ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

Carol Cole has appeared in major music centers and festivals in 22 countries and 25 states as soloist, chamber musician, and orchestral leader with critical accolades for her musical artistry. She has collaborated with the most distinguished artists of our time, including Rudolf Serkin, Yehudi Menuhin, Luciano Pavarotti, Pablo Casals, and Leonard Bernstein. Carol was member of the Vancouver Symphony, orchestras of Milan's La Scala, Torino's RAI, Philadelphia's Opera and Pops, leader and solo violinist of the Solisti Aquilani, and associate concertmaster of the Florida Philharmonic and Florida Grand Opera. She has recorded for Bongiovanni, Harmonia Mundi, Eurartists, Miramax, and Sony. At the Curtis Institute of Music, she studied violin with Arnold Steinhardt, chamber music with Felix Galimir, Jascha Brodsky, Alexander and Mischa Schneider, Michael Tree, Jamie Laredo, and played in Joseph Gingold and Dorothy Delay master classes. Carol made her debut with the San Francisco Symphony at the age of 13. She is laureate of the Kennedy Center Contemporary Music, Yale Chamber Music, Stresa, Romanini, and Lipitzer international violin competitions. Recent appearances include chamber music performances with members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, tours of Jamaica, China, and Cuba with Lynn Faculty, and as soloist with the Lynn Philharmonia. Cole is currently professor of violin and chamber music at Lynn University Conservatory of Music. Her students have won dozens of awards and professional positions. She is the recipient of the 2014 Gitner Excellence in Teaching Award and was named "2012 Studio Teacher of the Year" by the Florida Chapter of the American String Teachers Association.

A fourth generation musician, David Cole is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music, having studied with his father Orlando Cole, Metta Watts, Leonard Rose, and Zara Nelsova. He participated in master classes with Pablo Casals and recorded Mozart trios with Rudolf Serkin and Pina Carmirelli at the Marlboro festival. He was awarded a Martha Baird Rockefeller grant and as a competition winner was twice soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra and the National Symphony in Washington, D.C. He has performed in, Canada, England, France Switzerland, Germany, Holland Lithuania, China, Puerto Rico, Jamaica, and the United States as soloist, recitalist, chamber musician, and recording artist. He has been a member of the Vancouver Symphony and principal cellist with the New Jersey

Symphony, the Sinfonica Abruzzese in Italy, the Florida Philharmonic and the Florida Grand Opera. David's love of music and his belief in its power as a living art form have inspired him not only to strive for the highest standards in cello playing, but to devote himself to passing on the knowledge handed down to him by great artists of the past. He began his teaching career as a teenager at the New School of Music in Philadelphia, which was founded by his father's Curtis String Quartet. Presently, David heads the string department at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music and is Lynn's professor of cello and a coach in its chamber music program.

Pianist Sheng-Yuan Kuan has performed at the Kennedy Center, Weill Recital Hall, Taiwan National Concert Hall, and Musikverein in Vienna. She is a featured artist at the Heifetz International Music Institute, KUAF/Fulbright Summer Chamber Music Festival, Baltimore Symphony Orchestra's Chamber Music by Candlelight series, and the Sylvia Adalman Chamber Concert Series at Peabody Conservatory. Tim Smith of the Baltimore Sun praised Ms. Kuan as "(having) admirable technical finesse and expressive flair at the piano." Ms. Kuan has collaborated with famed musicians such as Nobuko Imai, Stefan Jackiw, Espen Lilleslatten, Richard Stolzman, KengYuen Tseng, Time for Three, and members of the Borromeo and Parker Quartets and Apollo Trio. She also made appearances at music festivals such as Bowdoin, Aria, Sarasota, Yellow Barn, Gijon Piano Festival and Norfolk Summer Music Festival. Ms. Kuan has received accolades from many competitions, including the 13th Beethoven Piano Competition in Vienna (Best Female Pianist Award, 2009), the 12th Taipei Chopin International Piano Competition (3rd Prize, 2008), Corpus Christi International Competition in Texas (2nd Prize, 2008), and New York Kosciuszko Chopin Piano Competition (3rd Prize, 2003). She was also the recipient of Honolulu Morning Music Club Scholarship, Peabody Conservatory's Career Development Grant, Chamber Music Awards and Accompanying Assistantship. Currently serving as the collaborative pianist at Lynn University, Ms. Kuan holds degrees from the Yale School of Music and the Manhattan School of Music. She is a candidate of the Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the Peabody Conservatory under the guidance of Professor Boris Slutsky. Her teachers have included Peter Frankl, Scott McCarrey and the late Constance Keene.

