Drip. Drip. Drip. Drip. One of the great principles of saving.

In most cases the man who does best at saving is the one who puts money aside regularly, a drop at a time, without missing a single payday. You'll find this easier to do when you have an interest-paying savings account at First National Bank! By saving where—and when—you bank, nothing gets between you and that urge to save; or interrupts the steady growth of your nestegg. When should you start? Right now!

Children Need Measles Shots, Say Experts

TOPEKA, Kan. (WMNS) — Parents might follow the lead of an increasing number of experts who believe that measles immunization is essential for all children. Such immunization would, they noted, help eliminate the complications of the disease which each year kill or permanently damage hundreds of youngsters. Two states, Kansas and Michigan, now require vaccination of all school children against measles. It might be a good idea, as the school year gets underway, for parents to check their children's immunizations to make certain that they are fully protected against polio, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and smallpox.

'The Tempest' Here On Oct. 8

The American Classical Theatre is a non-profit company dedicated to the encouragement and development of the arts.

Carrying its own sets, lights and costumes, the company is able to perform for many schools and communities that might not otherwise have the opportunity of enjoying these plays.

TSU's Freshman Class Goes Above 2,000 Mark

NASHVILLE — Breaking all previous records more than 2,000 freshmen jam Tennessee State University's orientation and registration sessions, according to Dr. Joseph A. Payne Jr., dean of students. The wave of freshmen and new students which descended upon the campus last week — Freshman Week — was met by more than a hundred university counselors (U p p e r classes) who had been in retreat leadership sessions at Camp Dogwood here preparing to be of special assistance to the newcomers. Headed by James Montgomery of Lake Forest, Ill., and Evelyn Osborne of South Pittsburg, Tenn., co-chairmen, University Counselors were assisted by Obie McKenzie of Indianapolis, Ind., Student Council President, and members of the council. Dr. William N. Jackson, dean of faculty at Tennessee State, states that over 200 of the freshmen are on academic scholarships from agencies other than the University; and many have opportunity grants, National Defense Student Loans, and are on the College Work-Study program. "At the present time," Dr. Jackson said last week, "required Freshman Assembly has four sections of more than 500 each, and registration has not yet closed. . . . Classes begin Monday, September 26."

Jehovah's Witness To Meet In West Memphis

The West Junction Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses have been invited to attend the "Become Spiritual Man with Everlasting Life in View" circuit assembly to be held in West Memphis, Arkansas, at the L. R. Jackson Community Center, September 30, October 1 and 2.

Willie Dixon, presiding minister said that this gathering will include Witnesses from parts of three states and an attendance of 900 will be expected.

It will enable Jehovah's Witnesses to advance to greater Christian maturity and improve their knowledge and ability to preach.

"With so much unrest among peoples, racial riots, war threats and increase of crime, we feel the need as Jehovah's Witnesses to spread a message of peace and unity which this assembly will better equip us to do as a service to this community and world," he said.

The program will have among other features, two movies, one on Friday night entitled "Heritage", another, Saturday night entitled "God Cannot Lie." There will also be a baptismal service held Saturday afternoon.

The highlight of the convention will be the public talk "SATISFYING MANKIND'S GREATEST NEED," Sunday, October 2, at 3:00 p.m. This will be delivered by J. C. Howard Jr., District Supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Watkin Chapel's Baby Contest A Success

Programs, described frequently as "great days," were presented at Watkins Chapel recently.

The Baby Contest sponsored by the Choirs and Missionary Society was a great success, with the first prize going to little Henry Lee Wright Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Wright Sr., of 1580 Carpenter street. The highest amount of money over $100 was raised in behalf of young Wright.

Second prize went to little Michel Ray Liggins of 1777 Orr street. Mrs. Mamie Nickleburg served as chairman of the program. Mrs. Eula Flowers is president of the Missionary Society.

September 11 was Annual Choir Day. Every choir in the church was at its best in dress and song. September 18 was Appreciation Day during which the church's pastor and family were honored on a memorable occasion, according to those present.

Rev. E. L. Brown brought an inspiring message for appreciation day. The Friendship Baptist Church and the Church of the Living God and choirs provided the music. Presentation of the pastor and his family and of gifts to them were conducted by Mrs. Jessie Williams and Mr. B. Banks.

