In Europe, Nikola Nikolovski has attended trumpet seminars with Guy Touvron (France) and Blagoj Angelovski (Macedonia), students of Maurice Andre, and Henry Andre (France). Nikola has won 14 (fourteen) first awards, one second and one third from international competitions in Italy, Bulgaria, Serbia and Macedonia. In 2001 and 2002 he played in the Young Musicians International Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Igor Correti with performances in Austria, Slovenia and Croatia. He has had many solo performances in Europe; one of his most remembered and important was the one with the Bulgarian Philharmony in 2001.

When Nikola came to the United States in the summer of 2002, he attended the Florida Music Festival. Also, he has attended the Interlochen Arts Camp in summers of 2003 through 2005, and played in the World Youth Symphony Orchestra. In summer 2005 he attended the Interlochen Arts Camp as an Emerson Scholar.

Nikola has three superiors in County State Solo & Ensemble as well as the State Solo & Ensemble. He has participated in the All-State Symphonic Band in 2003-2004, and the Tri-State Band in 2003. He played with the All-County Gold Orchestra in 2002 and 2003. In 2004 he won the Ars Flores Symphony Orchestra concerto competition, and with that honor he played a solo performance with them. In January 2005 he performed at the well-known showcase of the nation's finest young classical musicians "From the Top". Also, he held a principal chair in the Florida Youth Orchestra from 2002-2005. Currently, Nikola is a student of Marc Reese at the Lynn University-Conservatory of Music.
