WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24. The House committee of Ways and Means agreed to report favorably by a vote of seven to two on the administravoting for, and republicans against it.
The house committee on public lands vill report favorably a bill forfeiting uch portions of the lands granted the Southern Pacific railroad company in California as lie along the part of the road completed since July, '78. About .500,000 acres are involved.

Ouray, from the committee on Indian ffairs, reported a resolution calling upon the secretary of the interior for information relating to claims of certain persons to portions of the land of the Zuni Indians, in New Mexico and Arizona. Adopted. The house then resumed the consider tion of unfinished business, namely The bill repealing the preemption timber culture and desert land laws and amending the homestead law. Holman offered an amendmet, proriding that hereafter no public ands adapted to agriculture shall be

Maxey said the intention of the majority evidently was to kin the bill by putting on an amendment that would ren-der it impossible for the early friends of the bill to vote for it. Williams said he could not support the bill, for as it now stood it was an insult to old Mexican veterans. The bill was now as dead as a door nail. Williams had supposed f a brave and honest man ever existed on the face of the earth—a man not efraid of man or devil, it was the senafrom Illinois, the candidate of the publican party for vice president of republic, but even that senator had shrunk back and been driven from his ense of duty. "Oh," said Williams, "shades of Sumner, Morton, Stevens

The action on this bill was a disgrace to the nation. Wilson defended the amendment to The bill as amended, he said. aye us a complete system that provi-

ed for union soldiers as well as Mexican soldier and that was waat we meant to have. Morgan said the present object, of ourse, was a political one to press the emocrats to the wall; to attempt to prove that they were epposed to penoning union soldiers, while the fact was that they were not satisfied. It was the deliberate judgment of northern people that such pension should now be paid. At 3 o'clock the debate closed. Voting upon amendments then began. The amendment was agreed to providng that no person shall be entitled to nore than one pension at one time un-ler the laws of the United States, unless that fact be specially stated in the law. The bill then passed; yeas 37, nays 27.

What Logan Already Knew. Washington, June 24 - Chairman lienderson, and the members of the committee charged by the national re-publican convention with the duty of rmally notifying the candidates for sident and vice president of their mination, met at noon and proceeded to the residence of General Logan, and were ushered in a large parlor. The gen-eral stood in the middle room, with Mrs. Logan at his right hand; they were situated 20 hundred feet from the Union introduced to the committee. Chair-

> The Marriage of a Poetess. The marriage of Miss Ella Wheeler has given the witlings something to write about, and we may expect to see a good deal of coarse humor printed about an event which it seems to us should be treated with that delicacy with which respectable people are in a habit of discussing affairs to which a lady is a party. The fact that Miss Wheeler is the author of considerable

Is Life Growing Longer?

To be told that under proper conditions we ought to live one hundred years, and that the discouraging doctrine of the influence of heredity in shortening life is only true in a limited ommisssion from the governor of sense, is interesting to most people. So, also, is the circumstance that we are living longer than we used to live, and the assurance that much may be done yet to prolong our lives.
