Biographies

Andrei Bacu, violin

Andrei Bacu began playing the violin at the age of five and at the age of 6 he was accepted in a music primary school in his hometown Constanta, Romania. In 1994, he entered the George Enescu Music High School in Bucharest and in 1998, he was admitted at the Academy of Music in Bucharest. In September 2000, he began his Bachelor of Music degree in Violin Performance at the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University as a student of artist faculty Sergiu Schwartz.

A member of Jeunesses Musicales World Orchestra (Germany), Andrei toured Germany, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, Taiwan, Philippines, Korea, and Japan (1996-1999). He was also a member of the Bucharest National Radio Orchestra (1999-2000) and the Black Sea Symphony Orchestra (1998-2000). In 1998, he participated in the Modern American Music Festival in Romania and received a honorary diploma.

Andrei has participated in a number of music competitions in Romania in the George Georgescu Violin Competition winning first prize, the W.A. Mozart Violin Competition, and the George Enescu Competition. He has performed as soloist with the Black Sea Symphony Orchestra, Bucharest National Radio Orchestra, and has appeared in solo recitals in Romania, Germany, and France.

Tao Lin, piano

A three-time full scholarship student at the Aspen Music Festival, Mr. Lin has worked with a series of distinguished teachers including Joseph Kalichstein, John Perry, Leon Fleisher, Rita Sloan, Stephen Hough, and Vladimir Feltsman. He is a graduate of the Harid Conservatory (where he received the Award for Outstanding Performance) and the University of Miami (where he received Award of Academic Merit), he studied under Ivan Davis and Roberta Rust.

Mr. Lin has recorded for the Piano Lovers record label on which he features works by Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert and Balakirev.
