BRYAN'S IN CHICAGO

Democratic Nominee is Wildly Received by Big Audiences Packed Like Sardines.

A MUNICIPAL CIRCULAR

A Pittsburg Young Lady Fatally Burned, but Saves Her Brother and Sister.

GEORGIA'S LEGISLATURE

CHICAGO, Ill., October 28.—The second day of Wm. J. Bryan's fight for Cook county began at 10 o'clock this morning by an address delivered to a large crowd of women in St. Stanislaus' hall. The gathering was composed of female residents of the neighborhood populated with Poles, Danes, Swedes, Germans and women of other nationalities. Mr. Bryan made them a short speech about the relation the female part of the household had to the money question, and then went away to address a noon-day meeting at Battery D. Armory, on Lake front. Before the time set for the appearance of the democratic nominee, the building was packed with expectant and perspiring humanity, while great crowds outside clamored for admittance. The meeting was intended for business men and a ticket was necessary to obtain an entrance. Gen. C. P. Howard, formerly a republican, brother of Gen. O. O. Howard, of the U. S. A., presided.

J. H. Hughson was assigned to present General Howard to the assembly, but his speech was stopped in the bud. "I have the honor," he said, "of introducing to you as your chairman, a gentleman who has been in business in this city for the past twenty-eight years." He did not get any farther. A clear-shaven young man, with a brown felt hat, jammed on his head, came on the stage from the wings and a great shout went up from the audience. The democratic national nominee had been recognized instantly. He took off his overcoat, as the cheering went on, and bowed slightly in acknowledgment of the warm greeting given, and then sat down.

Gen. Howard made a little speech, before presenting the candidate. "Mr. Bryan asks one question," he said. "Are these all democratic men?" "Yes!" came in a chorus from the audience, intermingled with shouts of "and working men." "I told him they were business men, according to his definition," Gen. Howard went on. The crowd understood the reference, even before Gen. Howard told them what the candidate had said about farmers, laborers and miners being as much business men as those who sit in bank offices and cornered the money of the world.

When Gen. Howard concluded his remarks, there was another tremendous uproar. Bryan had jumped onto a chair to quell the noise by raising his hand. Quiet was finally restored and he began a speech which lasted an hour.

THREE EGGS AT BRYAN. CHICAGO, Illinois, October 28.—Two young men, Chauncey C. Foster and Lewis Hanchett, by name, were arrested at noon, to-day, for throwing eggs at Mr. Bryan during his ride from the train to Battery D, yesterday. They admit their guilt. Foster is seventeen years of age and the son of a retired merchant; Hanchett is the same age. His father is vice-president of the Hanchett Paper Co. The boys were locked up, pending further investigation.

Methodist Bishops. PITTSBURG, Pa., October 28.—The semi-annual meeting of the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church began in this city, this morning. The business to be covered is practically routine in its nature. There are seventeen bishops in attendance.

Fatally Burned. PITTSBURG, Pa., October 28.—Bessie Osborne, aged fourteen years, was fatally burned, early this morning, by an explosion of natural gas in their house, which was badly wrecked. The young lady was terribly burned, but managed to get her brother and sister unharmed out of the building before she became unconscious.

A Conspiracy Discovered. MADRID, October 28.—An official cablegram, received from Manila, the capital of the Philippine Islands, to-day, says that a conspiracy against the government has been discovered in the Sooloo Islands. Eight Spanish soldiers have been shot in a conflict with the revolutionists' troops, who had been sent there by the governor of the Philippines.

Georgia's General Assembly. ATLANTA, Ga., October 28.—Senator Dunwood Brunswick has withdrawn from the race for president of the senate and R. L. Berner has been nominated by caucus for that office. R. M. Jenkins was nominated by the democratic caucus for speaker of the house. He had no opposition. The general assembly opened to-day.

OTHER OFFICERS. ATLANTA, Georgia, October 28.—The Georgia legislature met, this morning, and was immediately organized. There is no contest for any of the offices, all having been settled by caucus. C. G. Gray was elected president pro tem; W. A. Dodson, speaker pro tem; and Mar Hardin, clerk. No business was done beyond the formal organization. The legislature has before it a hot contest for the United States senatorship, precipitated by the sudden death of Mr. Crisp, who would have been unanimously chosen. Five candidates are in the field, including Governor Atkinson.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

A Circular of Twelve Questions Mailed to Different Organizations.

