Steel Lined SHOT SHELLS
Cut down your lead—Get your bird with the center of the load

In the making of shotshells, the greatest forward step since the invention of smokeless powder is the steel lining to grip the powder and concentrate all the drive of the explosion back of the shot.

It's a Remington special invention—that steel lining. You find it in Remington-UMC Arrow and Nitro Clubs. These steel lined shells get their shot to the target quicker than any other shells known to the shooting fraternity. They cut down the guess-work about lead and angles. They put the center of the load right on your bird.

The steel lining is moisture-proof—no dampness can get through. It is also waste-proof—no powder can get out. Waste-proof—no energy is lost.

Shoot Remington-UMC Arrow and Nitro Club Steel Lined Eastern Factory Loaded Shells for Speed Plus Pattern in any make of shotgun.

Your dealer carries them—or, if he doesn't, there's a more alert dealer in this section who is worth your finding.

Will Destroy Moths.

It is said that the following will destroy moths, eggs and larvae in a closet: Place a brick on the floor of the closet and on this a tin or iron pan. Heat a brick until it becomes very hot and then put it in the pan. Pour hot, strong vinegar on this brick, then close the door and keep it closed for 24 hours. The steam from the vinegar will kill any live thing that may be in the closet.

Little Doubt About It.

Married a month, a young man told the magistrate that his wife had done the following things: Torn up the marriage-certificate, pawned the ring, torn up her wedding-dress, assaulted him. She followed him to court, he added, but he managed to dodge her. The Clerk: "You took her for better or worse, and you seem to have got the worse."

Specialists Recommend Yawning.

In the opinion of learned specialists no one can be healthy unless he or she does a certain amount of yawning. When you yawn you expel from the lungs a lot of superfluous air; the breathing muscles of both the chest and the throat are strengthened by yawning.

His Fear.

"Weren't you afraid to go down stairs in the dark last night?" asked a woman of her little son recently. "Yes, I was a little afraid," answered the boy. "But what were you afraid of?" asked the mother. "H'm," said the boy, "I was afraid there wouldn't be any doughnuts."

To Preserve Home of George Fox.

Swarthmoor hall, near Ulverston, Lancashire (Eng.) formerly the home of George Fox, founder of the Society of Friends, was bought at Ulverston, a short time ago, on behalf of the English members of the society for £5,250. His writing desk was bought for 26 guineas.

The Merry Advertiser.

Who says there is no more any genuine English humor? A provision dealer in Earl's court neighborhood, London, displays this on a window sign: "When visiting Shakespeare's England, eat England's Bacon."

And So It Goes in Life.

"A girl," remarks Mack Cretcher, "must have dolls and ribbons and lots of fancy things to play with. A boy can have a pretty good time with nothing but a toad, a grasshopper and a few angle worms."

Perhaps a Tragic Comedy.

A writer once said that the world is a comedy to those who think, a tragedy to those who feel. He doesn't say what it is to the fellow who tries to take a wide garbage can through a narrow alley-way.—Satire.

For Tired Feet.

When your feet ache, caused by long standing, exercise them by rising first to the toes, then on the heels, in a rocking motion for a few times. This was advised by a specialist—Woman's Home Companion.

Man's Eating.

One man likes to be made a fuss over, another likes to be let alone, and a third likes his mind diverted. But in all cases have something good for him to eat, whatever kind he is.

Easy.

Young Widow—"Did you have any trouble getting Jack to propose?" Girl Friend—"No, dear; I told him you were after him."—Boston Transcript.

Daily Thought.

One principal point of good breeding is to suit our behavior to the three several degrees of men—our superiors, our equals and those below us. Swift.

Difference.

The only difference between a caprice and a life-long passion is that the caprice lasts a little longer.—The Tattler.

Producing Optimism.

A very good remedy for anybody's pessimism is being able to pay his bills.—New York Press.

The Wireless Eye.

Valejo, Calif., Oct. 4.—A great wireless eye which sees through darkest night and fog over a radius of several miles, reproducing with faithful detail upon a mirror a picture of everything within its range of vision is the latest miracle of the scientific world.

