The Cameron Resolution Recognizing the Independence of the Island Agreed to.

PRESIDENT MAY VETO IT

Inter-State Commerce Commission Asked to Suspend an Objectionable Clause.

THE ILLINOIS SENATORSHIP

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 18 The senate committee on foreign rela-tions met at 10:30 o'clock, this morning. Secretary of State Oiney was present for twenty minutes and gave the committee, orally, such informa-tion as to Cuban affairs as he had.

Later.-The senate committee on foreign relations has ordered a favorable report on Senator Cameron's resolution, recognizing the independence of the republic of Cuba.

The senate committee on foreign re-The senate committee on foreign re-lations, by practically an unanimous vote, has ordered a favorable report made to the senate, Monday, on Sena-tor Cameron's resolution, recognizing the independence of Cuba. As finally agreed to, it reads: Resolved, etc., That the independence of the republic of Cuba be, and the same is hereby acknowledged, by the United States of Americo. Section 2—That the United States will use its friendly offices with the government of Spain to bring to a close the war between Spain and Cuba.

Secretary Olney appeared one hour later and laid before the committee all the information in the possession of the state department. No member of the committee was willing to make any statement as to what Mr. Olney said, looking upon his statement as conti Immediately upon his withdrawsi the resolution was agreed to without a dissenting voice.

WASHINGTON, D. C , December 18 -There is an impression among some members of the committee that the president will veto the Cuban resolu tion, it being joint in character, requiring either the executive's approval or his disapproval. It President Cleveland should enter a veto, it is claimed that congress would be able to pass the resolution by the necessary two-thirds vote.

NEW YORK, N. Y., December 18 .-The adoption by the senate committee of the Cameron resolution, recog-nizing the independence of Cubs, had an instantaneous effect on the markets. When the news reached the street, there was a rush to sell, and prices yielded 1/2 to 4 per cent. This effectyielded 16 to 4 per cent. ed both gilt-edged and fancy issues. The excitement ran high. The street was inclined to look upon the action as is awaiting the decision of the president with anxiety.

McKinley in Chicago,

CHICAGO, III, December 18 -This afternoon Major McKinley went to Evanston, to visit Charles O Dawes. Before leaving Evanston, Mejor Mc-Kinley will have a conference with Judge Day, of Canton, one of his closest friends and admirers, who will arrive to morrow. There is no basis for cabinet-building in any event that has occurred in Chicago since Major McKinley came bere.

The Illinois Senator, hip.

SPRINGFIELD, Itls., December 18 -With the near approach of the convening of the legislature, it becomes apparent that the contest for a senator to succeed General John M. Palmer will be one of the most bitter on record in this country. This fact is due not so much to political divisions, for the republicans have an overwhelming majority on joint ballot, but rather to the announced determination of the "Chicago machine" to force into the shoes, once worn by Lyman Trumbull, Stephen A. Douglass, John A. Logan, and others distinguished in nationa history, an unsavory Chicago ward politicism, Martin Madden by name AN IMPORTANT CASE.

Inter-State Commerce Committee Asked to Suspend an Objectionable Clause.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 18 -The inter-state commerce committee, to-day, began the hearing on the application of the A'chison, Topeka & Santa Fe, Rio Grande & Westera, Southern Pacific, Colorado Midland and the receivers of the Union Pacific, for the suspension of the long and short haul clause of the fourth section of the act to regulate commerce. The suspension is desired between what are known as the Colorado common points, including Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, El Moro, and Trinidad, in Colorado, and what are known as the California terminal points, such as San Francisco, Sacramento, Stockton and other points on the Pacific coast. The object of the application is to enable those roads to meet the competition with the water traffic by the Atlantic & Pacific steamships, and incidentally with the Canadian Pacific railroad company, over which the inter-state commerce committee has no jurisdic-

TRAFFIC MATTERS.

NEW YORK, N. Y, December 18 -The most important business to consider which the board of control, comprising the presidents of the lines in the joint traffic association, convened at headquarters, this morning, is the report of the special committee appointe to arrange for the entrance of the Canadian Pacific into the association. Beyond the fact that the committee has been successful in its negotiations, no information concerning the conditions upon which the powerful Canadian road has agreed to join forces with the association has been allowed to leak

REPUSE TO COMPLY.

Policy-Holders of a Defunct Accident Ass tion are Stubbern.

New York, N. Y, December 18 -It is reported that four fifths of the old policy-holders of the defunct Mutual accident association, who are scattered throughout the country, have refused to comply with the instructions of the supreme court, ordering the payment of assessments to meet the claims filed with Receiver Gray. It is now intended that agents shall visit the various policy-holders in the west, and endeavor to bring moral suasion to bear to induce them to make a settlement. If this method also fails, the policy-holders in the big towns will be sued in a batch, and the result will be litigation that may be protracted over many years. The total number of policy-holders against whom claims are standing under the supreme court's decision exceeds $100,000, and there is hardly a city of the first or second class in the country that is unrepresented.

Broke the Precedent. New York, N Y, December 18.— The venerable Doctor Temple, the newly elected archbishop of Canter-bury and primate of all England, has thrown superstition to the winds by selecting the first Friday in January next, as the date for his enthronement. The ceremony, which will be one of great pomp and display, will take place in Westminster Abbey, and will bring together an audience second only in weight of dignity, to that which would attend upon a royal ceremony.