MADISON, Wis., October 28.—If the School of economics, political science and history of the University of Wisconsin should see fit to make public the answers to a circular which some time ago it addressed to boards of trade, reform and civic organizations throughout the country, the result is likely to be one of the most sensational documents on municipal government that has been issued from the press for a long time. The interrogatories in the circular in question number twelve, and four of the number ask for information of a decidedly remarkable character.

Some of the organizations concerned have replied "according to the light which they have." Others again have ignored the circular; still others have politely asked to be excused from putting themselves on record. These are the interrogatories which here and there over the country have tickled up a stir:

"Has the general character and fitness of the members of your city councils been as high as that of your chief city officers, heads of department and mayors?"

"In your opinion, what per cent. of the members of your past councils has been unfit for public office, judging from the standpoint of business experience, education, character or other requisite qualifications?"

"Kindly mention some specific instances of corruption or bribery among your past aldermen or mayors."

"Kindly mention some specific instances of abuse of the franchise-granting power of your councils."

THE HOUSEKEEPERS. Some Timely Topics Discussed in Annual Convention.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., October 28.—Some fifty women from different parts of the country gathered in the hall of the Athenaeum, this morning, when Elizabeth Boynton Harbert, of Evanston, Ill., called to order the fourth annual convention of the national household economic association. The morning session was devoted to a resume of the work of the organization.

In her annual address, Mrs. Harbert pointed out a large increase of late years in the number of schools of domestic science established in this country; emphasized the distinction between "domestic science" and "domestic training," or the teaching of domestic servants, and commented upon the fact that the schools of domestic science were not patronized as they ought to have been, owing primarily to a lack of understanding of the opportunities offered. Another cause of this lack of interest was, she stated, the failure of hospitals, sanitariums, homes and similar institutions to recognize the value of trained ability. At the present time, the majority of such institutions paid to their matrons wages scarcely more than those of their servants.

PHI GAMMA DELTA. An Old Greek Letter Society Meeting in Annual Convention.

CHICAGO, Illinois, October 28.—Behind closed doors at the Auditorium annex, was called to order this afternoon the forty-eighth annual convention of the Phi Gamma Delta, one of the oldest Greek letter societies in the United States. Delegates were present representing Yale, Amherst, Union, Trinity, Columbia, Cornell, Lafayette, Lehigh, Wooster, Wabash, Knox, Madison, Jefferson and Lee, the universities of Pennsylvania, Minnesota and Berkeley, Va.

Prominent among the delegates were Bishop W. E. McLaren, General Law Wallace, Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks, Professor John Clark Rappah and Hon. B. F. Ray, the oldest living member of the fraternity, and one of its organizers, forty-eight years of age. The address of welcome was delivered by Charles Hugh Stevenson, and the transaction of business was then proceeded with in secret session.

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., October 28.—Adolphus Cohen alias Cohen was, to-day, arrested on the charge of embezzling funds from an Italian banking institution in New York, which was conducted by Cohen and Leonard Morelli, and taken to New York for trial. It is alleged that Cohen decamped, December 24th, 1894, with $100,000, which caused the downfall of a number of small banks.

Hold Up by Robbers. PELHAM MANOR, N. Y., October 28.—While Joseph H. Bartine, a wealthy New York stationer, was being driven from the railway station to his country home, last evening, in company with his daughter, the party was held up by three masked men. In the struggle, Bartine was seriously shot. One of his horses was killed, but the coachman and Miss Bertine were not hurt. The robbers escaped.

An Anniversary. BERLIN, Germany, October 28.—In celebration of the fact that to-day is the 100th anniversary of the establishment of a United States consulate at Bremen, the present consul, Mr. George Keenan, gave a banquet at that place, to-day. This would make battleships No. 7, building at Newport News, the "Alabama"; No. 8, at Cramp, in Philadelphia, the "Illinois"; and No. 9, at the Union Iron works, San Francisco, the "Wisconsin." Gunboats No. 10, at Nixon, Elizabethport, N. J., the "Annapolis"; No. 11, at Bath, Maine, "Marietta"; No. 12, at same place, "Newport"; No. 13, at Dialogues, Camden, N. WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 28, 1896.

THEY WHO WOULD BE FREE.

No reform, moral or intellectual, ever came from the upper class of society. Each and all came from the protest of martyr and victim. The emancipation of the working people must be achieved by the working people themselves.—Wendell Phillips.

DEMONETIZATION JUST THAT.

If the government contracted a debt, with a certain amount of money in circulation, and then contracted the money volume, before the debt was paid, it is the most heinous crime that a government could commit against the people.—Abraham Lincoln.