It has just been perfected here by Samuel Spitz, formerly wireless expert for the government at Mare Island navy yard, after seven years of experimenting.

Navigators declare the Spitz-oscope promises practical immunity to vessels from night collisions with reefs or icebergs.

So impressed were Mare Island navy officers that they urged him to reserve the instrument exclusively for use by the army and navy.

This the wizard promptly refused to consider.

"I didn't make this apparatus to destroy lives, to add to the horrors of war. During the seven years I spent in perfecting the Spitz-oscope I had in mind the safeguarding of the helpless and their preservation from unseen perils," he said.

"I'd rather be set down as a humanitarian than a great inventor."

Nor could he be shaken from his determination by hints of fabulous royalties from the government.

"But think of the possibilities in warfare," argued the naval officers, "Night eyes for battleships, spying out the enemy's craft. An undiscernable search beam! Reserve this for the government!"

"No," answered Spitz. "I will not do it. True, I made it to give blind ships an eye, but first of all it shall be used to increase the security of the men who go out to sea on peaceful missions."

A group of Uncle Sam's men stood in his basement workshop. Outside the night was doubly dark with a pall of fog. The inventor threw a switch and from a strange black canister on a table, an aperture glowed with phosphorescent light. A humming filled the room.

Peering in the officers saw on the mirror dial the huge steel cranes of Mare Island, warships swinging at anchor, sentries pacing their beats, two miles away.

Presently a launch stole out from one of the jetties. Immediately an indicator swinging free across the dial began following the launch, relentlessly.

In another part of the room a rifle mounted on a pivot moved with the indicator, training on the boat.

The officers exchanged amazed glances as the little civilian stood back smiling.

"It could be made a terrible engine of destruction," he admitted. "With an eye like this hung at the masthead of a man-of-war, connecting with the big guns in the turrets, the Spitz-oscope could convert a battleship into a terrible fighting monster.

But to restrict its use to that purpose—I would regard that as a failure on my part, and as a betrayal of the best interests of humankind."

Uncle Sam's fighting men went out into the night marveling as much at the make-up of this quiet prophet of peace as at his remarkable invention.

The Sinner and His Sin.

One of the hardest lessons for us to learn is how to distinguish between a sinner and his sin, how to love the one and hate the other.—Christian Endeavor World.

SIERRA COUNTY ADVOCATE.

W. O. THOMPSON, Proprietor.

The Sierra County Advocate is entered the Post Office at Hillsboro, Sierra County, New Mexico, for transmission through the U. S. Mails, as second class matter.

SIERRA COUNTY ADVOCATE impartially devoted to the Best Interests of Sierra County and the Territory of New Mexico.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1913.

Sierra county people are interested in the press notices of "The Lure," a play written by George Scarborough, formerly a secret service officer of Domingo. Many of our residents remember him as well as his father who was also in the secret service. His sister, Georgia Scarborough, now Mrs. Fulton Kerr, taught school one year in Lake Valley. To quote from the October Hearst's Magazine: "The Lure," which is achieving the first success of the new theatrical season in its run at the Maxie Elliott Theatre, New York, is frankly a "white slave play" and its presentation calls for no apology, its purpose is to put the truth concerning one phase of the white slave traffic fairly and squarely before the public. It turns a powerful search-light on the white slavers' methods of operation; sounds a clear warning; throws no glamour over the life it exposes, but paints sanely its hideousness of detail, its foulness of purpose; and it explains in such readily understood terms how easily the trap is entered and how rarely and with what difficulty the victim escapes as to constitute a valuable object lesson to those who might be in danger." The picturing on the stage of the interior of a brothel aroused a storm of criticism, but after the play was somewhat expurgated it was allowed to go on. The only valid objection to such a picture would be making it so attractive that the thing pictured becomes desirable. "The Lure" does not do this and is a strong recruit in the war against white slavery. I. M. B.

PALOMAS SPRINGS.

School opened Monday with Miss Case as teacher. For the present, school will be held in a house in the upper part of the town.

The new school house will be finished in a few weeks. The people of the Springs have shown themselves very diligent in this work, many of them leaving their own work to attend to this.