Rev. C. Harmon served as Master of Ceremonies for the occasion. Appreciation Day was sponsored by the congregation of Watkins Chapel. Reverend R. M. Downey is pastor of Watkins Chapel.

Dr. King Critical Of Churches

DALLAS — (UPI) — The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King told fellow ministers that churches in the United States have failed in their mission to promote racial justice.

King spoke to the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). Too often the church, he said, "has been content to mouth pious irrelevance and sanctimonious trivialities... it has often remained silent behind the safe security of stained-glass windows."

Earlier King told a news conference that the high percentage of Negro casualties in Vietnam showed the Negro was still "on the losing end."

Mayor Comments In Cleveland On Burning Of Home

CLEVELAND (UPI) — A Negro couple, whose home in a wealthy, all-white suburb was burned, should have warned local officials they were moving into the neighborhood, Mayor Alexander R. Roman said Monday.

The mayor made his remarks as fire officials continued their investigation of the blaze which did about $15,000 damage to the house in West Lake.

Authorities said Sunday an arsonist was definitely responsible for the fire. The ranch-style house was purchased by the Ohio Society of Christian Churches for Rev. John Compton, newly appointed associate director of the society.

"Our people were hearing about the purchase at the 11th hour," Roman said. "Sometimes you have to pave the way. We did not know until Friday when calls from residents began to come in, asking if the Negro couple were moving in. "There was no indignation, no furor, but I think it would have been better if we knew this was coming up."

But Stewart Wallace, executive vice president of Fair Housing Inc., which helped arrange the purchase, did not agree with Roman.

Five Delegates At King Home

Miss Mary King and her brother, Eugene King, of 1321 Airway Blvd. entertained a group of five delegates here recently for the Progressive National Baptist Convention.

The delegates were Mrs. Ella Watkins, Mrs. Huetta Huston, Mrs. Annie Banks and Robert White, all of Chicago.

Mrs. Watkins is the director of the Bethlehem District Youth department and a member of New Friendship Baptist church, of which Rev. S. Freeman is pastor.

A member of the El Bethel Baptist church pastored by Rev. C. V. Johnson, Mrs. Huston is director of the Union District Youth department.

Mrs. Banks is a member of the Progressive Baptist church, pastored by Rev. T. E. Brown, and secretary of the Bethlehem District department.

Mr. White is also member of the New Friendship Baptist church and has gained a reputation for being a dependable young Christian, "always willing to help wherever he can serve."

Teacher To Speak On Program At Cleo Hickman AME

The Cleo Hickman AME church will celebrate Women's Day on Sunday, Oct. 2, and three guest speakers have been invited to participate.

The speaker for the special program at 3 p.m. will be Mrs. Alma Starks, wife of Rev. H. L. Starks, pastor of the St. James AME church.

Mrs. Starks is one of the leaders of the West Tennessee Conference Branch, and instructor in the Memphis public school system.

The public is welcome to attend all of the services of the day.

Rev. M. V. Reed is pastor of the church.

Women's Day At New Hope

Annual Women's Day was celebrated last Sunday at the New Hope Baptist church at 649 Pearl pl., with the pastor, Dr. Charles Burgs, delivering the morning message.

The afternoon speaker was Mrs. Claree Avant, a member of St. Matthew Baptist church. Mrs. Loraine Holt was chairman of Women's Day, and Mrs. Carrie Burns co-chairman.

Reports To Be Given On Student Center Funds

First reports from captains spearheading a $20,000 campaign among alumni of LeMoyné College will be made this Sunday, Oct. 2. The meeting will get underway at 5 p.m. and will be held in the Alumni Room of the Hollis F. Price Library.

Money raised by the alumni will be matched, dollar for dollar, by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation and the total amount will be turned over to LeMoyné to help pay the cost of furnishing and equipping the student center now under construction on the college campus.

T. R. McLemore, fund-raising chairman for the college's General Alumni Association, said 20 captains are working with teams in an effort to raise the money.

Captains are Mrs. Susie Hightower, Miss Jimmy Blackshire, Mrs. Ann L. Weathers, Mrs.

