Ike Is Winner! City Park Project Gets Limelight County Wins Battle

The establishment of a City Park, following the meeting at the City Hall Monday night, has taken the spotlight away from the election in Fulton today.

The City Council, representing all the people, has shown great interest in the proposal, but awaits the wishes of the majority to proceed.

There is this one alternative—if the good people of Fulton wanted a project costing $150,000 and, for example, voted $80,000 worth of bonds leaving a balance of $70,000 to be raised through a revenue bond issue, it might be possible for the city to sell $35,000 worth of first lien revenue bonds to be underwritten by a bond house, and $35,000 worth of second lien bonds, those bonds all to be bought by residents.

The annual payments of $9000 would continue until January 1974 when the bond matures. During the period an annual surplus accrues, which would give the issue a re-call feature after a certain number of years.

The bond issue is decided upon like this:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Amount. Rows: Jan. 1955 $5000, Jan. 1957 6000, Jan. 1961 8000, Jan. 1964 9000.

The citizens of Harlan, Ky., approved a $100,000 playground bond issue in Tuesday's election by 158 votes more than the required two-thirds majority.

The exhibit is mounted on a special built trailer, which is one of six on the third year of a national tour. Each unit carries a different collection of items and only one unit is shown in a city each year.

Each item is selected from the unusual assortment of strange things which Mr. Ripley spared no effort or expense to unearth during his endless explorations of all parts of the world.

Location of the showing will be on Lake Street and the exhibit will be open from Ten A. M. to Nine P. M. Teachers are invited to bring classes at any time during these hours.

Real Estate Transfers Figure in Week's News

Dr. R. V. Putnam, Jr., local optometrist, who is building a new, one-story brick-veneer ranch type home on the Union City Highway, is expecting to move into his new home by Christmas.

Much progress has been made in the erection of the business house owned by the Graham Brothers on Main Street, next door to Jackson's Pharmacy.

General Dwight Eisenhower

An Editorial

More than 57,000,000 persons went to the polls Tuesday. More than 31,000,000 persons cast their vote for General Dwight D. Eisenhower. His election to the Presidency of one of the greatest Nations in the world is the mandate of the majority of the people and we are satisfied that it is as it should be.

Party loyalty and the support of an equally great America, Adlai Stevenson, prompted us to seek the defeat of General Eisenhower.

But there is no need now to sulk in defeat. There is no need to expect the worst because of that defeat. The General fought hard and we believe sincerely to attain the high office of President of the United States so that he could see us living in a happier, more peaceful, more prosperous world.

He is now the President-Elect of the United States. It is time to put aside the bitterness of the campaign and wish Ike Godspeed in the task of administering the most difficult job in the world.

PRETTY LITTLE RITA IS SCOUT'S QUEEN

Pretty little Rita Kramer, vivacious brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kramer was selected as Cub Scout queen at the annual Cub Scout Carnival held at the school last week.

Rita succeeds Betty McDade, and will reign over all Cub Scout activities for the coming year.

Cubmaster Nelson Tripp and all the Cub leaders are highly pleased over the success of the Carnival and wish to thank the merchants, business men and parents for their cooperation in putting the event over.

Prize winning den was Mrs. W. P. Burnette's Den Two, and the Den Mother and the boys each received a prize for selling the most tickets of any den in the Pack.

Billy Burnette was the first prize winner of the Cubs in the ticket sales; Don Burnette was second and Tommy Fields of Den Six was third.

Jack Walters arrived last Friday morning from Fairbanks, Alaska for an extended visit with his mother, Mrs. M. E. Schmidt.

TIGHT SQUEEZE!

Along with everything else this week, the News' football editor reported a "tight squeeze" among the three winning contestants in last week's football score-guessing contest.

First-prize winner with one miss and a point difference of 218 was Evelyn Peterson. Second-place went to Felix Gossum, Jr., and with 247 points third to Gene Smoot, Dresden, Tenn, who scored 251.

Not among the prize winners but deserving of mention with a 12-out-of-14 average were Guy Upton, Jr., and Mary Louise Gossum; the 11-out-of-14 group included Jack Moore, Johnny Lancaster of Dyersburg, Chip Roberts, Jasper Vowell, J. M. Martin and James Henson, Wingo.

The multitude of other "also-rans" included scorers who managed 10 out of 14... down to six.

There's a new crop of scores this week, so sharpen your pencil and look 'em over now!

