When Turkey Reigns as Royal Sacrifice.

In Antiquity and American Lineage the Bird Takes Precedence in Western Continent.

When Thanksgiving day comes and families gather around the feast of which the turkey reigns as royal sacrifice, it is the hour to win opinion regarding the American national bird.

Long has the eagle soared and screamed and flapped its wings, but no day of regard has been put in its honor in the calendar.

When it comes to antiquity and a true American lineage the turkey takes precedence. Patriotic societies are finding this out, and committees are considering the advisability of making a place for the bird among national emblems. The eagle is a cosmopolitan, the bird of Jove; the turkey—genus meleagris—belongs to the western continent.

The sacrifice on the altar of thanksgiving is a species distinct from winged and feathered fowl of a distant relationship found in Europe.

The American turkey was among the strange birds discovered by the Spaniards when they invaded Mexico. Oviedo describes it about 1527 as domesticated among the christianized Indians of New Spain (Mexico), and being the bird reserved for festivals. Gay describes the gallopavo sylvestris—the wild turkey of New England—as the wonder of the pilgrim fathers, and from all this data it will be seen that the turkey has a claim to national tribute.

Virginia and Missouri historians write of turkey fowls as peculiar to their wooded hills, but Rhode Island has laid an official claim to the best bred stock that goes abroad. Little Rhody bases its traditions on the customs of the Narragansett Indians, a tribe which once ruled the entire New England area, but became extinct during King Phillip's war.

The Narragansetts treasured the turkey as a sacred bird after their days the Niantics took the matter up both for the cause of religion and for the comfort of their stomachs and thus preserved the species from extinction and brought the Rhode Island fame high on the marts that cater to feasts and festivals.

The Rhode Island turkey lives in the hills, feasts on insects and herbs best calculated to make it delectable to epicures and has become desired from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The white turkey comes from the confines of the state and for some years the presidential Thanksgiving dinner has been presided over, by an immense bird of the New England stock.

As the Indian and the native customs even of Mistress Anne Hutchinson and Roger Williams are forgotten by latter day Rhode Island sons and daughters, so the turkey of that peculiar breed is passing away. Reports from the state agricultural stations give dire statistics of fatal disease among the turkeys and the vanishing from the land.

In this year Missouri, Indiana and Wisconsin are banner turkey states. The uncut timber and rough ground are good roving places, and the deadly microbe has not found its way to slaughter the innocents.

White with iris-tinted feathers, bronze reflecting the shades of their distant relatives the peafowls, dark hues with rainbow tints and brilliant red dew laps and head ornaments, strolling along the roads in dignified flocks, perching gracefully on fence rails and sounding the piercing call—thus they have been seen in any country byway before the November knell was sounded.

Thanksgiving Day the Oldest of Our Holidays.

First Enjoined as Religious as Well as Civic Obligation, the Spirit of the Season Remains.

It is a season of glad some traditions. Far away as are our lives from those of the little band of colonists of Massachusetts Bay who reverently established a day of thanksgiving for mercies which to us seem no more than the commonplaces of a meagre existence, the spirit of the occasion survives.

Through all the vicissitudes of our national development, Thanksgiving day has been preserved as peculiarly the New England memorial. For generations it had a sectional observance and a limited significance. It was not until the white heat of the civil war fused our people of all sections into a nation homogeneous, that the New England Thanksgiving was made that of the whole country.

Since the first proclamation by the president, calling for the observance of a day of thanks for the preservation of the union of the states, the custom has been maintained; the generation of to-day knows it in this character alone.

This is the oldest of our holidays. In the early times of sectarian intolerance, when church and state were joined in the rule of Massachusetts, there was no Christmas, under the law. Observance of the natal day of the Prince of Peace was discouraged, if not absolutely prohibited, by harsh enactments. But the recognition of the day of thanksgiving was enjoined as a religious as well as a civic obligation.

All this is changed in the growth of our people, our commonwealth, our nation, to the stature which we see to-day. Our whole people unite in the giving of thanks; and if the religious element is given less prominence in the forms with which the day is observed, in the hearts of all there is a no less reverent gratitude for the benefactions with which the Power which rules the universe has crowned the life of people and of individuals in this happy age.