Mildred Heard, Mrs. Thelma G. Hooks, Mrs. Lettie L. Poston, Roscoe McWilliams, Elmer L. Henderson, T. R. McLemore, Mrs. Rio Rita Jackson, Miss Eunice Carruthers, Miss Harry Mae Simons, Mrs. Catherine Branch Simmons, Mrs. Eric Hill Rose, Mrs. Yvonne Acey, LeRoy Van Johnson, Joseph Westbrook, Lonnie F. Briscoe, Torris Toney and Willie Miles and Lawrence Garrett, the latter two working as co-chairmen of a team.

The sum of $2,300 was pledged at a kickoff meeting held a month ago. Mr. McLemore said first report to the Sloan Foundation for matching funds is Dec. 31.

Elmer L. Henderson, who is president of the LeMoyné Club in Memphis and also national president of LeMoyné's General Alumni Association,

Poverty Bill Gets House Action

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House, breaking a months-long stalemate, agreed with virtually no opposition Monday to consider authorizing $1.75 billion for a third year of the war on poverty.

The bill, locked in political and personal conflicts since last winter, was brought up for debate by voice vote with only slight audible opposition.

The bill's backers said they were confident the measure would pass substantially intact and that Republicans would lose in an attempt to substitute a plan to dismantle the anti-poverty office and turn its programs over to other federal agencies.

Debate on the measure was expected to last for several days with a final vote coming by week's end.

The bill was brought up under a once-controversial rule that authorized speaker John W. McCormack, if necessary, to bypass Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, as floor manager.

But Powell was recognized to call up the bill and told the House amid both laughter and applause, that "despite our past differences," Democrats were "in complete unanimity."

It was Powell's three-month delay in getting the bill to the floor that helped set off last week's Education and Labor Committee revolt in which Rep. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla., sought to strip Powell of his powers as chairman.

In response to a letter he wrote to President Lyndon B. Johnson complimenting him on a speech made in Detroit recently, Eddie Adams of 509 Pontotoc st. received an answer from the White House last Thursday thanking him for his correspondence.

In a letter signed by Presidential Assistant Paul M. Pople, Mr. Adams was told, "The interest which prompted you to let him have your comments is appreciated, and you may be assured that they have been carefully noted."

Mr. Adams is former head chef at the Hotel Sheraton-Peabody and is now retired.

He came to Tennessee A. and I. State University as professor of civil engineering upon retirement from the Army as a Lt. Col. after more than 23 years of service. He was wounded in action in Italy and was twice decorated for valor.

CHICKEN AND CHAMPALE — The highlight of a linen shower for the bride-to-be can be Champale Chicken Deluxe, the recipe of which appears today. Champale can be served as the basic ingredient in the bride's punch or served in well-chilled champagne glasses.

Champale Enhances Flavor Of Chicken

Once upon a time, as all proper stories should start, the month of June was deemed the only suitable month for Bridal Showers and Weddings. But no more. In today's busy modern world, the flow of parties for the bride continues throughout the year.

As soon as the hostess decides to honor the new bride-to-be with a shower, she has to decide on a theme. And the chances are she will select a Linen Shower, for generation after generation this remains one of the most popular of all.

There are several cogent reasons for this: No one ever owns too many thick, fluffy, soft towels. No other single gift saves a bride more pennies and finally no other display of gifts looks prettier than stacks of linens decorated with streamers of bright ribbons. The gaiety of the party is enhanced by the gift-giving.

No matter what theme the hostess chooses for her party, two basic points remain unchanged: something delicious to eat and something cool, flavorful and sparkling to drink a toast to the bride's health and happiness.

In today's column we offer our readers our favorite recipe for chicken enhanced by the delicate flavor of Champale (a very fine choice for a luncheon or supper Shower), a wonderful recipe for a dessert, and a thrifty recipe for Punch.

Champale Chicken Deluxe

1 (12 oz.) bottle Champale
6 whole chicken breasts
1 tablespoon Chef's Touch seasoning for chicken

1/4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup butter or margarine

SAUCE

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 pint cranberry juice
1 tablespoon sugar

Preheat oven to 325 degrees F. Wipe chicken breasts with damp towel, pat dry. Fold skin under. Rub with mixture of seasonings and flour. Brown lightly in butter. Transfer to baking pan (with cover). Combine 2 tablespoons butter and 2 tablespoons flour.

