

Whitworth Digital Commons
Whitworth University

Correspondence and Documents

Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection

6-21-1939

Letter to Sonora Dodd from S. J. Gassman, June 21, 1939

S. J. Gassman

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.whitworth.edu/fathers-day-correspondence>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Father's Day / Sonora Dodd Collection at Whitworth University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence and Documents by an authorized administrator of Whitworth University.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES

THOMAS & GASSMAN

(Successors to Garrett Stuart & Sommer)
SPOKANE WASHINGTON

June 21, 1939

Mrs. John Bruce Dodd
South 603 Arthur Street
Spokane, Washington

Dear Mrs. Dodd:

May we express our appreciation for your kindness in allowing us to use your name as the originator of Father's Day.

We are enclosing one of our letters which were sent to well picked list of women.

May we again offer our congratulations on your originating the idea of Father's Day and with appreciation, we remain

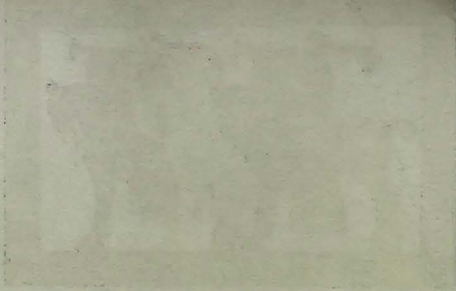

Yours very truly,

THOMAS & GASSMAN

(successors to Garrett,
Stuart & Sommer)

S. J. Gassman

sjg lp

THOMAS & GIBSON

NOV 18 1864

NOV 18 1864