly Republican as it ought to be because it prints in behalf of the Independent Republicans a campaign sheet known as La Verdad. The Chieftain printed La Verdad, but was not asked to assume any responsibility for the political opinions contained therein and of course assumed none. The transaction was purely one of business. The job of printing was a good one, the price was reasonable, and the cash has been cheerfully paid. Comment seems superfluous but it may not be out of place to add that the most pious man in meeting is not likely to be the one who bellows loudest in the amen corner. To state the same fact in other words, it is a matter of common observation that the man who is most uproarious in his professions of zeal for any cause is the one who is most likely to desert that cause just as soon as he sees it to his own personal interest to do so.

Tariff Revision.

THERE is nothing new or strange in the demand for tariff revision. The Dingley law was passed five years ago, and has lasted some months longer than the average of its predecessors. In the forty years preceding its enactment the customs duties were changed more or less radically nine times, to say nothing of petty changes. The low tariff of 1846, so modified in 1857 that it became the lowest in the history of the country, lasted until 1861. There were other changes in 1864, 1870, 1872, 1875 and 1883. Then in 1890 the McKinley bill became a law, to be displaced by the Wilson-Gorman tariff in 1894; and that in turn gave way to the Dingley act three years later.

The protection idea has been the dominant one in all these different tariffs save that of 1846 and that of 1894; and the 1894 tariff fell so far short of what the tariff reformers thought it should be that President Cleveland refused to sign it, and it became a law without his approval.

The current demand for revision comes from those protectionists who believe that the "tariff is the mother of trusts," and from those revenue reformers who think that the policy of protection should be abandoned. The movement is opposed by most of the protectionists, whose system is attacked, and by some conservatives who dread the evil effect of tariff agitation upon business.

All these people honestly desire the good of the country. They differ as to the way to bring it about. It is not in the province of The Companion to express an opinion upon such a matter of public policy. It merely notes the fact that a considerable body of voters is not satisfied with the existing law, and desires it changed. It remains to be seen whether they are numerous enough and can agree well enough among themselves as to what are desirable to bring about the revision.—Youth's Companion.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.
This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

Easily Pleas'd.

The man in search of a coachman looked coldly at the voluble and eager young Frenchman before him, and shook his head. "I don't wish another valet," he said. "I have one already; there would be nothing for you to do."

"But, monsieur," pleaded the young man, with outstretched hands, "if you could conceive how little it takes to occupy me!"

Luck In Thirteen.

By sending 13 miles Wm. Spirey of Walton Furnace, Vt., got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that wholly cured a horrible fever sore on his leg. Nothing else could. Positively cures bruises, felons, ulcers, eruptions, boils, burns, corns and piles. Only 25c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Often the Method of Treatment

An old negro preacher divided his sermon into two parts—first, all de things in the text, and, second, all de things not in de text, and, bredren, we'll wrestle wid de second part fust."

For a Bad Cold.

If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflammation of the throat and lungs. Sold by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

Useful Citizenship.

No man can hope to be a useful citizen in the broadest sense, in the United States, unless he takes a continuous and intelligent interest in politics, and a full share not only in the election, but also in the primary operations which determine the choice of candidates. For this every one has time enough, and, if he says that he has not, it is because he is indifferent when he ought to be intensely and constantly interested. If he follows public affairs from day to day and, thus informed, acts with his friends and those who think as he does at the caucus and the polls, he will make his influence fully felt and will meet completely the test of good citizenship. It is not essential to take office. For not doing so, the excuse of lack of time and the demands of more immediate private interest may be valid. But it would be well if every man could have, for a short period, at least, some experience in the actual work of government in his city, state or nation, even if he has no idea of following a political career. Such an experience does more to broaden a man's knowledge of the difficulties of public administration than anything else. It helps him to understand how he can practically attain that which he thinks is best for the state, and, most important of all, it enables him to act with other men and to judge justly those who are doing the work of public life.—Henry Cabot Lodge in Success.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Kellar, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by A. E. Howell, Socorro; W. M. Borrowdale, Magdalena.

Progress In Wet Process.

