OPIUM A MEDICINE.

INSTITUTE PATRONS SMOKE IT
AS A CURATIVE.

Institution in London Has Narcotic
for Those of Its Extremes—
System Tried with Success on Cancer.

London.—The bare announcement that an institute for the accommodation of those who would smoke opium has been established in the prosaic neighborhood of Red Lion square is calculated to give imagination rein; the fact that it is discreetly titled "The Pyrolytic (O. P.) Institute," suggesting a theatrical flavor to those who are not acquainted with the possible meaning of O. P., is enough to make imagination take the bit between its teeth.

There would naturally be found within the dull shell a riot of luxurious elegance. One could see mirrored, gilded rooms with thick oriental carpets, on which the foot fell noiselessly; a soft, subdued light from shaded lamps; languorous couches that invited ecstatic dreams, and, of course, beautiful handmaidens sitting to and fro bearing light refreshments.

The reality: A waiting-room, like a thousand other waiting-rooms, in which patients glare at each other before they see the doctor, and a consulting-room, rather bare of furniture than most, with a couple of not very easy chairs, a small table, on which is a spirit lamp, and two or three opium pipes, and if it were permitted to give the name of the doctor who receives you it would be that of a most distinguished physician and surgeon of the highest possible repute, who has gained fame for his treatment of one terrible disease.

It has long been known that the Chinese opium pipe, so much abused in that country and elsewhere, is yet of considerable therapeutic value. The late Dr. J. K. Shallicum endeavored some years ago to introduce it into the medical practice of Europe, prescribing it extensively for chest complaints, neuralgia and other maladies involving pain, spasm or progressive wasting. Although "pyrolytic inhalation," as this mode of administering medical substances is termed, is said to be often more effectual than any other, his attempt failed, partly on account of rooted prejudice, partly because the medical faculty were not conversant with the peculiar art of smoking the pipe.

With stringent precautions against misuse, there is no apparent reason, according to the eminent authority who has established the institute in Red Lion square, why the opium pipe should not be resorted to in suitable cases. As a matter of fact, he says, the effect of opium vapor is stimulant, not narcotic. At each whiff the quantity of morphia which is conveyed to the lungs and thence into the system is extremely minute. An excessive dose is utterly impossible, as a voluntary act, for opium-smoking is a slow and relatively tedious process. The knack of accomplishing it at all demands intelligence, and even when this knack has been acquired considerable time is needed for the absorption of a very tiny dose of the opium alkaloid. It thus presents an emphatic contrast to all other methods of administering these substances.

Numerous distressing maladies, it is contended, can be more successfully treated by pyrolytic inhalation than by any method previously known. Nervous debility, is contracted at once and the most direct and useful effects are produced in spasmodic and convulsive affections of the nervous system. In cancer it has been tried with great success, not merely for alleviating pain, but with the object of holding the disease directly in check.

Divorce Gains in France.

From a report filed in the French senate chamber it appears that the number of divorces has been increasing in France since the law granting divorces was approved by parliament in 1900. In 1901 there were registered 7,741 divorces granted by the courts, while the following year they numbered 8,431, and in 1903 they increased to 9,919. In 1904 more than 9,000 divorces were granted throughout the republic.

Tainted Money.

At any rate it will never get so that a foreign aristocrat will refuse to marry an American heiress because her father's money is not above suspicion, says the Denver Republican.

HOW HEALTH IS GAINED

The story of a great deal of the unhappiness of women is a story of lost health. Women wonder how it is that little by little the form loses plumpness, the cheeks grow hollow and sallow, and they feel tired and worn-out all the time. In a large proportion of cases when women are weak, run-down and falling off in flesh and looks, the root of the trouble can be traced to womanly diseases which undermine the general health. The proof of this is that women who have been cured of painful womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription have recovered their general health, gained in flesh and in appearance.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the womanly diseases which sap the general health. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I suffered for three years with ovarian trouble," writes Mrs. Anna Quinn (Treasurer Woman's Athletic Club) of 602 Sycamore St., Milwaukee, Wis. "The treatment I took did not do me a particle of good, until a good neighbor who had been using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription advised me to give it a trial. The next day took my first dose and it was my first step toward recovery. In nine weeks I was a different woman; my flesh which had been flabby became firm, complexion clear and my eyes bright. It was simply an indication of the great change within from pain and suffering to health and happiness."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

Sheriff Kendall went over to Silver City the early part of the week.