VALENCIA county's republican ticket has not an Anglo-American on it.

In one year, twelve London banks paid 20 per cent. dividends. As gold increases in value, these profits increase.

THERE is a republican candidate for a county office over in Santa Fe that went by another name, back in "the states."

This time has come for the people to vote their honest convictions for free silver, or surrender their dearest rights and interests to gold-bond syndicates.

The Irish World, the great New York paper which supported Blaine, has left the republican party and declared for Bryan and Sewall and free silver.

EDITOR HUGHES, of the Albuquerque Citizen, is a substituted candidate for the legislative council, on the republican ticket; and Editor Burke, of the Albuquerque Democrat, was nominated on the people's ticket, down there, for school superintendent.

It is said that two of the republican candidates for county commissioners are unable to read and write.

With them and J. A. Carruth to constitute the county board, what could be expected but extravagance run to riot? But, then, it is unnecessary to dwell upon the picture. Such an absurdity will never happen.

CARLOS GABALDON and Patricio Gonzales are candidates for re-election to the office of collector and county clerk, respectively.

They have made as good officials as San Miguel county ever knew, and they deserve each another term. Their respective records have been kept in excellent condition, while the public has ever found them pleasant, pain-taking and polite. There is no doubt that their majorities will be much larger even than they were before.

A CAMPAIGN LIE NAILED.

The Albuquerque Citizen's authority for the statement that the democratic campaign committee have not originated anything new on Catron. This may be because the democrats are conducting a campaign void of personalities, or because Catron has already exhausted the category of evil deeds.

Whatever the reason, the same thing cannot be said of the republicans. They have exhausted their ability in inventing lies about H. B. Ferguson; while the absurdity of the lies to which they have been compelled to resort, only shows the superiority of the man they are attempting to traduce.

The Citizen itself has not been backward in this matter, greedily backing while more fertile imaginations have invented. As illustration, we cite the railroad lie, which first saw light in the San Marcial Bee, and was afterwards copied into the Citizen. This lie is to the effect that in the A. R. U. strike of 1894, Mr. Ferguson received a fee of $2,500 for prosecuting the men, and turned the prosecution into persecution.

As the men prosecuted were citizens of Albuquerque, it is significant that the Citizen, of that town, did not originate the yarn, but copied it from a paper published at quite a distance from the scene. No doubt this was because the Citizen knew that Mr. Ferguson did not prosecute the cases at all. He was special United States attorney, at the time, having been appointed to prosecute S. M. Folsom, the bank-wrecker. United States Attorney Hemingway was in Las Vegas, and could not get to Albuquerque because the trains had been stopped. In this condition of affairs, Mr. Ferguson received a telegram from Attorney General Olney directing him to represent the government in such cases as might come up. Under these instructions, he did represent the government in the case of Engineer Wagg, signing certain papers in that proceeding. But with that his duties ceased. He did not prosecute the case at all; and so far from persecuting Wagg, he endeavored to have his sentence changed from imprisonment to a fine, and was ready to pay the fine out of his own pocket. Wagg himself not having the money. Darling Wagg's imprisonment, Mr. Ferguson showed him much personal attention and kindness, largely aiding his family, when deprived of the father's and husband's labor, and to-day he is surely on the bond of Mr. Wagg, who is a justice of the peace in Albuquerque.

These things THE OPTIC learned from Mr. Wagg himself, he being a most devoted friend and follower of Mr. Ferguson, whom he greatly admires and for whose election he is diligently laboring. The fiery indignation of the Citizen and the Bee, over the railroad man's persecution by H. B. Ferguson, while that man himself is one of Mr. Ferguson's most hearty endorsers, reminds one for all the world of Mark Hanna's devouring anxiety for the well being of labor!

Furthermore, Mr. Ferguson did not receive any compensation whatever, for representing the government in connection with the strikes. So slight were the duties he performed, in the brief absence of Mr. Hemingway, that he did not dream of presenting a bill for them to the government. He did not ask payment, nor was payment voluntarily tendered. Yet in connection with these facts has the whole elaborate lie been concocted that Mr. Ferguson begged the place of prosecution, which he prostituted to persecution, receiving from the government $2,500 therefor.