The Democrats in Fulton County won the battle, but lost the victory in Tuesday's election. Although the Democrats won their ticket to give the Democratic ticket a majority in the county, they lost the victory as a result of greater Republican strength in other parts of the State.

The Republican party, and nearly 600 Democrats for Eisenhower in Fulton County shook the foundation of the Gibraltar of Democracy in Kentucky's First District when 1260 votes were cast for General Eisenhower. According to the County Court clerk there are 672 registered Republicans in Fulton County.

The largest Republican vote ever cast on record in the clerk's office was in 1928 when the Republican electors received 1366 votes. The Republicans had on the ticket for president, Herbert Hoover and the Democrats, Al Smith. That year the Democratic electors received 3132 votes.

Tom Underwood, the Democratic candidate for the United States fared a little better than did the Presidential candidates, when percentage-wise, when 2608 Democratic votes were cast for Underwood and 1131 for John Sherman Cooper, who won the election over the State.

Both Senatorial candidates visited in Fulton County and both made visits among the voters in the city after their scheduled talks.

Governor Lawrence Wetherby also visited Fulton County in the interest of the Democratic ticket and pinch-hitted for Vice-President Barkley in the traditional election eve tour of the First District.

Governor Wetherby's visit here was well received, but it is doubtful whether he changed any Democratic voters who had enthusiastically, vehemently and loudly campaigned for Eisenhower.

According to long-time citizens of the county the interest in a Republican candidate has had no equal in the past 24 years. In 1928, however, the interest was even keener for the Republicans than in 1952, when the church affiliation of Al Smith was a major issue of the campaign, particularly in the South which went almost solid for the Republican ticket.

Three write-in votes for President were thrown out in the counting at Hickman on Tuesday. They were cast for Jack Kennerney for President and a little investigating found that the would-be candidate for President is a very popular visitor to Fulton.

Mr. Kennerney travels Fulton for a well known distillery and is a grand-son of "Cap" Kennerney, one of Kentucky's best known and loved political figures. "Cap" was at one time head of the Kennerney Detective Agency and although he is now retired, the agency still bears his name.

Mr. Kennerney, the presidential candidate, though well known here, could not be reached for comment through his friends on the type of campaign he conducted. Two of the votes were cast in the Courthouse precinct in Hickman and one at Roper's Store in that city.

Something went wrong at Mengel Lane on election day. That little precinct nestled on the rim of the county has the largest Republican registration of any precinct in the county, yet its vote for the Republican party was insignificant as related to the other precincts with less Republican registration.

Mengel Lane has 157 registered Republicans and nearly 300 Democrats, yet the vote Tuesday night stood like this:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate, Votes. Rows: Stevenson 20, Eisenhower 84, Underwood 77, Cooper 18, Gregory 83, Lake 14.

Billy Mott Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jones of this city, is now stationed at San Diego, Calif. His address: Billy Mott Jones, Co. 52-0804; USNTC: San Diego 33, Calif.

The battle, Democrat leaders said, was all the more intense because of the departure from the party of long-time Democrats who transferred to the Republican campaign.

The Junior Follies, each year one of the most eagerly anticipated events of all at Fulton High, will be held on Tuesday, November 11 at 7:45 p. m.

The follies are staged each year as a money-raising project of the junior class and with each year the event gets bigger and better. This year a delightful Merry Widow waltz will be part of the program as will other acts of dancing, singing and special acts.

Mrs. M. W. Haws has been rehearsing a first rate chorus for the occasion, which will assist in the presentation of a patriotic skit at the end of the program.

Put the Junior Follies on your "must" list for next week.

Democrats, in an election post-mortem, which was held at the News office all day Wednesday, cited the active participation of Truman in the campaign as the principal factor for Stevenson's defeat here, and elsewhere in the Nation.

Truman's whistlestop campaign, not nearly so effective as it was in his own 1948 campaign, greatly cut down Stevenson's vote. Local voters were greatly influenced, either for or against Stevenson because of Truman it was believed. The Korean war, which Eisenhower has promised to end, was a tremendous influencing factor to his credit, in view of the tremendous interest manifest by the women-folks in this year's election.

Shortly after the polls closed at five o'clock on Tuesday residents of Fulton and South Fulton tuned in on the balloting from Kentucky and Tennessee and the Nation. In our neighboring city of South Fulton Democrats interested in Eisenhower were as plentiful as on the Kentucky side. A vigorous battle was also waged in the 16th Magisterial District of Tennessee by Democrats who gave Stevenson about the same majority as did the voters on the Kentucky side, 2 to 1.

