WRITES HIS OWN EPITAPH

From the Liberal (Mo.) News.

Robert Dunn, an old time citizen of West Barton, is a man who has long been known for his eccentricities; and one among his peculiarities is the fact that he has written his own epitaph and let the contract for having it engraved upon his tombstone as well as having made all arrangements for his funeral, burial, etc. From the nature of his arrangements it appears that he looks upon the occasion as being one more of pleasure than of sorrow. He says the last job he intends doing is to make his own coffin.

Mr. Dunn declares that he has made a deal with A. Guffy, one of Liberal's leading mechanics, to do the planting and engrave the epitaph upon his tombstone. For this service M. Guffy, is to receive his furniture and Fanny (Mr. Dunn's driving mare) and the cart. He does not explain however what the consequences would be should Fanny die prematurely. Mr. Dunn himself is in his seventies.

When Mr. Dunn passes in his checks, the mourners are to gather in, load a barrel of wine, which he is preserving for the event, into a wagon, proceed to the graveyard; and, when the planting is nicely done, they are to top the barrel and drink the wine. When the wine is consumed, they are to knock the barrel to pieces, drive them in the ground around his grave and go home happy.

His epitaph is as follows:

Here lies R. Dunn beneath this sod
That monster heathen, who did not believe in a Christian god.
The stock that we are from,
Makes a difference you know;
The god that we worship makes a difference also.
There are but a few who pretend to say
That the blood of a dead god makes it all go
And if you don't believe it, to hell you must go.

Hides in a new thought you well ought to know.

The exploder of hell, it may be so:

Conscience is not created in us just so;

What we are told makes our conscience you know.

Think not of the morrow, when here-in we are fed;
And how soon will it be when we are all dead.

Young men have visions, just so;
Old men dream dreams, and were it not so

Jesus would not have been born you know.

ROBT. DUNN.

JOURNALISM IN CACTUS CENTER

Down here in Cactus Center, we ain't much on split'n' hairs;
In the fancy shades of language we are puttin' on no airs,
But we're shy one young reporter—it was strange how it occurred,
Who nussed up a brilliant future when he chose jest one wrong word.

He hustled local items for the "Stockmen's Weekly Star,"

He was young and plumb ambitious, and he made friends near and far;

He never knocked nobody but he allus tried to boost,

And we thought he'd make a wonder in the Journalistic roost.

But he wrote with good intentions, as most everyone allowst

"Our townsman, Pecos Johnson, has gone south to rustle cows."

He meant to say that Pecos was a-round-in' up his brand,

For he didn't know that "rustle" meant to thieve in Cattle Land.

When Pecos Johnson read it he put on an extry grin,

And he came to town a-strothin' with his bronco on the run;

The reporter got a warnin' and he hopped a cowboy's beast

And he started navigatin' for the calm and distant east.

We got old Pecos quiet when he'd busted up the press,

And had shot holes in the mactum and had made the type a mess;

And we'd like a bright reporter who is broke to western slang—

No more such babies shall monkey with our newspaper shebang!

—Arthur Chapman, in the Denver Republican.

A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it is hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a retched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvet skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them, 50c at all Druggists.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

CONTEST NOTICE.

6-5819

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Roswell, N. M., May 8, 1911.

To Frank J. White of Elida, N. M., Contestee: You are hereby notified that L. C. Kinney who gives Elida, N. M., Range No. 2, as his post-office address, did on April 24, 1911, file in this office his duly corroborated application for contest and secure the cancellation of your Homestead Entry No. Serial No. 62339 made December 22, 1908, for Section 25, Township 6 S., Range 32 E. N. M. P. Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that Frank J. White has never established residence on said land.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your said entry will be canceled thereunder without your further right to be heard, therein, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office, within twenty days after the date below, your answer, under oath, specifically meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail within that time to file in this office due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant, either in person, or by registered mail. If this service is made by the delivery of a copy of your answer to the contestant in person, proof of such service must be either the said contestant's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the copy, showing the date of its receipt, or the affidavit of the person by whom the delivery was made stating when and where the copy was delivered; if mailed by registered mail, proof of such service must consist of the affidavit of the person by whom the copy was mailed stating when and the post office to which it was mailed, and this affidavit must be accompanied by the postmaster's receipt for the letter.

