Teng-Kuan Wang, collaborative pianist born in Taiwan, started to learn piano at six and learned violin at the age of 11. He studied music at Chaiyi Junior High School, majoring in piano and minoring in violin. His junior high trio won first place in a chamber music competition. Mr. Wang advanced on to Chaiyi Senior High School where he received full scholarship. Pursuing his piano and violin studies, Mr. Wang also joined the concert band and played tuba. In 2003, he entered the music department in Soochow University, his major was piano, but he continued to pursue his love for low brass, performing euphonium in the music department's wind orchestra. Mr. Wang's professors include Wei-Long Lee, Sophia Yu, Alexander Sung and John Vaughan. His studies at Soochow University aided in his pursuit of collaborative studies as he often accompanied in students' recitals, performances and competitions. Mr. Wang is a Master candidate at Lynn University Conservatory of Music studying collaborative piano with Lisa Leonard.

Michael Kaiser is from Webster, New York where he graduated from Webster Schroeder High School in 2007. In his senior year of high school, Michael was a member of the Rochester Philharmonic Youth Orchestra where he enjoyed the opportunity to tour to Poland, Slovakia and Hungary. Michael received his Bachelor's Degree in music education with a Performer's Certificate from the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam, where he studied clarinet with Dr. Julianne Kirk. At Crane, he was a member of the Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, Symphony Orchestra and Clarinet Choir. Michael is currently pursuing his Master's in Performance at Lynn Conservatory, studying with Jon Manasse.

Natalie Ardasevova was born and raised in the Czech Republic. Her parents were both pianists and she started to continue her family's musical tradition at the age of six under the coaching of her grandmother, who lectured her in the cello. At the age of 13, she became a student with Martin and Mirko Skampa in Prague. At 17 years old, she transferred to Brno to professor Vaclav Horak, who instructed her until her high school graduation on June 2010. Natalie is now a sophomore at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music, in Boca Raton, Florida, under the tutelage of Professor David Cole.