Most interesting phase of the voting in the five Fulton precincts was in the 3-A precinct, where balloting was done at King Motor Company. The voters, mostly residents of West Fulton gave Stevenson 216 votes to Eisenhower 194. Tabulations in the five Fulton precincts according to complete, official returns are as follows:

- 1. Stevenson 163, Ike 113
2. Stevenson 246, Ike 110
3-A Stevenson 216, Ike 194
3. Stevenson 134, Ike 57
4-A. Stevenson 208, Ike 119

CAPITAL ROUNDUP

POST RESIGNED

Commissioner of Revenue H. Clyde Reeves resigned his post-effective November 15 — to accept a position with a Chicago Insurance Company. Reeves first came with the State Government in 1936, became Commissioner of Revenue in 1939, relinquished the post in 1942 when he entered military service. He returned again to the post in 1948 under Gov. Earle Clements.

HEARING CONTINUED

The Public Service Commission continued until November 25 further hearings on the application of the Southern Belle Telephone and Telegraph Company for a $2,580,000 annual raise in rates — fifth since the close of World War II — to meet added operating costs. A number of cities have protested the increase as not being justified.

WARNING ISSUED

A warning has been issued by Kentucky's two fiscal officers, Commissioner of Revenue H. Clyde Reeves and Commissioner of Finance Clifford R. Barnes — that Kentucky's general fund budget voted by the last General Assembly may undergo a downward revision if revenue collections continue a trend that began during September.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

The State Tuberculosis Sanatorium Commission re-elected E. Murphy Josey, Frankfort, as its president and chose Dr. Faull S. Trover, Madisonville, secretary. Other members of the group are Dr. Oscar O. Miller, Louisville; W. W. Owsley, Cynthiana and Commissioner of Welfare Luther T. Goheen, the latter an ex-officio member.

PAYMENTS RISE

Commissioner of Economics Security Vego E. Barnes announced that average payments to public assistance recipients had risen, while the number on the state's charity rolls had shown a substantial decline in the past month. Larger checks were made possible by a $5,600,000 additional federal grant.

CONTRACTS AWARDED

The State Highway Department awarded road improvement contracts totaling $1,410,590 to cover fifty miles of roads in Bracken, Estill, Powell, Fulton, Henderson, Nicholas, Rowan, Daviess, Hardin, Owen and Russell Counties.

RIVER LEASED

The State Property and Buildings Commission has leased 150 miles of the lower Ohio River from Lock and Dam No. 45 in Breckinridge County to Lock 50 in Crittenden County to the Ohio River Oil Company, Frankfort, in return for one-eighth royalty on all oil production within the

"KY'S. LINCOLN" BY BARBARA ANDERSON TO BE PRODUCED IN LOUISVILLE IN 1953

A new play by Barbara Anderson, well known Louisville novelist, will be produced in Louisville next June, with members of the chorus and ballet selected from colleges and high schools in Kentucky and Southern Indiana, and leading roles played by stars from Hollywood and New York. The title of the play is "Kentucky's Lincoln." Assurance of an elaborate production was contained in the announcement Monday that ample funds already have been obtained by University Festival, Inc., an organization composed of corporations, private citizens and the University of Louisville for the purpose of supervising and financing the play. Mrs. Anderson's play, which she has been writing for the last two years, revolves around Lincoln's close association with Kentucky, not only his birth here and his marriage to Mary Todd of Lexington, but with his visit to Louisville in 1841 and his subsequent reliance upon Kentucky in the Civil War.

The musical score is being supplied by Norman Dello Joio, one of America's finest young composers whose compositions have been performed by the Country's greatest orchestras. The score for "Kentucky's Lincoln" includes use of soloists, chorus, ballet and orchestra. "Kentucky's Lincoln" will play nightly at Iroquois Amphitheatre, in Louisville's Iroquois Park, from June 15 through July 5.

Officers of the Company are E. L. Newton, Owensboro, president; G. A. Dempewolf, Henderson, vice president, and former Attorney General A. E. Funk, Frankfort, secretary — treasurer. Kentucky owns the river to the north shore by inheritance from Virginia. In addition to the one-eighth royalty the State receives $20-a year on each unit of operation, until it is drilled.

WHAT WILL YOUR CHURCH DO FOR ME?