The wet process is becoming a strong competitor of fire methods, and one paper heralds it as the cause of the future downfall of the American Smelting and Refining Company. This seems altogether too strong an assertion, but the fact remains that every day the scope of the wet method is being extended and ores, heretofore considered as of smelting grade only, are now much more profitably treated by a leaching process. The present leaching agents are by no means unqualified successes, and in our opinion the true leaching agent has not yet been discovered. This may seem like an overdrawn statement judging from our present knowledge of the yellow metal, but it seems to us that if investigation were directed more toward the search for another solvent outside of chlorine, aqua regia and potassium cyanide, in place of new methods of application of these known ones, that more real progress would be accomplished in the end. Progress in the last few years along these lines has been so rapid that no desired result seems impossible, and it is very likely that some solvent exists which if only found might prove the truth of our contemporary's statement.—Mining Reporter.

The Pernicious Successful Man.

Mr. Bryan is opposed to the appointment of a tariff commission. Cheap money, free trade and the penitentiary for successful men are the cure-alls he would recommend for every social and political ill.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

BLIND-FOLD.

Blindfold a woman and she loses all confidence in herself. Her step is slow, hesitating and uncertain. Her hands are raised to ward the imaginary blows which threaten her. When a sick woman seeks the means of health she is often like a woman blindfold. She has no confidence. She cannot tell what her effort will lead to. She turns now to this side and then to the other in uncertainty and doubt. The sick woman who uses Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription may do so with absolute confidence. It invites open-eyed investigation. There need be no hesitation in following the hundreds of thousands of women who have found a perfect cure for womanly ills in the use of this medicine. "Favorite Prescription" cures irregularity and dries weakening drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. "With a heart full of gratitude to you for sending me over the box of your wonderful medicine I send these few lines, hoping that some poor suffering woman will try Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Cora L. Root, of Green Spring Farm, Washington Co., Maryland. "I had suffered severely from female weakness and had to be in bed a great deal of the time. Had headache, backache, and pain in left side when lying down. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and had not taken two bottles when I was able to be around again and do my work with but little pain. Can now eat anything and it never hurts me any more. Have taken seven bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and one of his Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and several vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets.' Feeling better every day. My husband says I look better every day." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

The St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad Co. is offering colonist half-fare-plus-$2.00 rates from and via St. Louis, Kansas City and Memphis to points in the southwest. The advent of colonist rates should prove an important factor in the development of the southwest, New Mexico included.

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.
J. S. GELCHER, St. Louis, Mo.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

Remarkable Chinese Custom.

In China it is nothing out of the way for a criminal under sentence of death to secure, at a price, a substitute to die for him at the hands of the executioner. Money, of course, comes mainly into play, the price going to the substitute's relations. A remarkable case of substitution is reported from Foo Chow. The particulars to hand show that, when a certain childless criminal there was adjudged to death, his family met to see what should be done. The superstition of the land ran counter to a man dying without leaving a son, at least, to worship him after death. The criminal had a brother who had so many sons that he had no fear of being left without worshipers. The family decided to put him in as a substitute for the childless one, so that the latter could live on to get a son. The military mandarin concerned was bought over, the criminal was set free and his guiltless brother's head was cut off. The family, the mandarin and the public were satisfied. But the mandarin's superiors did not see it in that light, and informed the prefect at the city. He ordered the mandarin to be scourged like a common coolie.—New York Tribune.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year. They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50 cts all druggists.

Exit Jim Younger.

The suicide of Jim Younger at St. Paul befitted a career which was intensely melodramatic. It seemed to come as an appropriate termination of a life which was stained by crime and darkened with disgrace. It would be scarcely in accord with the unities which pervade lawless as well as tranquil lives for a man like Jim Younger to die peacefully in his nest. When the fateful horseshoe was cast which made him an outlaw and an enemy of society it was then seemingly ordained that he should in the end perish by his own hand. More inevitable than anything else in this world are the sequences of crime. Nathaniel Hawthorne drew no exceptional pic-tare when he immortalized in "The Scarlet Letter" the hard and relentless penalty of transgression in the pitiful character of Hester Prynne. There is an illustration of inflexible cruelty in the utter inability of that repentant woman to escape from the consequences of her sin. Turn where she might the way was blocked to her feet. With all the hope and joy which life offered to others there was none for her. It is so in real life. There is no true emancipation for the man who lifts his hand against society and who is branded with the mark of guilt by the decree of the law.—Kansas City Star.

Spot Appropriate to Speech.

"Ah, darling," he exclaimed, "as we sit together under the spreading branches of this noble tree I do declare on my honor that you are the only girl I have ever loved."

We may be a little particular in these matters, but we should prefer a white one.

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the stomach, kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected.

S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. The Bite of the Tarantula.