A very interesting meeting was held here not long since. A get-together, pull-together spirit prevailed. After discussing various matters, it was decided that we were not so very bad, and could dispense with a salaried peace officer, and petitioned the county commissioners to appoint a constable to act with our justice of the peace, also petitioned the county health officer to give us a health officer. But the one thing accomplished that will meet with general approval is the employing of a man to keep the bath houses clean; this has been agreed announce to everyone, and now that one person will have it in charge, it is expected that the houses will be kept in a sanitary condition.

Friday night, Mr. C. Cox, living on Cuchillo creek, died very suddenly of heart failure. Mr. Cox was one of the pioneers of this part of the country, a man respected by all. The body was kept, awaiting instructions from his family, but finally was laid away in the grave yard above town. Later a son arrived to take charge of the affairs of his father.

A young man named Jasper was accidentally killed at Elephant Butte Sunday, in some careless handling of his gun.

A party of young men from Socorro, in two Fords, came through the Springs, having come from Lake Valley by way of Hillsboro, arriving at the Springs late in the evening. Owing to the road from Hillsboro to this place not being flagged, or properly posted, they got lost, or, off the road. After a good supper and rest, they went to Elephant Butte and returned, then left for Cuchillo and Magdalena. They left very much pleased with the country.

Changes have been made in the business of VanWinkle & Gould. Mr. Gould retiring.

Found Sullivan and Juan Armiño have brought in two car loads of lumber for the VanWinkle lumber yard. Quite a number of people left town this week, but others are coming in.

Civil Service Examination.

The Civil Service Commission at Washington announces an examination for Forest Ranger to be held in Silver City on October 21 and 22. A similar examination will be held at several other points throughout the United States upon the same dates. This is the first examination for Forest Ranger to be held since the fall of 1911. An examination was not held last year for the reason that there was a large eligible list which it was expected would be sufficient for another year. The eligible list has now been depleted and future appointments will be made from those successfully passing the examination next month. Application blanks may be secured by writing the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C.

Agriculture Forest Service THE SIX RULES For Care With Fire in the Mountains.

If every member of the public strictly observe these simple rules, the great annual loss by Forest Fires would be reduced to a minimum.

- 1.—Be sure your match is out before you throw it away. 2.—Knock out your pipe ashes or throw your cigar or cigarette stump where there is nothing to catch fire. 3.—Don't build a camp fire any larger than is absolutely necessary. Never leave it even for a short time without putting it OUT with water or earth. 4.—Don't build a camp fire against a tree or log. Build a

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky. "It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without

F. W. Moffett, accompanied by Mr. D. Cameron, returned from New York Saturday.

Henry Opgenorth, George Meyers and E. Gilbert are hunting on the west side of the Range.

Mr. McVey, representing the El Paso Herald, made us a pleasant call the early part of the week.

Ed. James of Chloride, Al. Slater of Hermosa, and J. C. Plemmons of Arrey, transacted business in Hillsboro Monday.

E. A. Salen went to Albuquerque to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, in session here this week.

John Wedgwood lost a valuable Angora buck a few days ago. Two monarchs of the herd engaged in combat which result in the death of one of them.

Forest Ranger C. M. Howells passed through here Monday on his way from Silver City to his home at Kingston. Mr. Howells has been in charge of the Gila Forest office in Silver City during the absence of Supervisor Don P. Johnston.

Leslie Shelton, who makes a living by hunting and trapping, recently exhibited the beautiful pelt of a large wolf which he killed in the mountains a short time ago. He killed the animal with his .22 cal. high pressure Savage rifle; one shot did the work.

State Engineer A. J. French and Robert Martin arrived here by automobile Wednesday evening. Mr. French came to Hillsboro from San Marcial by the way of Cuchillo and Las Palomas. They gave the new road a tryout and found it very satisfactory. They left yesterday forenoon for the river where Mr. French went to inspect a proposed bridge site.

