Season

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC AT LYNN UNIVERSITY

When talent meets inspiration, the results are extraordinary.

Dr. Jon Robertson,
Dean

Welcome to the 2007-2008 season. As dean of the conservatory, I greet the season with unabated enthusiasm and excitement. The talented musicians and extraordinary performing faculty at Lynn represent the future of the performing arts, and you, the patrons, pave the road to their artistic success through your presence and generosity.

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

THE ANNUAL FUND

A gift to the Annual Fund can benefit scholarships, various studios, special concerts or the general conservatory fund.

THE LEADERSHIP SOCIETY OF LYNN UNIVERSITY

With an annual gift of $2,500 or more during the fiscal year July 1 to June 30, you will be recognized in our new Leadership Society. This premier annual giving society honors donors who recognize the significant impact leadership gifts have in sustaining the excellence of conservatory programs.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate, bequests and/or planned gifts.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Since its establishment in 2003, the Friends of the Conservatory of Music has raised significant funds for the conservatory through membership dues and special events. This dedicated group provides financial support for scholarships and other conservatory needs.

Beyond outstanding music, members of the Friends of the Conservatory also have the pleasure of associating with others who share their enthusiasm for the conservatory and its mission. Members gather through the year for membership meetings and an annual tea on April 9, 2008. Musical programs are provided by the faculty and students for these special events.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, please call the development office at 561-237-7467.

Caleb Jones

Cellist, Caleb Jones has collaborated with many composers and premiered many new works in venues such as the Kennedy Center’s Terrace Theater. Mr. Jones was a featured artist for the “2006 Peabody at Homewood Concert Series” in which he presented an unaccompanied recital that included a composition of his own. In April 2006, Mr. Jones won the “2006 Rising Star Award” from the Howard County Arts Council (MD).

Mr. Jones is a member of the Young Eight, a string octet dedicated to diversifying the classical music audience through its outreach programs and performances. Their recent and upcoming performances include The Kimmel Center (Philadelphia), UW World Series (Seattle), and Raleigh Chamber Music Guild (Raleigh, NC).

Mr. Jones has attended many festivals including Interlochen Arts Camp, in which he was the recipient of the Emerson Scholarship (2003) and selected to participate in the Valade Master Teacher program with violilnist William Preucil and cellist Eric Kim. In the summers of 2005 and 2006, he attended the Music Academy of the West where he studied cello with Alan Stepansky and David Geber and chamber music with Peter Salaff, Jerome Lowenthal, and the Tackacs and Brentano String Quartets. In 2007, he participated in the Beijing International Music Festival and Academy (BIMFA).

Mr. Jones received his high school diploma from the South Carolina Governor’s School for the Arts and Humanities (2003). In 2006, Mr. Jones graduated from the Peabody Institute of The Johns Hopkins University with a Performer’s Certificate. While at Peabody, Mr. Jones was a student of Alan Stepansky and a recipient of the Steven Kates Memorial Scholarship. Mr. Jones is currently attending Lynn University Conservatory of Music where he studies cello with Professor David Cole.