Stir until smooth and bubbly, add juice and sugar, bring to boiling point, but do not boil. Slowly add the Champale, stir well and pour over chicken (reserve a portion for basting). Cover and bake until tender, about 1 hour. Remove cover and cook 10 more minutes uncovered.

Baste with additional sauce as chicken cooks.

Frequent Childbearing Causes Birth Defects

By LOUISE CHASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — (WMS) — "An educational program in both family spacing and family limitation is clearly required if we are to reduce the number of stillbirths, infant deaths, congenital birth defects, and complications of delivery."

This recommendation was made by Dr. S. J. Behrman, professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the University of Michigan Medical School, to physicians attending an AMA conference here on infant mortality.

Dr. Behrman pointed out that an 18-year study of nearly 20,000 pregnancies indicated that too short a time between conceptions, too frequent childbearing, and pregnancy of women in their mid-thirties or later were among the major causes of fetal loss, infant deaths, birth defects, and delivery difficulties. After the fourth pregnancy, the physician noted, there is a threefold increase in fetal loss.

Explaining that experts estimated half of all women who have babies are pregnant again within the year, Dr. Behrman urged that for the protection of mothers and infants contraceptive information be given in hospitals to all women who have just given birth. He characterized this as the "ideal time" for family planning education.

FOLLOW-UP REQUIRED

The obstetrician told fellow physicians that Danish law requires a woman to have two visits with her doctor or other qualified persons after childbirth: One for a physical check-up; the other for contraceptive guidance. "We could do worse than follow this idea," Dr. Behrman observed.

He said that such a plan could be put into effect immediately in the United States given the "reasonably good and adequate number of obstetrical services here."

He continued, "Since the physician or his midwife or his nurse associates have already been accorded the role of guide and protector to assure safe delivery, and with this happy event accomplished, advice from the same sources would surely have a special significance."

"The very fact of a recent birth must give rise to a consideration of the next one," he said.

Average Height-Weight Statistics

Americans who are concerned about their weight and are dieting to trim their figures will be interested in the height-weight statistics just released by the National Center for Health Statistics.

This marks the first time that such a nationwide survey has been made of a random sample of the population.

Here are some average weights for two selected heights of adult men and women:

Men — 146 pounds at five feet, two inches.

Women — 142 pounds at five feet, two inches.

Men — 168 pounds at five feet, eight inches.

Women — 154 pounds at five feet, eight inches.

These and a variety of other height-weight statistics were obtained in a nationwide sampling survey of American adults, ages 18-79 years, conducted by the Center in 42 areas from October 1959 through December 1962.

The findings are based on actual measurements made during a special health examination of approximately 6,700 adults. Examinees are representative of the total adult population in terms of factors such as age, race, sex, geographic location and other factors.

Findings from the present study show that adults in the United States generally weighed more on the average than adults sampled in a British study in 1943, a Canadian survey in 1943, and a Canadian survey in 1959.

Household Tip

New flavor combination in non-carbonated fruit flavored beverages include a pretty pink cherry drink that's tart enough to appeal to adult appetites. New also from the same canner is a pink pineapple-grapefruit beverage that is somewhat sweeter. Both are available in 46-ounce (7 to 9 1/2 serving) cans.

Marilyn Carter Feted At Birthday Party

A carnival air of gaiety prevailed at the stately residence at 1911 Netherwood last Friday night, Sept. 23, when Mrs. Mollie Bolton entertained in honor of her daughter, Marilyn Annette Carter's fifteenth birthday.

The festive spirit was evidenced, when guests began arriving, by the lighted flambeaux that outlined the walk and driveway. Bright balloons decorated the living and dining rooms, with a beautifully decorated table.

The long table cloth announced "Happy Birthday" in an applied design. Sandwiches, punch and all of the other foods that are a delight to teen agers were there in great amounts, but the "piece de resistance" was the dainty birthday cake baked in the form of a white baby grand piano and encrusted in delectable pink roses.

Youngsters dancing to the tunes of popular records were

Brenda Porter, Myra and Radine Pruitt, Iris Frazer, Gale Seymour, Bonnie and Tomasine Pippin, Flonoid and Tresette Tate, Daisy and Sue Hodge, Gwendolyn Williamson, Adrinne Smith, Angie and Jimmie Cowan, Brian Brawwell, Leon Ivory, Lynn Burns, Shellie Williams, Douglas Smith, Eric DeWalt, Kenneth Dinkins, Ronald Walter, Levi Frayser and Anthony Fuller.