W. H. Broadus, optician, of Las Cruces, arrived here yesterday. Mr. Broadus is the forerunner of a party of hunters who are expected to arrive here on the following dates: October 12.—Theodore Roualt, L. A. Broadus, John A. Anderson, Mr. Blimebry, Henry Stoes, Las Cruces; Mr. Cobb of Albuquerque, and Lamar Davis of El Paso. November 1.—C. Bloodgood, Dr. Robinson and party. Chas. Anderson will chaperone the hunters.

LAKE VALLEY.

Considerable native hay is being cut and cured on the flats near Nutt. Brayton Campbell, an assayer, formerly of Hillsboro, is making some tests of the Company ores, rumor says for Los Angeles parties. Mr. Campbell took a look at the Log Cabin Sunday.

Our school is closed this week on account of an epidemic of measles. More than a dozen of the white children are down with the disease, but about all will be able to attend school again Monday morning.

Messrs. Culberson and Gilchrist of Silver City, were in on Monday to look at the Banksdale cattle recently purchased by Nunn & Latham. They were looking for bees with which to supply the markets in Hurley, Santa Rita, etc.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford and family of Deming are grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Crawford's son, Raymond Ludlow, September 28th. He has been sick for a year or two of Bright's disease, now better, now worse. He was a bright, lovable boy and we offer the bereaved family our loving sympathy.

Harry Parks came in from Mesilla Park Saturday.

This section experienced a severe hail storm on October 1. The stones were as large as marbles and the hills to the north of town were white with the fall. Several window panes about town were broken.

We hear that Inez Finch Sanders has a 3-pound boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick, of the Todd ranch on the Jarlosa, spent Sunday at J. P. Nunn's.

The petitions for the union of the Lake Valley and Berenda school districts having received a sufficient number of signatures, will go to the county superintendent of schools for his action thereon.

Some mining experts of Durango, Mexico, are visiting this section.

Wanted!

Good home and small salary provided healthy, sturdy old man, able to do light chores around very small place. There are no goats nor cattle. Three in family. Party qualifying for place will be treated as member of family. Apply by letter only, giving full particulars, to H. M. C., Co Advocate. advt. Aug. 8

CHLORIDE.

Westy Petersen, one of our most respected citizens, died a few days ago at Hotel Dieu, El Paso, to which place he went some time ago to undergo an operation; it is said the operation was successful, but pneumonia set in causing death. Mr. Petersen went to California during the great gold excitement in 1849; early in the 60's he came to New Mexico with the California Column. In the early 80's he went to Kingston, this county, and was one of the lucky miners who struck it rich during the boom days of that camp. Later he came to Chloride and embarked in mining in which he was still engaged in up to the time of his death. Mr. Petersen was highly honored and respected by all, and his death is deeply regretted by all who knew him. He was a Mason of good standing.

Gen. Quinby Vance, who went to El Paso recently to consult a physician, failed to get results, and went on to Chicago.

Mrs. Knowles, sister of Mrs. Cornelius Sullivan, has returned to her home in the east. She was accompanied by Mr. Sullivan's little daughter, Edith.

Miss Dasie Hearn is spending a few weeks in El Paso.

Ed. Davison left on Monday's coach for Montana where he has gone on business. He expects to be absent about three weeks.

On account of bad weather Mrs. F. H. Winston was delayed in her trip. They went out Saturday in Mr. Hullinger's car. Au tin Crawford went out with them to see the improvements at the Dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Holderby came in from their ranch near Phillipsburg to take a look at the town and to count noses.

There was a heavy fall of hail here one night last week, its coming was like the rush of many waters; at first it was thought the creek had overflowed its banks. The hail storm was followed by a heavy downpour which lasted off and on for two days.

KINGSTON.

Lige Tressel is up from Las Palomas visiting for a few days.

Frank Harris, R. C. Stevens and C. C. Goins have gone over the Range for awhile.

There are rumors of a dance here

Saturday night.

Miss Elizabeth Kinney, Miss Lilly Bernard, John Brown, Joe Parks, and Clyde Kennett attended the dance in Hillsboro Saturday night.

C. M. Howells has returned after an absence of several weeks in Silver City.

Eternal Vigilance Is the Price of Liberty.