Mrs. W. S. Hopewell and Mrs. Robert West came in from the Animas Tuesday.

Episcopal service will be held in the Union Church next Sunday morning by Rev. J. H. Darling, of Deming.

J. C. Plemmons went to Hermosa yesterday to inspect the progress of development work on the Palomas Chief mine.

J. W. Burke, who has been very low with pneumonia for the past week, is, we are glad to say, reported better and in a fair way of recovery.

Guy McPherson left yesterday for Silver City. He will go to the Barro Bountains to resume his position as foreman in the turquoise mines there.

Jim Gould, who had figured conspicuously in the criminal docket in this county for the past year, died in the Ladies' Hospital at Silver City a few days ago. His death is supposed to have been caused by a fall while repairing the telephone line near Fierro.

The flood that came down the Percha on Thursday last week did considerable damage to A. J. Hager's saw-mill in Southwest gulch near Kingston and several thousand feet of lumber was also washed away. The Kingston and Hillsboro roads were badly wrecked; some parts of the road above the toll gate is said to be impassible for vehicles. In Southwest gulch the flood was eight feet deep. The log way and the carriage of the saw mill were carried away. The mill will soon be repaired and the cutting of lumber resumed.

The flood that came down the Percha last week was nicely handled by the new dyke above the town. The western extremities of the dyke and bulkhead were somewhat damaged and yet remain as the flood left them. Not only should the damages be repaired immediately but the dyke should be extended westward to insure protection to the town. The present dyke, so far as it goes, is all right, but it will afford no protection the town in the event of a heavy flood. The work on the dyke has been cut off just at the point where it should have been continued.

Frank Morris, the blacksmith, was up before Judge Smith last Tuesday charged with "defrauding and inn keeper." The complaint was entered by Mrs. Orchard who had a claim of some $14 for board against the defendant. Morris, who owned nearly every business house in town, walked to Lake Valley Sunday, and from there he went to Osceola and boarded the train. However, Sheriff Kendall took him in at Nutt and brought him to Hillsboro Monday night. After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. After his return Morris paid some of his debts and promised to pay the balance of them. "And Sam laughed."

SAVED HIM—"It didn't kill me, but I think it would if it had not been for Hunt's Cure. I was tired, miserable and well nigh used up when I commenced using it for an old and severe case of eczema. One application relieved and one box cured me. I believe Hunt's Cure will cure any form of itching known to mankind." Clifton Lawrence, Helena, O. T. For sale at P. O. Drug Store.

It is reported that Leonard Wood county is short on funds and that the county commissioners pay only fifty cents on the dollar on allowed bills.

NEVER DISSAPPOINTS—"Many extensively advertised remedies are failures when put up to the test. Hunt's Lightning Oil is an exception. Confidence in it is never misplaced—disappointment never follows its use. It is certainly the greatest emergency remedy now obtainable. For cuts, burns, aches, sprains and pains I know no equal. Geo. E. Paddock, Doniphan, Mo. For sale at P. O. Drug Store.

The Territorial Fair management are this year offering a purse of $200 for a cow-boy relay race, all horses to be actual cow ponies, the saddle and rider not to weigh less than 155 pounds. A number of strings of five horses each have already been made up, and as the result of a large purse offered, promises to be the biggest relay race ever held in the west. Each rider will change horses every mile, and for rough riding, the race will in all probability excel anything of the kind ever pulled off in Albuquerque.

TAKES HOLD AND LIFTS UP—"If you wish to grow fat, strong and healthy, get rid of the impurities in your system by using Simmons' Sarsaparilla. It lifts you up—keeps you well, and makes the old world look cheerful.—For sale at P. O. Drug Store.

The town of Dawson is on the verge of a boom

The exhibition of Indian past times and cow-boy sports at the coming Territorial Fair, this year, promises to be the best ever given in New Mexico. Col. Greer, president of the association, has volunteered to bring several car loads of out law horses and a big bunch of cow boys from his southern New Mexico ranches to do the real thing at this time.

Springer anticipates another rail road.

