Gov. O. A. Larrazolo Favors Plan For National Budget

New York, Oct. 26. Governor O. A. Larrazolo, of New Mexico, has joined with thirty-nine other governors in endorsing the campaign of the national budget committee to secure a more responsible administration of national financial affairs. The committee is advocating the adoption by congress of an executive budget system as a medium of efficiency and economy in the federal government.

In a statement prepared for the committee, Governor Larrazolo says in part:

"We the budget system in New Mexico at the present time. In my opinion that system of making provision for the necessary expenditures in the conduct of any government, state or national, is so evidently proper and correct, that I fail to understand why any opposition to it should come from any source, or from the people who make any pretensions to having any business or financial ability.

"The appropriation of moneys for the conduct of the various departments of the government, be it state or national, made more or less at random, without any regard to revenues, and with scanty or no knowledge whatever of what the actual needs of such departments are, as has been the practice in the past, seems to be very unwise indeed and a direct encouragement to extravagance and waste."

The national budget committee is furthering its campaign through the establishment of Forthrightly Budget clubs throughout the country. A drive to organize 10,000 such clubs by the first of the year was recently opened in New York city. The clubs will serve as public forums for the discussion and analysis of national problems. Their purpose is to promote better citizen ship.

Organizations are also being placed in every state of the Union. Ten state chairmen have been selected to date and representatives of all national interests will work with the committee in its effort to create a public demand for the adoption by congress of a genuine budget system.

Since the committee opened its campaign several months ago, the movement has progressed rapidly. The house of representatives is now taking active consideration of a bill drawn up by the house select committee on the budget. This committee was appointed following the introduction of several bills and resolutions aimed at the incorporation of the system in the government.

A select committee has been appointed by the senate with Medill McCormick, of Illinois, as chairman. Hearings by the senate committee have been postponed until disposition has been made of the peace treaty.

BILIOUSNESS Caused by Acid-Stomach

Indigestion, heartburn, belching, sour stomach, bloating and gas are other signs of acid stomach. EATONIC, the marvelous modern stomach remedy, brings quick relief from these stomach ailments which lead to a long train of ailments that make life miserable if not corrected.

EATONIC literally absorbs and carries away the excess acid. Makes the stomach strong, cool and comfortable. Helps digestion, improves the appetite and you then get full strength from your food. To Acquire Greatness.

The best guarantee to greatness is an intense interest in a great program. Then it is that the fellow becomes so full of the job that he hasn't time to think about whether he's great or not. He sees the thing to be done and becomes so full of how to do it that he bristles without knowing that he's becoming great in the eyes of the world. So the best thing is to be filled with your job and work it until it gets the fruits.

It isn't age, it's careless living that puts men "down and out." Keep your internal organs in good condition and you will always be physically fit.

One of the first warnings of sluggish kidney action is pain or stiffness in the small of the back, loss of appetite, indigestion or rheumatism.

Do not wait until the danger is upon you. At the first indication of trouble get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules, imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They will give almost immediate relief. If for any cause they should not, your money will be refunded. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. None other is genuine. In sealed boxes, three sizes.—Adv.

"Yes," was the answer. "I was there."

"And did you see my imitation of you, Mr. Goodwin?" continued the young man.

"Yes, I saw it," came the reply.

"And," persisted the aspiring youth, "may I ask you to give me your verdict on the excellence and fidelity of my art as disclosed in the impersonation of yourself?"

"Well," said Mr. Goodwin, "one of us is rotten."—Everybody's Magazine.

"FIDDLE-FIT" Keep Liver and Bowels Clean and Active with "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will have you feeling clear, rosy and as fit as a fiddle by morning. They work while you sleep.—Adv.

RUSSIANS HIT BY FAMINES

Shortages of Food Date From 1600—8,000,000 Persons Reduced to Starvation in Famine of 1911.

Next to the proletariat of India and China, the Russian peasant feels the pinch of poverty and hunger more keenly and more frequently than any other, says the National Geographic Society. One of the earliest Russian famines on record was that of 1600, with a death toll of 500,000 peasants. Cats, dogs and rats were eaten, and even the strong overcame the weak. Human flesh was sold in the markets. Three Russian famines of recent date were among the most severe in history—in 1891, 1906 and 1911. During the ten years following the first of these, the government allotted nearly $125,000,000 for relief, but the sums were not always judiciously expended. In 1906 the government gave 40 pounds of flour a month to all persons under eighteen years old and over fifty-nine. Those between these ages received no allowance, and the older and younger shared their pittance with the others.

