Aaron Heine began studying trumpet at the age of 8. Throughout middle school and high school while studying with Brian Stanley, he competed at the county and state-wide level. These included performances such as the Solo and Ensemble competition, and the All-County and All-State wind ensembles. As a member of the Florida Youth Orchestra, he has performed at both the Kennedy Center and Carnegie Hall. He has also played in Side-by-Side concerts with the New World Symphony and with the Virginia Symphony for the 400th Anniversary of the colonization of Jamestown, which the president of the United States attended. For the last three summers he has participated at the Marrowstone Summer Music festival. He currently attends Lynn University and studies with Marc Reese of the Empire Brass Quintet.

Considered as one of the most outstanding pianists of her generation, Yang Shen has given performances in North America, Europe, and Asia to critical accolades. Her performances have been broadcasted on ABC Classics (Australia), the Israel Cultural Channel, WXEL-“Classical Variations” (FL), Minnesota Public Radio and National TV/Radio stations (China); and are described as “most sensitive” with “beautiful tone which enables her exceptional poetic expression in her personal and original way.” As a chamber musician, she has collaborated with members of the New York Philharmonic, the Philadelphia Orchestra, and the Minnesota Orchestra. Ms. Shen holds Doctor of Musical Arts and Master of Music degrees from the University of Southern California, where she studied with the renowned pedagogue John Perry. Currently, Dr. Shen is on the piano faculty of the Lynn Conservatory of Music (Boca Raton, FL) and its Preparatory School of Music.