CHIGGERS AND MOSQUITOES are now in their glory—their business is good and they are happy. There is no earthly use of letting them chew on you, however, if you don't like their ways. A little Hunt's Lightning Oil applied to exposed parts will keep them off, and immediately relieves the irritation caused by their bites. Rub a little on and see for yourself. For sale at P. O. LOSSES MONEY IN STREET

Baltimore Amazed by the Lavish Actions of a New Yorker—Would Build Navy.

Baltimore, Md.—Henri Belmont de la Rue, a well-known New Yorker, who a few days ago took an office at 216 North Liberty street, created great excitement by throwing money in the street from his office window to a large gathering of newsboys and others, who had been attracted to the scene. In all he threw away about $100 in bills of small denomination and silver, and only desisted when forced to do so by a policeman and kindly disposed citizens, who realized that the philanthropist was suffering from some mental disorder.

The action of De la Rue was accompanied by speechmaking, during the course of which he informed the public that he was a multi-millionaire, and that it was his usual custom to distribute at least $11,000 a day in this manner. Besides the real money the man gave to several persons drafts for sums ranging all the way from $10 to $100,000, and exhibited a willingness to increase the amount had anyone desired it.

When De la Rue reached Baltimore he said he wanted to establish a "commercial navy," which should guard the merchant interests of the world on the high seas. He wanted to rent a warehouse to feed 3,000 members of his navy, and for several days he has been busy sending big orders right and left for supplies of wigs, liquors, cigars and miscellaneous luxuries, some of which are said to have been delivered on checks.

FINDS BONES OF CANNIBALS

Oregon Archaeologist Discovers Remains of a Prehistoric Race on Farm Near Albany.

Albany, Ore.—While excavating on a farm five miles southwest of Albany, near the bank of the Calapooia river, J. G. Crawford, of this city, discovered the remains of several bodies of prehistoric men, and also a small altar, undoubtedly used as a place for sacrifices. The remains of five bodies were found, the skeletons showing that all the bodies had been mutilated.

Crawford, who had made a number of excavations in different mounds in this part of the state during the last few years and who has acquired considerable reputation as an archaeologist, thinks the people undoubtedly were cannibals. Most of the bodies found were badly mutilated. In one skull the whole face had been broken out from the top of the head to the jaw, while in two others a jaw and other small parts of the face were missing.

The altar, though small, was a perfect oval, was built on a rock foundation, in oval form and was constructed of clay, which had been burned until it was as red as brick, though not so hard. The altar proper was 24 inches long and 18 inches wide. Crawford says there is no doubt it had been used for sacrificial purposes and from what he has been able to learn about the habits of this race from his investigations he thinks it was the custom of the people to offer the hearts of the dead on these little altars as a burned sacrifice to some deity.

UNITED AFTER FIFTY YEARS

Aged Couple Meet and Are Married After Each Had Been Bareft of a Partner.

Hartford, Conn.—Over fifty years ago Angela R. Kilbourn and John F. Johnson went to school together in Rutland, Vt., and soon after graduating they became engaged. Before the day set for the wedding there was a misunderstanding between the couple and they parted.

Miss Kilbourn, after a few years, married Dr. Daniels, Johnson also married and went to Cormorant, Minn., with his bride. Five years ago Mr. Johnson's wife died, and two years ago Mrs. Daniels was left a widow.

She took up her residence in Hartford, and a few months ago Mr. Johnson corresponded with her. He came to Hartford and visited her. The old misunderstanding was explained. They procured a marriage license and were married, immediately taking a train for Cormorant, Minn., where they will reside.

Lets Dead Rabbits as Venison.

A live rabbit is a rabbit, but a dead one is venison. This is the latest freak decision by the national treasury department, and is in line with one of a year ago, when frogs' legs were declared to be turkey. Upon appeal the legs were declared by the board of appraisers to be a "nonessential unmanufactured article." Duty has been paid on some dead imported rabbits in New York as venison, but another appeal may put them in the same class as frogs' legs.

Modern Nebuchadnezzar.

A Reading railway detective, A. B. Banknecht, captured on a train at Monocacy, Pa., a foreigner dressed in a leather suit, who lives on grass and who seems to thrive on it. After he was arrested he plucked a large bunch and made a meal of it.