Miss Carter was pleased by the wonderful reception to her invitations, as well as by the lovely gifts, and said it was "the best birthday ever."

Her genial uncle, Donald Jackson, was on hand long enough to help her receive the guests before explaining for St. Louis to attend a concert.

Men's Suits Take New Look; Call It The 'Trace'

NEW YORK — Call it the "contour", the "trace" or the "shape" suit, it's expected to be a big seller this fall in men's suit departments.

That's the word from Phil Zuckerman, vice president of Worsted-Tex, one of the country's leading manufacturers of men's clothing.

"THIS suit is the conservative man's response to Mod," said Mr. Zuckerman. "Just as the average girl is not going to walk around with skirts inches above her knees because a few designers favor this style, so will the average, well-dressed man avoid the extremes of Mod."

"Instead he will choose variations on the style and the shape suit is his answer for something fresh that will give a new fashion look to his wardrobe," said Mr. Zuckerman. "In turn, the girl will wear shorter skirts without being extreme, and still feel in the swing of things."

The shape suit, known for its indentation at the waist and hip-hugging silhouette, will be made in two styles by Worsted-Tex.

ONE WILL feature the natural shoulder, three button, wider lapel, single-breasted jacket with slanted flap pockets and deep side vents. It will come in stripes and herringbones on soft fabrics of dark colors and new color mixtures, such as olive hues, taupes and russets.

The Forward Fashion shape suit will have a shoulder with a slightly forward pitch. It will have two buttons with a notch lapel, similar pockets and vents, but will come in both a single and double-breasted jacket. It will also feature stripes, mainly chalk stripes, in all types of fabrics.

Colors will be varied, with special emphasis on greys, blues and black.

Cranberries Make This Meat Ring Sweet, Saucy

A ruby-topped meat ring is an invitation to dining that's hard to resist. When it's as good looking as this, most folks will figure it's good to eat, too!

Certainly, it's true, also, that Sweet Saucy Meat Ring is good to eat with its unusual combination of ground beef and ham topped with whole cranberry sauce.

Serve a buttered green vegetable in the center and surround the base of the platter with oven-browned or baked potatoes.

SWEET SAUCY MEAT RING
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
3/4 pound ground smoked ham
1 cup dry bread crumbs
3/4 cup milk

2 eggs, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons minced onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup brown sugar
1 cup drained, whole cranberry sauce

Combine beef and ham. Mix bread crumbs, milk, eggs, onions, salt and pepper and add to meat. Mix thoroughly. Pack firmly into a 2-quart greased ring mold. Combine brown sugar and cranberry sauce. Pour half of mixture over meat loaf.

Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) 1 hour. Heat remaining cranberry mixture slowly until hot throughout. Spoon over loaf. 6 to 8 servings.

What's New?

A new line of embroidered flower appliques, made of washable orlon, are available in a wide selection of colorful motifs. They are especially suitable for washable knit dresses and ensembles. For dressier garments, there are now flower appliques on black, white or brown velvet.

Handy to have right where you need it is a deluxe sewing chest on hardwood legs. It comes with two bow handles for easy transportation.

Done in a pacific blue, teak-brown or hunter green, the simulated leather cover and woven satiny plastic and toy sides make this an attractive accessory. The two side covers have built-in spool racks. The middle area contains a plastic tray for small sewing notions.

SPECIALIST — technical Sergeant Melvin Tate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tate of 210 S. Georgia st., Marianna, Ark., is on duty at Da Nang Air Base, Vietnam. His wife is the former Saito Fumiko.

NYC's Lincoln Center, Rising Visitors' Spot

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK — (UPI) — It draws fewer tourists, so far, than the United Nations or the Empire State Building, two old-timers on the visitor's circuit.

But give New York's newest attraction, the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, some time. It's still an "infant" of four years, yet by next Easter those taking guided tours of the center will have passed the half million mark, said Carl Cannon, director of Visitors' Services.

Those taking the guided tours now run 500 per day, at peak season on up to 1,500, and come from all parts of the globe, report two of the 30 girls who steer the tours.