The famine of 1911 extended over one-third the area of Europe and affected 30,000,000 persons, while 8,000,000 were reduced to starvation. Weeds, the bark of trees, and bitter bread made of acorns, constituted the chief diet.

NERVES GAVE OUT

Serious Kidney Trouble Had Made Life Miserable, But Doan's Removed All the Trouble. Hasn't Suffered Since.

"I had such severe pains in my back," says Mrs. Albert Akroyd, 304 W. Indiana Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., "that they almost doubled me up. Many a day I could not do my housework and at every move it seemed as if my back would break in two. My feet and ankles swelled until I had to wear large-sized slippers and sometimes I couldn't stand up."

Mrs. Akroyd

"I had dizzy spells and dreadful headaches and fiery flashes passed before my eyes. Had a heavy weight been resting on my head, the pain could not have been more distressing. The least noise startled me. I was so nervous, I couldn't control the kidney secretions and the pain in passage was awful."

"It began to look as though my case was beyond the reach of medicine until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box benefited me and four boxes cured all the troubles. I have had no further cause for complaint."

Emeralds ranked with rubies and sapphires as the most costly gems of the ancient world. Then diamonds were worn in a rough state. ## MAN-MADE SUITS

Garments Modeled by Male Tailors in Greater Demand.

Work Regarded Superior to That of Women, Due to Certain Knack for the Work.

"This costume is the style you want, madame, but it is considerably more expensive than the one at which you have been looking," said an assistant at a big shop. "Oh, yes, the material is the same, but the cut of it is much better, and it is man-tailored throughout."

It sounded as if the last part of the sentence ought to be sufficient to explain everything, and there is no getting away from the fact that garments which are "man-tailored" have a great superiority in appearance over women's tailoring work—and, of course, are much more expensive.

It is not a matter of sex prejudice or imagination, for there are few trades which are so fully open to women as various branches of tailoring. Rather is the superiority due to the greater physical strength of men and a certain knack for the work which is natural to some men.

"Tailoring is not exactly a trade which anybody can learn," was the opinion of a leading tailor. "High-class tailoring is a real art, and some men are born for it in the same way that others are born to paint great pictures. Very often the tailor's gift is hereditary from father to son."

"There are three main reasons why women tailors are inferior to men in the work which they turn out. Women have not sufficient physical strength to do the heavy pressing which makes or mars a garment; they cannot approach men where 'cutting' is concerned, and the general finish of women's work is not so good as that of men—in total effect rather than detail."

"Until comparatively recent years tailoring was purely a man's trade, but now there are scores of women engaged upon it. The bulk of wholesale work, consisting of average price men's suits and women's costumes, is done by women, so far as the actual making is concerned. The cutting of such garments is usually done by machine."

"Certainly the superiority of the 'man-tailored' suit or costume is not a fallacy. Women can do excellent work, but they are not such good tailors as men in the results they achieve. Their work is less definite. Moreover, it is a certainty that if you took a tailoring expert into a mixed crowd of men and women he would unerringly select which garments had been 'man-tailored' and which were women's work."

FALL MOTOR COATS OF LINEN
Natural Colored Material Best for Traveling—Does Not Show Dust and Soil Marks.
With the return of linen to sartorial uses, very smart linen tailored wear of all sorts is appearing. Especially good looking are some well cut linen motor coats for fall wear.
When one goes somewhere by automobile on a dusty day one of these light dustcoats will be far more comfortable over a dainty frock than the new motor coat, which will almost certainly prove warm on such a day.
Linen coats are shown also for autumn traveling and their smart style attracts women of fastidious taste. And the fresh, indescribable smell of them makes one recall long past childhood days when one started somewhere on a journey and wore one's new linen duster. A coat of genuine linen will not crumple up and look

FASHIONGRAMS
Mouffon sport hats are popular. Many of them are lined with velvet.
Kollinsky and caracul lead in furs this year. Squirrel and mole come a close second.
Dragonfly blue is a color that is seen much in combination with the new fall colors.
A remarkable gown recently displayed was a black satin, embroidered in peacock shade.
Metals are stressed by every one—be they metals in cloth, brocades, net, lace or embroidery.
A duvetyrn coat features green, red and orange yarn embroidery. The coat itself was of cordovan color.
A smart blouse which recently had an awe-struck audience about its place of display was a terra cotta satin one cut above the hips back and front with long panels to the knees at the sides.
There are many departures from the smart casaque overblouse. One of the newest and most attractive is a blouse which extends long waisted below a girdle and has a bouffancy at the hips either of lace or of gathered fabric.
Old Kid Gloves.
You can cut up old kid gloves and use them for any of the following purposes: Doll or baby shoes, pillow covers, little traveling case articles or novelty belts.