You should state in your answer the name of the postoffice to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

Brudder Sagg Needed Aid

HIS LADY WANTED HER RIGHTS AND HER METHODS OF GETTING CAUSED HIM GREAT DISTRESS.

"I want to ax yo' advice Brudder Ramshack," began an obfuscated looking colored citizen. "Wants yo' to tell me, i yo' humble opinion how to git out'n de meele I's in. I's so mixed in my mind dat—aw, dess lemme sp'atiate: Muh wide-board, hefty lady, as yo' know, —wants her rights, an'—"

"Dey all does, sah!" interrupted old Brother Ramshack, who was no little of a philosopher. "Lady folks is all dat-uh way; wants deir rights."

"But disn't gits 'em! Rotches out and snatches 'em away fum me—dat's her method of puh-soot. Wants her rights an' gits 'em! I done woke up in de middle o' de night an' found her goin' th'oo mah pant; pocket—sixty-five cents, good money, in dem pants, too, sah!"

"Why didn't yo' hop up an' lam her, Brudder Sagg?"

"Lamm who? Yo' isn't talk in' to me, sah! Dat lady weighs nigh three hundred pounds! Nussah, de meanest I done was to set up in muh verticle couch an' ax her, 'Uh-looky yuh, lady! Don't yo' think yo' actin' saw-tuh similar? What kind-uh way am dat for a 'spectable mar'd 'ooman to be puhseedm'? An' she told me to shet muh mouf, uh-kase she was dess 'joyin' her rights, like de white ladies does. Well sah, dat made me ashy; did for a fact—t wuz de last feather dat broke de Campbellite's back! An' I hollorod, as I jumped for de 'jo', fetch-taked if I would sleep in de same edifice wid no sich-uh pusson; I'd sooner sleep in de stable, I says. An' out de do' I went, an' slammed it—hard!"

"Ah-hah! Dat was de way to do!"

"Was it? I 'skivered dat it was stawmin, outside—rain an' thunder an' lightnin'—plenty! An' as the lady didn't call me back I hatter make muh bluff good. So I hoosted old Zimri, de hoss, out'n de stable, an' so about doin' de best I could for muhse'f. An' then muh wif looked out an' seed de hoss hoom ped up dar in de stohm, an' shelled at me whad did I mean, o'nerly scoun'el dat I wuz, by treatin' po' ol' Zimri dat-uh way? 'Lady,' I hollered back wid dignity, 'hits eeder me er Zimri. Once an' for de las' time choose uh-twixt yo' husban' an' dat 'ar hoss! An' she des t'rowed de do' wide open an' yelled, 'You cum on in yuh, Zimri!' An' I axes yo' sah, as a man o' de world, an' a brudder in de lodge, what am I to do erbout it, an' how's I to act in de 'mergency? "Go erhead an' git er divorce frum de lady; dat's what yo' got foh to do. An'—bless goodness! yo' got plenty avocation for it, sho', Brudder Sagg."

"Yassah, I spicion I has; but to tell de troof, Brudder Ramshack, I kain't seussly bring muhself to it. Yo' see I's had 'er so long dat she seems like one o' de family!"—Peck.

AND AIN'T IT THE TRUTH?

The Renfro (Okla.) Tribune says: "The mere fact that there is a newspaper in a town, is fully worth a hundred dollars and upwards per year to every business man in that town, even though he does not advertise in its columns. Yet many merchants feel that they are supporting a paper much better than it deserves, if they spend as much as even fifty dollars a year for advertising. Few people realize it, but it is the local paper that keeps three-fourths of the small towns on the map."

SOME TRUTH IN THIS.

Nowadays when Johnny is is had at school the teacher will take down her book and give him a black mark, and the next day no is worse than ever, says an exchange. Fifty years ago when Johnny was had at school the teacher took down a dogwood sprout, made two dozen black marks around his bare legs, and Johnny got up at daylight the next morning, started the fire, fed the horses, milked, chopped the wood and brought in enough to last all day, ate a hearty breakfast and walked five miles to school again, fresh as a daisy. Today Johnny does not get up until pa has the chores done and often not then. He don't feel well, you know! He stretches and yawns and growls, eats little breakfast, and goes out behind the barn to smoke a cigarette. If the school house is more than three blocks away he complains bitterly about the distance he has to walk, and wants a car ticket. The Johnny of fifty years ago is now a hale man; fifty years from now the Johnny of today will be dead and buried, and the green grass will be growing over his grave to hide the folly of his misguided parents and teachers. Spare the rod and substitute cigarettes, and Johnny won't trouble the earth but a few years.