One of them is brunette Susan Compton, of Bedford, N.Y., returning soon to Randolph Macon College in Lynchburg, Va., for Science major.

her senior year as a Political Science major. The other is Charlotte Sanitz, who holds a Bachelor's Degree in Drama from Converse College, in Spartanburg, S. C., and is studying for her Master's in Audiology (therapy for those with impaired hearing) at Columbia University.

This marked the second summer as tour guide for Miss Compton. Miss Savitz is "guiding" to pay her way through graduate school while she also studies drama with a private coach.

foreign visitors," the girls said. They've included tourists from "We get a large portion of Israel, South Africa, Cambodia, Canada, and Australia.

"Tours are a fun job because of the people you meet," said Miss Compton. "Not long ago I had the Australian Prime Minister's wife and the wife of our Ambassador to Australia along."

Center guides, girls only, give four tours a day and each tour is more than a mile, by the time they've visited the assorted buildings of the cultural complex — Philharmonic Hall, the New York State Theater, the Vivian Beaumont Theater, the Library and Museum, and the Metropolitan Opera House. The Julliard School is to be finished next year.

Officials said the center, when completed, can reach audiences of 3.2 million a year, not to mention additional ones through radio and television.

"We're always interested in the questions people ask," said Miss Savitz, a native of St. Matthews, S.C. "How much did the ceiling cost? How much does that statue weigh? We may not know all the answers, but we always tell them, we'll look it up."

You get attached to the place," said the blonde Miss Savitz. "When someone beligerently calls something ugly, it hurts — like saying you have an ugly child."

But visitors' reactions are more often one of awe at the modern structures, in which each building is faced with travertine, a textured marble quarried near Rome.

Girl guides wear uniforms in garnet red (taken from colors in the New York State Theater, in the New York State Theater) with travertine beige jackets designed by Vera Maxwell.

Although they cover more than four miles each day, flat heels are not permitted. Mediums are, however, although shoes always must be black. Heavy makeup, jewelry other than, for example, watches or single pearl earrings, and hair ribbons are forbidden.

The center is soon to have some distinguished names among its visitors — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson and President and Mrs. Ferdinand E. Marcos, of the Philippines.

They plan to attend the Metropolitan Opera Company's premiere performance of "Anthony and Cleopatra."

It'll be a debut that night for one of the girl guides, too. Beverly Booker, of Detroit, will be singing in the Met Chorus.

Household Tip

Unightly rust and scale on rain gutters, metal porch rails and downspouts should be wire brushed before painting. To prevent further rusting, spot prime bare areas with metal primer before applying finish coat.

When preparing potatoes for baking or boiling with the skins on, use a nylon net ball as a scrubber. It also is excellent for cleaning the hands after preparing bread or pie crust.

Season salad, and add dressing just before serving the greens. Earlier addition causes wilting.

Send In Payments Now For Medical Insurance

TIME is running out for many who have failed to send in their medical insurance premiums, Warren Maddox, District Manager, Social Security Administration in Memphis, stated today.

Although the response to the initial Medicare notices has been very high, there remains a significant number of people who have not, for various reasons, paid their premium.

If the premiums are not paid by September 30, this valuable medical protection will be lost until July 1, 1968. However, protection under the hospital insurance plan will continue as this part of Medicare is free.

Notices have been mailed to all delinquent beneficiaries reminding each of the September 30 deadline for payment of premiums. The notice explains that arrangements have been made to accept premiums in less than the $9.00 quarterly amount from those unable to pay the full premium.

Anyone who has failed to make payment should contact the nearest Social Security office in person or by mail. In some cases representatives from Social Security will be in the area calling upon those who cannot visit the district office and will make collections at the home of the beneficiary.

Anyone paying a premium directly to a representative should request proper identification before doing so. All Social Security people will have and freely present their credentials.

The Memphis social security office is open to the public until 8:30 p.m. Thursdays nights.

Overheating Dangerous During Football Games

CHICAGO, Ill. (WMNS) — School yards, sandlots, and playing fields are now resounding to the "hut, hut" of quarterbacks calling signals — for the football season is upon us.

With an estimated 850,000 boys in 14,500 high schools playing football, to say nothing of millions of boys who play it on their own, some fundamental safety rules must be observed to protect the youngsters.

