Dejan Daskalov was born in Strumica-Republic of Macedonia and started to play the piano when he was 8 years old. He finished his primary and secondary music school in Skopje-Macedonia in the piano studio of Prof. Snezana Anastasova-Cadikovska. Dejan has completed three years of studies in UKIM Conservatory of Music in Skopje, Macedonia, under the guidance of Professor Marija Gjosevska. During his studies in Skopje, he often performed within the Conservatory and in concerts throughout Macedonia, and also including appearances in the music festivals “Skopje Summer” and “Ohrid Summer”. In 2007, Dejan joined Lynn University-Conservatory of Music as a transfer student. His musical experience includes the participation in different national and international music competitions: International piano competition in Shabac, Serbia- First price(winner), and played on the closing concert of the competition; International piano competition “Arthur Rubinstein” Paris, France- second price, and also played on the Grand-closing concert for the competition; International piano competition “Gradus ad Parnassum” Krágujevac, Serbia- third price. Dejan has done a lot of National piano competitions in Skopje and Bitola, Macedonia, and won many 1-st, 2-nd and 3-rd prices. He has played chamber music in a different chamber groups and also as a choir accompanist. He also took part in a Chamber music competition in Shtip, Macedonia and won the 1-st price in the piano duo category. A lot of tours and competitions with choirs are also part of Dejan’s musical experience. He is now student at Lynn University-Conservatory of Music pursuing a Bachelors of Music degree, studying with pianist Dr. Roberta Rust.
