WHILE THERE'S A THREAD IN THE OLD BRITISH RAG.

Substitute for 3rd & 4th Verses.

3.

Then haul up the Colours and list to the call,
That booms out across the wide sea,
'Tis the blood of our Hero's, they stumble and fall
In the cause of sweet Liberty,
Never Britisher knew how to stoop so low
And in slavery's yoke his neck cannot go
No need to declare — it has ever been so
Beneath the flag of old England.

Chorus.— For while there's a thread in the old British Rag
On Canada's soil shall our loyalty flag
All true British Sons, will stand to the guns
And fight for our honour and freedom.

4.

Then haul up the Colours and let the Boys know
Our Country will rise to a man,
Nor think we forget they are bearing the brunt,—
Success lies not all in the Van.
When the leaden hail is a-storming around
And the gore runs red, on the treacherous ground
God guard you and keep you is our prayer profound,
In other lands than Old England.
Chorus.— For while there's a thread in the old British Rag.