To Make Nightdress Sachet
Contrivance on the Same Lines May Be Made for Handkerchiefs and Gloves.
This dainty nightdress sachet is a novel style, and can quite easily be carried out from our illustration. It is made of soft white silk, and edged with a pale pink silk cord, which is arranged in two little loops at each corner. The opening is at the top and ties together with pale pink ribbon strings. In the center in front there is an oval ruche of pale pink silk, with a piping upon each side, and pinked out at the edges.

Diagram A of the illustration shows the way in which the silk should be prepared, and it is sewn in its place after the manner of applique work. Within the oval a pretty little floral design is embroidered in various shades of pale green. Diagram B gives the way in which the material should be marked out prior to working the design. When this has been done the leaves can be easily added.

The case is lined with thin soft white silk, and has an interlining composed of sheets of cotton-wool, cut to fit and well sprinkled with some sweet-smelling sachet powder.
A pretty handkerchief sachet, or one for gloves can be made on exactly the same lines, but of course in a different shape and size, and possibly in less delicate colors.
The New Color for Fall.
Falsan is the new color, selected by Paris dressmakers, as the most modish one for suits and coats this fall. It is a warm, reddish brown that is neither henna nor castor, but closely resembles the brown of pheasants' feathers. Suits are being made in this hue, trimmed with collar and cuffs of soft brown fur or fur fabric, which blends unusually well with this particular shade.
For Moving Day.
Prevent the cartmen from putting everything in the wrong room by using different colored tags. Tack up a big red tag in your guest room, for instance, and put red tags on all the furniture that is to go in it. Use blue in another room, green in a third, etc.

soggy in rainy weather; it is cool on a hot day and gives considerable warmth on a damp, chilly day. The natural linen color is best for motor-ing and traveling since this color does not show traces of dust and seems to be immune from soil marks.

PROPOSE EXILE FOR RADICALS

BILL IN UPPER HOUSE AIMS TO STAMP OUT ALL ANARCHISTS IN UNITED STATES.

BILL IS STRINGENT

WOULD DEPORT ALL WHO DID NOT BECOME AMERICANS IN FIVE YEARS.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Washington, Oct. 25.—A bill aimed at stamping out every vestige of radical agitation in the United States has been introduced by Senator McKellar of Tennessee.

The bill provides that anyone even peaceably advocating overthrow of any government and persons associating either publicly or privately with such advocates shall be fined at least $5,000 or imprisoned from one to ten years. A jury may order such persons deported to a portion of the Philippine islands set off for this purpose.

The bill includes "every person of the United States who directly or indirectly commences or carries on any verbal, written or printed intercourse or correspondence with any other person or persons, whether citizens or aliens, with the intent, either peaceably or by violence, to overthrow the government of the United States or to disintegrate or do away with all government, or who joins any organization having this purpose, or who directly or indirectly, publicly or privately, associates himself or herself with any other person or persons having any such purpose."

Such persons will be held as "adhering to the enemies of the United States, giving them aid and comfort." McKellar also introduced a new Americanization bill similar to his former bill to deport aliens who do not become Americanized within five years after arrival in this country and requiring employers to provide educational facilities or pay for time of employes while attending school.

SIAM'S ROYAL ELEPHANT HUNT

King's Order for Round-Up Is Signal for Outpouring of Natives to See Big Show.

When a king of Siam finds that the stock of tame elephants in the government stables is getting low, he sends out an edict that a royal elephant hunt will take place. This order is received joyfully throughout Siam, for a royal elephant hunt is enough of a spectacle to induce people from all over Siam to come to Ayuthia, where the animals are to be brought when captured.

Days, sometimes weeks, are required to locate and surround the herds to be captured. Then they are skilfully driven in the direction of Ayuthia. So slowly do the great beasts travel that four or five miles is sometimes the daily rate of advance. When Ayuthia is reached the herd is driven into a corral, which is a large walled-in court, and here it is kept until the desirable beasts are selected. The rest are then allowed to wander back to their jungle home.

The taming of the animals retained takes several days and is the climax to the spectacle. Crowds gather to hear the untamed elephants trumpet their anger at being caught and to watch their clumsy struggle against mastery by the native trainers.—Detroit News.