Roberta Rust has concertized to critical acclaim around the globe since her debut as soloist with the Houston Symphony at age sixteen and as recitalist at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall. Recent performances include concerts in Havana, Cuba, Philadelphia, PA,

Wilmington, DE, Knoxville, TN, Silver Spring, MD, and Tampa, Miami, Boca Raton, and West Palm Beach, FL. The New York Times hailed her as “a powerhouse of a pianist — one who combines an almost frightening fervor and intensity with impeccable technique and spartan control.” Her many remarkable recordings feature music of Debussy, Haydn, Villa-Lobos, Prokofiev, and contemporary American composers. FANFARE Magazine notes, “she proves herself a first-rate Debussy player...This is quite simply one of the finest Debussy discs I have heard in recent memory.” Solo recitals include performances at Sala Cecilia Meireles (Rio de Janeiro), Merkin Concert Hall (NY), Corcoran Gallery (Washington, DC), and KNUA Hall (Seoul). The Miami Herald lauded her as follows: “There was tremendous bravura, sweep and power...Here was a virtuosa.” Rust has played with the Lark, Ying, and Amernet String Quartets and her festival appearances include the Mainly Mozart Festival (Miami), OPUSFEST (Philippines), Palm Beach Chamber Music Festival, Festival Miami, Beethoven Festival (Oyster Bay), and La Gesse (France). She has performed as soloist with numerous orchestras including the New Philharmonic, Philippine Philharmonic, The Redlands Symphony, Knox-Galesburg Symphony, Boca Raton Symphonia, the New World Symphony, the Lynn Philharmonia and orchestras in Latin America. Demonstrating a strong commitment to the next generation with a highly motivational and inspired approach to teaching, Roberta Rust serves as Artist Faculty-Piano/Professor and Head of the Piano Department at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music in Boca Raton, Florida. In 2016 she received the “Deanne and Gerald Gitner and Family Excellence in Teaching Award.” She has given master classes at prominent institutions throughout Asia and the Americas and at the Rebecca Penneys Piano Festival and the University of Florida International Piano Festival.

Jay Stuart began his New York career as the leading man in Richard Rodgers’ revival of The Boys from Syracuse. On Broadway, he was co-star of The Pajama Game with Barbara McNair and Cab Calloway, was featured in Cry For Us All with Robert Weede, Applause with Arlene Dahl, The Grand Tour with Joel Grey and was stand-by for Dick Van Dyke in the revival of The Music Man. He also played Fredrick in a New York revival of A Little Night Music. Stuart was featured in all three national tours of Sugar Babies with Mickey Rooney, Ann Miller, Eddie Bracken, Robert Morse and Carol Channing. Regionally, Stuart has starred in dozens of musicals and plays, including the role of Captain Smith in Titanic. Florida theatre patrons will remember Stuart as Don Quixote in The Hollywood

Welcome to the 2016-2017 season. The talented students and extraordinary faculty of the Lynn Conservatory of Music take this opportunity to share with you the beautiful world of music. Your ongoing support ensures our place among the premier conservatories of the world and a staple of our community.

- Jon Robertson, dean

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

Friends of the Conservatory of Music

Lynn University's Friends of the Conservatory of Music is a volunteer organization that supports high-quality music education through fundraising and community outreach. Raising more than $2 million since 2003, the Friends support Lynn's effort to provide free tuition scholarships and room and board to all Conservatory of Music students. The group also raises money for the Dean's Discretionary Fund, which supports the immediate needs of the university's music performance students. This is accomplished through annual gifts and special events, such as outreach concerts and the annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert.

To learn more about joining the Friends and its many benefits, such as complimentary concert admission, visit give.lynn.edu/friendsoftheconservatory.

The Leadership Society of Lynn University

The Leadership Society is the premier annual giving society for donors who are committed to ensuring a standard of excellence at Lynn for all students. Leadership Society donors make an annual gift of $2,500 or more and have the option of directing their gift to support the Conservatory of Music. Leadership Society donors receive invitations to exclusive events throughout the year that offer opportunities to engage with other Leadership Society donors and university administrators.

Gift Planning

Planned gifts provide important support for the future of Lynn University, its colleges and programs. Your legacy lives on at Lynn University in perpetuity - various options include, but are not limited to, bequests by will, charitable gift annuities and life insurance.

Your contribution to the Conservatory is tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. For additional information, please contact Lisa Miller at 561-237-7745.