The office of county commissioner should be filled only by men of undoubted business habits and capacity. The finances of the county are entirely in their hands, to be squandered or economically administered. They can pile up debts, increase taxation, and leave us nothing to show for it but a few personal followers, made rich by their partiality. Or by ignorance, indolence and incompetence, they can damage the county as much as through intentional rascality. The affairs of a county demand the same business sagacity and foresight, the same intelligent attention, the same integrity of purpose, which are demanded in the management of any large business enterprise. The man who is a failure in his own business, is the very last man who should be made a county commissioner. These are self-evident truths, and in the light of them every voter should contrast Henry G. Coors with J. A. Carruth. As a business man, Carruth is a well-known failure, while Henry G. Coors has been eminently successful. No man would hesitate a moment as to which of the two he would entrust his private business, nor should he hesitate for half a minute as to the one best suited to the place of county commissioner.

It is an open question whether a minister should, in his capacity as a minister, range himself in favor of one or another political party? There is an instinctive feeling that under ordinary circumstances a clergyman does better not to mingle in active politics. It must always remain true that a question of state, people who hold the same religious views will be divided.

Woman's Work

Is never done, and it is especially wearing and worrisome to those whose blood is impure and unfit properly to tone, sustain, and renew the wasting of nerve, muscle and tissue. It is more because of this condition of the blood that women are run down.

Tired, Weak, Nervous, Than because of the work itself. Every physician says so, and that the only remedy is in building up by taking a good nerve tonic, blood purifier and vitalizer like Hood's Sarsaparilla. For the troubles peculiar to Women at change of season, climate or life, or resulting from hard work, nervousness, and impure blood, thousands have found relief and cure in Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

The One True Blood Purifier. $1 per bottle. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

On religious questions, they are willing, in many things, to submit their judgment to their spiritual leaders. The minister, the priest, the rabbi, on account of the great work to which they are consecrated, as well as on account of their theological training, command the respect of their flocks, even where the modern habit of independent thought, in matters spiritual as well as scientific, sometimes makes full assent to the doctrines taught difficult. But when it comes to voting, the layman holds that he is fully as capable of determining how his ballot should be cast as is the preacher, and he is apt to resent the arraying against him of any part of the authority or influence that attaches to the church and its servants as unwarranted.

MORITON FRENCH, the English writer, proved himself quite a prophet when he wrote the following, two months before the panic of 1893: "Should the United States open its markets to both metals, silver would be rehabilitated, the world over; on the other hand, an abrupt suspension of all purchases would precipitate that panic which seems to be impending everywhere over the world of finance." He was a clear-sighted man, evidently. To-day, he asserts that the United States, without the consent of any foreign nation, could rehabilitate silver with benefit.

A BUSINESS man or day laborer who accepts his political opinions like his religion, on faith, may go on voting for the maintenance of the gold standard, but the thoughtful and observant voter who has intelligence and reason will not vote to perpetuate the cause which has in twenty years worked so many bankruptcies and miseries.

PERSONAL abuse will not be tolerated in this campaign, particularly when aimed at men who are not candidates for office. Statements have already been made by hot-headed republicans in public speeches that will either have to be proven, or retracted, else serious trouble is likely to result.

The gold Snaylocks of Wall street, New York, stand appalled lest the farmer and the laborer, for once in his life, should cast his vote in his own interest rather than in theirs. That is the reason they are dumping millions of gold into Hanna's lap for campaign purposes.

All United on Ferguson.

From the Deaver News. Populists, democrats and silver republicans have all united in New Mexico on Hon. H. B. Ferguson as their candidate for delegate to congress, as against Tom Catron, the McKinley goldbug nominee. It is a square fight, and the people of New Mexico now have an excellent opportunity to redeem their Territory from the disgrace of being represented in congress by a man like Catron. Mr. Ferguson has long enjoyed the reputation of being one of the ablest lawyers in New Mexico, is a gentleman of high personal character, and stands squarely and boldly for free coinage and the Chicago platform. He should receive a decisive majority.

These Valencia Sheep.

From the Albuquerque Democrat. With the certainty that San Miguel county will be against him, and that the majority in Bernalillo will be against Catron, his only hope now is in the sheep of Valencia, but that will not save him, unless each sheep is allowed to vote several times.

Disgusted With Catron.

From the Eddy Current. Hon. H. B. Ferguson will receive about the entire vote of the Pecos valley. Decent republicans are all disgusted with Catron.

Illustration of a woman and child with text: Before the finished fruit come bud and blossom. Bud grows into blossom and blossom into fruit. And so girlhood merges into womanhood and womanhood into motherhood. The two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine, promotes regularity of the functions, allays irritation and inflammation, checks unnatural exhausting drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all the ills of womankind are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure.

