Sister

By Paul Sorenson

My sister comes into town
I look for her
And we find each other
Across the room

And the smiles come

She hugs me tight
We look into
Each others eyes
And the years wushhhh away

Same eyes
Same smile

That person I used to torment
With all the love
A four year old can muster
Smiles back with the same spunk
She gave me
When mom wasn't looking

I am jealous of the people
That keep her so far