This alert comes from the American Medical Association's (AMA) Committee on the Medical Aspects of Sports. Last year, according to the Committee, one college player and possibly five high school players died as a result of illness brought on by excessive heat while playing. Heat illness also contributed to injuries of many more.

Here are some precautions recommended by a panel of coaches, athletic trainers, and team doctors:

—Football players should have carefully graduated practice schedules during hot weather.

—Water and salt lost through perspiration should be replenished during regular breaks. Failure to do so increases the chances for heat exhaustion or heat stroke.

—Coaches and players should be alert for such signs of heat illness as lethargy, stupor, awkwardness, or unusual fatigue.

Parents can help protect their young athletes by watching for and reporting such signs as the above.

Poverty Critic Calls For Shriver's Ouster

Quie's Demand Made At OEO Fund Debate

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — A Republican critic of the War on Poverty called Tuesday for the ouster of Sargent Shriver as its boss.

The demand by Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., came as the House moved into its second day of debate on a $1.75 billion authorization for the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO). Despite this and other attacks on the poverty war, the House was expected to move to the poverty war, the House was expected to move to the key stage of voting on amendments to the long stalemated bill by Wednesday.

believe they can get it through the House relatively intact.

GOP critics have ready amendments aimed at leaving OEO only in charge of the politically touchy Community Action Program, and turning over the Job Corps, Head Start and similar programs to the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

Rep. Alphonzo Bell, R-Calif., said Tuesday that OEO had "an impossible task in juggling five major programs."

"We should admit our mistake and streamline OEO," Bell said.

Predicting that antipoverty grants to churches and related institutions would be found unconstitutional, Rep. John Buchanan, R-Ala., said: "This house of cards will come tumbling down in a court decision."

Styling With Freedom Signature Of Mohairs

The approach of cold weather traditionally brings forth the lament about hating to bundle up in a weighty, confining coat again. That complaint is no longer valid, because the new Fall coats are striking a decisive blow for freedom.

Emphasis is on free-wheeling motion — in tent shapes; A-lines; narrow coats animated by back pleats; trim little overcoats with matching dresses or skirts; and, most important, the most weightless, on-the-move fabric of all — mohair.

Buoyant, beautiful mohair takes the lead in espousing the cause for coat freedom. With the light-as-air, lofty textures that are the fiber's unmistakable signature, mohair fabrics almost seem to float, are always in motion, full of fashion and the zest for living.

The newest mohair coat fabrics for Fall are in a magnificent array of textures, starring deep, cloud-soft fleeces with a halo-like radiance; fabulous tweeds in thick-and-thin weaves, rosey surfaces, giant patterns and nubby flecked ones; fluffy loops; and diagonal weaves.

Colors are glorious because they are reflective, in solids and multicolor mixtures, vibrating with a clarity and richness that are special characteristics of the lustrous mohair fiber.

One of the great wardrobe advantages of a multicolor mohair tweed coat is the variety of coordinating effects that can be achieved with everything in the wardrobe. Each of the many glowing colors can be used to key an individual costume color theme.

Leading designers have always favored mohair for its distinctive elegance and versatility in styling. Mohairs have no limitations in the coat wardrobe. They may be in great lady couture styles, frisky young ones, daytime tailored, breezily sporty, or dramatically formal.

"No federal agency has had more management difficulties than OEO," Quie said. "No agency has had such hasty personnel turnover... The first order of business to get this faltering agency on the road to victory is to replace its director, Sargent Shriver."

Quie and other Republicans have a series of proposals to strip OEO of most of its anti-poverty functions, but supporters of the program — one of President Johnson's favorites —

Girard College Hearing Monday

PHILADELPHIA — (UPI) — A hearing on a preliminary injunction which would, in effect, force Girard College to admit Negro orphans will be held here Oct. 3 in U. S. District Court.

Judge Joseph S. Lord III set the date as he denied a petition by trustees of the school to halt federal court proceedings while the Pennsylvania Supreme Court considered the case.

Lord said in his opinion Sept. 5 that if the state public accommodations act applied to the privately-endowed school then Negro boys must be admitted. The will of the school's founder, Stephen Girard, has limited enrollment to "poor, male white orphans" since Girard College opened its doors in 1848.