The question was asked me the other day of what the church can do for a fellow. It was asked in a very cynical way and I felt that the fellow was just looking for an argument and my reply was that I did not think the church could do anything for him. I did have this to say though, that as a rule which worked about 90 per cent of the time, that those who attended a church of some kind and who followed the precepts were the best citizens and the people I had confidence in, in a business and in a social world. When did you ever hear of a church worker going to jail or being shot in some drunken brawl. When I meet a fellow who is associated with a church, I immediately have more respect for him and feel he is above the average.

In those yesterdays I knew when a boy, out in the western states, the towns that had no church influence were the roughest kind of places where "Sam Colt's equalizer" was the law I will promise you they were hard towns to live in, with but little general satisfaction of fairness and good fellowship.

While in towns where they did have church influence we had reasonable government and life had a value.

Yes I am for churches and the person who does not affiliate himself with one, is missing the better things that life has to offer.

THAT TAFT HARTLEY LAW

Of all the people who criticize the Taft Hartley law, I wonder how many have ever looked it over. To me, it is a protection to the union man himself but it is rather hard on the labor leaders and those over lords in the graft kingdoms.

The latter, are bent on throttling free enterprise and breaking the authority of discipline, which in turn will break any desire of industrialists to develop more industry.

If labor is able to break down the free enterprise system, the slavery of despotism will certainly take over.

Today the last stronghold of free enterprise and the last hope of organized labor, is in the United States and Canada.

If the right to authority, and to challenge those whom they employ is taken away from industry, then free enterprise goes down.

GIBBON'S ROME

It would not be a bad idea to have Gibbon's Rome studied in our high schools for a decade or two.

It tells of things happening there that are happening here in this country, this modern nation of our own. It tells of what took place a little before the nation went down altogether.

For instance? Does this sound like today or not? "Then came the increase of political pressure of all kinds for armament but a blind disregard for the destructive elements building up on the inside of the empire." Billions upon billions spent on war tools (which we are afraid to use) and corruption in government and Communists bobbing up in all departments of the nation.

"While Constantine through his liberality excited the applause of the masses, he received the curses of posterity." This reminds one of the ten tons of gold shipped to Italy a while back and other similar moves. Of some thirty or more hospitals costing around 2 million each, all over the world built at your and my expense.

"There was a mad desire for excitement which led to all kinds of extravagances and finally engulfed the empire and destroyed it."

We have just issued a bulletin on why the women in a certain South American country lacked vitamins. We had experts in the country for 3 years finding out "what lacked".

Does this bring to mind some of the extravagances in your social security? "It was artfully conceived that in the enjoyment

There has really been a lot of excitement around Fulton High this week.

Monday afternoon we had assembly. David Clements and Eugene Holloway presented the different sides of the present political election. Both boys' speeches were excellent and the students enjoyed them fully.

Tuesday morning we held our election. Each homeroom voted secretly and in assembly the votes were tabulated. It was very exciting with each student cheering when his candidate was a head. It was a very close race with first Eisenhower leading, then Stevenson, and then a tie when the total was added. Eisenhower was elected president of the United States by a 1 vote margin. Afterwards in the halls and different rooms many arguments were going strong and they still are.

Tuesday afternoon, candidates for Mr. and Miss Fulton High were elected. Each class could have as many as three candidates for each contest. The candidates for Mr. and Miss Fulton High appear elsewhere in our school news.

This year the Juniors are not going to have a Junior Carnival, thus eliminating a King and Queen. They are concentrating instead, on a really good Junior Follies. The Mr. and Miss Fulton High will be elected that night. We hope everyone will come out and enjoy a night of the most talented program they've ever seen. The program will consist of a girls' chorus, a boys' chorus, a tap dancing number, and an impressive finale. There are several other very clever numbers.

Last Friday night, the Bulldogs were defeated by Newbern, but we hope to make up for it tonight, when we play Sharon at Sharon. SO COME ON OUT AND LET'S SUPPORT THE BULLDOGS.

Monday afternoon the members of the Fulton High School Conservation Junior Rifle Club received their awards at the chapel at Fulton High School. Instructors for the group is Hunter Whitesell. Students who received medals and their ratings are: Don Wright, 351, Junior Expert; George Greengrass, 341, Junior Expert; Larry Cavendar, 338, sharpshooter; Rice Owen, 331, sharpshooter; Bally Binford, 317, sharpshooter; David Sevier, 311, sharpshooter and Frank Cardwell, 286, marksman.