WALL STREET DECLINES

ROME, Italy, December 18 -A gensational scene occurred in the chamber of deputies to day over an allowance for the prince of Naples In the course of the debate, Signor Costa, socialist, declared that the monarchy was not only useless, but also was a dangerous institution. The president of the chamber forbade him speaking further. A frightful uproar ensued, deputies flying at one another's throats, while thers exchanged knock-down blows The tumuit continued for a long time, finally the bill granting an annual allowance of 1,000,000 france carrying, smid great confusion.

PEDERATION OF LABOR.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, December 18. At this morning's session of the convention of the Federation of labor, a resolution was introduced by Delegate Ashe, of Boston, demanding such amendments to the constitution of the United States as shall deprive the supreme court and the supreme courts of the several states, of the power of reviewing and setting saide laws duly enacted by the representatives of the people. The resolutions elicited much discussion, and the vote resulted in the defeat of the resolutions by a vote of 44 to 21.

The press is the great educator of the masses, and it does more to mould and direct the minds of the people at large and to enable them to keep pace with the progress of the times, than anything else. The careful reader of a well conducted newspaper is always abreast of the times. By it he is imperceptibly weaned from the antiquated customs of by-gone times, and the narrow prejudices and fogyisms of earlier years; by its intellectual illuminations he is led step by step along the bright and better pathway of the present progressive era. The press is a mighty power, indeed. Napoleon once said: "Four hostile newspapers are more to be feared than a hundred thousand bayonets."

A DRUNKARDS' COLONY.

There is only one man who was ever at the head of a colony of drunkards in this country, and that is Dr. Leslie E. Keeley, of Dwight, Ill., who for two or three years kept from 500 to 1,200 acknowledged drunkards colonized at Dwight. They were about the gayest and choicest lot of wine bibbers ever gotten together in one place, and they represented men from all walks of life, even preachers of the gospei among the number. But from a stale number of the Westminster Guzette. gayest and choicest lot of wine bibbers number of the Westminster Guzette, which is printed in London, England, we gain the first knowledge of the establishment of another colony of drunkards in this country which will doubtless be a fresh piece of information to a grateful people will always offer de-our readers. Here is what the Westminster Gazette has to say about the matter: A COLONY OF TIPPLERS. One of the most curious colonies that have ever been established on the American continent is, we learn from the London American, about to settle in North Dakota It is a colony of drupkards. Twenty-one drunkards and their families are about to move from Indiana to take up the rabode upon the virgin soil of North Dakots.

They say they will establish a "model drunkard colony" Alreads, they have It is a colony of druckards. Twenty-one drunkard colony." Alrendy, they have purchased about 2,000 neres of land and each family will receive an allotment of From the New Mexican.

colonists will want to start saloons, and then the question arises, who will be ready till the soil?

Of course, all of our intelligent readers will understand that the English paper has been led into an absurd blunder by the similarity of names; it having mistaken the name of Dunkards for drunkards. But we try to imagine what effect this startling paragraph would have upon the staid and sober colony of Dunkards who have really formed the colony that is referred to. They are a sect who aphor the flowing bowl and it is against their religious principles to look upon the wine when it is red, much less establish themselves as a colony of drunkards. We some times wonder if the papers in this country fall into such glaring errors about European matters as the papers over there do about affairs on this side of the ocean. We do not believe that they do, at least we have never known of them charging us with such blunders. Not long ago, au English paper spoke of Chicago being in danger of an Indian outbreak, and another placed St. Louis in Massachusetts. Lately, one of their papers proclaimed that a hobart had been nominated for vice-president of the United States. but did not explain to its readers what

The fact is, that the reading people of this country, and especially the newspaper men, keep much better posted about European affairs than the people but the first individual of the dominant over there do about our own. Our impeachment that he is a candidate for attention to the affairs of Europe official place, after the announcement than the papers there do to matters over here, and this gives the American reader an opportunity to keep himself better posted than the average Englishman. But this report about the establishment of a colony of drunkards

The only drawback to his prosperity, and which makes the ex-senator feel lonesome, is the fact that on the platform he does all the talking, and therefore has no adversary to sass back at, or flay alive

A Call to Arms.

We, the undersigned citizens of Santa Fe and of New Mexico, unil upon all patriotic citizens of this city to meet at the armory of the local cavalry troop, on Saturday next, at 7 p. m., to devise means and ways by which this tablishment of a colony of drunkards in Dakota verges closely on to the absurd and almost ridiculous and seems gle for independence. In our judgalmost inexcusable.

Territory may contribute to aid and help the Cuban patriots in their struggle for independence. In our judgalment, it would be to the credit of the Territory and to the city of Santa Fe to form a company of volunteers to fight for Cuban independence as soon as the United States have declared the Cubans belligerents.

The Last Steamships Before Stockings are Hung Up.

New York, N. Y., December 16 -The steamships sailing for England and Europe to-day, take the last of the Christmas presents of money and valuables to the people of these countries from friends and relatives in the United States. In the marine calendar it is known as Christmas ship day, although every mail liner that has sailed for a mouth or more has carried out and parcels and consignments made through local brokers. Since the middle of November nearly 100 additional men have been employed in the post office, and even these have had to work extra hours in order to keep up with the rush. It is estimated that more money and presents have been sent across the water this season than