The trustees have asked the State Supreme Court to decide whether the accommodations act applied to the school.

The injunction was requested by attorneys for seven Negro boys whose applications for admittance to the school led to Lord's opinion. The injunction request asks that Girard be prevented from barring Negroes. Previous court decisions have upheld the all-white status.

Attorneys for the trustees informed Lord in their petition that his opinion may have been in error since the State Supreme Court previously held that the actions of the trustees in upholding Girard's will did not violate any Pennsylvania laws.

The court did not mention the Public Accommodations Act, the petition said, and "it seems unlikely that the court would have overlooked this statute if it was applicable."

NAACP pickets demonstrated at the orphanage, located in a Negro section of North Philadelphia, for seven months last year. They have threatened to renew the demonstrations Oct. 8 if Negroes have not been admitted.

Humboldt News

The years play their part in the activities of men, for some are able to accept life as it comes, while others give up soon and retire to some corner to await the dreaded hour of death. Very firm are the words of the poet, "Life is what you make it."

Rev. W. S. Vance, pastor emeritus of the First Baptist church at Brownsville and counselor for many young ministers, desired to show his ability to still preach and was given a chance on the first Sunday in September at his church in Brownsville, the second Sunday at Morning Star here in Humboldt and the third Sunday at Lane Chapel CME church.

On the fourth Sunday he spoke at St. James Baptist church where he pastored upon first coming to Humboldt from no signs of having deteriorated mentally or spiritually, and had ample physical strength to deliver each message as in former years. Many were happy to see him at his post after a short lapse of time.

Mrs. Pearl Sims, well-known religious and civic worker, has been very ill for two weeks, but at this writing the word comes that doctors have found the source of infection and have been able to stop it.

In a few days she will be able to come home. Mrs. Sims is president of the Women's Department of the CME church, and many prayers have gone up in her behalf.

The senior C. Moodys enjoyed a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Guy Laster who are long-time friends. They visited Mrs. Mildred Nance and Mrs. Mary Lou Donelson, relatives who live here.

Mrs. Pearl Clark of Memphis spent the weekend with the Vances on 12th. Following her visit, a niece, Mrs. Alzata Holt of Indianapolis came to pay a visit.

Former Truck Driver Files Job Rights Suit

A well-known Memphian filed a significant civil rights suit in Federal Court here last week. He is accusing the Buhler Mills of 2895 Broad of firing him last October 15, 1965 because of "discriminatory employment practices."

The suit was filed by Jerry Hunter Jr., 31, of 299 South Parkway West, under the 1964 Civil Rights Act. Mr. Hunter, who now operates the Log Cabin Cafe at the Parkway address, is asking that he be reinstated in his job with back pay from Oct. 15, plus a Federal Court injunction barring discrimination.

In an interview Mr. Hunter recalled that he went to work at the Buhler plant as a truck driver. He said after working for some time a white salesman, A. B. Martin, who was later promoted to a managerial position, accused him of complaining too much. Mr. Hunter said he had noted that working conditions were unsatisfactory and that the promotional policy being followed was discriminatory. He said he was charged with complaining too much and being off the job too often, although his record showed that he had only been off the job ... on sick leave ... seven times in two years, despite the strenuousness of the work as a truck driver.

He said the matter came to a head on October 15, when he was told that he was being discharged for "lack of work". Yet, he said, "The next day a white man had reported for work on the job he had held".

Mr. Hunter stated his case to the local branch of the NAACP. Through this civil rights agency contact was made with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. The Commission looked into the case and received a communication from Buhler Mills saying that M. r. Hunter had been discharged because of "inability to adjust to work conditions and continued violations of company rules".

But Mr. Hunter pressed his case. A later communication from the Employment Opportunity Commission's indicated that agency's conclusion that the Buhler Mills Company was at fault ... that it had violated Section 703 (a)-(1) and (2) of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, and appeared guilty of discriminatory employment practices.

This ruling provided the basis on which Mr. Hunter apparently decided to file his current suit against the company.

Mr. Hunter is married, the father of two small daughters. He is a long-time resident of Memphis and widely-known in this area. He has a record of efficiency as a truck driver and worker.

His suit against the Buhler Company is regarded in some circles as a pilot effort among local workers who allege widespread discriminatory employment practices in some local concerns.