(Too late for last week)

Well, the flurry of homecoming week is over and although the Bulldogs were beaten 39-0 by Trigg County, they are out for a win against Newbern tonight. Preceding the game last Friday night, a colorful homecoming parade was staged through the downtown section to the football field where the coronation was held. Co-captain, Charles Sawyer and Dawson Huddleston crowned Virginia Forrest, football queen.

The last two weeks have been busy for the F. H. A. girls. The formal initiation was held at Mrs. Brauner's home in the Highlands on October 21. The five new members initiated were: Peggy Adams, Ann Bennett, Rita Copeland, Elizabeth Sisson and Jonella Wallace. The informal initiation was held at Jane Austin's farm Tuesday night. Virginia Forrest has been chosen recorder of Group I at the F. H. A. District meeting. November 5 at Trigg County High School.

The Juniors are working very hard on their "Junior Follies" which they are giving November 11. We hope everyone will come as it will really be worth every cent it costs. It is loaded with talent including a Charleston act, complete with flapper, shiek, and ukas, and many other clever numbers.

The Seniors are busy selling birthday calendars. Three groups are competing with each other. The team captains are: Vivian Matlock, Ann Robbins, and Paul Argo.
Well it's time for class now, so good-bye for this week. Be sure to come out to the football game tonight and yell for the "Bulldogs".

COMMITTEE WORKS FOR ACP PROGRAM

The Chairman of Fulton County EMA Committee, W. H. Harrison, stated today that community committeemen were meeting in the County Office, Wednesday, October 29th, to receive final instructions on the 1953 ACP program, and be issued the necessary forms for the farmer to request assistance.

There has been a slight change in the 1953 program, Mr. Harrison stated, that being that the farmer will be contacted on the farm by a committeeman, who will probably be his neighbor.

This committeeman has been trained in what the program offers and how it functions. Farmers are requested to discuss the ACP program with this Community Committeeman at the time of his visit.

The major change in the program is that payments will be approved on individual soil building practices this year, rather than on a per farm basis as in the past. Assistance will be allowed on the most needed soil building practices on the farm as requested by the farm owner or operator. These practices will be known as primary practices; all other practices will be listed as secondary practices and will be eligible for payments to the extent funds are available. Approved primary practices must not exceed the county budget of $36,949.00, Mr. Harrison stated.

The 1953 soil building practices vary very little from the 1952; a general outline of the practices have been mailed to each farm operator.

TB X-RAY UNIT TO BE IN FULTON

It is possible to have tuberculosis and not know it, according to Dr. J. F. Harrell, Fulton County Health Officer. That's why he is urging every Fulton County over fifteen years of age to get a chest x-ray while the State Department of Health's Mobile X-ray Unit is in town.

The X-ray Unit will be parked next to the Court House in Fulton, across from the Fulton Theatre, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. on November 10 and 12th. The Unit will not be in operation on Tuesday, November 11th when Armistice Day holiday will be observed. The Fulton Medical Auxiliary will assist in preparation of records.

"Early diagnosis of tuberculosis makes it possible to start treatment early and thus facilitates the cure of the disease," Dr. Harrell said. He added that persons who may be unaware that they have tuberculosis, often unknowingly are spreading it among their family, friends and associates.

Health authorities agree that every undiagnosed case of tuberculosis is a danger to the entire community. Mass chest X-ray examinations, such as the one scheduled in Fulton, often reveal tuberculosis before outward symptoms appear.

It is possible to have tuberculosis at any age, Dr. Harrell points out. However, he adds that the rate in the five to fifteen age group is very low. That is why children are given X-rays only if they are known to have been in direct contact with persons having TB or if they are referred by a physician. The survey must include as many persons as possible of the older age groups, known to have average or higher than average incidence of this disease.

Plans now to have a free chest X-ray here in Fulton on November 10th or 12th. No clothing need be removed, and there is no charge of any sort.

FARM BUREAU IS HISTORY'S LARGEST

The membership in the Kentucky Farm Bureau is 4,276 greater than ever before in the history of the organization.

The Federation's President, Lewis Allen, Bowling Green, announced today that the official number of farm families who are members of the Kentucky Farm Bureau is 68,290 as of October 31, 1952, the date which ends the Farm Bureau fiscal year.

"The real significance," Allen said, "of the tremendous increase is that it shows that Farm Bureau's bipartisan and non-political position on all national and state issues has met with approval by the farm population in Kentucky." Allen went on to say that the greatest credit to this record-breaking membership is due the farm men and women who, as workers, actually solicit the members on their own time and expense.

