Notes For The Stalled

UNI Museum Speaker Series

The Friends of the UNI Museum is presenting their second annual speaker series "The World Comes to the Cedar Valley, Iowa Embraces Diversity." Join us on Oct 20 at 2pm at the Marshall Center Schoolhouse to hear a guest panel from the Cedar Valley Advocates for Immigrant and Refugee Rights discuss our "Most Recent New Residents- Latin Americans, the Balkan States, Sudan and Somalia." All presentations are free and open to the public, have free parking and handicapped accessible access. Stay tuned for upcoming Friends of the Museum newsletter for more information.

International Games Week

Join the Northern Iowa Gaming Collective and Rod Library as we celebrate International Games Week on November 8 from 6-11pm in the Book Bistro. No experience required, they'll be plenty of players on hand to help you learn the ropes, or bring one of your favorite games to teach us!

Flu Shot

We are hosting another Flu shot clinic in room 287. Join us on Oct 11 from 1-4pm to help keep the flu on the run. Shots are $30 for students without health insurance, or the Student Health Clinic can file a claim with your health insurance.

Aldo Leopold Lecture Series

The Aldo Leopold Distinguished Lecture Series will engage the University of Northern Iowa community, providing opportunities throughout the academic year to interact with a dynamic set of visiting speakers focusing on our relationship with the natural world. Be sure to catch Dr. Karen Oberhauser on Oct 24th as she discusses "Dwindling numbers for an iconic insect: A conservation biologist ponders moving beyond the documentation of declines" For more information see: <https://guides.lib.uni.edu/leopold-lectures>.

Skin and Bones

Did you know the Library Services desk has skeletons, microscopes and tissue samples for check out? The UNI Biology department has graciously loaned us three full sized skeletons, two microscopes and two boxes of tissue slide samples for students who need some extra study time with these objects. They check out for three hours and can be used in the building only, so no luck using them as an extra Halloween or Day of the Dead decorations. Need more help? Don't forget The Learning Center also has walk-in help for Math and Science Mon-Thur from 10am-3pm.