Salt Rheum Case.

THOMAS WYANT, 365 Monroe Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "November 27, 1895.

"SALVA-CRA is the best friend I have had for six years. Having been a sufferer for that length of time with Salt Rheum, and after trying almost every remedy known, without getting any relief, I tried a box of SALVA-CRA, and can honestly say it was cured before using the entire box."

In advertising SALVA-CRA we mention nothing but facts. We do not say it will do things that it will not do, and the public appreciate this.

It is the best remedy for piles, ulcerations, old sores, skin irritation, chilblains, colds, and nasal catarrh.

A drunken horseback rider was placed in jail, last evening, and his decedent dumb brute carefully cared for.

The infant child of J. Y. Lujan was buried at San Ignacio and the mother is reported seriously ill.

Do not refuse to purchase a ticket for the E. Romero horse company's ball at the Plaza hotel, next Friday evening.

Sol H. Jaffe, of Trinidad, has conveyed to Robert Levy, consideration $275, lots 13 and 14, block 5, Las Vegas hot springs.

The Las Vegas Chautauque circle held a pleasant and profitable meeting with Miss Bertha Cornea at the residence of A. D. Higgins.

Grandma Kline, mother of Mrs. W. E. Crites, was yesterday severely bitten on the hand by a naughty squirrel that didn't greatly desire to be put back into its cage again.

Sparrow's Pecos valley golden oil, for inflammation of the eyes, manufactured by the Roswell drug company, down the country, is now handled by Las Vegas druggists.

Emanuel Hornswald has entered into sheep contracts with Marcelino Romo and Apollinar Almansar, the former agreement involving 160 head of sheep, the latter, 204 head.

The cellar under the residence of H. E. Twitchell was burglarized of $30 worth of provisions, etc., the other night, in the absence of the head of the household, making speeches for the lost cause.

The funeral of George Closson, services by Rev. H. J. Hoger, was largely attended, this morning. General regret is expressed in the community at the untimely death of this deserving young man.

If some of the visitors to this city desire to know something more of the industries of this section of the country, they should visit the stock yards daily and see the thousands of sheep and cattle that are being loaded out constantly.

The ladies of the Eastern Star will give an entertainment and social in their rooms in the Masonic temple, to-morrow evening, to which an admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged, and ten cents extra for refreshments; there will also be dancing.

Tom Pridemore, who is married to a Las Vegas young lady, has not been lost sight of. He is at present foreman of the El Capitan land and cattle company, down in Lincoln county, and visited the town of Lincoln, on company business, the other day.

Meers, App and Langton, the two well-known railroad boys, will give a stereopticon exhibition, from the Montezuma club rooms, Saturday evening. They are also preparing to flash the election returns as fast as they are received by wire, next Tuesday night.

An injustice was done Meers, Knight and Monroe, from other parts, and A. McGee, of this city, by the party who informed a reporter that they are charity patients at the ladies' home. Such is not the case. The former gentlemen are being looked after by the K. of P. order and our fellow townsman is abundantly able to care for himself and those dependent upon him.

CAMPAIGN CLATTER.

If a man enters politics and cannot take the usual flings made at politicians, he has certainly missed his calling and should retire from the business instanter.

It is stated on pretty good authority that the republicans in San Miguel county have virtually given up the election of their ticket and they will swap off everything and everybody for votes for Catron and Cleofes Romero.

M. Jimenez, a candidate on the republican ticket in this county, is said to be working openly for Manuel Sanchez, candidate for the legislature on the union ticket. Stranger things than this have happened and will happen again.

The republicans engaged all of Danny Rhodes' backs for election day, immediately upon the adjournment of their Territorial convention, in this city. But the union party will "get there," all the same, even though they have to walk to the polls, or hobble there on crutches.

Catron's check for $500 isn't a drop in the bucket to what will be needed to carry San Miguel county for him. Come again, please, and see to it that you do better, next time. The tide has set in against you heavily, this time, and even a whole mint of money may not be able to stem it.

The numerous populist candidates up the Sappelo canon, like Cincinnati of old, were found digging in their fields when the news of their newly-acquired honors was brought to them. And what is more, they kept on digging and will have potatoes, turnips and cabbage to sell when other candidates will be wondering where their summer wages have gone.

The passage of Speaker Thos. H. Reed through the city, the other evening, reminded a Las Vegas real estate agent that the distinguished citizen of Maine owns property at our hot springs.