It is also the price the good wife pays for the results of her kitchen as shown upon her dining table.

It consists in untiring efforts each day to excell the results of yesterday. Minute care as to detail, extreme cleanliness, care for the quality of the raw material from both butcher and grocer. That is kind of vigilance we are devoting to

The First Kicker.
First Prehistoric Man—"Then you don't approve of cooking and manual training in the schools?" Second Prehistoric Man—"It's a shameful waste of the taxpayers' money. That daughter of mine has had two years of it, and she can't fry a dinosaur fit to eat; while my son, who has been at it just as long, has carved a club that I wouldn't trust to black the eye of a baby mammoth."—Puck.

Painful Discovery.
 "Well," said the dentist as with a steel instrument he tapped Mr. Ackin's tooth, "I told you when I put that crown on that it might give you trouble. I never guarantee a crowned tooth." "Oh, I know. I wish I'd had the blame thing pulled!" moaned Mr. Ackin sadly. "I've found out to my sorrow that uneasy rests the tooth that wears a crown!"

To Make Tires of Paper.
 Experiments have recently been made in Europe looking to the utilization of paper in the manufacture of pneumatic tires, tests recently made having convinced the experimenters that paper has the strength of metal, the elasticity of rubber, and a cheapness that is to be found in neither of these materials; all important qualities.

Slow Suicide.
 "The entirely self-centered man is always a man slowly killing himself. . . . Bachelors do not usually live as long as married men; yet no observer of the world would maintain that bachelors really take less care of themselves. No, they are always taking care of themselves, and it is the care that shortens their lives."—"In Cotton Wool," by W. B. Maxwell.

Had to Know the Time.
 "I understand," said the judge, "that you stole the watch of the doctor who had just written a prescription for you at the free dispensary. What have you to say to this charge?" "Well, your honor," said the prisoner, "it is true, but I found myself in a hole. His prescription said a spoonful every hour, and I had no watch."

Woman and Suffrage.
 If a woman demands votes, offices and political equality with men, as among the Shakers an elder and elderess are of equal power—and among the Quakers—it must not be refused. It is very cheap wit that finds it so droll that woman should vote.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Hidden Treasure.
 A diseased cow was removed from a dairy farm in New York by the state veterinarian and killed and dissected. In its stomach was found a gold watch with a gold chain attached to it. The watch had been lost several months before by a boarder on the dairy farm.

Delicately Expressed.
 Little Bobby had been eating raspberry pie and had left the marks of it at both sides of his mouth, when a little friend of three came in and said to Bobbie's mother: "Mrs. C., can I have some of what Bobbie's got on his face?"

Whale Whips Five Crews.
 The largest whale ever captured in that vicinity was caught in Fred Perez' fish nets, near Santa Cruz. Five launches tried to tow the monster to the pier without success. Nets and ropes broke and the task was abandoned. The whale was fifty feet long.

His Limit.
 The Father—"Can you support my daughter in the style to which she has been accustomed?" The Sutor—"Yes, but not in the style to which her mother and you have been trying to make me think for the past six months she has been accustomed."

Tag, Rag and Bobtail.
 From tegg or teg—a doe in the second year of her age; rag, a herd of deer at rutting time; bobtail, a fawn just after it has been weaned, and the phrase means an indiscriminate collection of sheep or deer.

All Have a Duty.
 Every man or woman is one of mankind's dear possessions; to his or her just brain, and kind heart and active hands, mankind intrusts some of its hopes for the future.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Changing Hues.
 "You are in love with a blonde," remarked the fortune teller, "but after you marry her, beware of a brunette." "No danger," remarked the fortune teller, "it's the same woman."—The World.

As Others See Us.
 He came into the car with swagger, took the only vacant seat with outward manifestations of his belief in his own importance, kicking the big yellow valise belonging to the napping old woman next to him aside to make way for his tan-shod feet. The owner did not notice this, but when aroused at Fifty-second street, she fumbled about his left foot with her hand, trying to lift it, only to exclaim with much embarrassment: "Acht! Excuse me, but it look just like mine bag."