George H. Hillyer of West Superior, Minn., one of the best-known gold-mining experts in the country, has exploded the theory that tarantula bites must be either fatal or seriously inconvenient. He was bitten more than a dozen times on a recent tour of inspection in southern Arizona. Nearly every mine shaft in that part of the country is infested with tarantulas. The white miners wear gloves to protect themselves from the venomous spiders. Mr. Hillyer knew nothing of this and went into the Big Hill mine unprotected. Before he came out he had seen thousands of tarantulas and captured a dozen of the largest. He was bitten repeatedly, and yet not even inconvenienced. The secret of Mr. Hillyer's immunity, according to his own theory, is the fact that he had taken more than thirty grains of quinine within the twenty-four hours preceding the visit to the mine. The big tarantula that Mr. Hillyer keeps in a cigar box at the West hotel, Minneapolis, is a good deal of a pet. It has a special fondness for secreting itself while its owner is en tour in the deepest recesses of his breast pocket, whence it is dragged forth, wriggling and protesting, for the inspection of any one believing in the deadly poison of the tarantula bite.—New York Tribune.

A PECULIARLY SAD DEATH.

Mrs. A. H. Lindsay Leaves a Husband and Three Small Children to Mourn Her Loss.

Rev. and Mrs. Alexander H. Lindsay of Flemingsburg, Kentucky, arrived in Socorro about six weeks ago expecting to remain here indefinitely if the climate should prove to be beneficial to Mrs. Lindsay's health. Only about three months ago the lady became afflicted with that dread disease consumption. The family almost immediately went to Arizona for the benefits that might be derived from the climate there but it was soon found that still another change was necessary and the family came to Socorro. The patient seemed to improve somewhat after her arrival here and only the day before her death it was remarked that she seemed to be doing well. But on Sunday morning the end came so peacefully, so quietly, and so unexpectedly that a lady sitting in the room thought for some time that Mrs. Lindsay was only sleeping.

Sarah W. Grant, Mrs. Lindsay's maiden name, was born in Fayette county, Kentucky, August 16, 1873. She graduated at the Frankfort High School with the highest honors ever attained at that institution and was afterwards Professor of Mathematics in the same institution. January 2, 1895, she was married to the husband who now mourns her loss. Three children were born of the union, the youngest being now only a few months old. Immediately after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay entered the Presbyterian missionary field in the mountains of eastern Kentucky. Mr. Lindsay afterwards was appointed to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of Flemingsburg, Kentucky, a position he still holds. During their short stay in Socorro Mrs. Lindsay impressed all with whom she came in contact by her intelligent and gentle Christian character and Mr. Lindsay, who several times conducted services at the local Presbyterian church, never failed to impress his hearers by the earnestness and eloquence of his plea for the sacred cause he advocated.

Brief but impressive funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Terry on Fischer avenue. There was a large attendance of the citizens of Socorro. The casket was laden with wreaths of flowers, the sweet offerings of kind and sympathizing hearts. Rev. Mattheson paid a brief and earnest tribute to the unusual intellectual and moral excellence of the departed. Sunday night the family left Socorro to accompany the remains of wife and mother to the home in Kentucky, taking with them the kindly interest, sympathy, and good wishes of all who knew them and many who did not know them personally in Socorro.

PEOPLE'S MARKET

FINE NATIVE BEEF AT LAST WINTER'S PRICES.

A. S. Potter, Prop'r.

Mrs. A. D. Coon and mother, Mrs. Rose, arranged a delightful surprise party for Miss Gladys on the occasion of her 13th birthday last Saturday. Those who accepted the invitation to be present and help Miss Gladys celebrate were Cecil and Lolita Alexander, Bertha and Edith Kutner, Beatrice Sleight, Ivy Spurling, and Edna Hammel. Miss Gladys returned the compliment by preparing a similar surprise for her father, A. D. Coon, Monday evening on the occasion of his 57th birthday. She invited in several of her father's friends to spend the evening at high-five. Those present were H. M. Dougherty, John Greenwald, W. G. Hammel, Homer Hill, Jos. E. Smith, Silas Alexander, and Dr. L. E. Kittrell. Needless to say both occasions were greatly enjoyed.

A full line of fall and winter goods has just been received at Price Bros. & Co. The goods are up to the high standard maintained so long by this popular firm and the prices are such as to make it an object to old customers and new to call. Everybody knows that the firm is altogether reliable.