Membership statistics: Henderson county was the top membership county with a grand total of 1,718; in second place was Christian County Farm Bureau with 1,564 members, and in third place was Daviess county with 1,462 members.

The county with the greatest increase in membership was Graves county, with an increase of 460 members.

The county with the largest per cent increase over 1951 membership was Laurel county, with 133 per cent increase.

Fifteen other counties ended the year with more than 1,000 members: They are: Shelby, 1,290; Jefferson, 1,270; LaRue, 1,171; Breckinridge, 1,160; Mercer, 1,135; Owen, 1,135; Hardin, 1,122; Mason, 1,057; Nelson, 1,041; Logan, 1,038; Fayette, 1,018; Barren, 1,012; Pulaski, 1,004, and Pendleton with 1,000 even.

Using the census figure of 3.89 farm people per family, the 68,290 farm families represent 265,648 farm people in Farm Bureau, Allen concluded.

The primary crops of early Kentucky settlers were corn, wheat, hemp, and tobacco.

Applications for these positions will be received until further notice by the Sixth U. S. Civil Regional Office, U. S. Post Office and Courthouse, Cincinnati 2, O.

WOODS RECEIVES SERVICE PLAQUE

Dr. Ralph H. Woods, Murray State College president, was signally honored by the Kentucky Association of Soil Conservation Districts at their ninth annual meeting at Cumberland Falls (Kentucky) State Park when he was presented a plaque "for distinguished service to soil conservation."

The plaque was awarded by Augustus Threlkeld of Corinth, Kentucky, president of the association, and was the only one given an individual.

The award to Dr. Woods was in recognition of his work in promoting soil conservation for the past ten years, both as secretary of the State Conservation Committee in Frankfort prior to 1945 when he became president of Murray State College, and for his work at the college since that time.

Dr. Woods' present project of developing technique of teaching conservation on all levels of the schools in Kentucky by integrating the material in regular courses is one which did much to help win the award for him.

The Training School at Murray State is the "pilot" school for the future state-wide program where techniques are being evolved not only to teach methods of conserving soil, water, minerals and forests, but also to create favorable attitudes toward conservation and an awareness of the need for conservation.

KENTUCKY BUSINESS IS AWARD WINNER

For the second time in three years, Kentucky business has been adjudged the finest magazine among state chamber of commerce publications. The award for excellence. The award was given by the American Chamber of Commerce Executive, according to an announcement made today by D. F. Cocks, Louisville, President of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce. The magazine is published by the State Chamber.

One of 231 entrants in the 1952 publications appraisal, Kentucky's business magazine was the only state chamber publication among the four winners. It was one of 33 which met the high standards of the judges, and of that 33, only four met the judges' top standards. The magazine is edited by Hugh Collett.

The certificate which was awarded Kentucky Business testified that it was rated "in its class excellent on technical qualities and excellent on interpretive qualities by the committee of judges for the 1952 Publications Appraisal, American Chamber of Commerce Executives."

Mrs. Flora Whipple, Hickman spent the week-end with Mrs. Floyd Bowen and Mr. and Mrs. Lon Green.

BILL OF HARRIS FORK

Folks—It's all over but the Rebel yell as we closed the polls at 5 p. m. after voting anything with two legs or an arm chair. We vote 'em. They came from miles around just as long as it was in the Water Valley District. This is where Patriotism had its birth place and has been maintained and will be held sacred as long as there is a U. S. A. which will be as long as there is a Water Valley community to guard it.

There is an old saying that "as Water Valley goes so goes the State of Kentucky." So when you read the returns from the Garden Spot of Graves County you will know how went Kentucky. No need to look further. This was really hand shaking day. I met folks that I do not see from one corn crop till the next, from one hunting till another, from one square dance till the next, from one election till another. We should have more elections because as "get-togethers" they beat all "Sunday School Picnics, reunions by some foreign preacher or Hog Killin" till between Xmas and New Year's. I made a list of them and they include rabbit, quail, squirrel, possum and sweet taters, fried chicken, country ham and red gravy. But no pumpkin pie or T-bone steak broiled. I made a list of these because I am on a diet and wish to diversify my eating.

The ladies had meals of ham, sausage, spare ribs, chicken, rolls and everything that would tickle a man's palate or even his tummy. One hasn't lived till he has eaten around this community. I bought an apple pie that was made from new apples and the crust was just "out of this world". I had some GOOD cheese and forgot all about my diet for the time being. Wish we had another election tomorrow. I am just rarin' to go.

—Bill of Harris Fork.
