Born in Moldova to a family of musicians, Felicia Besan's passion for music and the arts was nurtured from a young age. Upon deciding to pursue a professional music career, she attended the George Enescu Music Highschool in Bucharest, Romania. Felicia has participated in and won numerous national and international competitions in Romania. A member of the Remember Enescu foundation, she has also toured France, United Kingdom and Italy with the string orchestra Lyceum Strings and the viola ensemble Altissimo. Felicia was invited to perform with the Central European Initiative Youth Orchestra and the Eurochestries festival for two consecutive seasons and was a member of the AIMS Festival orchestra in summer 2011. She performed two concerts as the featured soloist with the Florida Atlantic University Symphony Orchestra and was the winner of their 2008 Concerto Competition. A graduate of Lynn University class of 2011, Felicia is currently pursuing a Performance Certificate degree at Lynn University under the guidance of Ralph Fielding.

Dan Yi began playing piano at the age of four and studied with renowned pianist Professor Zheng Daxin. In 2006, she entered the Sichuan Academy of Music (after previously having attended their middle school) and graduated in 2010. During her school time, she was a frequent collaborative artist with both students and faculty and won the third prize of the Seventh National Electric Piano Competition and the second prize in the "Xinghai Cup" National Piano Competition. She was involved in Xiamen national performances of piano and choral accompaniment, had many collaborations with choral groups, and played with world-famous composers and traditional Chinese musicians. She is presently working towards her Professional Performance Certificate at Lynn University with Dr. Yang Shen.