Remington .22 REPEATING RIFLE

The popular idea of the .22 calibre rifle is that it is a sparrow gun—a plaything for the little boy.

Not so the REMINGTON .22 Repeater. Hammerless. Solid Breech, built to exactly the same high standard of quality as the big game REMINGTON Repeaters, this rifle is a man's rifle, and for the boy who has the making of a man. No rifle to compare with it for target shooting, for crows, hawks, squirrels and other small game of the keener sort.

Whether you are shooting in the field or at the target, never forget that UMC .22 cartridges are essential to the surest results. Straight shooting, hard hitting, sure fire. UMC .22 short, .22 long and .22 long rifle cartridges can be depended upon to be as perfect as any ammunition of any calibre made.

NOW WHAT DID SHE MEAN?

At a recent wedding a baby had shrieked without intermission to the great annoyance of guests, etc. As the bridal party was leaving the church a slight delay occurred. One of the guests seized the opportunity to say to the first bridesmaid:

"What a nuisance babies are at a wedding!"

"Yes, indeed!" answered the bridesmaid, angrily. "When I send out invitations to my wedding I shall have printed in the corner, 'No babies expected.'"—Judge.

Patrick O'Leary and family arrived a few days ago, from Dallas, Texas, and have moved to their claim, north of town. Mr. O'Leary says he is tired of city life, and city ways, and he is going to try living in the country, and where he can own his home. He dropped in and had the Record sent to some of his friends who are thinking of investigating this country.

D. B. Walker was up from Acme a few days this week, visiting, and bathing his stomach in good cool well water. He has contested the Boykin claim, west of town.

Rev. Charley Robinson was home this week from his Mission work, but only to remain a short time. He has a series of meetings yet ahead that will take up his time until about the middle of September, and after they close he and his family are coming home to stay. His wife and children are now at Hamlin Texas.

Ernest Paddock will commence drilling a well for W. H. Harris in a few days, on his homestead, west of town.

Harvey Fry and John Mims have contracted to put down a well for preacher Robinson, on his claim, in the Littlefield valley, northwest of town.

C. M. Denny came home from Roswell last Sunday, where he had been at work for some time.

Mrs. G. W. Groves, of Corona, was here this week, to visit her sister, Mrs. J. B. West, of the West Hotel.

Mrs. Sarah Haney came up from Roswell Tuesday and is out on her claim.

H. W. Fry has started the well drill again on his claim.

Mrs. J. O. Grant came home Wednesday to resume life on the claim. Her husband will come later on.

A committee was out this week soliciting funds to pay for the cemetery grounds.

Lew Cadenhead came up from Acme Wednesday to spend a few days in Kenna.

There is some talk of organizing a band at Kenna. Will it end in talk? We are afraid, yes!

10 Shots
at your Finger Tips in
THE Savage
32 CALIBER
AUTOMATIC PISTOL.

The Savage Automatic smothered every adversary in the rapidity of its fire. When the occasion comes you have ready the quickest, handiest and most accurate arm made. Give yourself every possible advantage. It means life or death. That is why you will discard your revolver when you see the SAVAGE.

Special Features Which Will Appeal to You

TEN SHOTS: Double the number contained in an ordinary revolver, and two more than ordinary Automatics.

ACCURACY: The pistol is so constructed that all powder gases are utilized, insuring extreme accuracy, as well as freedom from fouling.

SIMPLICITY: Fewer parts than any other automatic pistol. Completely dismounted by hand—without the aid of tools. No screws to work loose.

SAFETY: Breech positively and automatically locked during the time of discharge. Cannot be fired unless the trigger is pulled. When the safety is on neither force nor folly can discharge it.

BALANCE: Perfectly balanced. Center of gravity well to the rear. Lies naturally in the hand. Will not flinch on the trigger pull. The only automatic which locks at the breech, while the bullet traverses the barrel.

WEIGHT: 19 oz., including magazine. Length over all, 6 1/2 inches. Price, $15.00. Any wide-awake dealer will show you this miniature rapid fire gun. If he will not supply you kindly advise us and we will send it prepaid.