We must be glad, every one of us, that we live to-day. The condition of humanity is not perfect; there are cruel exceptions to universal human felicity; but the advance has not only been great but steady and full of marvelous promise for the race. And as for the immediate present, we have only to compare existing conditions of physical comfort, of intellectual improvement, of moral and social uplifting, with those enjoyed by our predecessors, to feel a wave of congratulatory surge over our hearts.

Personally, many of us may feel that fortune, or providence, has dealt harshly with us during the past year. There have been disappointments, perhaps grievous afflictions, whose pain is not yet dulled. Let such summon up the resources of the faith that sustained the men of the first Thanksgiving days, who felt as well as believed that "whom the Lord loveth, them he chasteneth;" and let all look forward straight into the future where the sun shines with a glory and a gracious warmth unknown to the race of mankind at any period before this favored century.

Johnny's Good Time.
 "Well, Johnny, did you have a good time Thanksgiving?"
 "A good time? Well, I should think I did. Ma had to sit up with me for the next three nights."

FEARFUL PAINS

SUGGESTIONS HOW WOMEN MAY FIND RELIEF.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. This is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. When pain exists something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

Thousands of women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes woman's special pains and irregularities.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases.

The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Nellie Holmes, of 540 N. Division Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
 "Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches, and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the east advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural; every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
 "I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

Compound sooner; for I have tried so many remedies without help.

"I dreaded the approach of every month, as it meant so much pain and suffering for me, but after I had used the Compound two months I became regular and natural and am now perfectly well and free from pain. I am very grateful for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound rests upon the well-earned gratitude of American women.

When women are troubled with pain or irregularities, displacements or ulceration of the organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

LOCATING AT SOLANO.

Party of Eight from Tennessee, Take Up Claims Ten Miles South of Roy.

Geo. H. Morris, formerly of this city, who recently located a homestead and is making his home at Solano, ten miles south of this city, informs us that one Dr. Day, of Charleston, Tennessee, was in his vicinity last week, and being favorably impressed with the country, located about 1200 acres of land upon which he and a party from his neighborhood will settle about December 10.

Dr. Day is one of the many who came to Tucumcari with a view to locating but found all available land taken up. He was very well pleased with the outlook in this section and promises more homeseekers in the spring.

MORE ARRESTS.

In retaliation of the arrest of Nazario Florez on charge of resisting an officer on election day and of Leandro Archuleta for assault with intent to kill, warrants were issued by the Justice of Peace at Watrous, for A. S. Bushkevitz, Ed. Pritchard and M. Trobaugh, the complaint charging them with pulling guns on Special Officer Jose Archuleta. Constable Rodriguez succeeded in arresting Pritchard, but Bushkevitz and Trobaugh learning that the constable refused to allow them bail, left for Watrous and gave themselves up next day. The arrest of the trio on that charge was a surprise to them, for Jose Archuleta, far from acting as a peace officer with special officers Trobaugh and Pritchard on election day seemed to be one of the most active in opposition to them. Archuleta claims his authority to act as special officer through Constable Rodriguez, altho he never made this claim until several days after election and no one seemed to be aware that he was acting as such on that day.

However, the justice of the peace at Watrous bound the prisoners over in the sum of $500 bail each to appear before the grand jury, in default of which the men were taken to Mora. At Mora warrants were immediately issued for Jose Archuleta and Nazario Florez, on charges of perjury. Florez, on learning of the intended arrest, left the country and has not been heard from. Jose Archuleta was arrested Tuesday morning by Wm. Brumage, who had been deputized for that purpose. Brumage left for Mora with his prisoner on Tuesday. We have not learned the outcome of the trial.

Roy and its vicinity is being brought to the attention of the outside world. This paper has received inquiries about it from several eastern parties who wrote with a view to establishing businesses here. All of which goes to show that eastern people are looking for western towns with good prospects for growth.

Business men and other citizens interested in this city, have, with the new hall going up, and advertising, etc., all that probably can be handled for the present, but, nevertheless, we wish to urge again the great necessity of providing a system of waterworks. Lack of water is a drawback to the advancement of a town that cannot be overcome by a display of imposing edifices, good location, beautiful scenery, etc.

Tickets for the dance to be given by the Primrose Progressive Circle Thanksgiving evening are now on sale at the various business houses in the city. This dance will be no exception to the general rule that affairs given by the circle are a success and all should be on hand to enjoy the good time.

Winter wheat would certainly be a winner in this section.

We have not received reports of any serious losses of sheep from the effects of the severe storm of this week.
