

LYNN UNIVERSITY'S
5th Annual Holiday Concert

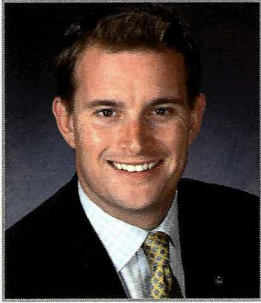

The Gingerbread Concert

presented by
THE BANK OF AMERICA

Dec. 9 – 3 p.m.

Roberts Theater
Saint Andrew's School
Boca Raton, Florida

Welcome!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Lynn University's fifth annual Family Holiday Concert, the Gingerbread Concert. There is no better way to celebrate the holiday season than by sharing the gift of music with family and friends.

This afternoon's program is performed by our superb Conservatory of Music students under the direction of Maestro Jon Robertson, dean of the Conservatory of Music. By attending today's concert, you are benefiting one of the finest conservatories of music within a university environment. Our talented young musicians hail from around the world and, along with their Lynn University classmates, comprise one of the most internationally diverse student bodies in the country.

Today's concert is made possible through the leadership of Pat and Harold Toppel and Margaret Mary and John Shuff. We are grateful to them and all the members of the Friends of the Conservatory of Music for their dedication in making this event one of Boca Raton's most beloved holiday traditions.

Thank you for celebrating the holidays with us and for your support of the Conservatory of Music. From our Lynn University family to yours, happy holidays!

The Friends of the Conservatory of Music

The Friends of the Conservatory of Music is a volunteer, nonprofit organization formed to promote high-quality performance education. To accomplish this, the Friends of the Conservatory of Music has established an endowed scholarship fund for their gifted music students. Through membership dues and special events, this dedicated group has raised significant funds for the conservatory.

You are cordially invited to become a member of the Friends of the Conservatory of Music. For further information, please call 561-237-7467. We look forward to your participation in this worthy endeavor.

Through music, we create more harmonious communities.

Whether they make us laugh, cry or simply smile, the performing arts do much more than merely entertain. Bank of America is proud to sponsor the Lynn University Holiday Concert for giving so much back to the community.

About Lynn University

Lynn University is a private, coeducational university awarding bachelor' and master's degrees. Lynn stresses individualized learning, innovative approaches and an international focus among its students and faculty.

The university currently enrolls more than 2,700 students representing 43 U.S. states and 93 nations. In addition to its colleges of business, international communication, arts and sciences, hospitality management, and education, the university houses specialty programs including the Conservatory of Music, Burton D. Morgan School of Aeronautics, and the Institute for Achievement and Learning, which is an international pioneer in developing successful teaching strategies for students with learning differences. For more information on Lynn, visit www.lynn.edu.

The Conservatory of Music at Lynn University

Serving as a center for the celebration of music, education and cultural life in South Florida, the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University offers South Florida residents more than 70 performances each year by the conservatory's students, alumni, faculty and acclaimed guest artists. The conservatory also serves the region's aspiring musicians and the community-at-large through its Music Preparatory program.

About Our Lynn University Philharmonia Orchestra

The Lynn University Philharmonia Orchestra sets the standard for conservatory level symphonic training. Now in its 16th season as a full symphony, the Philharmonia is an integral part of the education of the conservatory's graduate and undergraduate music students. Each year, the Philharmonia presents a high-quality concert series with a wide range of repertoire. Albert-George Schram is the artistic director and conductor.

Jon Robertson, conductor and soloist

Maestro Jon Robertson, dean of the Conservatory of Music, enjoys a distinguished career as a pianist, conductor and academician. A graduate of The Juilliard School of Music, he studied piano performance under Beveridge Webster, choral conducting with Abraham Kaplan at Juilliard, and orchestral conducting with Richard Pittman of the New England Conservatory of Music. Robertson is music director and conductor of the Redlands Symphony and continues to perform as a pianist in chamber music ensembles.