Government in Touch With Oil Industry

The close contact of the U. S. Geological Survey of the Department of the Interior with the economic situation in the United States and its recognition of the need for the discovery of new oil fields in the immediate future is shown by the emphasis placed on geologic field investigations aimed at the discovery of new oil and gas reserves. Of the 14 papers or short reports published in the annual volume of Contributions to Economic Geology, 1918, Part II, Mineral Fuels (Bulletin 691), 11 relate to the possibilities of discovering new oil fields or of developing oil shales, whereas 3 are concerned with descriptions of coal fields. Three of the papers describe regions of favorable structure, with oil and gas possibilities, in Montana, one in North Dakota, two in California, one in Oklahoma, one in Arkansas, and one in portions of the Central Great Plains of Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico, and Kan.

Advance editions of these papers, distributed separately, were issued promptly as printed in order to place the information as soon as possible in the possession of the oil companies. The complete volume may now be obtained by addressing the Director of the U. S. Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.

Scope Of The Fourteenth Census Extended

Washington, Nov. 2.—That the Fourteenth Decennial Census, on which the actual enumeration work will begin January 2, 1920, is to be the most important ever taken is shown by the fact that the Act of Congress providing for this census expressly increased the scope of the inquiries so as to include forestry and forest products, two subjects never covered specifically by any preceding census act. The inquiries to be made relating to population, manufactures, mines, quarries and agriculture were also extended in their scope by Congress, the keenest interest over the forthcoming census having been shown by the members of the census committees of both the House and Senate while the law was under consideration.

The statistics gathered on mining will include all oil and gas wells. Many startling developments in this important branch of the Nation's resources are looked for by census officials. The figures gathered in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas will no doubt prove to be those most eagerly sought for, as shown by inquiries already received by the Census Bureau.

The compilation and gathering of forestry and forest products statistics will be in charge of a special force of experts. The accurate and comprehensive figures gathered concerning this vital natural resource will be much in demand, and the comparison made with conditions existing before the war will be of great interest.

Agricultural statistics will likewise be the subject of special effort on the part of the Census Bureau as the importance of farming is being realized by the average citizen far more than ever before.

Bureau Of Public Health Education

Albuquerque, N. M. October 27, 1919. The regulations recently passed by the State Board of Health for the registration of births and deaths, and the disposal of the dead, are now in effect. Blank forms and instructions have been placed in the hands of the local health officers, from who they may be obtained by the Public.

The salient points of the regulations are as follows:

DEATHS. From now on, no dead body shall be buried or otherwise disposed of unless a permit therefor has been issued by the local health officer or his representative.

To obtain this permit, a death certificate must first be filed with the local health officer by the undertaker or person in charge of the body, which certificate must be made upon the form supplied by the State Commissioner of Health through the local health officers, and must give all the facts as to the death, the cause of death being stated by the attending physician, if there was one, and if not, by the health officer, justice of the peace or other proper official acting as a coroner.

BIRTHS. Births must be registered with the local health officer or his representative within ten days by the physician, or midwife, and if there be neither, then by the parent, upon the form supplied by the State Commissioner of Health through the local health officer.

Stillbirths must be registered both as births and as death, and burial permits must be obtained.

The local health officer must make and retain a copy of each birth and death certificate, and on the tenth of each month must forward all original birth and death certificates to the State Commissioner of Health, who will permanently bind, index and preserve those records. The permanent local record will be filed with the city or county clerk.

RED CROSS GIVES FULL ACCOUNTING

War Council Tells How Millions Contributed by Public Were Used For Relief.

BIG TASK IS DESCRIBED

In Twenty Months $154,000,000 Was Spent Overseas and $119,000,000 in the United States.

Washington (Special).—Through a complete report of the work of the American Red Cross in the war by Chairman Henry P. Davison, on behalf of the war council, the organization on the eve of its annual enrollment of members during the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11, has rendered an accounting of the many millions given it by the American people to help our fighting men and our allies. The statement is, in part, as follows:

"The war council of the American Red Cross is now prepared to make a complete accounting to the American people of money contributed and expended, as well as the work done by the American Red Cross during the period in which the war council was in control of its affairs. The war council was appointed May 13, 1919, and went out of existence February 23, 1919.

"It was the practice of the war council to give complete publicity to its policies and finances, but it is only now that a picture of the war period as a whole can be presented. It is the feeling of the war council that a report in this summarized form should be made directly to the public which provided the money and gave the effort which made the American Red Cross a success.

"A statement of the American Red Cross effort and finances since the war council relinquished its control all be made to the public through the executive committee, and it is important, therefore, that the fact that this report covers the period only until March 1, should be carefully noted."