Hiccough Epidemics.
 The epidemics of hiccough which have occasionally been observed are probably due to hysterical contagion and to the nervous predisposition of the majority of the individuals who are affected by it. It is to functional derangement of the nervous system owing to a slackening of the circulation that the hiccough of the death struggle, remarkable more particularly in a period of abundant hemorrhage, is to be ascribed.

Pronunciation of Z.
 The pronunciation of the letter Z as zee is an Americanism. The English pronunciation is zed, from the old Old French zede, which in turn is derived from the Latin zeta, the name of the sixth letter of the Greek alphabet, corresponding to the English zed. Shakespeare in King Lear, act II, scene 2, gives the English pronunciation, which is still in vogue: "Zed! thou unnecessary letter."

Might Get Even With Mosquito.
 An observer in India has found a small fly of the midge class with its proboscis inserted in the abdomen of a mosquito, engaged in sucking the mosquito's blood. There is comfort, if not benefit, in this bit of news. Why can't we import this midge? The mosquitoes would know how it is themselves then, perhaps.—Farm and Fireside.

Victim of Snakes He Hunted.
 After destroying upwards of 2,000 vipers in the course of his career as a snake hunter, M. Henry Sausseraud died recently, in Paris, from the bite of a snake. He was hunting snakes in the woods near Bouloire (Barthe) when a viper bit him in the hand and arm, and he died in terrible agony twelve hours later.

Learning From the Fish.
 "That's the tenth can of sardines you have ordered," said the railway magnate. "Aren't you afraid you will make yourself sick?" "I'm not eating them," replied the employee with inventive genius. "I think I'm on the track of a way to get more people into a street car."

City Man's Sneer at Country.
 There was a Frenchman who hated the country as much as did Charles Lamb, but compressed his feelings into few words. This was Charles Monselet, who lived on the Quai Voltaire, Paris. "It is," he said, "the place where the birds are raw."

Umbrella Stand.
 A sponge in a porcelain umbrella stand will keep the umbrella from striking the bottom of the jar, which is often broken in this way, and will also absorb the rain water from a wet umbrella. A carriage sponge will fit the bottom and is not expensive.

Saving Patent Leather.
 Patent leather shoes and slippers will last twice as long if you wipe them off occasionally with a soft cloth that has been wrung out of olive oil. Keep the cloth in a small tin box, one that has a cover, and the oil will last a long time.

Reproach to Femininity.
 For every wing of black and orange on a woman's hat an apple tree is stripped of leaves and young fruit, or an elm is denuded of its graceful foliage by the canker-worm.—Our Dumb Animals.

She Knew.
 "Laura," said the fond mother, "what are the intentions of that young man whom you are permitting to call on you so often? Never mind that, mother," answered the maiden; "I know what my intentions are."

Meiody of Happiness.
 "Get out in the sunlight," says a Georgia philosopher, "and see Happiness coming down the road, picking a banjo for the whole world to dance!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Gratitude for Sentence.
 "Thank you, may the Lord bless or. May yer head never ache!" said a woman sentenced to ten months' hard labor to the judge.

SPIDER BOUND ITS CAPTIVE.
 Had Fly Safely Tied Up Before Attacking It.

"One morning, when busy in my workshop," says a naturalist, "a large fly, double the size of a bluebottle, was caught in a spider's web in the window close to where I was at work. It was held by two of its legs only, and for some time the spider, which was about the size of the fly's head, proceeded to strengthen its hold by attaching numerous extra lines to the two captive limbs, carefully keeping out of reach of the others, which were letting out in all directions in frantic efforts to escape. "During a short respite in the captive's struggles the spider cautiously approached, and with its hind legs got several turns of its tiny rope round one of the limbs that were free. These tactics were carried on till all the legs were firmly bound. It then injected poison into one of the legs. This soon showed itself, for its deadening effects reduced the victim's struggles in a marked degree. The poison paralyzes but does not kill. "Shortly after a second bite resistance ceased, and the victor settled down to suck the juices of its fallen prey. The struggles lasted quite an hour. Next morning the fly was alive, and the spider was still sucking out its life blood."
