

LYNN UNIVERSITY CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

2004
2005

SEASON

The Lynn University Conservatory of Music attracts some of the world's most talented young musicians. Here, these student-artists, who hail from more than a dozen countries, pursue their degrees in instrumental performance, preparing to join the world's leading symphony orchestras and most prestigious graduate music programs.

To build upon our excellence, we need your help. You may support the Conservatory of Music by contributing to scholarships, the development of new programs or other student needs. You may assist the conservatory the following ways:

THE ANNUAL FUND

A gift to the Annual Fund can be designated for scholarships, various studios, special concerts or to the General Conservatory Fund.

ESTATE GIFT

An estate gift will provide for the conservatory in perpetuity. Your estate gift may be made as a gift of appreciated stock, real estate or cash.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSERVATORY

As a member of the Friends of the Conservatory, you will be involved in an organization that seeks to address the needs of the students and the conservatory as a whole. This organization has just completed its first year and now includes more than 100 members providing major scholarship assistance to the students.

VOLUNTEERING

Become a volunteer. Contact the Ticket Office Manager at 561-237-9000 for more information.

Your contribution to the conservatory is tax-deductible. For additional information, you may call the development office at 561-237-7766, or visit the university's Web site at www.lynn.edu.

Luis Sandoval, flute

Flutist Luis Sandoval has performed with the Colombia Youth Symphony, the Bogota Philharmonic, the Opera of Colombia, Broward Symphony Orchestra, the Philharmonia Orchestra of the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida, and the Virtuosi Camerata, in Florida, among others. He has also appeared in International Jazz Festivals in Bogota, performing his brother's music.

Luis began studies in both music and civil engineering at the National University in his native Colombia. After his sophomore year in engineering, he devoted himself to the flute and completed a Bachelor's Degree (Summa Cum Laude) in flute performance. At the same time, he became interested in folklore dances and theater, joining a group that took him to International Festivals in France and Venezuela and onto National Television in Mexico.

Luis was awarded an "Arts Scholarship" by the Miami Dade Community College where he studied sound recording, jazz improvisation, and flute. While in Miami, he performed with the "Actors Playhouse," the "South Florida Composers Alliance," "PACE" (Performing Arts for Community and Education,) and established a duo with pianist Linda Charlton, in addition to engagements with his Latin Jazz band "Fonopsis."

Currently, Luis is in his second year of Professional Studies in Flute at the Lynn University Conservatory of Music with Artist Faculty Ms. Christina Burr.
